Re: United States v. Adedayo Ilori
20 Cr. 378 (LJL)

Dear Judge Liman:

This letter is respectfully submitted on behalf of defendant Adedayo Ilori (“Ilori”) in response to the Court’s August 11, 2023 Order (Order”). Ilori agrees that a “further written order” as described in the Order is sufficient to remedy the the mistaken pronouncement at sentencing. However, he wishes to speak to his appellate attorney before fully consenting to the issuance of the further order. I have spoken to Ilori’s appellate attorney, Elizabeth M. Johnson, and she informed me that she also agrees that the error can be corrected through the issuance of the written order. However, I have not yet heard directly from Ilori regarding his conversation with Ms. Johnson about this issue.

For this reason, I respectfully request that the Court allow me to supplement this letter within one week of today to allow for conformation of Ilori’s consent to the proposed procedure. I apologize for any inconvenience created by this delay. Thank you for Your Honor’s consideration.

Very truly yours,
