Hi Alexandra,

BlueVine has qualified you for the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP), and we'll submit your application to the Small Business Administration (SBA) for processing. No further action is required by you at this time.

What happens next?

- Once the SBA begins accepting applications from us, it may take up to 8 business days or more for them to complete their review. Approval and processing times are entirely dependent on the SBA.
- Once the SBA provides a decision on your loan, we'll notify you immediately. If approved, you will need to log in to your BlueVine dashboard to accept the offer for your loan.
- We'll contact you by email to let you know the status of your application.

Our customer support team is experiencing an unprecedented number of calls. We discourage phone calls about your application's status at this time, as we do not have additional information.

Paycheck Protection Program ("PPP") loans are made by one or more approved U.S. Small Business Administration ("SBA") lenders. Loan agreements identify the issuing lender to small businesses at signing. Qualified applications are submitted to the SBA as soon as possible. BlueVine does not guarantee that applications will be processed and submitted before PPP funds are no longer available. Approval and loan forgiveness are subject to your ability to meet government-set eligibility requirements.

The BlueVine Team

Rates for the Paycheck Protection Program ("PPP") are at 1%. PPP loans are made by one or more approved U.S. Small Business Administration ("SBA") lenders. Loan agreements will identify the appropriate lender to small businesses at signing. Funds are limited, and may not be available at this time. Once funds are available, qualified applications will be submitted to the SBA. BlueVine does not guarantee that applications will be processed and submitted before PPP funds are no longer available. There are no fees for applying for PPP. Approval and loan forgiveness are subject to your ability to meet government-set eligibility requirements.
