Re: United States v. Adedayo Ilori 21 Cr. 746 (MKV)

Dear Judge Vyskocil:

This letter is respectfully submitted on behalf of the defendant, Adedayo Ilori, to request a brief adjournment of the sentencing, currently scheduled to take place before Your Honor on January 31, 2023. The adjournment is necessary because Mr. Ilori was recently transferred to FMC Devens and thus, when I went to the MDC to meet with him and discuss the presentence investigation report prepared by the Probation Department, I was unable to meet with him and therefore, I have not had an opportunity to respond to the PSR or to prepare a sentencing submission on behalf of Mr. Ilori. I understand that Mr. Ilori is being brought back to the MDc and may be there as early as today, but my schedule will not allow me to visit with him before late next week.

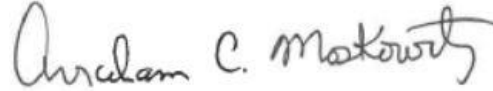

In light of the above, it is respectfully requested that the sentencing of Mr. Ilori be adjourned for approximately two weeks, to the week of February 13. During that week I am available on the afternoons of February 13 and 14 and any time on February 15 and 16. If those dates are not convenient for the Court, I am also available beginning the second week in March, after I complete a trial before Judge Rakoff, that is scheduled to begin on February 21 and go for two weeks.

I have discussed the requested extension with AUSA Murray who informed me that the Government has no objection to the request.
