To Whomever This May Concern:

This is my personal recommendation of Alexandra Acosta. I am an eleven year deputy with the Broward Sheriff's Office, police trainer and have been one of only three class supervisors at the Broward College Police Academy for the past three years. For six months, while at the police academy, I supervised Alexandra on a daily basis while she was training to be a police officer.

Alexandra has a positive attitude in everything she does, regardless of the level of challenge. Even with the stress of the academic and physical requirements of the Academy, she kept a smile on her face, encouraging attitude towards her peers and a strong work ethic. Her academic GPA was the highest of 26 cadets in the 285th Academy, and she scored very highly on the physical profile as well. Alexandra was well respected by her classmates and by the instructors, served as her class president, and frequently took leadership roles when the company commander was unable to do so.

Based on my experience supervising Alexandra I give her my strong personal recommendation. Please contact me if I can be of any help. Thank you.

Sincerely,

To whom it may concern:

I am currently a Corporal at the Lighthouse Point Police department and I would like to recommend Alex Acosta as a candidate for a position within your department.

Alex is an extremely dedicated and responsible worker. She has excellent verbal and communication skills, can work independently and can multi-task ensuring that all assignments are completed in a timely and efficient manner. During her time at the Lighthouse Point Police Department, she always exhibited a professional work ethic. She was extremely courteous and got along well with others.

Alex has built and maintained an excellent rapport within our department. I have no doubt that she will be a great asset to any department that she becomes a part of. I strongly recommend her for any endeavor that she chooses to pursue.

To Whom It May Concern:

I worked for the New York Police Department for 20 years and was detached to the DEA for 14 years. I have currently been working for the Lighthouse Point Police Department for six and a half years. I feel that I am qualified to give a recommendation based on my law enforcement experience. I have known Alex Acosta since she began working as a Station House Officer at the Lighthouse Point PD.

Alex is a very hard working individual who is always a pleasure to be around. As a dispatcher, she always did her best to complete any assignment I asked for in a timely fashion. She also helped gather information to help with my assignments as a patrol officer. Alex was always willing to help with any tasks to make our job easier as officers.

During her time in Lighthouse Point, Alex had the opportunity to participate in several ride-a-longs with me. She assisted in querying and identifying expired tags that lead to citations. She already has a keen sense for observing things that law enforcement officers should notice and is a very smart individual.

Alex would be an asset to your department. I feel that if given the opportunity she would excel as a Deputy Sheriff and do an excellent job representing the Broward Sheriff's Office. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Carmen Roldan
