Re: United States v. Adedayo Ilori 21 Cr. 746 (MKV)

Dear Judge Vyskocil:

This letter is respectfully submitted on behalf of the defendant, Adedayo Ilori, to request a brief adjournment of the sentencing, currently scheduled to take place before Your Honor on May 8, 2023. The adjournment is necessary for two reasons. First, I am unavailable on the morning of May 8, because I am needed to accompany my 94 year old father to an important doctor's appointment that was recently scheduled and cannot be postponed. Additionally, I received the Government's sentencing submission on May 1, provided a copy to my client earlier today and he informed me that he needs some time to review the submission and consult with me about potential responses to the Government's arguments.

In light of the above, it is respectfully requested that the Court adjourn Mr. Ilori's sentencing to a date during the weeks of May 15 or May 22 convenient to the Court and the parties. In that regard, Ms. Murray advised me that the Government is available any time during the week of May 15, with the exception of the afternoon of May 15. I am available any time during those two weeks, with the exception of the morning of May 24 and all day on May 26.

I have discussed the requested extension with AUSA Murray who informed me that the Government has no objection to the request.

Thank you in advance for your consideration of this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Avraham C. Moskowitz
