Harris Reference.

Hello,

I am writing this as a positive character reference for Mr. Arashio Harris. I have known him for many years and he is like a brother to me. He has always been positive member of his community and in his church. He is a loving father, husband, brother and friend. At times he can be a bit to trusting but that's just the heart he has. He would literally give you the shirt off his back. He is a honorable and dependable person. He also tries very hard in everything he does for anyone who needs him. He is a true family man and a leader in his community.

Sincerely

To whom this may concern,

My name is Dyrushio Harris twin brother to Arashio Harris, from the start, my brother, and I were raised to be hard-working, God-fearing, community loving, law abiding people of character. My brother has always been my protector, and a way maker for many. My brother is a man who has relentlessly given of himself to others, for the betterment of all around him, everything from his occupation, to his church involvement, to his nonprofit endeavors have been to benefit others, that people may see the love of God within him and see the benefit of being an American citizen where all things are possible. My brother has dedicated his life to inspiring and uplifting the downtrodden. My brother has always endeavored to impart skills and understanding that would uplift the overlooked, from talking to wayward youth, to Thanksgiving turkey giveaways, Christmas toy drives, back to school giveaways and lastly helping to change the perspective of many through his motivational speaking engagements all over the great State of Florida. In closing My brother Arashio Harris is Not a criminal, he is a hard working, dedicated man who loves his God, his family, and his country, he has endured the various hardships and struggles in his life and still managed to encourage others to see the bright side of dark times, and abandon the ways of street life for legitimate living, helping many to get their diplomas and find honorable jobs. Your honor I pray that you will find it in your heart to allow my brother Arashio Harris to continue on in making the tremendous difference that he is making in the lives of others in our community and beyond, because without him, Mimi would never see the love of God, and anyone else, because without him, many would never receive the encouragement and motivation to push for more rather than settle for less, because without him our community and others would lose a pillar of strength and a beacon of hope to help guide the youth.

Good evening,

It gives me great pleasure to write this letter on behalf of Mr. A. Harris. He has always been a mentor, leader, and great provider for his family and church family. I have had the opportunity to know Mr. Harris for over 25 years.

From then until now, Mr. Harris has always been an ethical and fair supervisor of mine. If there is ever a person who deserves to be treated with kindness, fairness, and mercy, it is Mr. Harris. I respectfully ask that you render due process and due diligence to Mr. Harris in this case.

Dear honorable judge, it gives me great pleasure to speak on behalf of the gentleman that stands before you. Mr. Harris has been a role model for the West Perrine area throughout my childhood and adulthood.

He has always been a diligent, responsible, respectful, caring, and supportive individual with everyone that he has made contact with, even throughout his decade of employment with Miami Dade County Corrections.

Mr. Harris has always shown himself to be the most upright, respectful citizen America could ever ask for.

To Whom It May Concern:

This is a character reference for Arashio Harris, my friend for 16 years. Arashio is a thoughtful, generous, giving man who would not hesitate to assist in a time of need. He would a stranger his last dime. He is a valuable companion when in a difficult time. I regularly seek his advice and counsel when trying to overcome some difficult challenge. He has been the older brother I wish I had. All who come into contact with him comment on his generosity and his manners. Polite and polished, and always quick with a kind word. He is known to give all a thoughtful quote or a positive affirmation. Arashio is a deeply religious man and has a profound understanding of the Bible. He regularly attends his house of worship and occasionally feeds the homeless. He has been and continues to be an example to me as I struggle through the daily pressures of life. The motto, "You're not as good as your best day, and you're not as bad as your worst day," was taught to me by Arashio 16 years ago. I have lived by this motto ever since and it has kept me on a path to be an upright man and father ever since. Few who encounter him are not impressed by his keen intellect. I am grateful for his friendship and am proud to be his friend.

Should you need any clarification on any attribute I have described, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Roderick Green
