United States District Judge
Southern District of New York
500 Pearl St.
New York, NY, 10007

Re: United States v. Ilori, No. 20-cr-378 (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Liman:

I represent defendant Adedayo Ilori in the above-captioned action. As the Court is aware, Mr. Ilori's sentencing is currently scheduled for November 8 at 11 am. We have been proactively involved in discussions with the Government relating to Mr. Ilori's most recent arrest, and respectfully request—with the Government's consent—an adjournment of at least 30 days. This adjournment will provide time for us to sufficiently prepare for the sentencing and draft a supplemental sentencing letter, if needed. Among other things, I intend to have a mental health professional evaluate Mr. Ilori ahead of the sentencing hearing to provide more context for Mr. Ilori's history and characteristics set forth in our September 29, 2021 sentencing memorandum. An adjournment will allow us to coordinate such an evaluation, which presents logistical hurdles because Mr. Ilori is currently incarcerated. In addition, the parties are in ongoing conversations about the Government's production of certain discovery to Mr. Ilori and myself, which I have not yet received and will need adequate time to review before the hearing. We will keep the Court updated on our progress.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Brooke Cucinella
