Scott Paetty, Assistant United States Attorney
United States Attorney's Office
Major Fraud Section, Central District of California
1100 U.S. Courthouse
312 N. Spring Street
Los Angeles, California 90012

Dear Mr. Paetty:

By email dated April 29, 2021, you requested proof of the insured status of eight depository institutions: (1) Seattle Bank, Seattle, Washington; (2) Celtic Bank, Salt Lake City, Utah; (3) Cross River Bank, Teaneck, New Jersey; (4) Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, Sioux Falls, South Dakota; (5) Comerica Bank, Dallas, Texas; (6) Bank of America, National Association, Charlotte, North Carolina; (7) WebBank, Salt Lake City, Utah; and (8) Capital One, National Association, McLean, Virginia, for the time period March 1, 2020, through February 28, 2021.

In response to that request, we are enclosing Certificates of Authenticity that these institution were an insured depository institution on the dates in question.

Please review the enclosed documents upon receipt to make sure that they satisfy your requirements. If I can be of further assistance in this matter, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Kazmerski
Counsel

CERTIFICATE OF AUTHENTICITY

1. I, Nicholas Kazmerski, hereby certify and attest that I am a Counsel at the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"), and that I am qualified and authorized to make certifications regarding the records of the FDIC.

2. I further certify that the attached records marked "Exhibit A" and pertaining to the admission and history of Seattle Bank, Seattle, Washington, as a federally insured depository institution are official records of the FDIC and that (A) the records were made at or near the time of the matters described in them by—or from information transmitted by—someone with knowledge; (B) the records were kept in the course of a regularly conducted activity of the FDIC; and (C) making the records was a regular practice of the FDIC.

3. I further certify that insurance applicable to the main office of Seattle Bank, is applicable to any domestic (U.S.) branch office of Seattle Bank.

4. I further certify that, after diligent search, no record or entry in the official records of the FDIC has been found to exist which terminated the status of Seattle Bank, as an insured depository institution under the provisions of section 8 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, 12 U.S.C. 1818, and that Seattle Bank, retained its status as an insured depository institution of the FDIC from August 2, 1999, through and including February 28, 2021.

5. I further certify that the records accompanying this certificate are copies of photographs, microphotographs, photographic film or reproductions of records preserved in an electronic medium or format capable of being read or scanned by computer and reproduced from such electronic medium or format by printing or other form of reproduction of electronically stored data.

6. The FDIC is a Federal banking agency as defined under the provisions of section 3 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, 12 U.S.C. 1813(z). Under the provisions of section 10 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, 12 U.S.C. 1820(f), a record described in the preceding paragraph "shall be deemed to be an original record for all purposes, including introduction in evidence in all State and Federal courts or administrative agencies, and shall be admissible to prove any act, transaction, occurrence, or event therein recorded."

CERTIFICATE OF AUTHENTICITY

1. I, Nicholas Kazmerski, hereby certify and attest that I am a Counsel at the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"), and that I am qualified and authorized to make certifications regarding the records of the FDIC.

2. I further certify that the attached records marked "Exhibit A" and pertaining to the admission and history of Capital One, National Association, McLean, Virginia, as a federally insured depository institution are official records of the FDIC and that (A) the records were made at or near the time of the matters described in them by—or from information transmitted by—someone with knowledge; (B) the records were kept in the course of a regularly conducted activity of the FDIC; and (C) making the records was a regular practice of the FDIC.

3. I further certify that insurance applicable to the main office of Capital One, National Association, is applicable to any domestic (U.S.) branch office of Capital One, National Association.

4. I further certify that, after diligent search, no record or entry in the official records of the FDIC has been found to exist which terminated the status of Capital One, National Association, as an insured depository institution under the provisions of section 8 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, 12 U.S.C. 1818, and that Capital One, National Association, retained its status as an insured depository institution of the FDIC from January 1, 1934, through and including February 28, 2021.

5. I further certify that the records accompanying this certificate are copies of photographs, microphotographs, photographic film or reproductions of records preserved in an electronic medium or format capable of being read or scanned by computer and reproduced from such electronic medium or format by printing or other form of reproduction of electronically stored data.

6. The FDIC is a Federal banking agency as defined under the provisions of section 3 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, 12 U.S.C. 1813(z). Under the provisions of section 10 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, 12 U.S.C. 1820(f), a record described in the preceding paragraph "shall be deemed to be an original record for all purposes, including introduction in evidence in all State and Federal courts or administrative agencies, and shall be admissible to prove any act, transaction, occurrence, or event therein recorded."
