Re: United States v. Adedayo Ilori, 21 Cr. 746 (MKV)

Dear Judge Vyskocil:

The Government respectfully writes, with the consent of newly appointed defense counsel, Elena Fast, Esq., to update the Court as to the timing of defendant Adedayo Ilori's arrival in this District and, relatedly, to request an adjournment of next week's status conference and the exclusion of time.

First, the Government understands from the U.S. Marshals Service that Ilori is scheduled to arrive in this District on or about June 11, 2026. Second, since Ilori will not be here yet at the time of the next status conference on May 28, 2026 at 10 a.m., the parties respectfully request that the Court adjourn the status conference to June 12 or 15-19. Since defense counsel will be unable to attend an in-Court conference beginning on June 22 for about two weeks, the parties respectfully request that the Court schedule the conference on the requested dates, if feasible for the Court.

Third, with the consent of the defendant, the Government respectfully requests that the Court exclude time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), from May 28, 2026, through and including the date of the next conference, and submits that an exclusion of time under 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) would serve the ends of justice and outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy retrial because it would allow for the defendant's transportation to this District, new counsel's retrial preparation, and the parties to engage in discussions regarding a potential resolution of the matter without the need for a retrial.

Respectfully submitted,
