

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA
ATLANTA DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

v.

AMANDA CHRISTIAN,

Defendant.

CRIMINAL ACTION NO.
1:20-CR-296-JPB-CMS-09

ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on Amanda Christian's Unopposed Motion to Extend Time to Report to Designated Bureau of Prisons Facility Due to Her Sister's Serious Medical Condition [Doc. 615]. On September 13, 2022, this Court sentenced Defendant to forty-one months' custody and ordered her to report to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons as notified by the United States Marshal within ninety days from the date of judgment. [Doc. 569]. Defendant has not yet been notified of a report date.

In the instant Motion, Defendant explains that her sister was diagnosed with a serious medical condition in October 2022 and that she relies on Defendant for transportation to medical procedures. [Doc. 615, p. 3]. Defendant is her sister's only source of transportation until March 13, 2023, at which time Defendant's nephews can fill that role. Id. Defendant thus requests that she be permitted to self-surrender to the appropriate institution no earlier than March 13, 2023. Id. at 3–4. The Government is not opposed to the Motion.

For good cause shown, the Court therefore GRANTS the Unopposed Motion to Extend Time to Report to Designated Bureau of Prisons Facility [Doc. 615]. Defendant’s report date is HEREBY CONTINUED to a date no earlier than March 13, 2023.

SO ORDERED this 4th day of January, 2023.

J. P. BOULEE
United States District Judge
