24 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
25 ATLANTA, GEORGIA

1 (PROCEEDINGS HELD IN OPEN COURT AT 10:10 AM, ATLANTA, GEORGIA)

2 COURTROOM DEPUTY CLERK: This is the case of USA v.
3 Charles Petty, Case Number 20-CR-296, Defendant 12.

4 MR. KITCHENS: Good morning, your Honor. Nathan
5 Kitchens on behalf of the government. I'm here with AUSA Tal
6 Chaiken as well.

7 THE COURT: Good to see both of you.

8 MR. SHEPPARD: Kenneth Sheppard on behalf of 9 Mr. Petty, who is present in the courtroom.

10 THE COURT: Good to see both of you as well.

11 Mr. Petty pled guilty on November 2nd of last year to 12 Count 9 of the second superseding indictment for conspiracy to 13 commit bank fraud and wire fraud.

14 In accordance with Rule 32 of the Federal Rules of 15 Criminal Procedure the United States Probation Office has 16 conducted a presentence investigation and prepared a
17 presentence report, a copy of which has been provided to both 18 the government and the defense.

19 Mr. Sheppard, have you and your client had the 20 opportunity to read and discuss the presentence report?

21 MR. SHEPPARD: Yes, we have.

22 THE COURT: Do you have any questions about the 23 presentence report or any amendments now other than what's 24 been previously filed?

25 MR. SHEPPARD: We do not.

1 THE COURT: It appears from the record that there are 2 no objections to the findings of fact or conclusions of law in 3 the presentence report by the government or the defendant, is 4 that correct?

5 MR. KITCHENS: That is correct, your Honor.

6 MR. SHEPPARD: That is correct, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: I will adopt the findings of fact and
8 conclusions of law in the presentence report to which no
9 objection has been made.

10 Based on the findings of fact and conclusions of law
11 the guideline calculations are as follows:

12 Base offense level of 7;

13 Adjusted offense level of 24;

14 Total offense level of 21;

15 Criminal History Category of III;

16 Recommended sentencing range of 46 to 57 months;

17 Fine guideline range of $15,000 to $1,660,834;

18 Term of supervised release of 2 to 5 years;

19 Special assessment of $100.

20 Any objection to the guideline calculations as stated
21 by the Court?

22 MR. KITCHENS: No, your Honor.

23 MR. SHEPPARD: No, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: I will now hear from the parties as to 25 recommendations for a reasonable sentence considering the 18

1 USC, Section 3553(a) factors. I have reviewed the presentence
2 report.

3 Any other documents or letters for the Court from 4 either side?

5 MR. KITCHENS: Not from the government, your Honor.

6 MR. SHEPPARD: Not from the defense, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Are there any victims present that wish
8 to speak or present evidence in connection with the sentence
9 in this case?

10 MR. KITCHENS: No, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Any witnesses on behalf of the defendant?

12 MR. SHEPPARD: No, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Sheppard, would you like to make any 14 argument on behalf of your client regarding sentencing?

15 MR. SHEPPARD: Only that -- yes. Would you like the 16 argument now?

17 THE COURT: Yes. Go ahead.

18 MR. SHEPPARD: Your Honor, we had met with the state
19 extensively. We did a proffer where we have provided
20 information but none of it was sufficient to get us a 5K.

21 The United States Attorneys and I met extensively on 22 this case and discussed everything about the case. And we 23 jointly agree that the appropriate sentence -- I'm not going 24 to say that.

25 I have agreed that the appropriate sentence is

1 46 months. And we are asking the Court to sentence Mr. Petty
2 to the low end of the guideline range, 46 months.

3 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Counsel.

4 Mr. Petty, I've had the benefit of hearing from your 5 counsel, but if there's anything you would like to personally
6 say before I sentence you, I would be happy to hear from you
7 now, sir.

8 MR. SHEPPARD: We do have a post-sentencing request
9 as to placement.

10 THE COURT: What is that?

11 MR. SHEPPARD: Your Honor, we're asking that -- 12 recommend that he be placed at the satellite prison camp by 13 Miami. The reason why is there is an RDAP program there. And 14 his wife will be working in that area. So we are asking for 15 SCP Miami.

16 THE COURT: SCP Miami, correct?

17 MR. SHEPPARD: That's the information I have, your 18 Honor.

19 THE COURT: Any objection to that from the 20 government?

21 MR. KITCHENS: No objection, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Petty, I know you asked your counsel
23 to make that request, but anything else you would like to say?

24 THE DEFENDANT: No, that's it, just reiterating what 25 he said. The biggest thing about getting to that location is

1 the RDAP program which will help, and they have a few other
2 programs there. I think it's officially FCI Miami. It's 3 either designation but it's the camp there. So it's listed as 4 SCP Miami or FCI Miami camp.

5 Like I said, my wife will be down there working, that
6 means I can have more access to my children and stepchildren
7 while I'm down there. Other than that, I'm fine.

8 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Petty.

9 And does the government wish to respond?

10 MR. KITCHENS: Yes, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Go ahead.

12 MR. KITCHENS: The government also agrees with the 13 recommendation of 46 months. That is the low end of the 14 guidelines and we think it is appropriate that the defense
15 recommended that as well.

16 We think that ultimately that 46-month sentence at 17 the low end appropriately accounts for his conduct after he 18 was charged in this case as well as his history and 19 characteristics. And we'll talk about that in just a little 20 bit.

21 But the guideline sentence is necessary in our view
22 because of the seriousness of the offense and the need for 23 deterrence in this case.

24 In terms of the seriousness of the offense, I think 25 there's two aspects of this. One, and certainly the Court is

1 well familiar with, which is just the nature of the overall
2 scheme, targeting a government aid program at a time of 3 crisis.

4 The defendant and his co-conspirators exploited this 5 COVID relief fund near the onset of the pandemic that
6 ultimately wrecked the economy. And the dollar amount here --
7 for each dollar that was essentially obtained in this loan,
8 that was an additional dollar that was not available to 9 companies that were truly in need and in dire straits trying 10 to make ends meet as the economy collapsed through the 11 pandemic. This was greed plain and simple by the defendant
12 and his co-conspirators. And they did so at a time of 13 national crisis.

14 The second aspect of this is that the defendant, as 15 is reflected in the guidelines in the PSR, was in a leadership
16 role, and that's a little bit different than some of the other 17 defendants that we've seen previously in this case. He was 18 not someone who was the direct loan applicant and provided his 19 information for one of his companies to apply for a loan. He 20 was someone that helped essentially in the middle to work with 21 people that were higher up in the chain and communicated
22 instructions to the loan recipient, Bern Benoit. By doing so,
23 I think that reflected a level of sophistication beyond just 24 your normal loan applicant.

25 Mr. Petty's role, and he knew exactly what he was

1 doing, was providing specific instructions about how the
2 proceeds of that PPP loan should be distributed to other
3 co-conspirators within the scheme. That is different. I
4 think it reflects the seriousness of the defendant's role in 5 that offense. And that is, again, appropriately accounted for 6 in the guidelines. He received a three-level increase in the 7 guidelines which had a significant effect in his overall
8 guideline range here.

9 I think really the overriding factor, however, with 10 Mr. Petty is the need for deterrence given the nature of the 11 crime. We've talked I think previously in this matter the 12 need for general deterrence, and that certainly is the case
13 given the nature of white collar fraud crime in general and 14 the Eleventh Circuit authority noting the importance of 15 general deterrence. But also, of course, specifically with 16 PPP loan fraud, the truth of the matter is that it is grossly
17 under prosecuted just simply because there was such massive 18 degrees of fraud that to the extent that we are able to 19 prosecute it and catch people in the act that it's important
20 to send the right message about that being improper conduct.

21 Here I think the most troubling factor, of course, is 22 specific deterrence with Mr. Petty. This is a rare situation
23 where the defendant is not a stranger to this courthouse. He 24 was previously convicted in 2016 for a different bank fraud
25 and wire fraud offense and ultimately sentenced in 2016.

1 I was the prosecutor in that underlying case for
2 Mr. Petty in 2016. And this is a first in my career where
3 I've had a defendant appear again before me. It's something I
4 hope never to be repeated. You hope when we go through this 5 process, and I know the Court has the same goal, that that's 6 the only time we will see that defendant, that they will use
7 the wake-up call from any prison time or whatever to improve
8 their life and have a positive direction.

9 And this honestly is a factor that gave the 10 government the most pause in this case. It certainly should 11 have been a situation where he received a wake-up call. And 12 the fact that he perpetrated new fraud is in many ways just 13 inexcusable and hard to fathom his decisionmaking at the time.

14 Ultimately, however, I think that 46-month sentence
15 is an appropriate recommendation in the guidelines range for 16 several reasons in comparing it to the underlying offense.

17 First, the original fraud scheme, while I don't mean
18 to diminish the seriousness of this fraud, but in some ways it
19 was more serious and concerning. And this is described in 20 part in the PSR in paragraph 105.

21 But the defendant in that case, he stole money from 22 over 65 victims in that case. And, specifically, they were 23 individuals that were seeking a line of credit. Many of those 24 individuals were themselves in fairly desperate situations.
25 In at least one instance they were trying to save their home

1 from going into foreclosure and they reached out based on
2 Mr. Petty's advertisements and tried to get this line of 3 credit. Many of those victims were vulnerable.

4 And while he was on bond in that case, he committed
5 a new offense of bank fraud and basically took someone's
6 identity, applied for a fraudulent bank loan and then obtained
7 money from that while he was on pretrial release.

8 Those were all facts that were extremely concerning 9 to the underlying sentencing court, and he received an 10 appropriately high sentence for that.

11 The second factor I think is that the conduct after 12 charging here I think was much more constructive than what 13 happened the first time Mr. Petty was charged. And, again, I
14 just discussed after that first arrest Mr. Petty's actions
15 while on pretrial release was that he committed a new federal 16 offense of bank fraud. Here, by contrast, after his arrest
17 Mr. Petty essentially immediately reached out to us and 18 expressed not only his interest in an early resolution but 19 also his interest in meeting with us and giving us all the 20 information he had.

21 He did, as Mr. Sheppard described, met with us and 22 provided a full proffer. And he provided, in our view,
23 truthful information in that proffer. We, as Mr. Sheppard
24 noted, are not in the position yet where we think that would 25 rise to the level of substantial assistance, but that is I

1 don't think through any fault of Mr. Petty. He gave us the 2 information of what he had and described his involvement in 3 the offense.

4 The last factor I think that supports the 46-month
5 recommendation from the government is Mr. Petty, this is not 6 the end of the road for him in terms of this underlying
7 arrest. He is after this going to have a separate supervised
8 release revocation hearing. And based on the guidelines, he 9 is facing an additional guideline sentence of potentially more
10 than a year in prison based on that role.

11 That's a proceeding that will take into account the 12 fact that Mr. Petty committed this offense while on supervised
13 release and he will -- it will be the government's 14 recommendation that he should receive additional prison time
15 based on that separate supervised release violation.

16 Overall, we think that 46-month sentence and 17 recommendation in this instant case is the appropriate one in 18 light of Mr. Petty's clear efforts after his arrest to try to 19 essentially make amends, to come clean. And that is 20 encouraging for the government that he hopefully realizes the 21 fault of his ways and trying to do things in a constructive
22 manner to assist the government and to avoid this sort of 23 trouble again.

24 And so we believe that that is the fair result for 25 Mr. Petty. And that it is also the just result given the

1 nature of the offense and his criminal history.

2 THE COURT: Thank you, Counsel.

3 I had forgotten to recognize our probation officer
4 that's here. Good morning.

5 OFFICER RIDLEY: Good morning, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: How are you?

7 OFFICER RIDLEY: I'm doing well. How are you?

8 THE COURT: I'm well. Thank you.

9 Is there any other matter that the Court needs to 10 take up or anything else from either side before I announce
11 the sentence in this case?

12 MR. KITCHENS: Not from the government, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: And what about from the defense?

14 Anything else, Mr. Sheppard?

15 MR. SHEPPARD: No, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

17 Officer Ridley, do you know which -- what the camp
18 is called exactly in Miami? I want to get it right for the 19 record.

20 OFFICER RIDLEY: I believe it's FCI Miami.

21 THE COURT: What's that?

22 OFFICER RIDLEY: FCI Miami.

23 THE COURT: Thank you.

24 Mr. Petty, if you could please stand, sir.

25 Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it's

1 the judgment of the Court that you, Charles Petty, are hereby
2 committed to the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons to 3 be imprisoned for a term of 46 months custody as to Count 9.

4 I'm going to read additional portions of your
5 sentence, but you can have a seat for that part, sir.

6 You must pay to the United States a special
7 assessment of $100 due immediately. The assessment should be 8 paid to the Clerk, US District Court, Northern District of 9 Georgia.

10 The Court finds that you do not have the ability to 11 pay a fine or cost of incarceration. The Court will waive the 12 fine and cost of incarceration in this case.

13 It's further ordered that you shall make restitution
14 in the amount of $830,417 jointly and severally with Darrell
15 Thomas, Bern Benoit, Jerry Baptiste, Teldrin Foster,
16 Denesseria Slaton and Amanda Christian for distribution to 17 the following victims:

18 Cross River Bank, $805,504.49;

19 US Small Business Administration, $24,912.51.

20 Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. You
21 must pay the above-noted financial penalties in accordance 22 with the schedule of payment sheet of the judgment. Payment
23 of criminal monetary penalties is due during the period of 24 imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties except those 25 payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons Inmate

1 Financial Responsibility Program are to be made payable to the 2 Clerk, US District Court, 2211 US Courthouse, 75 Ted Turner
3 Drive, Southwest, Atlanta, Georgia, 30303.

4 Any balance that remains unpaid at the commencement
5 of the term of supervised release shall commence within 60
6 days after release from imprisonment on the following terms:

7 Payable at a rate of no less than 250 monthly to the 8 US District Court Clerk.

9 You must notify the Court of any changes in economic 10 circumstances that might affect the ability to pay this 11 financial penalty.

12 The Court determines that you do not have the 13 ability to pay interest and it is ordered that the interest
14 requirement is waived for restitution.

15 If applicable, forfeiture of your right, title and 16 interest in certain property is hereby ordered consistent with 17 the plea agreement and verdict of forfeiture. The United 18 States shall submit a proposed order of forfeiture forthwith.

19 I saw that there was a forfeiture clause. I don't 20 think I've seen anything on that. Have I, Counsel?

21 MR. KITCHENS: That's correct, your Honor. And 22 there's no specific assets that would be forfeited by 23 Mr. Petty.

24 THE COURT: Very well.

25 Sir, upon release from imprisonment you'll be on

1 supervised release for a term of five years.

2 You must comply with the mandatory conditions of
3 release.

4 You must not commit another federal, state or local 5 crime.

6 You must not unlawfully possess a controlled
7 substance.

8 You must refrain from any unlawful use of a
9 controlled substance.

10 You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of 11 release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests
12 thereafter as determined by the Court.

13 You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as 14 directed by the probation officer.

15 You must make restitution in accordance with 18 USC,
16 Section 3663 and Section 3663(a) or any other statute
17 authorizing a sentence of restitution.

18 As part of your supervised release, you must comply
19 with the standard conditions of supervision. These conditions
20 are imposed because they establish basic expectations for your 21 behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools
22 needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the 23 Court and bring about improvements in your conduct and 24 condition.

25 Standard conditions of supervision will be included

1 in the judgment.

2 You must comply with the following special conditions
3 during the term of supervised release:

4 You must make full and complete disclosure of your 5 finances and submit to an audit of your financial documents at 6 the request of your probation officer.

7 You must provide the probation officer with full and 8 complete access to any requested financial information and 9 authorize the release of any financial information. The 10 probation office may share the financial information with the 11 United States Attorney's Office.

12 You must not incur new credit charges or open
13 additional lines of credit without the approval of the 14 probation officer.

15 You must participate in an alcohol and/or other
16 substance abuse treatment program and follow the rules and 17 regulations of that program. The probation officer will 18 supervise your participation in the program.

19 You must pay all or part of the cost of the program
20 based on your ability to pay unless excused by the probation
21 officer.

22 You must submit to substance abuse testing to 23 determine if you have used a prohibitive substance.

24 You must not obstruct, attempt to obstruct or tamper
25 with any testing methods.

1 You must pay all or part of the cost of the testing
2 program based on your ability to pay unless excused by the
3 probation officer.

4 You must not use or possess any controlled substances
5 without a valid prescription. If you do have a valid
6 prescription, you must disclose the prescription information
7 to the probation officer and follow the instructions on the 8 prescription.

9 You must refrain from excessive use of alcohol.

10 You must not knowingly purchase, possess, distribute,
11 administer or otherwise use any psychoactive substances,
12 synthetic marijuana, synthetic cathinones, commonly referred 13 to as bath salts, et cetera, that impair physical or mental 14 functioning except with prior approval of the probation
15 officer or a valid prescription from a licensed medical 16 practitioner.

17 You must submit your person, property, house,
18 residence, vehicle, papers, computers, other electronic 19 communications or data storage devices or media or office to 20 a search conducted by the United States Probation Officer.
21 Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of 22 release.

23 You must warn any other occupants that the premises
24 may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

25 An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this

1 condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that you
2 violated a condition of your supervision and that areas to be
3 searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must 4 be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.

5 You must permit confiscation and/or disposal of any
6 material considered to be contraband.

7 At the conclusion of this proceeding, you'll be
8 remanded to the custody of the US Marshal.

9 Although I do not have the authority to select your 10 detention facility, I can recommend a detention facility. And 11 I do so. I hereby recommend to the Bureau of Prisons that the 12 defendant be housed at FCI Miami. And the reason for that is 13 he will have family in that area and that will be more
14 convenient for him to have contact with his family, which I
15 think will be helpful to him as he hopefully proceeds through 16 his sentence and on to supervised release.

17 The Court also recommends that he be housed in a
18 facility with a substance abuse treatment program.

19 This sentence is made in view of the sentencing goals
20 delineated in 18 USC, Section 3553(a) and, importantly, the 21 parties' arguments as to those factors, including:

22 The nature and circumstances of the offense and the 23 history and characteristics of the defendant;

24 The need for the sentence imposed to reflect the 25 seriousness of the offense, to afford adequate deterrence and

1 to protect the public;

2 The kinds of sentences available;

3 The kinds of sentence in the sentencing range
4 established for the applicable category of offense committed
5 as set forth in the sentencing guidelines;

6 Any pertinent policy statement;

7 The need to avoid sentencing disparity;

8 And the need to provide restitution to victims.

9 The sentence meets the criteria of punishment,
10 deterrence and incapacitation and is sufficient but not 11 greater than necessary to comply with the sections of 12 Section 3553(a).

13 Mr. Petty, I will say that I think your attorney
14 did an excellent job for you here. I mentioned that one thing
15 I considered here is the parties' arguments as to those 16 Section 3553(a) factors. Had not he and the government both
17 recommended to me a 46-month sentence, I would have been more
18 inclined to sentence you to 57 months, at the very highest end
19 of the guideline, not the low end of the guideline.

20 As I reviewed this case and your criminal history, it
21 did seem to me, as Mr. Kitchens argued, a very serious offense
22 given the amount of money involved and the effects of that 23 money having been stolen from the government, it did not go to 24 some other company or companies that could have used it during 25 our time of national crisis. And I think deterrence is

1 important here, both specific and in general.

2 I genuinely hope, though, sir, that you are able to
3 see the error of your ways this time and that we won't see you
4 back here yet again.

5 Before I advise the defendant of his appeal rights,
6 does the government or defense have any further objections to 7 the findings of the Court, the guideline calculations or to 8 the sentence or manner in which it's been pronounced?

9 MR. KITCHENS: No objections, your Honor.

10 MR. SHEPPARD: Just that I think there's more than 11 one FCI Miami. This would be the FCI Miami Camp.

12 THE COURT: The Court respectfully recommends to the 13 Bureau of Prisons that the defendant be housed at FCI Miami
14 Camp. So, importantly, the camp, not any other FCI Miami.

15 Anything else, Counsel?

16 MR. SHEPPARD: Not at this time, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Petty, you can appeal your conviction
18 if you believe your guilty plea was somehow unlawful or 19 involuntary or if there was some other fundamental defect in 20 the proceedings that was not waived by your guilty plea.

21 You also have a statutory right to appeal your 22 sentence under certain circumstances, particularly if you
23 think the sentence is contrary to law. However, a defendant
24 may waive those rights as part of a plea agreement, and you've 25 entered into a plea agreement, which, with limited exceptions,

1 waives most of your rights to appeal the sentence itself.

2 Such waivers are generally enforceable, but if you
3 believe the waiver is unenforceable, you can present that 4 theory to the appellate court.

5 With few exceptions, any notice of appeal must be
6 filed within 14 days of judgment being entered in your case.

7 If you're unable to pay the cost of your appeal, you
8 may apply for leave to appeal in forma pauperis, or without 9 payment of fees.

10 If you so request, the Clerk of Court will prepare
11 and file a notice of appeal on your behalf.

12 On appeal you may also apply for court-appointed
13 counsel.

14 If you have any further questions about your right to 15 appeal, I'm sure that Mr. Sheppard would be happy to advise 16 you further on this matter, sir.

17 Mr. Petty, do you have any questions about anything
18 I've said at today's sentencing hearing, sir?

19 THE DEFENDANT: I do not. I just thank you. And I
20 echo your sentiments about my attorney for the record.

21 THE COURT: Very well.

22 Counsel, anything else we need to discuss?

23 MR. KITCHENS: Nothing further, your Honor.

24 MR. SHEPPARD: Nothing on behalf of the defense, your 25 Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 Good to see all of you.

3 Ms. Pittman, Ms. Coudriet, to our court security
4 officer, also I think I see deputy marshals or one deputy 5 marshal, thanks to all of you.

6 And, Officer Ridley, thank you as well.

7 Mr. Petty, again, best of luck to you, sir. I
8 sometimes wonder if what I say up here means anything --

9 THE DEFENDANT: It does.

10 THE COURT: -- but I genuinely hope that this time is 11 the last time --

12 THE DEFENDANT: I do, too.

13 THE COURT: -- and that you're able to get things on 14 track and be a productive member of society and a helpful
15 person to your family.

16 THE DEFENDANT: Thank you, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Good luck.
