I went to get a massage from Lily for body aches and she was amazing. As an athlete your body tends to tighten up and sometimes you forget how important it is to relax. Lily was so professional and very welcoming. The spa was well decorated and reminded me of Thailand. It created a warm environment to the point that I forgot I was in the city. Lily's techniques were great; a combination of hand massages and walking on the back. The hot stones were my favorite. My knees started to get better after a day and I noticed how much better I can walk now. I will certainly be back and I believe Thai massages are a great alternative to recover quickly. I would highly recommend Lily and Mantra Dhevi to get rid of your body pain/aches! I'll definitely be coming back!

I just had a Thai massage with Lily last night. It was incredible. The place is nicely decorated with a very warm inviting feeling when you walk in. The massage room was very comfortable and the linens and massage oil and stones were perfect. They are set up to be able to walk on your back because they have a hand rail mounted above the table for the masseuse to hold for stability. They are priced appropriately and worth every dollar spent.

the massage wasn't so great, it felt rushed and curtailed. I've had many thai massages where there're typically more regimens that include stretching and head massage. My message did not offer the full package. For one hour, we were asked to tip and it resulted to be 100 bucks which is much too high for any massage in town

Best massage I have ever received!! I have tried many different spas for Thai massage but none like this!! Extremely professional and knowledgeable. Spa has very calm and warm environment. I will never go anywhere else for a massage. Pressure was perfect and knew exactly what parts of my body needed more attention. Spa is clean and decor is soothing. Experience was tremendous!! You need to visit you will not regret it!!

AMAZING. I've had so many massages and his one combined feel-good techniques with actual results. My neck was killing me, I was tense and sore all over. Through a combination of deep-tissue, hot rocks, barefoot massage and many other methods that I'm sure I was unaware of, I feel loose and centered and grounded. Lily is so kind and attentive. Definitely recommend.

I'm leaving after my first, and absolutely not my last, visit to Mantra Dhevi. The massage was phenomenal - it hurt so good! Lilly really got at my knots, was very attentive, and accommodating. I was bent, twisted, and stretched like never before.

Honestly, this place is really great. I'll be back as often as I can. They do great work here. Being in a convenient location, parking was easy to find on the street. The spa is very clean, quiet, and peaceful.

Imagine my surprise when i called this place this morning and asked them about the aromatherapy massage with oil, the lady tells me that that isn't an option. I tell her that it s advertised on the website, she said "no" and then someone else gets on the phone, i repeat my request, the lady said "yes" and hung up.

I call back a 3rd lady picks up the phone "how are you?" - i answer that I am fine and one more time repeat my request, the lady kept telling me "yeah", i tell her i am coming from far so i just want to make sure that i get what i want when i get there, she answers "yeah". I tell her do you or do you not offer that service, her answer: "yeah" - at that point i started to get frustrated and was about to give up when she told me that she will call me back in 20 mins ... and yes, you guess right. No phone call.

Annie was an amazing masseuse. I had just run a marathon and was barely able to walk, but after receiving a thai massage I felt good as new. She did make it more sports related, which also helped. I would recommend Mantra Dhevi Spa and Annie to anyone in the Brighton area.

I was there yesterday. Lily were amazing and good at massage. I feel like she has a magic hands. Where ever her hand passed I feel great! I familiar with Thai massage but she is the BEST in BOSTON I would say!
