Defendant.

Case No: 2:22-CR-0087-KJM

STIPULATION AND [proposed] ORDER TO EXTEND SELF-SURRENDER DATE

Chief Judge Kimberly J. Mueller

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED and requested by and between the parties through their respective counsel, MATTHEW THUESEN, Assistant United States Attorney, attorney for the GOVERNMENT, and RACHELLE BARBOUR, attorney for Defendant, AARON ASHCRAFT, Defendant, that the self-surrender date set for Tuesday, August 15, 2023, be continued to Wednesday, August 30, 2023, by 2:00 p.m.

Mr. Ashcraft suffers from a genetic bone disorder called Osteochondroma Exostosis. (PSR, para. 75.) That disorder caused the progressive growth of additional bone in his left knee. That growth pressed on nerves and blood vessels, causing pain, numbness, and difficulty walking. Mr. Ashcraft received two orthopedic surgeries to address this condition in June and July 2023. Due to the schedule of the treating surgeon, the surgeries were delayed by two weeks, and Mr. Ashcraft is still on crutches and receiving prescription pain medication. Mr. Ashcraft requires additional time to recover and requests that his self-surrender date be continued by two weeks so that he does not enter BOP on crutches needing additional treatment and pain medication.

The Government has notified defense counsel that it has no opposition to this request.
