UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Order of Continuance

v.

20 Mag. 2482

HERODE CHANCY,
MICHAEL ALBARELLA
and ADEDAYO ILORI,

Defendants.

----------X

Upon the application of the United States of America and the affirmation of Cecilia E. Vogel, Assistant United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, it is found that the defendants were charged with violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1343, 1349, 1208A, 1956(h), 215(a) in a complaint dated March 3, 2020, and the defendants were arrested on March 4, 2020;

It is further found that on March 4, 2020, the defendants were presented before Magistrate Judge Kevin Nathaniel Fox and released on bail, and each defendant waived his right to be charged in an indictment or information for 30 days;

It is further found that the Government has requested a continuance of 30 days in light of the ongoing corona virus pandemic and national emergency and that the defendants, through counsel, have each consented that such a continuance may be granted for that purpose and have each specifically waived their right to be charged in an indictment or information for an additional 30 days; and

It is further found that the granting of such a continuance best serves the ends of justice and outweighs the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial; and therefore it is ORDERED that the request for a continuance pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) is hereby granted until May 4, 2020, and that a copy of this Order and the affirmation of Assistant United States Attorney Cecilia E. Vogel be served by email on this date on counsel for the defendants by the United States Attorney's Office.

Affirmation in Support of Application for Order of Continuance

20 Mag. 2482

State of New York)
County of New York : ss.:
Southern District of New York)

CECILIA E. VOGEL, pursuant to Title 28, United States Code, Section 1746, hereby declares under penalty of perjury:

1. I am an Assistant United States Attorney in the Office of Geoffrey S. Berman, United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York. I submit this affirmation in support of an application for an order of continuance of the time within which an indictment or information would otherwise have to be filed, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A).

2. The defendants were charged in a complaint dated March 3, 2020, with violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1343, 1349, 1208A, 1956(h), 215(a). The defendants were arrested on March 4, 2020, and presented before Magistrate Judge Kevin Nathaniel Fox that same day. Each of the defendants was released on bail and each defendant waived his right to be charged in an indictment or information for 30 days.

3. Under the Speedy Trial Act, the Government currently has until April 3, 2020, within which to file an indictment or information.

4. Ian Marcus Amelkin, Esq., counsel for defendant Herode Chancy, David Wikstrom, Esq. counsel for defendant Michael Albarella, and Brooke Cucinella, Esq., counsel for defendant Adedayo Ilori, have each consented to the Government's request of a 30-day continuance of the April 3, 2020 deadline to file an indictment or information under the Speedy Trial Act in light of the ongoing corona virus pandemic and national emergency.

5. Therefore, the Government is requesting, with the consent of defense counsel for each of the defendants, a 30-day continuance until May 4, 2020. For the reasons stated above, the ends of justice served by the granting of the requested continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and defendants in a speedy trial.
