Dear Judge, Joun,

I hope this letter finds you well. My name is Ferlende Simpson, and I am writing to you as the 2nd younger sister out of our parents' four children, regarding Adiana Pierre, whom I have known for 37 years.

Allow me to share with you the remarkable character of Ms. Pierre whom we affectionately call Addi. Throughout our lives, Addi has exemplified generosity, kindness, and a radiant spirit that has left an indelible mark on all who have had the privilege of knowing her. Her infectious smile has the power to brighten even the darkest of rooms, and her unwavering compassion knows no bounds.

Growing up, I always looked up to Addi as a role model. Despite facing her adversities, she exuded an unparalleled sense of optimism and joy. Her intelligence, coupled with her boundless energy, propelled her to the top of her high school class, where she not only excelled academically but also served as a source of inspiration for her peers. Addi's bubbly spirit and genuine desire to see others succeed were evident in her tireless efforts to uplift those around her.

One instance that stands out to me is when Addi came to my aid during a period of financial hardship. I found myself unemployed and struggling to make ends meet, unable to afford necessities such as rent and car payments. Without hesitation, Addi selflessly put down a deposit on an apartment for me and covered three months of my overdue car payments. She never once asked for repayment, instead dedicating herself to assisting me in finding employment. Every morning, she would wake me up, ensuring we went job hunting together, providing unwavering support and encouragement every step of the way.

Moreover, I have witnessed firsthand Addi's commitment to helping others achieve their goals. Whether it be rehearsing interview questions, tutoring for exams, or simply lending a listening ear, Addi's generosity knows no bounds. Despite juggling her responsibilities as a mother and employee, she always prioritizes the needs of others, putting their well-being above her own.

Addi's dedication extends to her role as a mother, where she ensures that her children, Carter, and Payton, receive the love, support, and opportunities they need to thrive academically and personally. Both Carter and Payton excel in school, thanks to Addi's unwavering commitment to their education and personal development.

In addition to her role as a devoted mother, Addi is also a valued employee, admired by her colleagues and superiors for her exceptional work ethic and friendly demeanor. Her upcoming pursuit of a EdD in Leadership and Instructional Practice Program is a testament to her ambition and dedication to furthering her education and career.

In conclusion, Judge Joun, I implore you to consider the exemplary character and contributions of Adiana Pierre. She is a beacon of hope and inspiration to all who know her, and her future is bright with endless possibilities. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Ferlende Simpson

Dear Judge Joun,

I hope this letter finds you well. My name is Beline Billini, and I am writing to you regarding my sister, Adiana Pierre. As her younger sister out of our parents' four children, I have known Addi for 35 years. Addi has always been more than just a sister to me; she has been a guiding light in my life. She inspires me to be a better person and has always encouraged me to pursue my dreams.

Throughout the years, Addi has demonstrated unwavering support and compassion towards me, especially during times when my anxiety felt overwhelming. She has been there for me during panic attacks, offering comfort and reassurance that I can overcome any challenge that comes my way. One of the qualities that I admire most about Addi is her dedication to her family, particularly her children, Payton and Carter. Watching her raise her children has been nothing short of remarkable. Addi's involvement in their lives and her commitment to their future is truly inspirational.

She instills in them the values of leadership, resourcefulness, and kindness, traits that she embodies herself. Addi's compassionate nature extends beyond her immediate family. She is always willing to lend a helping hand to those in need, whether it's through offering prayers or providing practical assistance. Her generosity knows no bounds, and she is always available to listen and offer support to anyone who reaches out to her. Moreover, Addi's warmth and positivity radiate to everyone she encounters.

Her infectious smile and friendly demeanor have a way of brightening up even the darkest of days. She is a beacon of light wherever she goes, spreading joy and optimism to those around her.

In conclusion, Addi Pierre is not only a loving sister but also a remarkable individual who embodies the qualities of compassion, resilience, and kindness. She has touched the lives of countless people, including mine, and I am grateful to have her as my sister. Thank you for taking the time to read this letter.

Warm regards,

Beline Billini

Dear Judge,

My mom is a good provider for me and my sister. she helps us grow to be young men and women by teaching us about the word of God. She also teaches us how to be respectful to adults and everyone around us by saying yes, sir or no, sir. My mom is always working when she has to work. She makes time to play games with us like Uno by the way I always win. When my mom is short on money and I want something she gets it for me. She makes me feel safe like If I was scared of a nightmare, and she comforts me. My mom is not selfish because if I wanted some of her food, she would give it to me even if she was really hungry. My mom tries because of us she's single and still tries. My mom is a good listener, even if she knows you're wrong. My mom tries to keep us out the hood so we grow up good children. She disciplines us because she loves us. My mom is very supportive when I'm playing sports. She is the only person I can hear because of how loud she cheers for me and I love it! My mom does so much for me. I can't even explain it. I am just filled with joy to have her as my mom. The closer she is to me the more courage I have she is that one person who impacts my life.

Dear Judge,

My Mom is really the only parent who provides for us. My Mom has been there for me and my little brother. She tells me she loves me and she also makes me feel safe when I'm scared. My Mom is a great mom because she shows that she loves me because she sacrifices a lot for me and my brother. My Mom puts me in a good environment where she knows I can be safe, learn, and grow. I love my mom so much, she always listens to me no matter what. My mom is always there even through the tough times. When we are going through tough times, she still makes time to spend with me and my little brother. My Mom also teaches me about God, which shows me how to love God. My Mom is one of the most selfless person I ever met because she always puts herself to the side for everyone else. Even though my mom is single she is doing the best, and that is more than enough for me. I love when my mom is home with me because that makes me feel safe. In conclusion my mom has been the best mom she can ever be.

Dear Honorable Joun

I am writing this letter to serve as a character reference for Adiana Pierre, who I have known for the past five years in both a personal and professional capacity. I understand that Adiana is appearing before you in court, and I believe it is important to provide insight into her character and integrity.

In the time that I have known Adiana, I have found her to be a person of exceptional character, integrity, and moral fiber. She is a dedicated individual who approaches all aspects of her life with a strong sense of responsibility and honesty. Adiana consistently demonstrates a high level of respect towards others and is known for her kindness, compassion, and willingness to help those in need.

Professionally, Adiana has always displayed a strong work ethic and a commitment to excellence in everything she does. She is a reliable and trustworthy individual who can be counted on to fulfill her obligations with diligence and precision. Adiana's attention to detail and problem-solving skills have always impressed me, and I have no doubt that she approaches her legal matters with the same level of dedication and professionalism.

In her personal life, Adiana is a caring and supportive friend who goes out of her way to help those around her. She is a person of great moral character and is always willing to lend a listening ear or offer a helping hand whenever needed. Adiana's positive attitude and genuine concern for others make her a valued member of any community.

I firmly believe that Adiana Pierre is a person of great integrity and moral character, and I have full confidence in her ability to learn from any mistakes and continue to contribute positively to society. I hope that you will take this letter into consideration when evaluating Adiana's character and making your decision.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Patrick D. Hampton

Dear Judge Joun,

I, Teacher Oshowo, am the Resident Pastor of Glorious Life Outreach Worldwide (GLOW) and have been since September 2007. Glorious Life Outreach Worldwide is a 30 year-long family ministry whose headquarters and global impact first launched from Lagos, Nigeria.

With the assistance of Adiana Pierre (Ms. Pierre), I established strong ties and commitments in both America and abroad by prioritizing the study of the Word of God, locating great mentors to glean from, strategically praying, and devoting time to create disciples, Ms. Pierre being one of them.

After spending several months coordinating an international prayer group to interceded for the United States 2020 Presidential Election, I founded the International Prayer Calls (IPC) in 2021. IPC is a 24/7 prayer network devoted to fostering individual and collective prayer commitments for the advancement of our faith in the will of God. I also authored and released an international book titled, The Power of Divine Partnership in Marriages, in September 2021. This book practically teaches God's mandate for marriage and family. It empowers men and women to intentionally sow the benefits of following God's design for marriage into their children and communities.

When I first encountered Ms. Pierre in 2020, I knew immediately that her distinguished characteristics and gifts were special and meant for the utilization of guidance for those within her family, community and nation.

Over the last four years, Ms. Pierre has made it her personal obligation to advance the ministerial impact of GLOW in several capacities. Her leadership experience in the work force has contributed to the organization and evolvment of the ministry, her measure of generosity has contributed towards hundreds of GLOW branded Bibles shipped to multiple states in North America including Washington, D.C., Pennsylvania and North Carolina. Ms. Pierre's voice has also been a powerful instrument to set the ministry's atmosphere for pure worship.

Ms. Pierre has been and continues to share invaluable life lessons with the younger women and families within the ministry. She has authored a children's book titled, 7 Days of Creation (A Heart of a Child Series) to teach children the Biblical perspective of Earth's beginning and the importance of communion with God. She also multi-collaborated a book titled, Courageous Steps of Faith (With God All Things Are Possible), which provide various examples of astonishing women who through faith, persistently strived to fulfil lives of great accomplishments in Jesus Christ.

Judge Joun, it is my prayer that Ms. Adiana Pierre finds favor in your sight, just as she has found within ours.

Yours in His Eternal Purpose,

Teacher Oshowo

Two: the church of God ark of Noah

A: Ms. Adiana Pierre.

Today we, the members of the Noah's Ark church committee, greet you in the name of Jesus Christ.

We feel it is necessary to ask you to congratulate you for all your efforts to help us build the great temple, so that the people could find a place to worship the living God.

Because you spent a lot of money to take us out of the sun and rain, I hope that God will bless you very much our sister in Jesus Christ. We and all the members of the church will always help you pray for all your efforts to remove us from this bitter suffering.

Receive our greetings indistinctly.

Signed: Reverend Pastor Herard Jean-Baptiste.

Two: Joye Pousen school in Janrabél commune.

A: Ms. Pierre Adiana.

We, the members of the joyous school committee, feel we have immense joy to greet you in the name of Jesus Christ.

Today we take advantage of this opportunity, to show you our gratitude to you for the way you started with us in the construction of the school, so that you can remove children who do not have a mother or father to help them go to school. Although you have started with the construction, we hope you will continue to help us finish it in style.

So we congratulate and ask you for your will and determination towards these children who were left in the ri without going to school.

Thank you dear madam for your support, receive our greetings.

Signed: Ymonet Fortunat director.
