1 Plaintiffs, by and through Plaintiffs’ Interim Co-Lead Counsel, hereby file 2 this First Amended Master Consolidated Complaint for both the Class Action and 3 Individual Cases (“FAMCC”).<sup>1</sup> This FAMCC is submitted to serve the 4 administrative functions of efficiency and economy and to present certain common 5 claims and common questions of fact and law for appropriate action by the Court 6 in the context of this multidistrict proceeding, pursuant to the Order Re Case 7 Management (Dkt. No. 48). The filing of this FAMCC does not constitute a waiver 8 or dismissal of the underlying actions or claims therein.

9 Class representative plaintiffs Jennifer Yick, Vanessa Rivera, Candace 10 Koole, Azuri Moon, Roland Oosthuizen, Rosemary Mathews, Carlos Rodriguez, J.

16 individuals whose California unemployment and other public benefits are or were 17 paid through debit cards issued by Defendant Bank of America, N.A. (“Bank of

25 <sup>1</sup> This FAMCC amends the allegations of Plaintiffs’ Master Consolidated 26 Complaint (“MCC”) (Dkt. No. 72), following entry of the Court’s Order granting in 27 part and denying in part the Bank’s motion to dismiss on May 25, 2023 (“Order”) 28 (Dkt. No. 126). This FAMCC maintains the same paragraph numbering as in the prior MCC, while expressly noting any claims or legal theories that the Court dismissed in its Order.

1 Employment Development Department's ("EDD") benefits payment programs.
2 Additionally, 241 individual plaintiffs (collectively, "Individual Plaintiffs") bring 3 the same causes of action against Bank of America on behalf of themselves only.
4 In violation of its constitutional, statutory, common law, and contractual obligations 5 to Plaintiffs and Class Members, the Bank has failed to take reasonable steps to 6 protect Plaintiffs' and Class Members' benefits from fraud, has deprived them of 7 their statutory right to public benefits without providing them with notice or an 8 opportunity to be heard, and has otherwise failed to ensure that they are able to 9 receive and access the public benefits to which they are lawfully entitled.

10 I. INTRODUCTION

11 1. Like millions of other Californians, Plaintiffs lost their jobs through 12 no fault of their own during the COVID-19 pandemic. Plaintiffs and Class Members 13 applied for unemployment and other public benefits through programs administered 14 by California's EDD ("EDD benefits"). They were found eligible by EDD to 15 receive, and initially did receive, the benefits to which they were and are lawfully 16 entitled. Throughout the COVID-19 pandemic, Plaintiffs and Class Members have 17 relied on these subsistence benefits to pay for food, housing, and other necessities 18 of life.

19 2. Pursuant to an exclusive contract between EDD and Bank of America, 20 Plaintiffs and Class Members received their periodic benefits payments not from 21 EDD directly, but through Bank-issued and Bank-administered prepaid debit cards 22 ("EDD Debit Cards" or "Cards"), which are linked to individual Bank depository 23 accounts ("EDD Debit Card Accounts" or "Accounts"). Although the Bank was 24 entrusted with administering these critical EDD benefits, on which millions of 25 vulnerable Californians' lives depend, and although the Bank was legally required 26 to take necessary and reasonable steps to protect Plaintiffs' and Class Members' 27 EDD Debit Cards and Accounts from fraudulent access by third parties, the Bank 28 failed to do so and indeed treated these Cards and Accounts with less care than it

1 affords its regular consumer debit and credit cardholders. Among other things, the 2 Bank failed to secure Plaintiffs' and Class Members' sensitive Card and Account 3 information and issued them EDD Debit Cards without the industry-standard, 4 fraud-preventing EMV chip technology that the Bank has used on all its regular 5 consumer customers' debit and credit cards since 2014. Instead, for its government 6 benefits customers, the Bank chose to issue debit cards with only outdated magnetic 7 stripe technology, which makes those cards far more susceptible to skimming, 8 cloning, and other schemes that have allowed third parties to fraudulently use and 9 access Plaintiffs' and Class Members' EDD Debit Cards and Accounts. The Bank 10 further breached its duties through its systemic practice of failing to take reasonable 11 steps to secure Plaintiffs' and Class Members' personal and financial information, 12 including failing to ensure that this information was appropriately handled and not 13 misappropriated by the Bank's subcontractors and their employees and agents, 14 including by customer service representatives and other call center agents. The 15 Bank's systemically lax security practices enabled unauthorized persons to access 16 Plaintiffs' and Class Members' personal and financial information and to make 17 fraudulent, unauthorized transactions involving Plaintiffs' and Class Members' 18 EDD Debit Cards and Accounts.

19 3. In addition to the Bank acting negligently and in breach of its statutory 20 and common law obligations to Plaintiffs and Class Members by failing to protect 21 their EDD Debit Cards and Accounts, the Bank also has violated its statutory and 22 common law obligations to Plaintiffs and Class Members by failing to implement 23 adequate and reasonable systems, measures, and protections to permit: prompt and 24 effective identification of fraud on Plaintiffs' and Class Members' Cards and 25 Accounts, prompt submission of fraud claims (also referred to herein as 26 unauthorized transaction claims), provisional access to already-approved benefits 27 during the course of the Bank's investigations of fraud claims, prompt and accurate 28 resolution of those claims, and prompt reimbursement of funds stolen from 1 Plaintiffs' and Class Members' Accounts. For example, instead of providing an 2 effective and timely process for Plaintiffs and Class Members to report fraud claims, 3 the Bank adopted a series of "customer service" practices and policies that have 4 required Plaintiffs and Class Members to spend dozens of hours on the phone with 5 customer service, and that have otherwise frustrated and obstructed Plaintiffs' and 6 Class Members' efforts to submit such claims. When those Plaintiffs and Class 7 Members who persevered were finally able to reach the Bank's customer service 8 representatives to report that unauthorized transactions had fraudulently been 9 conducted on their EDD Debit Card Accounts, the Bank then violated their 10 statutory, common law, and constitutional due process rights by denying their fraud 11 claims without investigation or explanation and freezing their Accounts 12 indefinitely, thereby depriving them of access to their past and future disbursements 13 of EDD benefits without any prior notice or an opportunity to be heard.

14 4. The cardholder agreement between Bank of America and each Plaintiff 15 and Class Member ("Cardholder Agreement") sets forth the Bank's "Zero Liability" 16 policy, which promises to protect each Plaintiff and Class Member from adverse 17 financial consequences if their EDD Debit Cards or Accounts are fraudulently used 18 or accessed by third parties. The Bank has not implemented this policy as promised, 19 which has caused Plaintiffs and Class Members to suffer significant financial losses 20 from third-party fraud, including by the Bank failing to have reasonable procedures 21 in place to identify and receive notifications of fraud, failing to adequately monitor 22 its customer service, establishing procedures that frustrate and obstruct timely 23 submission of fraud claims by Plaintiffs and Class Members, closing fraud claim 24 investigations without having conducted a reasonable investigation, and failing to 25 extend provisional credit to Plaintiffs and Class Members as required by law while 26 fraud claim investigations are underway. The Bank has also deprived Plaintiffs and 27 Class Members of their constitutional rights to notice and an opportunity to be heard 28 before causing their EDD Debit Cards and Accounts to be frozen or blocked for 1 extended periods of time, thereby depriving Plaintiffs and Class Members of access 2 to past, present, and future disbursements of unemployment and other government 3 benefits for which they have been found eligible.

4 5. By the acts and omissions alleged here, Bank of America has violated 5 federal and state constitutional due process protections; violated EFTA and its 6 implementing Regulation E; violated California's Consumer Privacy Act, Customer 7 Records Act, and Unfair Competition Law; acted negligently; and breached its 8 Cardholder Agreement with Plaintiffs and Class Members, its contract with EDD 9 (to which Plaintiffs and Class Members are intended third-party beneficiaries), the 10 implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing under those contracts, and its 11 fiduciary duties to Plaintiffs and Class Members. These acts and omissions have 12 caused substantial financial and other harm to Plaintiffs and Class Members, and 13 unless promptly enjoined will cause them and the public to suffer immediate and 14 irreparable harm.

15 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

16 6. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to: (a) 28 U.S.C.
17 §1331 because this action arises under the federal Due Process Clause and the 18 Electronic Fund Transfers Act, 15 U.S.C. §§1693 et seq.; (b) 28 U.S.C. §1332(d) 19 because this is a class action in which the amount in controversy exceeds 20 $5,000,000, there are more than 100 putative Class Members, and the majority of 21 putative Class Members are citizens of a state different than the state of which Bank 22 of America is a citizen; (c) 28 U.S.C. §1332(a) because Plaintiffs and Class 23 Members are citizens of California, Bank of America is incorporated under the laws 24 of Delaware and has its principal place of business in North Carolina, and the 25 amount in controversy exceeds $75,000; and (d) supplemental jurisdiction under 28 26 U.S.C. §1367 with respect to the claims for relief arising under state law.

27 7. This Court has specific personal jurisdiction over Bank of America 28 because the Bank has sufficient minimum contacts with California, has purposely

1 availed itself of the benefits and protection of California law, and conducts a 2 substantial amount of business in and with the State of California (including with 3 EDD), such that the Court's exercise of personal jurisdiction over the Bank is 4 reasonable and accords with due process.

5 8. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1407 and the 6 Judicial Panel of Multidistrict Litigation's Transfer Order transferring the actions 7 comprising this multidistrict litigation to this Court for coordinated or consolidated 8 pretrial proceedings. See Dkt. No. 1. Venue is also proper in this District pursuant 9 to 28 U.S.C. §1391 because a substantial portion of the acts or omissions giving rise 10 to the claims alleged occurred in this District, and because Bank of America is 11 subject to the Court's personal jurisdiction with respect to this action.

B. Individual Plaintiffs

34. The 241 Individual Plaintiffs (see infra ¶¶286–526) bring actions against Bank of America on behalf of themselves only, and not in a representative capacity on behalf of any of the putative classes alleged herein.

C. Defendants

35. Defendant Bank of America, N.A., is a financial institution incorporated in the State of Delaware and headquartered in North Carolina that conducts a substantial amount of business in California, including pursuant to its exclusive contract with the State of California EDD to administer unemployment benefits and other benefit payments through EDD Debit Cards and Accounts.

36. The true names and capacities of Defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiffs. Accordingly, Plaintiffs sue each and every Doe Defendant by such fictitious names. Each Doe Defendant, individually and collectively, is responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts alleged herein. Plaintiffs will seek leave of this Court to amend this FAMCC to reflect the true names and capacities of the Doe Defendants when their identities become known.

37. Plaintiffs allege that at all times relevant to the events giving rise to this action, each and every Defendant was acting as an agent or employee of each of the other Defendants. Plaintiffs further allege that at all times relevant to those events, each and every Defendant was acting within the course and scope of that agency or employment at the direction of or with the full knowledge, permission, or consent of each and every other Defendant. In addition, each of the acts or omissions of each and every Defendant was made known to, and ratified by, each of the other Defendants.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

A. The Bank's Contract with EDD

38. EDD is an agency of the State of California that is responsible for administering numerous benefits programs for low-income, unemployed, and other Californians, including programs providing Californians with EDD benefits, such as unemployment insurance ("UI") benefits, pandemic unemployment assistance ("PUA") benefits, pandemic emergency unemployment compensation benefits, disability insurance benefits, and paid family leave benefits.

39. In 2010, Bank of America entered into an exclusive contract with EDD for the provision of Electronic Benefits Payment ("EBP") services, including issuance of Bank of America EDD Debit Cards through which individuals entitled to receive EDD benefits could access those benefits.

40. On information and belief, Bank of America obtained that contract in part by falsely representing to EDD that it would provide "best-in-class" fraud monitoring.

41. Beginning in or about July 2011, EDD began distributing EDD benefits pursuant to its contract with Bank of America, under which the default means of distributing EDD benefits payments has been through Bank-issued and Bank-administered EDD Debit Cards, rather than paper checks or other forms of payment.

42. In or about 2015, Bank of America submitted a response to EDD's Request for Proposals ("2015 RFP Response" or "2015 Proposal") to extend the scope and duration of the contract. The 2015 Proposal was accepted by EDD and incorporated by reference into a new contract for EBP Services entered into between EDD and the Bank, with an initial term of August 1, 2016 through July 31, 2021 ("EDD-Bank Contract"). In its 2015 Proposal, the Bank represented that it had applied and would continue to apply "the most rigorous fraud detection procedures," including "the highest level of security and fraud safeguards" based

1 on “multiple layers of extensive security” to ensure that EDD Debit Cardholders do 2 not become the victims of fraud. The Bank’s 2015 Proposal also represented that 3 the Bank has provided and will continue to provide “fraud monitoring” as part of 4 its “multi-faceted approach” to preventing and combatting fraud, and that it would 5 provide “immediate response to emerging fraud trends” to ensure that fraudulent 6 transactions would be “declined in real time.” The 2015 Proposal further 7 represented that the Bank would provide “industry best-in-class” fraud 8 investigations services, “applying specialized processes and tools to resolve fraud,” 9 and that “Bank of America is committed to being at the forefront of fraud and data 10 security strategies, benefiting the EDD and [EDD’s] claimants.”

11 43. In its 2015 Proposal, the Bank also represented that it would fully 12 protect EDD Debit Cardholders in case they became victims of fraud. Specifically, 13 the Bank represented that it would comply with all EFTA and Regulation E 14 requirements and timelines with respect to error resolution and it provided 15 assurance that its EDD Debit Cardholders (which includes Plaintiffs and Class 16 Members) “should feel comfortable in dealing with disputed transactions knowing 17 that we extend our Zero Liability protection on disputed claims, including ATM 18 and pinned POS [point-of-sale] transactions.” The Bank described its error 19 resolution process as follows: “A Claimant can file a dispute by calling the 20 Customer Service Center for complete instructions. . . . After selecting the ‘dispute 21 a transaction’ option within our IVR [Interactive Voice Response], the cardholder 22 will immediately speak with a live representative who will further review the 23 transaction and any other possible fraudulent transactions with the cardholder. . . .
24 Once a dispute is requested in our system, a case will be created within our claims 25 tracking system and tracked until final resolution. Per Regulation E, within 10 26 business days of the initial dispute, we will promptly correct the error. . . . If more 27 time is needed, we will temporarily credit the cardholder’s account within 10 28 business days of the initiated dispute for the full disputed amount. There is no

1 limitation or maximum to the credit amount provided. This will allow the account 2 holder to use the funds while the claim is being resolved.”

3 44. The Bank’s 2015 Proposal also made representations about the 4 “[s]uperb customer service” levels it would guarantee EDD Debit Cardholders, 5 boasting that “[w]e set the bar high and pride ourselves on serving each caller with 6 swift, responsive service,” and providing assurances that “[l]ong call hold waits and 7 busy signals are not tolerated at Bank of America. Your program’s average speed 8 of answer is 30 seconds and your average handle time is 230 seconds.” Pursuant to 9 the EDD–Bank Contract, the Bank promised, among other things, to provide an 10 IVR system and live Customer Service Representative (“CSR”) support available 11 “24 hours a day, seven days a week.” The Bank promised that live CSR agents 12 would be available 24/7 to assist EDD Debit Cardholders with “[i]nvestigat[ing] 13 transactions (fraud security, use),” “[p]rocess[ing] lost/stolen/damaged card 14 reports,” and “[c]heck[ing] on the Status of Disputed Transactions.” The Bank 15 further promised that “no call [would be] transferred to voicemail or automatically 16 disconnected from the queue,” that “calls [would] not [be] immediately placed on 17 hold,” that “the average wait time to speak to a live CSR” agent would be “no more 18 than 30 seconds for 70 percent of the calls, and no more than two (2) minutes for 19 all calls,” and that the Bank would “monitor Customer Service calls to ensure 20 quality service and address Customer complaints.”

21 45. On information and belief, EDD entered into the EDD–Bank Contract 22 because of, and in reliance on, the Bank’s representations in its 2015 Proposal.

23 46. Pursuant to the terms of the EDD–Bank Contract, EDD and the Bank 24 are engaged in a joint undertaking to administer the EDD benefits programs and to 25 distribute EDD benefits payments to eligible claimants through EDD Debit Cards.

26 47. EDD Debit Cards are the default payment method for EDD benefits, 27 and EDD’s website presents EDD Debit Cards as the exclusive means of receiving

1 EDD benefits.<sup>2</sup> EDD promotes EDD Debit Cards as “a fast, convenient, and secure 2 way to get your benefit payments,” and advertises the many purported benefits of 3 EDD Debit Cards, including: “Get your money sooner”; “Use it everywhere VISA 4 is accepted (in stores, online, and by phone)”; “Withdraw cash at ATMs, banks, and 5 stores with cash back options”; “Transfer funds to the financial institution of your 6 choice at no additional cost”; “Be notified when a deposit is made to your card, or 7 when you have a low balance”; and “Receive fraud protection from a Zero Liability 8 Policy.”<sup>3</sup>

9 48. The EDD has delegated to the Bank the public functions of distributing 10 EDD benefits to Cardholders. EDD Debit Cards and Accounts are an integral part 11 of EDD’s benefits distribution and administration system. Under the terms of the 12 EDD–Bank Contract, those Accounts can only receive deposits from the EDD and 13 no commingling of EDD benefits payments with other funds is permitted. The 14 EDD–Bank Contract provides that the Bank “shall disburse to each claimant the 15 entire amount the EDD authorizes” and “shall process all benefit payment amounts 16 provided by the EDD without alteration or adjustment.”

17 49. The EDD–Bank Contract, which contains an express revenue-sharing 18 agreement, creates a relationship of financial interdependency between EDD and 19 Bank of America. Under the revenue-sharing agreement, the State of California

26 Unemployment Insurance, Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA), Disability 27 Insurance, and Paid Family Leave are all made using the Bank Debit Card.”).
28 While it is possible for Cardholders to contact EDD to receive their benefits via paper checks instead of through EDD Debit Cards, that option is neither publicized nor easily accessed.

<sup>3</sup> EDD website, Debit Card, https://www.edd.ca.gov/about\_edd/The\_EDD\_Debit\_Card.htm.

1 benefits from delegating the administrative burdens of EDD benefits distribution to 2 the Bank at no cost to the State, while the Bank benefits from collecting point-of-3 sale transaction fees and other fees from millions of EDD Debit Cardholders and 4 vendors and from earning interest on EDD benefits funds that have been deposited 5 into EDD Debit Card Accounts but that remain unspent by Cardholders (commonly 6 referred to as “float”).

7 50. The EDD–Bank Contract also authorizes and obligates the Bank to 8 work jointly with EDD to combat EDD benefits enrollment fraud. Pursuant to those 9 contractual responsibilities, the Bank purports to engage in a joint fraud-prevention 10 undertaking with EDD. Pursuant to EDD’s instructions, the Bank froze a number 11 of Accounts for suspected enrollment fraud between approximately September 12 2020 and March 2021. None of those EDD-initiated freezes are at issue in this case.

13 51. Between approximately September 2020 and February 2021, the Bank 14 itself independently froze approximately 75,000 EDD Debit Card Accounts based 15 on the Bank’s assertions that those Cardholders had engaged in enrollment fraud.
16 On information and belief, the Bank has since then independently frozen or blocked 17 tens of thousands more Accounts and continues to do so, without EDD direction or 18 authorization to freeze those Accounts. These are the Account freezes at issue in 19 this case. The Bank has earned, and continues to earn, interest on funds in the Bank-20 frozen Accounts.

21 52. If a Cardholder’s Account is frozen by the Bank and the Cardholder 22 contacts the Bank, the Bank informs the Cardholder that they must re-authenticate 23 their identity and re-verify their EDD benefits eligibility with EDD before the Bank 24 will unfreeze their Account—regardless of whether EDD itself has raised any 25 question regarding the Cardholder’s identity or benefits eligibility. When Plaintiffs 26 and Class Members contacted EDD and were actually able to get through to a live 27 representative, they were frequently told that there was no issue with their identity 28 or benefits eligibility from EDD’s perspective and that the issue was with Bank of America. Nevertheless, these Plaintiffs and Class Members continued to be unable to access the funds in their EDD Debit Card Accounts, which remained frozen.

53. On October 15, 2020, after EDD had informed the Bank that it had identified Cardholders whose Accounts should be unfrozen, EDD sent the Bank a letter expressing concern that the Bank had neither confirmed compliance with EDD's requests that those Accounts be unfrozen, nor explained why it had not complied. EDD further informed the Bank that it had become aware that the Bank was itself freezing additional Accounts based on the Bank's own suspicions but that the Bank had not notified EDD's fraud investigation division of such suspicions despite its contractual obligations to do so. EDD instructed the Bank to cease freezing additional Accounts and to explain why it had continued to freeze Accounts without EDD's authorization, and to reverse any such freezes. Finally, EDD informed the Bank that it was aware that the Bank had sent EDD draft notices to Cardholders whose Accounts the Bank had frozen and that the EDD had objected to the content of those notices, and asked for confirmation that the Bank would not send further notices without an understanding as to which Accounts would receive the notice and the language that would be used, to ensure that the language conformed to the language in EDD's own notices.

54. The EDD-Bank Contract relieves EDD of any liability for "fraud, misuse, and lost or stolen debit cards," leaving the Bank solely liable for such fraud, misuse, loss, or theft. This potential liability creates a financial incentive for the Bank to circumvent its EFTA and other legal obligations to provide provisional credit and permanent reimbursement for fraudulent transactions that occur in EDD Debit Card Accounts.

B. The Bank's Failure to Secure EDD Debit Cardholder Information

55. Bank of America has failed to store, share, transmit, or otherwise use EDD Debit Cardholders' personally identifiable information, Card and Account information, and other financial data and information, including any such data or

1 information learned in the course of providing customer service to Cardholders 2 (collectively, “Cardholder Information”) in a reasonably secure manner and 3 consistent with the Bank’s obligations to EDD and to Plaintiffs and Class Members.
4 The Bank has also failed to act reasonably in its hiring, supervision, training, and 5 retention of its agents, including its subcontractors and its subcontractors’ 6 employees and agents, who have access to Cardholder Information, including as a 7 result of staffing the Bank’s Call Centers, interacting with Cardholders, and 8 reviewing Cardholders’ unauthorized transaction claims. The Bank has failed to 9 take reasonable steps to ensure that its subcontractors and their employees and 10 agents, including CSRs and other Call Center agents, maintain the security and 11 confidentiality of Cardholder Information, including by failing to ensure: that all 12 such agents were subject to reasonable background checks, that all such agents 13 received reasonable training on maintaining the security and confidentiality of 14 Cardholder Information, and that the Bank’s subcontractors took reasonable steps 15 to secure Cardholder Information from unnecessary or unauthorized access, 16 disclosure, and exfiltration, including by the subcontractors’ agents and employees.

17 56. As a result of the Bank’s acts and omissions alleged herein, Cardholder 18 Information has been obtained by unauthorized third parties in a series of security 19 breaches that have allowed Plaintiffs’ and Class Members’ benefits to be stolen out 20 of their Accounts through unauthorized transactions. The Bank’s repeated and 21 ongoing failure to secure Plaintiffs’ and Class Members’ Cardholder Information 22 violated and continues to violate the California Consumer Privacy Act, the Gramm-23 Leach-Bliley Act and rules and regulations promulgated thereunder that require the 24 Bank to protect the security and confidentiality of its customers’ nonpublic personal 25 information, and the Bank’s common law duty to take reasonable steps to protect 26 Cardholder Information from unauthorized access, disclosure, and exfiltration, 27 including by the Bank’s own agents.

1           57. Some EDD Debit Cardholders who have had money stolen from their 2 Debit Card Accounts through unauthorized transactions received and activated their 3 EDD Debit Cards, but never used their Cards.<sup>4</sup> Such unauthorized transactions 4 could only have occurred if the Bank failed to store, share, transmit, or otherwise 5 use Cardholder Information in a reasonably secure manner.

6           58. For example, Plaintiff Stephanie Smith received her EDD Debit Card
7 in or about June 2020 and activated it on Bank of America's website the same day 8 that she received it. Immediately after activating the Card, she locked the Card in a 9 safe inside her home, and she did not subsequently take the Card out of the safe or 10 use it in any way. Her only activity on her EDD Debit Card Account thereafter was 11 to use Bank of America's website to transfer funds from her Account to her personal 12 consumer bank account (also with Bank of America). She never used the Card at an 13 ATM, for an online purchase, at a retail store, or for any other transaction. Despite 14 never using the Card, an unknown person or persons used the Cardholder 15 Information associated with Smith's EDD Debit Card and/or Account to make 16 unauthorized transactions in November 2020. Smith's Cardholder Information was 17 stolen due to the Bank's failure to prevent such thefts by its own agents.

18 C. The Bank's Use of Outdated, Vulnerable Magnetic Stripe Technology

19           59. When a debit or credit cardholder seeks to access funds on the card, 20 for example at a point-of-sale terminal or ATM, the Cardholder Information stored 21 on the card is first sent through a processing network operated by Visa. The first 22 step in that process occurs at the point of sale, where the card must either be swiped

25 Keep Popping up on Bank Debit Card Accounts," ABC10 Sacramento (KXTV)

[his] credit union").

1 or inserted into a card reader. The reader obtains the Cardholder Information stored 2 on the card and transmits it to the financial services provider through a computer 3 network, either at the time of the transaction or later in a “batch” with other 4 transactions.

5 60. From the 1960s until approximately 10 years ago, magnetic stripes 6 were the standard for storing consumer information on debit cards and credit cards 7 in the United States. A magnetic stripe contains static data about the card, including 8 the cardholder’s name, the card number, and the card expiration date. This data is 9 printed directly on the outside of the card and recorded on the magnetic stripe. When 10 swiped through a reader, this data is collected and transmitted as part of the 11 transaction process.

12 61. Because the data on a magnetic stripe are static and easily readable, 13 magnetic stripe cards are highly susceptible to fraud. One of several common 14 methods of stealing information from magnetic stripe cards is called “skimming,” 15 a process by which a wireless transmitter affixed to a card reader collects the 16 information on the magnetic stripe when the card is swiped or inserted and sends it 17 to a nearby computer. The recipient can then use the information to clone the 18 consumer’s card, conduct unauthorized transactions, and access the bank account 19 connected to the card.

20 62. Personal data on magnetic stripe cards can also be captured by hackers 21 on a large scale. For example, in 2013, hackers infiltrated the retailer Target’s 22 payment terminals and systematically captured the information of every swiped 23 card for weeks, ultimately gathering the card information of tens of millions of 24 people.<sup>5</sup> Card data collected in this manner can be sold on an underground market, 25 where the stolen data can be used to make fraudulent purchases.

63. Over the past decade, in an effort to stem the consumer fraud enabled by magnetic stripes, the financial services industry in the United States has adopted EMV chip technology as the industry standard. While magnetic stripes are “static,” with the same card-identifying information provided for every transaction, EMV chips are “dynamic,” meaning the data they contain can be interacted with, altered, and updated. An EMV chip creates a unique electronic signature for each transaction, making data from past EMV chip card purchases useless to would-be thieves, thereby significantly reducing the risk of unauthorized transactions.

64. In 2011, the same year the Bank began issuing EDD Debit Cards, the Bank announced it would offer EMV chips in corporate credit cards to its U.S. business customers who regularly traveled outside the United States.

65. On September 30, 2014, the Bank announced that it would include EMV chip technology on “all new and reissued” consumer debit cards. In announcing this shift, a Bank of America executive stated that “chip technology is an important tool in increasing card security, and we want our customers to have the best possible experience when using their payment cards.” The executive added that the “new chip-enabled cards will improve security of customers’ transactions.”<sup>6</sup>

66. In 2015, card issuers and processors began a nationwide shift to EMV chip cards. By 2017, an estimated 855 million EMV chip cards had been issued to U.S. consumers, and such cards are now standard in the industry.

67. In 2015, card-issuing banks and payment networks introduced a new policy that shifted liability for fraudulent transactions away from themselves and onto retailers and card issuers. As of October 1, 2015, retail merchants who did not

1 have certified EMV chip readers became liable for fraudulent transactions if the 2 consumer presented an EMV chip card. In essence, this meant that liability for 3 consumer card fraud would fall on either the retailer or the card issuer, whichever 4 was the least compliant with the EMV protocol.

5 68. Bank of America acknowledges on its website that EMV chip 6 technology “has been around for over 20 years and is the credit and debit card 7 security standard in many countries around the world. When purchases are made 8 using the chip feature at chip-enabled terminals, the transaction is more secure 9 because of the process used to determine if the card is authentic. This makes the 10 card more difficult to counterfeit or copy.” The Bank also assures Cardholders on 11 its website that “whether you use the magnetic stripe or the chip to make your 12 purchase, you can have confidence in the protection and security features we 13 provide for all credit and debit accounts.”

14 69. Bank of America has been aware for many years that EMV chip cards 15 are significantly more secure than magnetic stripe cards and that EMV chip cards 16 are the “debit card security standard.” Despite that knowledge and despite the 17 Bank’s representations to EDD that it will “focus on claimants” while leveraging 18 “rapidly evolving payment technology” and staying “at the forefront of payments 19 innovation,” the Bank chose to issue EDD Debit Cards using old, vulnerable 20 magnetic stripe technology to hundreds of thousands of the most financially 21 vulnerable Californians—Plaintiffs and Class Members. To this day, the Bank 22 continues to issue EDD Debit Cards with no EMV chip, notwithstanding its 23 announcement nearly seven years ago that it would include EMV chip technology 24 on all consumer debit cards to help prevent fraud. Predictably, the issuance of EDD 25 Debit Cards without EMV chips has led to rampant fraud, resulting in the ongoing 26 loss of millions of dollars in EDD benefits intended to assist Californians who lost 27 their jobs, including during the COVID-19 pandemic.

D. The Bank's Contractual Promises and Representations to Cardholders

70. Bank of America represented to Plaintiffs and Class Members, in its Cardholder Agreement and on its website, that they would not be responsible for unauthorized transactions on their EDD Debit Cards or Accounts because of the Bank's "Zero Liability" policy, under which the Bank would fully protect them against, and would reimburse them for, any unauthorized transactions. The Bank also represented to Plaintiffs and Class Members that they could call the Bank 24 hours a day 7 days a week to report any unauthorized transaction to live customer services representatives, and that the Bank would promptly investigate the transaction and determine whether it was unauthorized within 10 business days thereafter, except that if the Bank took longer than 10 business days (but in no event longer than 45 calendar days) to investigate the transaction, the Bank "will credit your Account within 10 business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation."

71. In the Bank's California Employment Development Department Debit Card Account Agreement ("Cardholder Agreement"), to which all EDD Debit Cardholders must agree, Bank of America sets forth the above promises in detail. The Cardholder Agreement has an effective date of March 1, 2018, and thus has been effective throughout the Class Period, as defined below. The Cardholder Agreement states: "Under the Bank of America 'zero liability' policy, you may incur no liability for unauthorized use of your Card up to the amount of the unauthorized transaction, provided you notify us within a reasonable time . . . ." The Cardholder Agreement advises the Cardholder to "contact us at the number listed below AT ONCE if you believe your Card has been lost or stolen or if you believe that someone may use or has used your PIN assigned to your card without your permission. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down." The Cardholder Agreement requires Cardholders to call or write to report an

1 unauthorized transaction “no later than 60 days” after the Bank sent the statement 2 on which the transaction appeared.

3 72. The Cardholder Agreement promises that Bank of America “will 4 determine whether an error occurred within 10 business days” after an unauthorized 5 transaction is reported. The Cardholder Agreement reserves the right to “take up to 6 45 days to investigate” if the Bank “need[s] more time,” in which case the Bank 7 promises that “we will credit your Account within 10 business days for the amount 8 you think is in error, so that you will have the money during the time it takes us to 9 complete our investigation.”

10 73. Bank of America represents to EDD Debit Cardholders that the Bank’s 11 customer service department representatives are continuously available to assist 12 with suspected fraud. On Bank of America’s EDD Debit Card FAQ webpage, in 13 response to the question “What are the Bank of America EDD Debit Card Customer 14 Service hours?” Bank of America claims that “[f]or your convenience,” Bank of 15 America’s “dedicated customer service representatives are available 24 hours [a] 16 day, 7 days a week” by phone. The webpage further explains that the Bank’s 17 customer service representatives can help with the following: “Resolve a question 18 about your account statement,” “Investigate transactions,” “Process 19 lost/stolen/damaged card reports,” and “Request an emergency cash transfer.” In its 20 Cardholder Agreement, Bank of America advises EDD Debit Cardholders that 21 “Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down.” In addition, 22 Bank of America provides each EDD Debit Cardholder with a “Quick Reference 23 Guide,” which prominently states that “customer service is available 24/7.”

24 E. The Rampant Third-Party Fraud on EDD Debit Card Accounts

25 74. In the spring of 2020, the COVID-19 pandemic devastated California’s 26 economy, and millions of workers lost their jobs due to business closures and mass 27 layoffs. The state’s unemployment rate skyrocketed from 3.9% in January 2020 to 28 16.4% in April 2020, following closure orders issued by Governor Gavin Newsom and county health officials. Industries such as hospitality, food service, retail trade, and educational services were especially hard hit.

75. As a result, millions of Californians turned to the EDD unemployment benefits programs administered by Bank of America to pay their bills and make ends meet. Since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic in March 2020, EDD has received at least 18.5 million claims for various unemployment benefits. In the first week of December 2020, EDD received 341,813 claims, a 600% increase from December 2019. Bank of America has issued more than 9 million EDD Debit Cards to individuals found by EDD to be eligible for unemployment benefits.

76. As widely reported in the media and as described by California state legislators who report having heard from thousands of constituents, tens of thousands of EDD Debit Cardholders have been the victims of fraud throughout the pandemic, resulting in tens of millions of dollars having been stolen from their Accounts, including through fraudulent ATM withdrawals, such as many Plaintiffs and Class Members experienced.

1           77. EDD Debit Cardholders have reported thousands of dollars stolen
2 through unauthorized use of their EDD Debit Cards. These unauthorized 3 transactions have taken various forms, including massive ATM withdrawals in 4 distant states and countries,<sup>7</sup> thousand-dollar charges at luxury vendors, and 5 repeated transactions with food delivery services. Regardless of how or where the 6 fraud has been carried out, the Bank's EDD Debit Cards have proven highly 7 susceptible to unauthorized use.

8           78. After criminals exploit the security vulnerabilities of the Bank's EDD 9 Debit Cards and Accounts and misappropriate Cardholder Information, that 10 information can be sold on the dark web, allowing the buyers to engage in 11 unauthorized use of funds belonging to Plaintiffs and Class Members.<sup>8</sup>

12           79. Such rampant third-party fraud was readily foreseeable given the rapid 13 growth of the number of new unemployment benefits claims, as well as reports from 14 early in the pandemic warning of the potential for fraud and exploitation of the 15 unemployment benefits system by criminals. It is well known in the financial 16 industry that crises such as economic recessions lead to an increase in scams, fraud, 17 and other financial crimes. The early months of the COVID-19 pandemic in the 18 United States—March through May 2020—made clear that the pandemic would be 19 no exception. In late March 2020, the federal Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and 20 Economic Security (CARES) Act was signed into law, injecting $2.2 trillion of 21 relief into the American economy, including $260 billion in increased 22 unemployment benefits, and hundreds of billions of dollars more in one-time cash 23 payments to taxpayers and forgivable Paycheck Protection Program ("PPP") loans.

5 1. The Bank’s Policy and Practice of Not Employing 6 Reasonable Practices and Procedures to Monitor for, Detect,
7 Stop, and Promptly Notify Cardholders about Suspicious
8 Transactions Involving their Cards and Accounts

9 81. In its 2015 Proposal, Bank of America represented to EDD that, if 10 EDD were to extend its contract to distribute EDD benefits through EDD Debit 11 Cards and Accounts, the Bank “fully intend[s] to apply the most rigorous fraud 12 detection procedures,” including “employ[ing] the highest level of security and 13 fraud safeguards” based on “multiple layers of extensive security” and a “multi-14 faceted approach to combat fraud.” The Bank’s 2015 Proposal specifically promises 15 that Bank of America would provide “fraud monitoring” for all EDD Debit Cards 16 and Accounts, and to employ technology that would provide “immediate response 17 to emerging fraud trends” and allow fraudulent transactions to be “declined in real 18 time.” On information and belief, the Bank did not keep any of these promises with 19 respect to Plaintiffs’ and Class Members’ Accounts during the Class Period (as 20 defined herein), resulting in a flood of unauthorized transactions occurring on 21 Plaintiffs’ and Class Members’ Accounts which went unchecked by the Bank.

22 82. For example, at all relevant times, Bank of America knew that the vast 23 majority of Plaintiffs and Class Members were residents of California based on a 24 variety of information sources, including Plaintiffs’ and Class Members’ contact

1 information, their EDD Debit Card and Account transaction histories, and the fact 2 that EDD had determined them to be eligible to receive EDD benefits.

3 83. The Bank also knew about the COVID-19 pandemic and the fact that 4 people were engaging in much less long-distance travel (including long-distance in-5 state, out-of-state, and out-of-country travel) during the pandemic, whether because 6 of pandemic-related fears, pandemic-related travel restrictions imposed by state, 7 national, and foreign governments, or other reasons. The Bank had a legal 8 obligation, but failed, to use this knowledge to monitor for, detect, stop, and notify 9 Cardholders about transactions involving their Card or Account that were 10 suspicious because they were made during the pandemic at a significant distance 11 from where a particular Cardholder resided—especially with respect to transactions 12 being made hundreds of miles away or in another country.

13 84. The Bank also had access to Plaintiffs' and Class Members' individual 14 EDD Debit Card and Account transaction histories. The Bank had an obligation, 15 but failed, to use this knowledge to monitor for, detect, stop, and notify Cardholders 16 about multiple transactions involving their Card or Account that were suspicious 17 because the multiple transactions were made close in time but at a great physical 18 distance away from one another. For example, in November 2020, Class 19 Representative Plaintiff Jennifer Yick used her EDD Debit Card for in-person 20 transactions at stores in the San Francisco Bay Area on the same day or within one 21 day of unauthorized DoorDash transactions that occurred in New York, Texas, and 22 hundreds of miles away in Southern California. Yet the Bank failed to flag any of 23 these transactions as suspicious, stop them, or promptly notify Yick about them.

24 85. The Bank also had an obligation, but failed, to use Plaintiffs' and Class 25 Members' individual EDD Debit Card and Account transaction histories and past 26 Account access behaviors (e.g., logging into Accounts online, checking Account 27 balances) to monitor for, detect, stop, and notify Cardholders about transactions 28 involving their Card or Account and about Account access behaviors that were

1 suspicious because they were significantly inconsistent with how the Cardholder 2 had previously used their Card and Account. For example, Jennifer Yick had never 3 used her EDD Debit Card for transactions from DoorDash or to make any online 4 transactions, but rather had always used her Card over the course of several months 5 for purchasing necessities from brick-and-mortar stores located in or around the San 6 Francisco Bay Area, such as gas stations, grocery stores, and retail stores like Target 7 and Costco. Yet, Bank of America failed to flag as suspicious, stop, or notify her 8 about the four unauthorized DoorDash transactions that occurred within two weeks 9 of each other in November 2020 in New York, Texas, and Southern California.

10 86. Indeed, at all relevant times, the Bank had the obligation, but failed, to 11 employ reasonable policies and procedures for monitoring for, detecting, stopping, 12 and promptly notifying Cardholders about highly suspicious transactions involving 13 their Cards and Accounts, including but limited to using all the information at its 14 disposal to satisfy its constitutional, statutory, common law, and contractual 15 obligations to Plaintiffs and Class Members to monitor for, detect, stop, and 16 promptly notify Cardholders about suspicious activity involving their Card or 17 Account.

18 2. The Bank's Policy and Practice of Making it Difficult for 19 Cardholders to Report Unauthorized Transactions

20 87. The Bank has prevented many Plaintiffs and Class Members from 21 being able to report fraud in a timely manner, or even at all. For starters, the Bank 22 has established EDD Debit Card customer service phone lines as the virtually 23 exclusive means for EDD Debit Cardholders to seek help regarding issues with their 24 Cards or Accounts. Many Plaintiffs and Class Members, for example, have gone to 25 Bank of America branches seeking assistance with their Cards or Accounts, only 26 for Bank branch employees to tell them that they cannot assist EDD Debit 27 Cardholders, and that the Cardholder must call the phone number on the back of 28 their Card for assistance. Similarly, the Bank has generally not provided EDD Debit

1 Cardholders with the option of communicating their customer service to the Bank 2 by email, online chat, in-app chat, text, or other means now commonly available to 3 customers of financial institutions. Instead, EDD Debit Cardholders are largely 4 limited to calling.

5 88. Calling the Bank's EDD Debit Card customer service phone lines, 6 however, has often required Cardholders to endure hours-long wait times (with no 7 option to receive a callback when a customer service agent becomes available), a 8 variety of mishaps, and customer service agent incompetence. Notwithstanding the 9 foreseeable spike in calls that the Bank knew or should have known would 10 inevitably accompany the dramatic increase in unemployment benefits recipients 11 during the pandemic, the Bank failed to appropriately staff its customer service call 12 centers in a manner that would enable the Bank to honor its contractual 13 commitments under the EDD-Bank Contract and to provide reasonable levels of 14 assistance to the predictably large volume of EDD Debit Cardholders seeking 15 assistance. As a result, Plaintiffs and Class Members attempting to report fraud or 16 to inquire about potential fraud have been kept on hold for hours, have been 17 disconnected without warning, have waited long periods of time to speak with 18 someone only to be told to call back later, have been transferred to various 19 departments with no apparent end or sent to voicemail, have had to deal with 20 unhelpful automated agents, and have unsuccessfully attempted to reach the Bank 21 by email.

22 3. The Bank's Policy and Practice of Automatically Denying 23 Unauthorized Transaction Claims Without Reasonable
24 Investigation or Explanation, Including Based Solely on a
Highly Flawed "Claim Fraud Filter"

25 89. Even when Plaintiffs and Class Members have been able to report 26 unauthorized transactions to the Bank, the Bank has had a policy and practice since 27 at least October 2020 of automatically and summarily denying the fraud claims of 28 EDD Debit Cardholders without adequate investigation or explanation, including

1 based solely and exclusively on the results of the Bank's highly flawed and 2 unreliable automated "fraud filter" ("Claim Fraud Filter"), which it applies 3 whenever an EDD Debit Cardholder reports an unauthorized transaction on their 4 Account, purportedly to determine if the claimant is using a stolen identity. Pursuant 5 to this policy and/or practice, the Bank has failed to provide provisional credit to 6 tens or hundreds of thousands of Cardholders who filed a fraud claim and were 7 flagged by the Bank's Claim Fraud Filter. Instead of investigating the claim and 8 providing provisional credit as required by law, the Bank sent those Cardholders a 9 form letter, often dated the very same day or within a day or two of the Cardholder's 10 report of the unauthorized transactions, closing the Cardholder's claim. The form 11 letter states: "Your claim has been closed because we believe the account or the 12 claim have been the subject of fraud or suspicious activity. Any temporary credit 13 that was applied to your account related to this claim, including any related 14 reimbursement of fees, has been or will be debited from your account and reflected 15 in your available balance, if any." The form letter does not provide any 16 individualized information explaining what the Bank's investigation, if any, 17 entailed, nor does it explain the basis for the Bank's determination.

18 90. The Bank's form letter provides a telephone number that Cardholders 19 should call if they wish to "request that [the Bank] reopen your claim for further 20 consideration," but EDD Debit Cardholders who have called the Bank at that 21 number to make such a request have been given erroneous information or have been 22 told they cannot be helped. Even those who have submitted detailed documentation 23 to the Bank substantiating their fraud claims, such as sworn statements, police 24 reports, and documentary proof of their whereabouts at the time the fraudulent 25 transactions occurred (e.g., that they were nowhere near the ATM from which their 26 funds were withdrawn), have been often ignored and forced to go months without 27 receiving any update from the Bank regarding the status of their claim. Some who 28 submitted additional information simply received yet another form letter from the 1 Bank summarily reaffirming without explanation the Bank's original decision 2 denying the fraud claim. Even those Cardholders whose claims have been reopened 3 were not issued provisional credit pending completion of the Bank's investigation 4 and were not guaranteed that the Bank's investigation would be completed within 5 a certain number of days.

6 91. The Bank adopted its policy and practice of automatically denying the 7 fraud claims of EDD Debit Cardholders in an attempt to circumvent its obligations 8 under EFTA and Regulation E, which require the Bank to issue provisional credit 9 if it has not completed a good-faith investigation within 10 business days of a 10 Cardholder giving notice of an unauthorized transaction on their Account, to 11 complete a good-faith investigation of the claim within no more than 45 days, and 12 to permanently credit the Cardholder's Account for the amount of the transaction 13 unless the Bank has a reasonable basis for believing that the Cardholder authorized 14 or benefitted from the transaction. In implementing this unlawful policy and 15 practice, the Bank sought to protect its own financial interests at the expense of 16 legitimate claimants whose life-sustaining public benefits had been stolen from 17 their Bank of America Account.

18 92. The Bank also implemented its policy and practice of automatically 19 denying the fraud claims of EDD Debit Cardholders retroactively by rescinding 20 "permanent" credits that the Bank had previously paid. Thus, many Plaintiffs and 21 Class Members who previously had been "permanently" credited with the amount 22 of the funds that had been stolen from them and who had been previously informed 23 by the Bank that their fraud claims were favorably resolved suddenly and without 24 explanation had that same amount debited from their Accounts, sometimes leaving 25 their Accounts with a negative balance. As a result, when those Cardholders 26 received their next EDD benefits payment deposit into their Account, they were not 27 actually able to access those benefits because the new EDD benefits payments were 28

1 credited against the negative balance in their Account that resulted from the Bank's 2 actions.

3 4. The Bank's Policy and Practice of Automatically and 4 Indefinitely Freezing Cardholders' Accounts When They 5 Report Unauthorized Transactions, Based on a Highly 6 Flawed "Claim Fraud Filter"

7 93. In and around October 2020, the Bank implemented an additional 8 policy and practice of responding to EDD Debit Cardholders who report 9 unauthorized transactions by automatically and indefinitely freezing or blocking 10 their Accounts without any prior notice, explanation, or opportunity to be heard, 11 including based solely on the results of the Bank's highly flawed and unreliable 12 automated Claim Fraud Filter. A Cardholder whose Account is frozen or blocked 13 cannot access any funds in their Account; moreover, the Bank will not accept EDD 14 benefits payments from EDD for deposit into a frozen Account. Thus, many Class 15 Members have had the experience of reporting that they were the victims of 16 fraudulent transactions and receiving assurances from the Bank that it will cancel 17 their old EDD Debit Card and issue them a new one, only to discover that their new 18 Card is useless because the Bank has frozen (or blocked) their Account. The Bank 19 implements this policy and practice of freezing or blocking Accounts without any 20 prior notice, thus depriving Cardholders of access to any EDD benefits that may 21 have been in the Account at the time of the freeze or block. Moreover, the Bank's 22 practice of freezing or blocking Accounts cuts off the affected EDD Debit 23 Cardholders' access to any continuing benefits that the EDD deposits into the 24 Cardholder's blocked Account or attempts to deposit into the Cardholder's frozen 25 Account—EDD benefits to which EDD has determined the Cardholder is entitled.
26 As a result, many EDD Debit Cardholders who are the victims of third-party fraud 27 and who turn to the Bank for help, find themselves indefinitely deprived of access 28 to all their EDD benefits and treated as if they are the criminals.

1           94. Bank of America has frozen many Cardholders' Accounts for months 2 on end, without providing them any information as to when their Accounts will be 3 unfrozen or how they can facilitate that unfreezing. Some EDD Debit Cardholders 4 whose Accounts are frozen in this manner have eventually received a letter from 5 the Bank weeks or months after the fact, but that letter simply states: "It has been 6 determined that there may be irregular, unauthorized, or unlawful activities 7 involved with the prepaid debit card issued to you. As a result . . . a freeze (or hold) 8 has been placed on your account." The letter states that once the Bank freezes your 9 Account, you "will be unable to use the prepaid debit card or access the money in 10 your account," and that the Account "will not be available to receive any additional 11 benefits that may be issued to you by [EDD]." The letter further states: "If a 12 conclusion is reached that there is no irregular, unauthorized, or unlawful activity 13 on your account, your account will be unfrozen and your balance will become 14 available in accordance with the terms of the card account agreement and state 15 agency guidelines," but the letter does not advise the affected Cardholder as to what 16 steps they can take to regain access to their Account.

17           95. After Bank of America has frozen an EDD Debit Card Account in 18 response to a report of transactional fraud, the Bank has had a policy and practice 19 of telling the affected Cardholder that they are required to re-authenticate their 20 identity and re-verify their benefits eligibility with EDD as a condition of 21 unfreezing their Account—even if EDD itself has not raised any question regarding 22 the individual's identity or eligibility for benefits. Bank of America has imposed 23 this onerous and unreasonable condition on Cardholders who report third-party 24 transactional fraud regardless of whether there is a reasonable basis for suspecting 25 them of having committed benefits eligibility fraud, and despite knowing that 26 EDD's call center has been completely overwhelmed by the surge in calls from 27 unemployment benefits recipients throughout the pandemic and that many 28 individuals who call EDD will never get through to a live agent. According to the 1 State Auditor, EDD agents answered just 1.4% (697,132 of 50,251,351) of calls 2 received in July 2020, and just 6.3% (230,301 of 3,649,193) of calls received in 3 October 2020.

4 96. Even after Cardholders have complied with this onerous and 5 unreasonable Bank-imposed requirement of contacting EDD and obtaining 6 confirmation from EDD that they either do not need to re-verify or have 7 successfully re-verified their benefits eligibility, Bank of America still has not 8 unfrozen their EDD Debit Card Account, continuing without explanation to deprive 9 Cardholders of access to their EDD benefits and refusing to process their fraud 10 claims or refund their stolen money, sometimes for months longer.

11 5. The Bank's Policy and Practice of Denying Reasonable 12 Customer Service to Cardholders Seeking Assistance with 13 Fraud Claims and the Unfreezing of Accounts

14 97. Desperate and confused, EDD Debit Cardholders whose fraud claims 15 have been summarily denied and/or whose EDD Debit Card Accounts have been 16 suddenly frozen have spent months calling the Bank's customer service hotline, to 17 no avail.

18 98. The Bank has failed to appropriately staff its customer service call 19 centers in a manner that would allow it to honor its contractual commitments under 20 the EDD-Bank Contract and to provide reasonable levels of assistance to the 21 predictably large volume of EDD Debit Cardholders seeking assistance during this 22 pandemic. Further, the Bank has a policy and practice of failing to provide its 23 customer service representatives the tools or authority necessary to assist 24 Cardholders who call seeking assistance in resolving their fraud claims or 25 unfreezing their Accounts. Although the Bank at some point in the Fall of 2020 26 hired additional customer service agents, on information and belief those newly 27 hired customer service agents are not adequately trained and are not empowered to 28 investigate or resolve fraud claims, and the number of customer service agents

1 continued to be too low to handle incoming calls, resulting in hours-long wait times 2 if Cardholders can get through at all.

3 99. Despite the Bank's promise of 24/7 customer service, Plaintiffs and 4 Class Members have found themselves repeatedly kept on hold, sometimes for 5 hours, waiting to speak to a live agent. Plaintiffs and Class Members have routinely 6 been disconnected, hung up on, and treated rudely by overworked and overwhelmed 7 agents. They often spend hours on hold with customer service, despite the Bank 8 having represented in its Cardholder Agreement that "[t]elephoning is the best way 9 of keeping your possible losses down." Even when Plaintiffs and Class Members 10 finally reach customer service representatives, those representatives are unable to 11 offer any meaningful assistance, often conveying false information and 12 contradicting one another.

13 100. The Bank's representatives also often provide erroneous information 14 to Plaintiffs and Class Members regarding the source of their Account freezes.
15 Countless Class Members have been told that the Bank has no control over the 16 freeze, that EDD is the entity responsible for the freeze, and that only EDD has the 17 power to unfreeze their Account. But when Class Members call EDD, EDD informs 18 them that it has no control over their Account and that the freeze is entirely within 19 Bank of America's control. Even when Class Members re-verify their identity with 20 EDD, when EDD confirms their eligibility for benefits, and when EDD or Class 21 Members convey this information to the Bank, the Bank still does not unfreeze their 22 Accounts. In some cases, EDD has resumed paying benefits to Class Members 23 through paper checks at the Class Members' request, but those Class Members 24 continue to be unable to access funds in their Accounts, which remain frozen.

25 101. The EDD has publicly stated that the responsibility to prevent 26 fraudulent transactions and to address claims of unauthorized transactions lies 27 entirely with Bank of America, stating on October 29, 2020, that EDD "has no direct 28 access to debit funds on any accounts" and that those impacted by card issues should

1 contact Bank of America.<sup>13</sup> The agency has stated that it has no means to intervene 2 in Bank of America's procedures.

3 102. Bank of America's inadequate response to EDD Debit Cardholders' 4 issues with fraud on their Cards and Accounts results from the Bank's failure to 5 adequately staff its customer-service and fraud-investigation departments, and from 6 Bank procedures that are designed to, or that the Bank knows or reasonably should 7 know will, frustrate and obstruct Cardholders' efforts to submit their claims and to 8 obtain reimbursement under EFTA and the Bank's "Zero Liability" policy.

9 103. Many EDD Debit Cardholders have characterized their efforts to 10 obtain relief from the Bank for the wrongful conduct alleged herein as an "unofficial 11 full-time job trying to get the money back." One defrauded EDD Debit Cardholder 12 reported: "It's kind of like a nightmare . . . . Every day I'm wondering what's more 13 important. Do I get on the phone with the bank and try again so I have a place to 14 sleep tomorrow, or do I just accept that I'm going to be on the street and focus on 15 my job search? Because you can't do both."<sup>14</sup>

16 104. A Bank of America customer service worker, addressing the Bank's 17 response to the influx of reports of third-party debit card fraud, stated: "We're 18 actually no longer allowed to tell them a timeframe, because we have no clue . . . .
19 Every day, I talk to 30 people with the same story. I just pray for them after my 20 shift, honestly."<sup>15</sup>

105. Bank of America’s disregard for EDD Debit Cardholders’ issues with fraud and the Bank’s inadequate response contradicts the representations it made to the State in its proposal to administer the EDD public benefits program, in which the Bank represented, “we pride ourselves on providing stellar customer service to every caller. Long call hold waits and busy signals are not tolerated at Bank of America.”

6. The Court Preliminarily Enjoins the Bank’s Policies and Practices

106. On January 14, 2021, Plaintiff Jennifer Yick commenced the class action titled Yick v. Bank of America, N.A., No. 3:21-cv-00376, in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California. See Yick, Dkt. No. 1. Eight related class actions were subsequently filed in the Northern District of California,<sup>16</sup> which the Court consolidated into Yick for all purposes on March 29, 2021.

107. Shortly after Plaintiffs put the Bank on notice of their intent to move for a preliminary injunction, on or around March 18, 2021, the Bank announced that it was adopting a new policy and practice of “blocking” rather than “freezing” the Accounts of EDD Debit Cardholders who reported unauthorized transactions on their Account and who were flagged by the Bank’s Claim Fraud Filter, and that it was converting some “frozen” Accounts to “blocked” status. According to the Bank, this new policy permits a Cardholder with a “blocked” Account to regain access to their Account by contacting the Bank and passing a Bank-administered

1 identity-verification process. At the same time, the Bank sent some Accountholders 2 form letters dated March 18, 2021, informing them about this new policy. However, 3 the Bank still does not provide Cardholders advance notice of the intended block 4 (which, like a “freeze,” denies the Cardholder access to all funds in their Account), 5 and the Bank continues to block the Accounts of legitimate Cardholders based 6 solely on the results of the Bank’s Claim Fraud Filter, without any reasonable 7 investigation.

8 108. On April 1, 2021, Plaintiffs in the nine consolidated Yick class action 9 cases filed a Motion for Preliminary Injunction and Provisional Class Certification 10 under Rule 23(b)(2), seeking to enjoin the Bank’s practices described herein. In 11 opposing the motion, Bank of America confirmed that since October 2020, the Bank 12 had maintained a policy and practice of (a) subjecting every EDD Debit Cardholder 13 who submitted a claim of unauthorized transaction to an initial “Claim Fraud 14 Filter,” (b) automatically and without investigation denying the fraud claim of any 15 EDD Debit Cardholder flagged by the Claim Fraud Filter, and (c) automatically and 16 without investigation freezing or blocking the Account of any EDD Debit 17 Cardholder flagged by the Claim Fraud Filter. The Bank further confirmed that 18 between October 2020 and March 2021, it denied the fraud claims and froze or 19 blocked the Accounts of tens of thousands of legitimate EDD Debit Cardholders 20 based solely on the erroneous results of its Claim Fraud Filter. The Bank’s Claim 21 Fraud Filter has an extremely high false positive rate, and erroneously flagged tens 22 of thousands of claimants as criminals using stolen identities when they were in fact 23 legitimate EDD Debit Cardholders entitled to EDD benefits and who were 24 wrongfully deprived of those statutory benefits as a result of the Bank’s unlawful 25 policies and practices.

26 109. On May 17, 2021, the district court in Yick issued an Order Re 27 Preliminary Injunction, holding that Plaintiffs “have demonstrated a strong 28 likelihood of success” on claims for violations of the federal Electronic Fund

1 Transfers Act, for violations of California's Unfair Competition Law, and for 2 breach of contract; and that Plaintiffs had shown irreparable injury. The district
3 court provisionally certified a Rule 23(b)(2) class of all EDD Debit Cardholders 4 who call the Bank to report unauthorized charges to their Accounts and ordered the 5 parties to meet and confer regarding the appropriate scope of a preliminary 6 injunction. Yick, Dkt. No. 89 (Exhibit A).

7 110. On June 1, 2021, after the Yick parties engaged in an extensive meet-8 and-confer process, including a two-day settlement conference before U.S.
9 Magistrate Judge Sallie Kim, the district court entered the parties' joint submission 10 as a Preliminary Injunction. Id., Dkt. No. 103 (Exhibit B). Among other things, the 11 Preliminary Injunction: (a) prohibits the Bank from considering the results of the 12 Bank's Claim Fraud Filter in investigating or resolving unauthorized transaction 13 error claims ("Claims"); (b) prohibits the Bank from denying or closing Claims or 14 denying provisional or permanent credit to claimants' Accounts without conducting 15 and concluding an investigation into the alleged unauthorized transaction pursuant 16 to EFTA and Regulation E; (c) prohibits the Bank from denying or closing Claims 17 without providing the claimant a written explanation of the findings of its 18 investigation, pursuant to EFTA and Regulation E; (d) prohibits the Bank from 19 considering the results of the Bank's Claim Fraud Filter as a basis for freezing any 20 Class Member's Account; (e) requires the Bank to reopen any Claim that it closed 21 or denied based solely on the results of the Claim Fraud Filter and that it has not 22 previously paid or previously reopened and investigated; (f) requires the Bank to 23 investigate and resolve all such previously closed claims within specified time 24 periods after the Class Member authenticates their identity with the Bank, and to 25 issue provisional credit in the amount of the alleged error if the Bank's investigation 26 is not completed within specified time limits; and (g) requires the Bank to establish 27 dedicated toll-free numbers for Class Members seeking assistance with fraud claims 28 (Claims Initiation Call Center) or frozen and blocked Accounts (Fraud Call Center),

1 to expand its Claims Initiation Call Center and Fraud Call Center hours to 24 hours
2 per day, 7 days per week, to provide specified training to its Customer Service 3 Representatives, and to staff its Claims Initiation Call Center and Fraud Call Centers 4 to ensure an average speed to answer of no more than five minutes, 90 percent of 5 the time.

6 7. The Bank's Policies and Practices Continue to Harm
7 Cardholders

8 111. Notwithstanding the Preliminary Injunction prohibiting the Bank from 9 considering the results of the Claim Fraud Filter as a basis for denying or closing 10 unauthorized transaction claims or as a basis for "freezing" any Class Member's 11 Account, the Bank continues to apply the Claim Fraud Filter to every Class Member 12 who reports an unauthorized transaction and continues to rely on the results of the 13 Claim Fraud Filter as a basis for "blocking" those Class Members' Accounts. Just 14 as Class Members whose Accounts are "frozen" are denied access to funds in their 15 Accounts, Class Members whose Accounts are "blocked" are likewise unable to 16 access any EDD benefits still remaining in their Account and are unable to access 17 any continuing EDD benefits that EDD deposits into their Account while their 18 Account is blocked.

19 112. On information and belief, the Bank continues to block the Accounts 20 of thousands if not tens of thousands of Class Members each month based solely on 21 the results of the Bank's highly flawed and unreliable Claim Fraud Filter, thus 22 depriving Class Members of access to critical unemployment and other public 23 benefits to which the EDD has found they are entitled and on which they and their 24 families depend for food, shelter, and other basic life necessities.

25 113. Moreover, Class Members continue to experience unauthorized 26 transactions on their EDD Debit Card Accounts.

G. Class Representative Plaintiffs' Allegations

1. Jennifer Yick

114. In late November 2020, Yick was surprised when her EDD Debit Card was declined at a grocery store in the San Francisco Bay Area. She subsequently viewed her Account online and discovered that her Account balance, which she knew should have been over $400, had been drained to 70 cents due to four unauthorized transactions with DoorDash, a food delivery service, for what appeared to be orders from restaurants located in Texas, New York, and Southern California totaling over $400. The transactions posted to Yick's Account on November 2, 5, 8, and 16. Yick did not have a DoorDash account and did not make or authorize these transactions. Yick had never authorized anyone to use her Card, and she had never disclosed her Card PIN to anyone.

115. Yick is a long-time San Francisco resident. She did not travel to Texas, New York, Southern California, or anywhere else outside the San Francisco Bay Area during or around the period in November 2020 when the unauthorized transactions occurred, and during which time there was a nationwide surge of COVID-19 cases and related California and federal government restrictions on travel. Indeed, Yick used her EDD Debit Card for in-person transactions at stores in the San Francisco Bay Area on the same day or within one day of three of the unauthorized transactions. Additionally, Yick had never used her EDD Debit Card for transactions from DoorDash or restaurants, and had never used her Card to make an online transaction. Rather, she had always used her Card for purchasing necessities from brick-and-mortar stores located in or around the San Francisco Bay Area, such as gas stations, grocery stores, and retail stores like Target and Costco.

116. Bank of America knew or should have known about Yick's EDD Debit Card transaction history, that she appeared to be in the San Francisco Bay Area at the time of the unauthorized transactions, and that the COVID-19 pandemic and related fears and travel restrictions made it highly unlikely that Yick would have

1 been in Texas, New York, and Southern California at the time of the unauthorized 2 transactions. Given this, Bank of America should have detected and flagged the 3 unauthorized transactions as highly suspicious, stopped them, and notified Yick 4 about them, but the Bank did none of these things. Instead, it just allowed the 5 unauthorized transactions to happen.

6 117. Over the course of more than a month, Yick repeatedly sought 7 assistance through Bank of America's customer service phone lines, to no avail.
8 She repeatedly waited on hold before being disconnected from the line; waited to 9 speak to someone only to be told to call back later; was transferred to various 10 departments without receiving any information; was sent to voicemail; was forced 11 to deal with unhelpful automated agents; and unsuccessfully attempted to reach 12 Bank of America by email. To date, Yick has not been reimbursed for the 13 unauthorized transactions on her EDD Debit Card, nor has Bank of America 14 provisionally credited her Account.

15 118. Yick's experience seeking reimbursement from the Bank for the 16 unauthorized transactions on her Account demonstrates the futility of EDD Debit 17 Cardholders turning to Bank of America's customer service department for 18 assistance. After discovering the fraudulent charges on her EDD Debit Card on 19 December 1, 2020, Yick tried for days to contact a Bank of America agent who 20 would assist her with the fraud on her Card. After calling the number on the back 21 of her EDD Debit Card and waiting on hold, Yick eventually reached an agent who 22 told her that her call needed to go to "claims." Despite Bank of America's 23 representations of "24/7" customer service, the agent informed Yick that she would 24 need to call back during business hours and provided her with a number to call.
25 Yick called that number three times the following day, December 2, 2020, waiting 26 on hold each time, only to have the system repeatedly hang up on her.

27 119. Yick found another Bank of America customer service number and 28 called it, only to again wait on hold before the system hung up on her. Calling this

1 number led Yick to an automated customer service agent which asked Yick for her 2 Card number. Even though Yick provided her Card number when asked, the 3 automated agent continued to repeat its request for Yick's Card number, without 4 offering any sort of assistance.

5 120. On December 3, 2020, Yick tried once again to contact Bank of 6 America by calling the number on the back of her EDD Debit Card. This time she 7 reached a live customer service agent, who stated that she was adding notes to 8 Yick's file to indicate that Yick was disputing the four DoorDash transactions and 9 advised Yick to describe her claim in an email to a long email address involving a 10 string of abbreviated words, which the agent read to her over the phone.

11 121. This email address does not appear in Yick's Cardholder Agreement, 12 the "Quick Reference Guide" which accompanied her Card, or the Bank's EDD 13 Debit Card FAQ webpage. Nevertheless, when Yick finally reached a live customer 14 service representative, she was advised that sending an email to this previously 15 undisclosed email address represented her best chance of recovering the funds 16 stolen from her EDD Debit Card Account.

17 122. On December 6, 2020, Yick sent an email to that address, providing 18 Bank of America with her name, address, partial Card number, and a summary of 19 the disputed charges. The following evening, Yick's email provider (Gmail) sent 20 her an email stating there was trouble delivering her email to that address, and that 21 the system would attempt to deliver it for 45 more hours before sending a 22 notification that delivery had failed.

23 123. On December 8, 2020, concerned with Bank of America's failures to 24 respond, Yick filed a police report at her neighborhood precinct in San Francisco 25 concerning the fraudulent charges on her EDD Debit Card Account.

26 124. On December 9, 2020, Gmail sent Yick a message reading: "Message 27 not delivered . . . . The recipient server did not accept our requests to connect."
28

1           125. On December 22, 2020, when Yick had not received further assistance
2 or communication from Bank of America, she again attempted to email a summary 3 of her claim to the same email address. She was notified three days later that her 4 email was not delivered and that “[t]he recipient server did not accept our requests 5 to connect.”

6           126. In short, Yick followed the instructions in her Cardholder Agreement, 7 and made consistent, diligent efforts to recover the funds stolen from her EDD Debit 8 Card Account by multiple telephone calls and emails. Despite this, Bank of 9 America’s customer service department never offered Yick any meaningful 10 response or assistance, but rather stymied her efforts at every turn. After Yick filed 11 a class action lawsuit and obtained a preliminary injunction against the Bank, the 12 Bank finally reimbursed Yick $409.26 for the unauthorized transactions on or about 13 December 20, 2021.

14           2. Vanessa Rivera

15           127. Rivera received her EDD Debit Card in January 2020. It was her 16 lifeline—she used it to buy essentials like gas and food for her and her young son.

17           128. On January 29, 2021, someone fraudulently withdrew $800 from 18 Rivera’s EDD Debit Card Account at a Bank of America ATM. She received a 19 message that the balance in her Account was $4.17, when she knew she should have 20 had over $800 in the Account. She only received this message because she had set 21 up her Account settings to automatically notify her if her Account balance fell 22 below $30—it was not an alert from the Bank about suspected fraud. Rivera’s Card 23 was in her possession when the fraudulent withdrawal occurred, and she had never 24 authorized anyone to use her Card or disclosed her Card PIN to anyone.

25           129. That same day, Rivera logged into her Account online to see if there 26 might have been a mistake and found that someone had conducted a balance inquiry 27 from an ATM about an hour away from where she lives and then withdrew the $800.
28 She immediately called Bank of America to submit a claim disputing the 1 transaction. The Bank representative she spoke with gave her a claim number, and 2 Rivera assumed the claim would be investigated.

3 130. On February 4, 2021, Rivera called Bank of America again and was 4 surprised to learn that the representative she had spoken with on January 29 never 5 actually submitted her fraud claim and, instead, just put a “note” in her Account and 6 mailed her a new Card. The Bank representative that Rivera spoke with on February 7 4 told Rivera that she (the February 4 representative) successfully submitted her 8 fraud claim for investigation. The next week Rivera received in the mail a letter 9 from the Bank stating that her claim was closed. The letter was dated February 5, 10 2021, just one day after her claim was submitted for investigation. On information 11 and belief, the Bank failed to conduct a good-faith investigation of Rivera’s fraud 12 claim and did not have a reasonable basis for its determination that Rivera had 13 authorized or benefitted from the transaction.

14 131. On February 6, 2021, Rivera received her replacement Card in the 15 mail. She tried activating it online, but Bank of America’s website indicated she 16 was not allowed access to her Account. Rivera then called the number on the back 17 of the Card to activate it and a Bank representative told her that her Account had 18 been frozen due to fraudulent charges.

19 132. On March 3, 2021, Rivera received a letter from Bank of America 20 stating that there had been fraud on her Account and informing her that her Account 21 would remain frozen. This letter did not provide her with any useful information as 22 to why her Account would remain frozen, but only stated that fraud is what had 23 caused her Account to be frozen initially.

24 133. Rivera has spent at least 30 hours on the phone with Bank of America 25 customer service about her $800 unauthorized transaction claim and trying to get 26 her Account unfrozen. During these phone calls, she has felt belittled and treated 27 like a criminal by Bank representatives, who have stated or implied that she was 28 responsible for the fraud. On one occasion, a Bank of America representative told

1 her that she had done nothing wrong, but that her Account was frozen because of a 2 Bank policy or protocol that requires Bank employees or agents to freeze an 3 Account when an unauthorized transaction occurs on the Account.

4 134. Bank of America's summary denial of Rivera's unauthorized 5 transaction claim and freezing of her Account caused Rivera extreme financial 6 hardship and desperation. She went days without eating a full meal or eating only 7 once a day. She had to break her young son's piggy bank so that she could have 8 money to buy them food. She had her phone disconnected because she could not 9 pay the bill, and did not have money for gas or public transportation, making it 10 impossible for her to go to a job interview or to have a job requiring that she 11 commute to and from work.

12 135. On April 1, 2021, Rivera became a class representative plaintiff in the 13 Yick action (pursuant to an Amended Consolidated Complaint filed in that case) and 14 submitted a declaration in support of the consolidated Yick plaintiffs' Motion for 15 Preliminary Injunction and Provisional Class Certification. Only then did Bank of 16 America finally "reconsider" her months-old fraud claim, reimburse her the $800 17 at issue, and unfreeze her Account.

18 3. Candace Koole

19 136. Koole started receiving EDD unemployment benefits through a Bank 20 of America EDD Debit Card during the COVID-19 pandemic. She generally used 21 her Card to pay for essentials like food, rent, medicine, and toiletries. She also used 22 it to pay for hospital visits and dental work.

23 137. On December 30, 2020, Koole tried to use her EDD Debit Card at a 24 grocery store to buy food for her and her young son, and the Card was repeatedly 25 declined at the checkout stand. She left the groceries at the store and went home to 26 check her Account balance. She was shocked to find her Account had just $7 in it, 27 down from approximately $9,000 the week before. Her online Account statement 28 showed that $8,760 had been fraudulent taken out of her Account by ATM

1 withdrawals—mostly withdrawals of the daily maximum of $1,000 per day at 2 several different ATM locations around Southern California until her Account was 3 nearly empty. She did not authorize these withdrawals, and her Card was in her 4 possession when they occurred. She also had never disclosed her Card PIN to 5 anyone and had never authorized anyone to use her Card.

6 138. The same day, Koole called the Bank and submitted a claim disputing 7 the fraudulent transactions. During that call, a Bank representative told Koole that 8 her EDD Debit Card Account would be frozen as a result of her reporting fraud, 9 and Koole's Account was frozen that day. The Bank representative told Koole that 10 she was responsible for proving that she had not committed the fraud on her 11 Account and advised her to file a police report in support of her fraud claim.

12 139. Immediately after speaking with the Bank, Koole attempted to file a 13 police report with the Riverside County Sheriff's Department. She could not 14 complete the report, however, because she did not know the "terminal ID numbers" 15 corresponding to the ATMs where money had been fraudulently withdrawn from 16 her Account. And because Koole's Account was frozen, she could not access her 17 Account online and, thus, could not access any details about the fraudulent 18 transactions, including the information necessary to complete the police report.

19 140. In early January 2021, Koole received a letter from the Bank dated 20 December 31, 2020—just one day after she submitted her claim disputing the 21 fraudulent transactions—denying her claim. The only explanation in the letter for 22 why the Bank had denied her claim was the same generic explanation that the Bank 23 sent numerous other Plaintiffs and Class Members upon denying their claims: 24 "Your claim has been closed because we believe the account or the claim have been 25 the subject of fraud or suspicious activity." On information and belief, the Bank 26 failed to conduct a good-faith investigation of Koole's fraud claim and did not have 27 a reasonable basis for its determination that Koole had authorized or benefitted from 28 the transaction.

1           141. In the months after the Bank rejected Koole's fraud claim and froze 2 her Account, Koole repeatedly called the Bank about addressing these issues. Some 3 Bank representatives said the status of her claim was pending, others that she needs 4 to communicate with EDD, and others that her Account is completely closed. Many 5 times, Bank representatives have told Koole that she needs to contact EDD to tell 6 the agency to communicate with the Bank to unfreeze her Account. But she has 7 called EDD and been told by EDD that their system does not show any issues with 8 her Account. Koole has spent approximately 100 hours on the phone trying to 9 resolve the issues relating to her Account.

10           142. As a result of Bank of America's acts and failures to act, Koole's life 11 changed drastically. Koole is a single mother with a young son. She was forced to 12 live week to week, rationing out food for her child. She also had no way to get a job 13 because of the COVID-19 pandemic, and every day she wondered if she would soon 14 be homeless.

15           143. On April 1, 2021, Koole became a class representative plaintiff in the 16 Yick action (pursuant to an Amended Consolidated Complaint filed in that case) and 17 submitted a declaration in support of the consolidated Yick plaintiffs' Motion for 18 Preliminary Injunction and Provisional Class Certification. Only then did Bank of 19 America finally "reconsider" her months-old fraud claim. By letter dated April 6, 20 2021, the Bank informed Koole that it was granting her $8,760 fraud claim and that 21 her Account would be permanently credited in that amount. Approximately one 22 month after that, in or about early May 2021, the Bank finally restored Koole's 23 access to her Account.

24           4. Azuri Moon

25           144. On or around October 20, 2020, when Moon tried to buy lunch at a 26 restaurant, he was informed that his Bank Debit Card had insufficient funds.
27 Knowing he should have had around two thousand dollars in his Account, he 28 immediately checked his Account online and saw two separate ATM withdrawals

1 totaling $1,800, leaving him with virtually no money in his Account. Moon had 2 never disclosed his Card PIN to anyone, and had never authorized anyone to use his 3 Card, and did not authorize these ATM withdrawals.

4 145. On October 21, 2020, Moon called Bank of America to report these 5 unauthorized transactions. He spent 11 hours on the phone before he was able to 6 get through to the claims department. Moon then submitted a fraud claim and a 7 Bank of America representative told him that a decision would be made on his case 8 in 30 days or so.

9 146. In or about mid-November 2020, nearly a month after making his 10 claim, Moon had not received any communication from the Bank, and so he 11 contacted the Bank to get an update on his claim. Moon was shocked when a Bank 12 of America representative told him that he was liable for the disputed transactions, 13 and the Bank would not be returning the money. On information and belief, the 14 Bank failed to conduct a good-faith investigation of Moon's fraud claim and did not 15 have a reasonable basis for its determination that Moon had authorized or benefitted 16 from the transaction. During that same phone call, the Bank representative told 17 Moon that he could file a police report, write a detailed description of what 18 happened, and fax it to Bank of America with his name, case number, and Card 19 number. Having received no written communications from Bank of America, and 20 thus forced to rely only on his personal notes, it was extremely difficult for him to 21 file a police report. But he ultimately compiled everything that the Bank had asked 22 for and faxed it to the Bank.

23 147. From approximately November 15 to December 15, 2020, Moon was 24 forced to live in his car because the funds he would have used to pay rent were 25 stolen from his Account and not reimbursed by the Bank. He had to rely on the 26 generosity of others to begin sleeping in a bed again. He routinely had to choose 27 which bills to pay and which ones not to, resulting in significant late fees and 28 interest charges.

1 148. In or about mid-December 2020, nearly a month after faxing the Bank 2 the police report and other documents that the Bank had requested, and having 3 received no communication from the Bank, Moon called the Bank again to get an 4 update. A representative told him that the Bank never received his fax. It turned out 5 that a Bank representative had provided Moon with his claim number but 6 mistakenly told him it was his case number, and the information in his fax reflected 7 this mistake, derailing his fraud claim. Moon was told the Bank would not be able 8 to process his claim until this was corrected. He then re-faxed everything with the 9 information they requested.

10 149. In late December 2020 or early January 2021, with his claim still 11 unresolved, the Bank froze Moon's Account with no explanation. He called the 12 Bank, and was informed that, as a result of the freeze, the Bank could not do 13 anything to address his fraud claim.

14 150. From the time he made his fraud claim in late October 2020 through 15 late March 2021, Moon spent at least 50–60 hours on the phone with Bank of 16 America trying to resolve the issues with his claim and the freezing of his Account, 17 to no avail.

18 151. On April 1, 2021, Moon became a class representative plaintiff in the 19 Yick action (pursuant to an Amended Consolidated Complaint filed in that case) and 20 submitted a declaration in support of the consolidated Yick plaintiffs' Motion for 21 Preliminary Injunction and Provisional Class Certification. Only then did Bank of 22 America finally "reconsider" his fraud claim, reimburse his Account the $1,800, 23 and unfreeze his Account.

24 5. Roland Oosthuizen

25 152. Every day from September 24 to 28, 2020, an unauthorized third party 26 or parties withdrew $1,000 from Oosthuizen's EDD Debit Card Account, using 27 Bank of America ATMs in the Los Angeles area. Oosthuizen did not make the 28 withdrawals himself, did not authorize the withdrawals, and only learned about the 1 withdrawals when he logged into his EDD Debit Card Account on Bank of 2 America's website to find that $5,000 was missing.

3 153. Oosthuizen has always kept his original EDD Debit Card in his wallet.
4 He does not know how unauthorized third parties gained access to his EDD Debit 5 Card Account, but he believes his EDD Debit Card was fraudulently cloned.

6 154. The Bank never notified Oosthuizen of this fraud, notwithstanding the 7 highly suspicious withdrawal of the maximum daily ATM limit under the 8 Cardholder Agreement of $1,000 per day for five straight days at different ATMs, 9 which was a completely different pattern of withdrawal than Oosthuizen himself 10 had ever undertaken.

11 155. After discovering the fraudulent withdrawals from his EDD Debit 12 Card Account on September 29, 2020, Oosthuizen promptly suspended his EDD 13 Debit Card using the Bank of America online portal. The next day, Oosthuizen 14 called Bank of America and—after waiting on hold for three hours—made a fraud 15 claim concerning the missing $5,000. A Bank of America representative named 16 Kaitlyn told Oosthuizen he should wait to hear back from Bank of America 17 concerning his claim.

18 156. Approximately two weeks later, Oosthuizen received a letter in the 19 mail from Bank of America dated October 1, 2020—just two days after Oosthuizen 20 had reported the fraud—which summarily closed his claim and failed to provide 21 any substantive information concerning what Bank of America did to investigate 22 his claim or its reason for closing the claim. On information and belief, the Bank 23 failed to conduct a good-faith investigation of Oosthuizen's fraud claim and did not 24 have a reasonable basis for its determination that Oosthuizen had authorized or 25 benefitted from the transactions.

26 157. Over the following months, Oosthuizen called Bank of America 27 multiple times, typically waiting on hold for hours before, on occasion, reaching a 28 live person. Oosthuizen spoke with a Bank representative named Tara on October

1 14, 2020. He requested that Bank of America re-open his case. Tara assured him 2 during that call that his claim would be “escalated.” Tara also requested that 3 Oosthuizen fax the Bank documentation supporting his claim.

4 158. On November 5, 2020, Oosthuizen faxed Bank of America a written 5 statement regarding the theft, a police report information statement from when he 6 made a report of the theft to the Los Angeles Sherriff’s Department, and other 7 documentation. In his fax, Oosthuizen specifically requested that Bank of America 8 provide him with whatever documentation the Bank had relied upon when it denied 9 his fraud claim. He did not receive a response to his fax. At no time during this 10 process did the Bank provide him any provisional credit, causing him severe 11 hardship. On information and belief, the Bank failed to a conduct good-faith 12 investigation of Oosthuizen’s fraud claim and did not have a reasonable basis for 13 its determination that Oosthuizen had authorized or benefitted from the 14 transactions.

15 159. Only after Oosthuizen filed a class action lawsuit against Bank of 16 America on January 26, 2021 did he receive a letter from the Bank dated January 17 27, 2021, stating that the Bank had performed an additional review of his claim and 18 had credited him for the $5,000 that had been stolen from his EDD Debit Card 19 Account. The Bank did not pay him any interest on the $5,000.

20 6. Rosemary Mathews

21 160. On October 12, 2020, an unauthorized third party or parties withdrew 22 $1,000 from Mathews’ EDD Debit Card Account, using a Bank of America ATM 23 that Mathews has never herself used, leaving her with less than $500 in her Account.

24 161. Mathews has always kept her EDD Debit Card with her, never let 25 anyone borrow her Card, and has not disclosed her Card PIN to anyone. Mathews 26 does not know how unauthorized third parties gained access to her EDD Debit Card 27 Account, but she believes her Card was fraudulently cloned.
28

1 162. The Bank never notified Mathews of the unauthorized withdrawal 2 from her Account. She only realized that the theft occurred when she checked her 3 Account balance on October 18, 2020, and found it was below $500. She was 4 horrified because she did not have enough money left to cover basic necessities.

5 163. After discovering the fraudulent withdrawal of $1,000 from her 6 Account, Mathews on October 18, 2020 telephoned Bank of America at the number 7 on the back of her EDD Debit Card, only to be told that the claims department was 8 not open that day. The next day, she called and, after waiting on hold, made a claim.

9 164. Approximately two weeks passed before Mathews received a letter in 10 the mail from Bank of America summarily closing her claim while failing to provide 11 any other information. On information and belief, the Bank failed to conduct a 12 good-faith investigation of Mathew's fraud claim and did not have a reasonable 13 basis for its determination that Mathews had authorized or benefitted from the 14 transactions.

15 165. Over the following months, Mathews called Bank of America multiple 16 times, typically waiting on hold for hours before, on occasion, reaching a live 17 representative.

18 166. On November 5, 2020, Mathews faxed to Bank of America a written 19 statement regarding the theft, a police report information statement from when she 20 made a report of the theft to the Los Angeles Sherriff's Department, and other 21 documentation. Mathews specifically requested that Bank of America provide her 22 with the documentation that the Bank purportedly relied upon when it denied her 23 fraud claim. She did not receive a response to her November 5, 2020 fax, and at no 24 time during this process did the Bank provide her any provisional credit, causing 25 her severe hardship.

26 167. On or about December 22, 2020, Mathews realized that her EDD Debit 27 Card Account was frozen. She called the Bank, which told her that it had frozen her 28 Account on or about December 17, 2020.

1 168. Only after Mathews filed a class action lawsuit against Bank of 2 America on January 26, 2021, did she finally receive a letter from the Bank dated
3 January 27, 2021 stating that the Bank had performed an additional review of her 4 claim and had credited her with the $1,000 that had been fraudulently stolen from 5 her EDD Debit Card Account.

6 169. Even after receiving the Bank's letter dated January 27, 2021, 7 Mathews was still unable to access those credited funds because her EDD Debit 8 Card Account remained frozen. Although her Account had been frozen since 9 December 2020, she did not receive a written notice from the Bank regarding the 10 freeze until February 1, 2021. The notice did not provide her any details or 11 information specific to her as to why her Account had been frozen. Sometime 12 thereafter, without notification, the Bank unfroze her Account, which allowed her 13 to withdraw the $1,000 from her Account. The Bank never credited her any interest 14 on the $1,000. Mathews estimates she spent more than 100 hours calling the Bank 15 in her attempts to recover the $1,000 or have her Account unfrozen.

16 170. It was an extreme hardship for Mathews not to have access to her 17 unemployment benefits. She had to borrow money from her son and other family 18 members and suffered great stress trying to pay her bills each month. She began 19 seeing a counselor because of depression and stress due to not receiving the 20 unemployment benefits to which she was entitled.

21 7. Carlos Rodriguez

22 171. Plaintiff Carlos Rodriguez received $900 on his EDD Debit Card every 23 two weeks after being found eligible for unemployment benefits during the 24 COVID-19 pandemic.

25 172. On or about December 17, 2020, Rodriguez started calling Bank of 26 America to inquire about EDD benefits that should have already been, but did not 27 appear to have been, deposited into his EDD Debit Card Account. For the previous 28 couple of days, Rodriguez had been checking his Account to confirm receipt of the 1 deposit, but the funds were not there. Concerned about the whereabouts of those 2 funds, Rodriguez researched his Account transaction history and noticed a $230 3 ATM withdrawal on December 10, 2020, and a $900 ATM withdrawal on 4 December 17, 2020. Neither withdrawal was made or authorized by Rodriguez. The 5 withdrawals were made at one or more ATMs in Los Angeles, while Rodriguez was 6 in San Diego. Rodriguez further noticed that some unidentified person or persons 7 had checked his Account balance without his authorization on November 30, 2020, 8 and many times throughout December 2020.

9 173. Alarmed by these transactions and the missing funds, Rodriguez 10 promptly called Bank of America. The Bank replied that it had never received funds 11 for his Account from the EDD. Rodriguez then called the EDD, which stated that it 12 had deposited the $900 to his EDD Debit Card Account as scheduled. When 13 Rodriguez followed up with the Bank, the Bank froze his Account and told him that 14 22,000 other individuals who receive their EDD unemployment benefits through 15 EDD Debit Cards had also had funds stolen from their EDD Debit Card Accounts.

16 174. In or about mid-February 2021, Rodriguez started receiving, at his 17 request, bi-weekly EDD benefits payments in the form of paper checks that EDD 18 mailed to him. EDD also paid Rodriguez via check for EDD benefits that were owed 19 to him from the time that Bank of America froze his EDD Debit Card Account until 20 the time he started receiving paper checks from EDD. He did not receive any 21 interest on those funds.

22 175. After Rodriguez filed a class action lawsuit against Bank of America 23 in the Northern District of California in January 2021, and shortly after the 24 Northern District Plaintiffs put the Bank on notice of their intent to move for a 25 preliminary injunction, Rodriguez received a letter from Bank of America dated 26 March 18, 2021, informing him of a new way to remove the hold (i.e., remove the 27 freeze or block) on his EDD Debit Card Account. In April 2021, while the parties 28 were briefing the Northern District Plaintiffs' Motion for Preliminary Injunction

1 and Provisional Class Certification, the Bank finally unfroze or unblocked 2 Rodriguez's Account, thereby restoring his access to his Account for the first time 3 since it was frozen many months earlier.

4 176. Also in April 2021, the Bank sent Rodriguez a letter dated April 20, 5 2021—i.e., just one day before the Bank filed its opposition to the motion for 6 preliminary injunction on April 21 (see Yick, Dkt. No. 72)—informing him that the 7 Bank was issuing him a temporary credit for the funds that had been fraudulently 8 withdrawn from his Account. On April 22, the Bank made the credit permanent, 9 which it reported to the Court when it re-filed its opposition to the motion for 10 preliminary injunction on April 23 (Yick, Dkt. No. 76-16 at 5).

11 8. J. Michael Willrich

12 177. In late September or early October 2020, Willrich discovered that 13 $4,000 to $5,000 was missing from his EDD Debit Card Account. Bank of America 14 did not notify him of the fraud. Willrich had never disclosed his PIN to anyone and 15 had never authorized another person to his Card.

16 178. Upon learning of the fraud, Willrich immediately went to a Bank of 17 America branch and reported it to a Bank representative. The Bank representative 18 told him that the Bank only “sponsors” the EDD Debit Card and that he should call 19 the phone number on the back of his Card for assistance.

20 179. Over the course of months, Willrich repeatedly sought assistance 21 through Bank of America's customer service phone lines, but to no avail. When 22 Willrich was able to get through to a customer service representative, he was 23 informed that he needed to speak with the Claims Department. He asked if he could 24 file a claim online but was told by the representative that he could not. He was then 25 transferred to the Bank's Claims Department, where he waited on hold for three-26 and-a-half hours before the system hung up on him. The day after that, Willrich 27 waited on hold for another hour before he had to terminate the call due to time 28 constraints.

1           180. On the fourth day after discovering the fraud, Willrich awoke at 5:00
2 A.M. PST to call the Claims Department and was finally able to reach a Bank 3 representative and submit a fraud claim regarding the unauthorized transactions.
4 Willrich and the Bank representative spent approximately one hour going through 5 every charge during a three-month period to ensure all fraudulent activity was 6 accounted for.

7           181. Approximately 3–4 days after submitting his claim, Willrich received 8 a letter from Bank of America stating that his claim had been denied due to 9 suspected fraud. On information and belief, the Bank failed to conduct a good-faith 10 investigation of Willrich’s fraud claim and did not have a reasonable basis for its 11 determination that Willrich had authorized or benefitted from the transactions.

12           182. In early November 2020, Willrich again got up at 5:00 A.M. PST to 13 call the Bank of America Claims Department. He spoke with a Bank representative 14 and explained that he had submitted a fraud claim that had been denied by Bank of 15 America. He asked the representative to explain why his claim had been denied.
16 The representative told Willrich that the letter that was sent to him was the result of 17 a “glitch” and that many people were calling about the same issue. The 18 representative then re-opened Willrich’s initial claim and told Willrich to wait and 19 see what happened.

20           183. Willrich waited as instructed, but he received no communication from 21 the Bank.

22           184. It was not until approximately January 12, 2021, when Willrich
23 attempted to withdraw money from his EDD Debit Card Account, that Willrich 24 learned that money had been credited to his Account. At no point between the early 25 November 2020 phone call and January 2021 did Willrich receive any 26 communication from Bank of America regarding the status of his fraud claim, such 27 as the status of the Bank’s investigation or its determination.
28

1           185. In or around January and February 2021, there were at least three 2 occasions when Willrich attempted to use his EDD Debit Card to withdraw money
3 from a Bank of America ATM and was denied. On these occasions, the ATM 4 displayed the following message: “Your transaction has been cancelled.” On at least 5 one of these occasions, Willrich then went into the Bank of America branch where 6 the ATM was located and asked a Bank employee for assistance. The employee told 7 Willrich that his EDD Debit Card Account had been frozen again and that he needed 8 to call the number on the back of his EDD Debit Card to receive assistance. Willrich 9 called the phone number as instructed and, after a lengthy process, a Bank 10 representative told him that the issue that had caused his Account to be frozen had 11 been fixed. However, when Willrich returned to an ATM and attempted to use his 12 EDD Debit Card to withdraw money from his Account, he was again denied, and 13 the ATM displayed the same error message as it had before. After spending two 14 days on the phone with Bank of America and numerous representatives, Willrich 15 finally secured the ability to make electronic transfers from his Account. To the 16 extent Willrich was able to obtain funds from his Account, it was only by 17 transferring them out of his Account electronically.

18           186. After Willrich filed a class action lawsuit against Bank of America on 19 January 22, 2021, the Bank finally unfroze his Account.

20           9. Lindsay McClure

21           187. McClure experienced $1,003 in fraudulent charges on her EDD Debit 22 Card Account on or around December 1, 2020, after her Card was skimmed, she 23 believes, at a gas station where she had used her Card, and where reports indicated 24 that other debit and/or credit cards had been skimmed. After becoming aware of the 25 fraudulent and unauthorized charges on her Account, McClure repeatedly called to 26 seek assistance through Bank of America’s customer service, to no avail.

27           188. McClure first called the Bank on December 1, 2020, as soon as 28 possible after discovering the unauthorized transactions to report them as

1 fraudulent. She presented evidence over the phone regarding the unauthorized 2 transactions, which the Bank representative acknowledged was indicative of fraud.
3 The representative told her that a fraud investigation would take place over the 4 following 30–45 days. Yet shortly thereafter, she received a letter from Bank of 5 America dated December 2, 2020, indicating that the Bank had closed her fraud 6 claim the day after she submitted it. On information and belief, the Bank failed to 7 conduct a good-faith investigation of McClure’s fraud claim and did not have a 8 reasonable basis for its determination that McClure had authorized or benefitted 9 from the transactions.

10 189. She then followed up with the Bank to inquire about her fraud claim, 11 and a Bank representative told her that Bank of America was investigating it. When 12 she asked how that was possible considering the Bank’s letter stating the claim had 13 been closed, the Bank representative hung up on her.

14 190. Several weeks later, without reaching any resolution regarding her 15 fraud claim, Bank of America froze McClure’s Account without any notice.
16 McClure did not find out her Account was frozen until December 20, 2020, when 17 she tried to use her Card at a drive-through and discovered that she could not access 18 her funds. When McClure called Bank of America to inquire about this, a Bank 19 representative told her that EDD had frozen her Account due to fraud on the 20 Account. On information and belief, this statement was false. When McClure then 21 contacted EDD, an EDD representative told her that the agency had no evidence of 22 any fraud on her Account. McClure subsequently phoned Bank of America to 23 convey to the Bank what EDD had told her, but her Account remained frozen.

24 191. Only after McClure filed a class action lawsuit against Bank of 25 America on January 25, 2021, did she finally receive a letter from the Bank dated 26 January 27, 2021, stating that the Bank had performed an “additional review” of her 27 claim and had credited her the $1,003 stolen from her Account; however, her 28 Account remained frozen. At some time before the end of March 2021, the Bank

1 finally unfroze her Account, at which point McClure was finally able to regain 2 access to the funds in her Account.

3 10. Robert L. Wilson

4 192. Wilson was approved by the EDD for unemployment benefits in or 5 around April 2020, and he received an EDD Debit Card with a magnetic stripe (but 6 no EMV chip) soon thereafter. In or about September 2020, $2,547.78 was stolen 7 from his EDD Debit Card Account through unauthorized transactions. On or around 8 October 3, 2020, the Bank froze Wilson's Account without any notice or 9 explanation. Upon discovering that he could not access his Account, Wilson 10 promptly contacted Bank of America and was informed that unauthorized 11 transactions had occurred on his Account in Southern California. Wilson, who 12 resides in Stockton, informed the Bank representative that he had not used his Card 13 in Southern California. The representative told Wilson that the Bank would 14 investigate the unauthorized transactions and, in the meantime, would provide him 15 with provisional credit.

16 193. Within a week or two, the Bank reversed that provisional credit and 17 closed the investigation into his fraud claim, all without warning or explanation.
18 Wilson subsequently attempted to contact the Bank to resolve these issues 19 approximately 30 to 40 times without success. Eventually, he was able to get the 20 Bank to unfreeze his Account.

21 194. But the Bank continued to deprive Wilson of the stolen funds. After 22 Wilson filed a class action against Bank of America and was one of the consolidated 23 Yick plaintiffs who moved for a preliminary injunction against the Bank on April 1, 24 2021, however, Wilson contacted the Bank on April 17 to request that it reopen its 25 investigation into his fraud claim. On April 29, the Bank finally granted his claim 26 and credited his Account the full $2,547.78 at issue.

11. Clara Cajas

195. On or about January 12, 2021, an unauthorized ATM cash withdrawal in the amount of $700 was made from Cajas's EDD Debit Card Account. Cajas had never disclosed her Card PIN to anyone and had never authorized anyone to use her Card. Cajas reported the fraudulent withdrawal to the Bank within 24 hours of its occurrence. The Bank responded that it would send her a new EDD Debit Card within 24 hours.

196. When Cajas did not receive the new Card, she called the Bank to inquire about the status of the new Card and was told that she would not receive a new Card because her Account had been frozen. Cajas subsequently received a letter from the Bank, dated January 14, 2021, informing her that her fraud claim related to the $700 ATM withdrawal had been closed. On information and belief, the Bank failed to conduct a good-faith investigation of Cajas's fraud claim and did not have a reasonable basis for its determination that Cajas had authorized or benefitted from the transactions.

197. Cajas did not understand how Bank of America could have concluded its investigation within 48 hours of the fraudulent ATM withdrawal. She called the Bank and was told by another Bank agent that the agent could not talk to her because her Account was frozen.

198. Following the unauthorized ATM withdrawal, and the freezing of her Account, Cajas repeatedly sought assistance through Bank of America's customer service phone lines, to no avail. Each time Cajas called the Bank, she spoke to a different agent. Even though she fully documented her claim, each call was treated as if she were calling for the first time. The agents were either unable or unwilling to assist Cajas in any meaningful way regarding her $700 fraud claim or helping her regain access to any of the remaining balance in her Account. She repeatedly waited on hold for extended periods; was repeatedly disconnected from the line; waited to speak to someone only to be told to call back later; was transferred to

1 various departments without being provided any meaningful assistance or helpful 2 information; was sent to voicemail; dealt with unhelpful automated agents; and 3 unsuccessfully attempted to sort out the issues with her Account in person at Bank 4 of America branches.

5 199. On April 1, 2021, Cajas and the other plaintiffs in the consolidated 6 Yick action filed their Motion for Preliminary Injunction and Provisional Class 7 Certification. Only then did Bank of America “reconsider” Cajas’s fraud claim. On 8 or about April 28, 2021, Bank of America finally issued Cajas a permanent credit 9 for the $700 at issue and unfroze her Account, thereby allowing Cajas to access her 10 Account for the first time in more than three months.

11 12. Stephanie Smith

12 200. Smith received her EDD Debit Card in or about June 2020 and 13 activated it on Bank of America’s website the same day that she received it.
14 Immediately after activating the Card, she locked the Card in a safe inside her home, 15 and she did not subsequently take the Card out of the safe or use it in any way. Her 16 only activity on her EDD Debit Card Account thereafter was to use Bank of 17 America’s website to transfer funds from her EDD Debit Card Account to her 18 personal consumer bank account (also with Bank of America). She never used the 19 Card at an ATM, for an online purchase, at a retail store, or for any other transaction.
20 She also never disclosed her Card number or PIN to anyone and never authorized 21 anyone to use her Card. Despite all this, an unknown person or persons used the 22 Cardholder Information associated with her EDD Debit Card and/or Account to 23 make three unauthorized transactions with DoorDash on or about November 23, 27, 24 and 30, 2020, totaling $225.84.

25 201. On or about December 22, 2020, Smith discovered the three 26 unauthorized transactions and promptly called Bank of America. During the phone 27 call, she informed a Bank representative that she did not authorize the transactions, 28 and she submitted unauthorized transaction claims. During the phone call, a Bank

1 representative asked Smith various questions to verify her identity, including asking 2 Smith to provide her full social security number, all of which Smith answered to 3 the representative's satisfaction. After the phone call, Smith did not receive any 4 information from the Bank to track her claims or any communication confirming 5 that the Bank would investigate her claims. Ever since, Smith's claims have 6 languished for months at the Bank without being resolved.

7 202. To date, Smith has not received any communication from the Bank 8 regarding her unauthorized transaction claims, has received no provisional credits 9 from the Bank, and has not been reimbursed for the unauthorized transactions. On 10 information and belief, the Bank failed to conduct a good-faith investigation of 11 Smith's fraud claim and has no reasonable basis for a determination that Smith had 12 authorized or benefitted from the transactions.

13 13. Alan Karam

14 203. In or around June 2020, Karam began receiving EDD benefits via a 15 Bank of America EDD Debit Card. During the next two months or so, he used the 16 Card to make small in-person purchases (primarily food and groceries) and to 17 withdraw cash from ATMs, all within the State the California. All or virtually all 18 the transactions that Karam made using his Card and Account from June 2020 19 through August 2020 were for $100 or less. He never disclosed his Card PIN to 20 anyone and never authorized anyone to use his Card.

21 204. On or around August 21, 2020, Karam checked his Account balance 22 online and was shocked to discover that over $2,000 in fraudulent transactions had 23 occurred on his Account. His online Account statement showed two purchases from 24 Target for $954 each, another purchase from Target for $442.69, and one purchase 25 from McDonald's for $4.34. All of these unauthorized transactions had been made 26 in New York while Karam was in California with his Card in his possession.

27 205. Karam is a life-long California resident. He did not travel to New York 28 or anywhere else outside California at any time since the COVID-19 pandemic

1 began in March 2020, and during which time there were significant California and 2 federal government restrictions on travel.

3 206. Bank of America knew or should have known about Karam's EDD 4 Debit Card transaction history, that he appeared to be in California at the time of 5 the unauthorized transactions, that the size of the transactions were significantly 6 and suspiciously higher than his past transactions, and that the COVID-19 pandemic 7 and related fears and travel restrictions made it highly unlikely that Karam or 8 anyone authorized by him were making these transactions in New York. Given this, 9 Bank of America should have detected and flagged the unauthorized transactions 10 on Karam's account as highly suspicious, stopped them, and notified Karam about 11 them, but the Bank did none of these things.

12 207. On August 21, 2020, the same day that he discovered the unauthorized 13 transactions on his Account, Karam called the Bank's customer service department 14 and submitted by phone a fraud claim disputing the unauthorized transactions. By 15 August 24, the fraudulent charges had been credited back to his Account. Karam 16 understood those to be permanent credits. To the extent the Bank considered them 17 to be provisional credits under EFTA and Regulation E, those credits became 18 permanent on October 6, 2021, after the Bank's 45-day period to investigate 19 Karam's claims expired under those same laws.

20 208. On November 17, 2020, however, Bank of America—without notice 21 or explanation—debited the previously reimbursed funds from Karam's Account, 22 causing his Account balance to go negative, and closed the investigation into his 23 fraud claim.

24 209. Upon discovering this, Karam immediately called Bank of America.
25 Despite the Bank's promises of "24/7" customer service in its Cardholder 26 Agreement and EDD-Bank Contract, the Bank representative with whom Karam 27 spoke informed him that he would need to speak with the claims department, but 28 that the claims department was closed and he would need to call back the next day.

1           210. The next morning at 6:30 A.M. PST, Karam called the Bank again and 2 was placed on hold for 45 minutes before being connected to a claims 3 representative, who told Karam that there was nothing she could do for him and she 4 would transfer him to someone else. Karam was then transferred to a mailbox 5 requiring a code, which he did not know. The call then disconnected.

6           211. Karam immediately called back and waited on hold for another 45 7 minutes before speaking with another Bank of America representative. This time 8 Karam asked for the representative's extension in case the call was disconnected.
9 The representative responded that he did not have one. Karam then asked for the 10 representative's identification number, and the representative said that he did not 11 have one of those either. When Karam asked for his name, the representative hung 12 up.

13           212. After being hung up on, Karam called back a third time. After waiting 14 on hold for another extended period, he spoke with a representative named Delijah, 15 who transferred him to a representative named Jane, who transferred him to a 16 representative named Brandon, who transferred him to a female supervisor whose 17 name Karam does not remember. At this point, this third phone call alone had lasted 18 multiple hours. The female supervisor advised Karam to file a police report 19 regarding the fraudulent transactions on his Account, and to submit written 20 statements about each of the fraudulent transactions, both of which he did.

21           213. In December 2020, Bank of America "reopened" one of Karam's fraud 22 claims only to close it again without reimbursing him. On information and belief, 23 the Bank failed to conduct a good-faith investigation of Karam's fraud claim during 24 this "reopened" investigation and did not have a reasonable basis for its 25 determination that Karam had authorized or benefitted from the transaction. The 26 Bank did not provide Karam with provisional credit in connection with this 27 reopened investigation or indeed in connection with any of his fraud claims after 28 the Bank, in November 2020, summarily reversed its prior credits to Karam's

1 Account. For weeks, Karam continued to call Bank of America and ask why his 2 fraud claims had been closed, but he was never given a clear answer.

3 214. In January 2021, frustrated with Bank of America, Karam sought out 4 and obtained legal counsel. On January 25, 2021, Karam's counsel sent Bank of 5 America a letter on behalf of Karam, co-Plaintiff Stephanie Smith, and all other 6 similarly situated persons, notifying the Bank of its violations of the California 7 Consumer Privacy Act, Cal. Civ. Code §1798.150(a), and demanding that the Bank 8 cure those violations by taking specific actions within 30 days. That letter was 9 delivered to the Bank by FedEx the following morning, on January 26.

10 215. On or about January 28, 2021, the Bank finally credited Karam's 11 Account for the funds stolen from his Account in August 2020. The credits did not 12 include any interest for the time during which the Bank had deprived Karam of 13 access to those funds.

14 14. Luis Perez

15 216. In October 2020, Perez logged into his Bank of America EDD Debit 16 Card Account online to check his Account balance. He saw that EDD had deposited 17 $516 into his Account on October 15, 2020, and that, on the very same day, 18 someone had made an unauthorized withdrawal of $500 from an ATM at an 19 Albertson's. Perez had not been to an Albertson's that day. Perez had also never 20 disclosed his Card PIN to anyone and had never authorized anyone to use his Card.

21 217. Perez immediately called Bank of America to report the unauthorized 22 transaction. He opened a fraud claim with a Bank of America customer service 23 representative on or around October 24, 2020.

24 218. About a week or two later, Perez received a letter from the Bank dated 25 October 28, 2020, stating without explanation that his fraud claim had been denied.
26 The letter did not describe what efforts Bank of America had undertaken, if any, to 27 investigate Perez's claim, nor did the letter explain the basis for Bank of America's 28 decision not to refund Perez the funds stolen from his Account. On information and

1 belief, the Bank failed to conduct a good-faith investigation of Perez's fraud claim 2 and did not have a reasonable basis for its determination that Perez had authorized 3 or benefitted from the ATM withdrawal.

4 219. Shortly after Perez received this letter from Bank of America
5 summarily denying his claim, Perez called the Bank again to request that his claim 6 be reopened and investigated. A Bank of America customer service representative 7 told him that his claim would be investigated within 30 to 90 days.

8 220. Sometime in December 2020, Perez discovered that his Bank of 9 America EDD Debit Card Account had been frozen. He did not receive any notice 10 that his Account had been frozen prior to him discovering the freeze.

11 221. Upon discovering that his Account had been frozen, Perez again 12 contacted Bank of America to regain access to his Account. Bank of America told 13 Perez that they could do nothing about the freeze and that Perez would need to 14 contact EDD. As instructed, Perez contacted EDD, and he was eventually able to 15 re-verify his identity both online and by physically mailing verification documents 16 to EDD. Despite these efforts, Perez's Bank of America Account remained frozen 17 for months, during which time Bank of America continued to blame EDD for the 18 freeze, and Perez continued to be denied access to the benefits that EDD had 19 determined he was entitled to receive.

20 222. On or around February 10, 2021, Perez again called Bank of America 21 about the still unresolved $500 fraud claim and the freeze on his Account. A Bank 22 of America representative told Perez that the Bank could not provide him any 23 information about his fraud claim due to the freeze on his Account.

24 223. On or around March 13, 2021, Perez finally received a check from 25 EDD for all the benefits to which he had been entitled but had not been paid between 26 December 2020 and March 2021. However, his Bank of America EDD Debit Card 27 Account still remained frozen, and he still did not receive provisional or permanent 28 credit for the $500 that had been stolen from his Account in October 2020.

224. On April 1, 2021, Perez became a class representative plaintiff in the Yick action (pursuant to an Amended Consolidated Complaint filed in that case) and submitted a declaration in support of the consolidated Yick plaintiffs' Motion for Preliminary Injunction and Provisional Class Certification. Only then did Bank of America finally "reconsider" his fraud claim, reimburse Perez for the $500 at issue, and unfreeze his Account.

15. Brian Wiggins

225. In November 2020, Wiggins discovered unauthorized ATM withdrawals from his EDD Debit Card Account, totaling $1,512, which were made in Santa Rosa, California, and Atlanta, Georgia.

226. Wiggins promptly reported the fraud to Bank of America, but rather than the Bank investigating his unauthorized transaction claims and crediting his Account, the Bank froze his Account due to the fraud. A Bank of America customer service representative told him that EDD was responsible for freezing his account, but an EDD representative later told Wiggins that was not true. On information and belief, it was not EDD but Bank of America who made the decision to freeze Wiggins's Account. While his Account was frozen, Wiggins had no access to his unemployment benefits.

227. Wiggins received no written or formal communication from Bank of America over the many months that his Account was frozen. In the meantime, his numerous attempts to resolve his issues through Bank of America's customer service were unsuccessful. He spent hours on hold trying to reach a live agent and was hung up on. On the occasions when he managed to reach a live agent, they consistently failed to give clear answers to his questions or to otherwise provide any meaningful assistance.

228. Only after Wiggins filed a class action lawsuit against Bank of America in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of California were his Account issues finally resolved. On or about May 26, 2021, Wiggins received a

1 letter from Bank of America stating that the Bank was issuing a permanent $1,512 2 credit to his Account.

3 16. Jonathan Smith

4 229. Smith became unemployed as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic and 5 applied for unemployment benefits from the EDD. The EDD approved his 6 application, and Bank of America issued him an EDD Debit Card.

7 230. Sometime in the fall of 2020, Smith attempted to use his Card at a 8 Bank of America ATM and was surprised to learn that his EDD Debit Card Account 9 displayed a negative balance. Smith quickly realized that he had been the victim of 10 two unauthorized withdrawals totaling $1,721.78 in July 2020. Bank of America 11 did not notify Smith of the unauthorized withdrawals; he made the unsettling 12 discovery himself only after the ATM displayed an Account balance far lower than 13 he expected.

14 231. Smith promptly reported the fraud to Bank of America. The Bank 15 temporarily credited the disputed amount to his Account. After later determining 16 that Smith had been the victim of fraud and had not authorized the withdrawals, the 17 Bank made the credit permanent.

18 232. Approximately one month later, however, Bank of America reversed 19 the $1,721.78 “permanent” credit, without any notice or explanation. On 20 information and belief, the Bank’s reversal of the credit was not the result of a 21 reasonable investigation, and the Bank had no reasonable basis for believing that 22 Smith had authorized or benefitted from the transactions. As with the fraudulent 23 withdrawals, Smith discovered the credit reversal himself, only after his Card was 24 declined for insufficient funds.

25 233. The Bank’s reversal of the credit caused Smith’s Account balance to 26 go negative. Subsequent deposits into Smith’s Account were applied against the 27 negative balance, depriving him of hundreds of dollars in critical benefits.
28

1           234. Besides reversing the “permanent” credit, Bank of America also froze 2 Smith’s Account—once again, without any notice or explanation. Smith repeatedly 3 contacted Bank of America’s EDD customer service phone number for assistance 4 with the matter. Like many other EDD Debit Cardholders, Smith was subjected to 5 inordinately long wait times and dropped calls. On the rare occasion that Smith 6 managed to get into contact with a live customer service representative, the 7 representatives often treated him rudely and unprofessionally, including accusing 8 him of lying without any reasonable basis for the accusation.

9           235. With his EDD Debit Card Account frozen, Smith was unable to access 10 his unemployment benefits, causing him severe stress and anxiety about how he 11 would be able to pay for basic necessities, such as rent, groceries, and therapy.
12 Smith was ultimately forced to borrow money from friends and family to cover 13 these costs.

14           236. Although Bank of America ultimately re-issued Smith a permanent 15 credit for the amount of the unauthorized transaction, significant damage was done.
16 He suffered needlessly for months as a direct result of Bank of America’s decisions 17 to leave EDD Debit Cards susceptible to fraud and unauthorized use, to deprive him 18 of the $1,721.78 associated with his unauthorized transaction claims, to freeze his 19 Account without providing any clear process or recourse for Smith to regain access 20 to his Account, and to commit the other unlawful acts and omissions alleged herein.

21           17. Alex Yuan

22           237. Yuan became unemployed as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic and 23 applied for unemployment benefits from the EDD. The EDD approved his 24 application, and Bank of America issued him an EDD Debit Card.

25           238. In or around August 2020, two separate $900 unauthorized ATM 26 withdrawals were made from Yuan’s EDD Debit Card Account in Los Angeles, 27 California.

1           239. Yuan promptly reported the fraud to Bank of America. In September 2           2020, the Bank temporarily credited $1,800 to his Account. In October 2020, the 3           Bank determined that Yuan had been the victim of fraud and had not authorized the 4           two $900 withdrawals, and the Bank made the $1,800 credit permanent.

5           240. Shortly thereafter, however, Bank of America reversed the $1,800
6           “permanent” credit, without any notice or explanation. On information and belief, 7           the Bank’s reversal of the $1,800 credit was not the result of a reasonable 8           investigation, and the Bank had no reasonable basis for believing that Yuan had 9           authorized or benefitted from the transactions. As with the fraudulent $1,800 10          withdrawal, Yuan discovered the credit reversal himself.

11          241. The Bank’s reversal of the credit caused Yuan’s Account balance to 12          go negative. Subsequent deposits by the EDD into Smith’s Account were applied 13          against the negative balance, depriving him of hundreds of dollars in critical 14          unemployment benefits.

15          242. Yuan repeatedly contacted Bank of America’s EDD Debit Card 16          customer service phone number for assistance with the matter. Like many other 17          EDD Debit Cardholders, Yuan experienced long wait times, dropped calls, and 18          elusive answers as to why the purportedly “permanent” credit had been reversed 19          and when and how the matter would be resolved.

20          243. While continuing to deal with the impact of the first two fraudulent 21          withdrawals, Yuan’s Account experienced yet another $900 unauthorized 22          withdrawal, which he also promptly reported to the Bank, bringing the total amount 23          of fraudulent withdrawals from his Account to $2,700. Because Bank of America 24          was failing to adequately safeguard his Account, Yuan then set up automated 25          transfers, so that any unemployment benefits deposited into his Account would be 26          transferred to a different, more secure bank account.

27          244. In December 2020, Bank of America notified Yuan by mail that it had 28          frozen his Account due to fraud. Thereafter, Bank of America—without any notice

1 to Yuan—unfroze his Account, at which point EDD resumed making deposits of 2 unemployment benefits to his Account, though without Yuan being aware of it.

3 245. After the consolidated Yick plaintiffs obtained a preliminary injunction 4 against the Bank, the Bank finally reimbursed Yuan $1,800 without interest on or 5 about March 9, 2022, but Yuan still has not been reimbursed for $900 in connection 6 with his unauthorized transaction claims. On information and belief, the Bank did 7 not conduct reasonable good-faith investigations of these claims, and the Bank had 8 no reasonable basis for believing that Yuan had authorized or benefitted from the 9 transactions.

10 18. Jory Zoelle

11 246. In or about June or July 2020, Zoelle was the victim of unauthorized 12 transactions on her EDD Debit Card Account totaling approximately $1,052.60 13 from a Target store in New Jersey. Zoelle reported the fraudulent transactions to the 14 Bank, which reimbursed her by crediting her Account for the amount of the 15 transactions in or about September 2020. That same month, however, the Bank 16 froze her Account for several weeks, depriving her of access to the funds in her 17 Account. On information and belief, the Bank lacked a reasonable basis to freeze 18 her Account.

19 247. In or about October 2020, after having frozen Zoelle's Account, the 20 Bank took back its previous credits by debiting her Account for the amount of the 21 unauthorized transactions, causing her Account balance to go negative. This left her 22 without much needed EDD benefits because the Bank applied EDD's subsequent 23 deposits of benefits into her Account against the negative balance.

24 248. This began Zoelle's ordeal of repeatedly calling Bank of America to 25 get the credits reinstated, often spending three to four hours on the phone waiting 26 to speak to a Bank representative, and not getting clear answers to her questions.
27 On approximately Zoelle's fifth or sixth such call, one Bank representative stated 28 her belief that Zoelle's unauthorized transaction claim appeared to be completely

1 legitimate, and further stated that she would do everything in her power to get the 2 credits reinstated to Zoelle's Account. Months later, however, Zoelle received a 3 letter from the Bank denying her claim.

4 249. The Bank eventually reinstated the credits to Zoelle's Account without 5 interest. However, on information and belief, the Bank's denial of her unauthorized 6 transaction claim was not the result of a reasonable investigation, and the Bank had 7 no reasonable basis for believing that she had authorized or benefitted from the 8 transaction.

9 19. Cindy Baker

10 250. On or about February 9 and 10, 2021, Baker was the victim of two 11 consecutive unauthorized transactions on her EDD Debit Card Account, both of 12 which were fraudulent ATM withdrawals of $1,000 (i.e., the EDD Debit Card's 13 daily limit for ATM withdrawals), for a total of $2,000. She promptly reported the 14 unauthorized transactions to Bank of America. On February 10, 2021, Bank of 15 America froze her Account.

16 251. This began Baker's ordeal of repeatedly calling Bank of America to 17 try to resolve these issues with her Account. She spent at least 30 hours on the phone 18 with Bank of America, regularly receiving information from Bank of America 19 representatives that conflicted with what other representatives had told her and with 20 the information contained in letters she received from Bank of America.

21 252. The Bank initially denied her unauthorized transaction claims. On 22 information and belief, the Bank's denial of her unauthorized transaction claim was 23 not the result of a reasonable investigation, and the Bank had no reasonable basis 24 for believing that she had authorized or benefitted from the transaction.

25 253. It was not until approximately June 2, 2021, after Baker had continued 26 to maintain her class action lawsuit against Bank of America, that the Bank reversed 27 its prior decision and finally credited her Account for the $2,000 that had been 28 stolen nearly four months earlier.

20. Ursula Auburn

254. On July 31, 2020, Auburn was the victim of six unauthorized transactions on her EDD Debit Card Account, all of which were transactions from what appears (based on her Account statement) to be a single Walgreens store in New York. The individual transactions were in the amounts of $507.03, $511.38, $455.95, $505.95, $505.95, and $505.95. She promptly reported the unauthorized transactions to Bank of America.

255. On August 13, 2020, the Bank provisionally credited Auburn's Account for the amount of each of the unauthorized transactions. On October 9, 2020, however, the Bank reversed those provisional credits, creating a negative balance in her Account. This left her without much needed EDD benefits because the Bank applied EDD's subsequent deposits of benefits into her Account against the negative balance.

256. On information and belief, the Bank's denial of her unauthorized transaction claim was not the result of a reasonable investigation, and the Bank had no reasonable basis for believing that she had authorized or benefitted from the transaction. Indeed, on October 10, 202, the day after the Bank reversed the prior credits to her Account, Auburn called the Walgreens in New York where the fraud had occurred and spoke with a manager, who informed her that the store had video surveillance footage of the unauthorized transactions, and that those transactions had consisted of person using a physical card in the store to purchase gift cards. The manager told Auburn that neither Bank of America nor anyone else had contacted the store to ask about or investigate the transactions, and that Auburn's phone call to the store was the first communication that the manager had received about the transactions.

257. On October 27, 2020, after speaking with Auburn, a reporter with ABC 7 (Los Angeles) contacted Bank of America to inquire about the unauthorized

1 transactions on Auburn's Account. That very same day, Bank of America credited 2 Auburn's Account in the amounts of the unauthorized transactions.

3 21. Julie Hicks

4 258. On September 3, 2020, an unauthorized third party made a $1,000 5 withdrawal (i.e., the EDD Debit Card's maximum daily ATM withdrawal amount) 6 from Hicks' EDD Debit Card Account. In the next week, seven more $1,000 7 fraudulent withdrawals were made from Hicks's Account, such that the 8 unauthorized withdrawals on Hicks's Account totaled $8,000. On September 11, 9 2020, Bank of America froze Hick's Account.

10 259. Hicks timely reported the unauthorized withdrawals to Bank of 11 America and subsequently verified her identity with the Bank and with EDD.
12 Nonetheless, the Bank refused to reimburse her for the fraudulent withdrawals, and 13 it refused to unfreeze her Account. On information and belief, the Bank's denial of 14 her unauthorized transaction claims was not the result of a reasonable investigation, 15 and the Bank had no reasonable basis for believing that Hicks had authorized or 16 benefitted from any of the transactions.

17 260. On July 20, 2021, Hicks filed a class action lawsuit against Bank of 18 America in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California. Only after 19 that, in or around August 2021, did Bank of America finally unfreeze her Account.
20 However, the Bank has never credited her Account for the $8,000 at issue in her 21 unauthorized transaction claim.<sup>17</sup>

22 22. Kuang Ting Chong

23 261. On or about July 20, 2020, an unknown person used a cloned debit 24 card to steal $1,000 in unemployment benefits from Chong's EDD Debit Card 25 Account. Chong discovered the fraud on his Account and contacted Bank of 26 America to report the fraud that same day.

27 _____
28 <sup>17</sup> Plaintiffs' counsel have thus far not been able to confirm whether Ms. Hicks has been credited for the $8,000 at issue.

1           262. On July 21, 2020, Chong filed a police report with the Alhambra police
2 department. The officer Chong spoke to initially confused him with another EDD 3 Debit Cardholder who had also just had funds stolen from his Account.

4           263. On July 31, 2020, Bank of America credited the $1,000 at issue to 5 Chong's EDD Debit Card Account. On September 2, 2020, Chong received a notice 6 from the Bank that it had completed its investigation, and that the $1,000 credit to 7 his Account was now permanent.

8           264. Despite having issued Chong a permanent credit, however, Bank of 9 America subsequently sent a letter to Chong dated October 2, 2020, stating that the 10 Bank was rescinding the $1,000 credit. The Bank rescinded the credit on October 11 4, 2020, creating a negative balance in his Account. While Chong continued 12 receiving EDD direct deposits into his Account thereafter, he was denied access to 13 some of these funds because they were applied against the negative Account 14 balance created by Bank of America.

15           265. With respect to the $1,000 debit that occurred on October 4, the 16 transaction description in Chong's online Account on Bank of America's website 17 claimed that the debit was made by "State of CA EDD Unemployment." On 18 information and belief, this transaction description was false and misleading, as the 19 debit was made by and at the direction of Bank of America.

20           266. Chong repeatedly contacted the Bank and EDD in an effort to obtain 21 access to his $1,000 in unemployment benefits that had been stolen out of his 22 Account and was now being withheld by Bank of America. In an October 15, 2020 23 phone call with the Bank's claims department, Chong was told his issue would be 24 resolved "in the order it was received."

25           267. Only after Chong filed a class action lawsuit against Bank of America
26 in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California in November 2020
27 were his Account issues finally resolved. The following month, in December 2020, 28 the Bank finally granted his unauthorized transaction claim and re-issued him a 1 permanent credit for the $1,000 at issue.

2 23. Stephanie Moore

3 268. On July 18, 2020, Moore was the victim of a fraudulent $1,000 4 withdrawal from an ATM machine and a separate fraudulent transaction of $482 at 5 a Target retail store. These transactions depleted all the funds from her EDD Debit 6 Card Account. Moore did not authorize these transactions and received no benefit 7 from them. Moore discovered the fraud on July 18, 2020, when she tried to use her 8 EDD Debit Card to make a purchase and her Card was declined.

9 269. That same day, within minutes of discovering that unknown persons 10 had depleted the funds in her Account, Moore reported the fraudulent withdrawal 11 to Bank of America. On or about July 30, 2020, the Bank provisionally credited 12 $1,482 to Moore's Account. On or about August 7 or 8, 2020, the Bank informed 13 Moore in writing that it had made the $1,482 credit permanent.

14 270. On September 30, 2020, Moore attempted to use her EDD Debit Card 15 to purchase a tire for her vehicle. The transaction was declined. Moore attempted to 16 check the balance of her Account but was unable to log into her Account. On 17 information and belief, Bank of America froze Moore's Account on or about 18 September 30, 2020, without providing notice to Moore.

19 271. Despite having received a permanent $1,482 credit from the Bank in 20 August 2020, Moore received a letter from the Bank on or about October 2, 2020, 21 stating that the Bank was rescinding the $1,482 credit. The Bank rescinded the 22 credit on October 4, 2020, creating a negative balance in her Account.

23 272. The transaction description for the October 4 debit in Moore's online 24 Account on Bank of America's website claimed that the debit was made by "State 25 of CA EDD Unemployment." On information and belief, this transaction 26 description was false and misleading, as the debit was made by and at the direction 27 of Bank of America. Indeed, on October 12, 2020, Moore spoke with Bank of 28 America representative, who stated that it was Bank of America who debited the 1 $1,482 from her Account.

2 273. Only after Moore filed a class action lawsuit against Bank of America
3 in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California in November 2020
4 were her Account issues finally resolved. The following month, on or about 5 December 1, 2020, the Bank finally granted her unauthorized transaction claim and 6 re-issued her a permanent credit for the $1,482 at issue.

7 24. Zinaida Petrova

8 274. On May 30, 2021, Petrova viewed her monthly Account statement and 9 was surprised to see two transfers from her Account totaling $9,500: (1) a $5,000 10 transfer on May 16, 2021, and (2) a $4,500 transfer on May 23, 2021. Petrova did 11 not authorize or benefit from either of these transactions. On information and belief, 12 these were online transfers by which an unauthorized third-party transferred money 13 from Petrova's Account to an unknown non-EDD Debit Card bank account. Petrova 14 has made online transfers from her EDD Debit Card into a consumer checking 15 account she has at Union Bank, but the unauthorized transactions were not 16 transferred to her Union Bank checking account and do not appear on her Union 17 Bank account statements.

18 275. Upon discovering the two unauthorized transactions, Petrova promptly 19 called the phone number on the back of her EDD Debit Card to dispute the 20 transactions. She spoke with a Bank representative and submitted a fraud claim.
21 The representative told her the Bank would contact her regarding the findings of its 22 investigation. On June 10, 14, 15, 17, 24 and July 6 and 7, 2021, Petrova called the 23 Bank's customer service line for an update about the status of her claim. Bank 24 representatives told her that they either could not locate her claim or that her claim 25 was still pending. At no point was Petrova's Account provisionally credited for the 26 amount of the disputed transactions, or indeed for any amount.

27 276. On or about July 13, 2021, Petrova received a letter from Bank of 28 America dated July 6, 2021, stating that the Bank was denying her claim. The 1 letter's explanation for the denial was as follows: "We confirmed that the transfers 2 posted to the account you requested. We recommend you contact the person you 3 sent the funds to directly for further assistance." This is impossible, however, 4 because Petrova never transferred the funds, and because the Bank's representatives 5 could not, did not know how, or refused to provide Petrova with the details of the 6 transactions.

7 277. On information and belief, the Bank's denial of her unauthorized 8 transaction claims was not the result of a reasonable investigation, and the Bank 9 had no reasonable basis for believing that Petrova had authorized or benefitted from 10 any of the transactions.

11 278. Petrova still has not been reimbursed for the $9,500 in fraudulent 12 transactions on her Account.

13 25. Claire Blankenship

14 279. On or about July 23, 2021, Blankenship went to a local Bank of 15 America branch and tried to use her EDD Debit Card to withdraw unemployment 16 benefits deposited into her Account, but the Bank teller informed her that she had 17 no money left in the Account.

18 280. Confused, Blankenship promptly called the phone number on the back 19 of her Card. A Bank of America customer service representative informed 20 Blankenship that her Account was empty. The representative read aloud to 21 Blankenship recent transactions on her Account, and she was able to identify six 22 fraudulent transactions totaling $2,750: (1) a $190 transaction on June 14, 2021; (2) 23 a $400 transaction on June 27, 2021; (3) a $60 transaction on July 6, 2021; (4) a 24 $1,000 transaction on July 19, 2021; (5) a $1,000 transaction on July 20, 2021; and 25 (6) a $100 transaction on July 21, 2021. Blankenship did not authorize or receive 26 any benefit from any of these transactions.

27 281. On the same phone call, Blankenship submitted a claim disputing the 28 fraudulent transactions. The Bank representative told Blankenship that her EDD

1 Debit Card would be blocked as a result of her reporting the fraud, and her Card
2 was blocked that same day. The Bank representative told Blankenship that the Bank 3 would send her a new Card, would investigate the fraudulent transactions, and 4 would contact her when its investigation was complete.

5 282. On July 28, 2021, Blankenship received and activated her new Bank 6 of America EDD Debit Card. Like her original Card, her new Card does not have 7 an EMV chip.

8 283. Also on July 28, 2021, Blankenship received a form letter from Bank 9 of America dated Monday, July 26, 2021—just one business day after she reported 10 the unauthorized transactions—denying her claim. The letter’s entire explanation 11 for why her claim was denied is as follows: “We’ve completed our review of the 12 above referenced claim and have determined that no error has occurred in this 13 instance. We now consider your claim resolved. [¶] What you need to know [¶] The 14 transaction activity in question was authorized and posted correctly to your 15 account.” The letter also states that Blankenship may call a Bank of America 16 customer service line to request copies of the documents that the Bank relied in on 17 reaching its decision. Blankenship immediately called the phone number and 18 requested copies of the documents on which the Bank had relied. A Bank 19 representative stated that the Bank would send her copies of the documents.

20 284. Blankenship never received any documents from the Bank on which it 21 relied in denying her claim, and she has no knowledge of having received from the 22 Bank any credits to her Account in connection with her unauthorized transaction 23 claims.

24 * * *

25 285. In addition to the Class Representative Plaintiffs, countless other Class 26 Members have similarly reported not receiving any notification or communication 27 from Bank of America regarding fraudulent transactions in their EDD Debit Card 28 Accounts, and instead discovered it themselves. Bank of America’s fraud

1 monitoring and controls have proven to be completely inadequate and ineffectual, 2 in direct contradiction to the Bank's representations to Plaintiffs, Class Members, 3 and the State. Instead of resolving Class Representative Plaintiffs' claims for these 4 unauthorized transactions, as it is required to do by law, the Bank summarily closed 5 the claims, failed to provide provisional credit, and froze and blocked their 6 Accounts for indefinite periods of time. Even where the Bank has eventually paid 7 some Class Representative Plaintiffs for their unauthorized transactions claims or 8 unfrozen or unblocked their Accounts, it has not paid any of them interest for the 9 time period during which the Bank unreasonably deprived them of the use of their 10 funds. As a result of the conduct and omissions alleged herein, and despite the 11 Bank's "Zero Liability" policy, Plaintiffs and Class Members have been deprived 12 of unemployment benefits and other public benefits to which they are entitled by 13 law, for weeks or months, causing them great, immediate, and irreparable harm.
14 Class Representative Plaintiffs' legal remedies are inadequate to prevent future 15 harm from the Bank's unlawful and unfair conduct that is the subject of this 16 Complaint, and that is or would be ongoing but for the preliminary injunction the 17 consolidated Yick plaintiffs obtained in June 2021. Class Representative Plaintiffs 18 thus seek, on behalf of themselves and all Class Members, injunctive relief against 19 the Bank, in addition to all other relief prayed for herein.

20 H. Individual Plaintiffs' Allegations<sup>18</sup>

21 286. Paul Abarr is a California resident. In May 2020, he began receiving 22 EDD benefits through Bank of America. In June 2020, he experienced fraudulent 23 transactions on his Account totaling approximately $8,000. In June 2020, he

25 <sup>18</sup> The substance of Individual Plaintiffs' allegations is presented here as set 26 forth in each of their complaints, after meeting and conferring with Individual 27 Plaintiffs' liaison counsel, including meeting and conferring about amended 28 allegations to be included in this FAMCC. Unless otherwise indicated below, each Individual Plaintiff referenced herein (see infra ¶¶286–526) is a plaintiff in Abarr
v. Bank of America, N.A., No. 3:21-cv-01203-LAB-MSB ("Abarr").

1 discovered the fraud. In June 2020, he reported the fraud to Bank of America via 2 phone. In response, Bank of America said they would investigate the claim. In June 3 2020, Bank of America illegally froze his Account. In May 2021, Bank of America 4 unfroze his Account. Since May 2020, Bank of America has not credited him any 5 money. Due to Bank of America withholding his funds, he was evicted from several 6 places because he has not been able to pay rent for twelve months, had several pre-7 paid phones shut off because he cannot afford to pay them, and was forced to beg 8 for food.

9 287. Kobe Abbott is a California resident. In August 2020, he applied to 10 receive EDD benefits through Bank of America; however, Bank of America never 11 sent him a Card to access his Account. Between August 2020 to March 2021, he 12 experienced fraud on his Account. In March 2021, he discovered the fraud when he 13 was finally able to access his online Account. In March 2021, he attempted to report 14 the fraud to Bank of America; however, Bank of America has never answered a 15 single call. Since August 2020, Bank of America has yet to credit him any money.
16 Due to Bank of America's actions, he could not pay his $1,000 rent from August 17 2020 to May 2021, leading to his move out in May 2021. He has not been able to 18 afford his $900 monthly car payment since August 2020. He has not been able to 19 afford his $40 monthly phone bill since August 2020. He struggles to buy food, gas, 20 and clothing.

21 288. Jordan Aders is a California resident. In August 2020, he began 22 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In December 2020, he 23 experienced fraud on his Account, totaling approximately $1,164. In December 24 2020, he discovered fraudulent transactions on his Account. In December 2020, 25 he reported the fraud to Bank of America via phone. In response, Bank of America 26 told him he needed to speak with EDD regarding his issue and refused to credit his 27 Account. In December 2020, Bank of America froze his Account. Since December 28 2020, Bank of America has yet to unfreeze his Account. Since December 2020,

1 Bank of America has yet to credit him any money. Due to Bank of America 2 withholding his funds, he lost his vehicle (the vehicle in which he used to live), lost 3 all personal belongings inside the vehicle, including clothing, a 33” television, 4 PlayStation, and other personal items. He missed three months of phone bills: 5 December 2020–February 2021 at $60 per month, and could not afford to pay for 6 food.

7 289. Michael Adams<sup>19</sup> is a natural person residing in Los Angeles County, 8 State of California. Adams has an EDD banking Account which Bank of America
9 maintains supervision and control over per its contractual relationship with the State 10 of California. Over the course of this relationship, Adams provided Bank of 11 America with various pieces of personal identifiable information related to Adams, 12 such as his personal finances. Such information includes, but is not limited to, 13 Adams’ name, address, social security number, date of birth, income level, and 14 banking information (amounts and accounts). Upon receipt of this information, 15 Bank of America stored or otherwise archived said information in some library, 16 digital file, computer-based system or other technique, and thus at all times was 17 entrusted with and maintained control of Adams highly sensitive information. At 18 some point in 2020, a hacker was able to access Bank of America’s technical 19 system—presumably via a misconfiguration of a firewall (presuming Bank of 20 America had a firewall in place). As such, this hacker was able to gain access to 21 banking account information for tens of thousands of EDD Debit Card Accounts 22 which Bank of America maintains, supervises and controls per its contract with the 23 State of California. In November of 2020, Adams checked his Account and 24 discovered he had funds missing. Adams reviewed his Account activity and 25 determined he had been a victim of fraud and made all reasonable attempts to notify 27 <sup>19</sup> Adams is the plaintiff in Adams v. Bank of America, N.A., No. 2:21-cv-

28 05521-LAB-MSB, originally filed in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California (No. 2:21-cv-05521-FMO-JPR) (“Adams”).

1 Bank of America of this fraudulent activity. After Adams submitted his claim for 2 fraud regarding the ATM withdrawal(s) at issue, Bank of America canceled or froze 3 Adams' EDD Debit Card as a result of submitting his fraud claim. To Adams' shock 4 and dismay, some unknown individual had made ATM withdrawal(s), in the 5 amount of $2,303. Adams did not make these withdrawals himself, did not authorize 6 anyone to make the withdrawal on his behalf, and was still in possession of his Card 7 despite said withdrawals taking place. Adams submitted a fraud claim to Bank of 8 America regarding the missing/stolen funds in June 2021. Bank of America did not 9 provide a temporary credit/refund, so pursuant to EFTA, Bank of America had ten 10 (10) days to properly investigate and remedy the fraud claim. Bank of America did 11 neither. Bank of America sent Adams written correspondence dated June 4, 2021 12 denying his fraud claim, after allegedly performing a "reasonable" investigation.
13 The basis for Bank of America's denial of Adams' claim is scant at best but 14 nonetheless refused to refund or credit Adams the $2,303 sum. Despite Bank of 15 America's efforts, Bank of America refused to perform any reasonable 16 investigation regarding Adams' dispute and instead flatly denied Adams' claim.
17 Bank of America's alleged "investigation" into Adams' dispute was clearly 18 inadequate, not reasonable, not diligent, and failed to properly address Adams' 19 issues regarding the $2,303 fraudulent withdrawal. Further evidencing Bank of 20 America's woefully inadequate investigation is the fact that Bank of America has 21 access to data, film, and other resources given that the fraudulent transaction took 22 place at one of Bank of America's own financial centers (i.e., not a third-party ATM 23 at convenience store, for example). Bank of America could have reasonably, easily 24 and swiftly confirmed the $2,303 transaction as fraudulent and refunded or credited 25 the funds over to Adams's Account. Instead, Bank of America failed to investigate 26 properly, refused to credit or refund the transaction, while still nonetheless 27 confirming that the withdrawal was subject to fraudulent activity.

1           290. Jonathan Aguirre is a California resident. In December 2019, he began 2 receiving EDD Benefits through Bank of America. In May 2020, he experienced 3 fraud on his Account totaling approximately $806. In May 2020, he discovered the 4 fraud when he attempted to withdraw money from the Account but had insufficient 5 funds. In May 2020, he reported the fraud to Bank of America via phone. In 6 response, Bank of America told him he needed to speak with EDD regarding his 7 dispute. In May 2020, Bank of America froze his Account. The Account remained 8 frozen with no refund or credit for an entire year. In May 2021, Bank of America 9 credited $403 to his Account. Due to Bank of America withholding his funds, he 10 missed his rent payment in June 2020 and July 2020, missed his phone bill, missed 11 his credit card bill, and missed insurance payments. Bank of America also caused 12 him to not be able to purchase food or gas.

13           291. Christopher Allison is a California resident. In July 2020, he began 14 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In January 2021, Bank of 15 America froze him out of his Account due to alleged fraudulent activity. However, 16 there had been no such fraud on the Account. In January 2021, he discovered the 17 freeze when he tried to use his Card but was declined. In January 2021, he called 18 Bank of America to report the problem. In response, Bank of America told him to 19 talk to EDD regarding his dispute. In January 2021, Bank of America froze his 20 Account. Since January 2021, Bank of America has yet to unfreeze his Account.
21 Since January 2021, Bank of America has yet to credit him any money. Due to Bank 22 of America withholding his funds, he missed three $600 rent payments, only 23 avoiding eviction because he worked something out with his landlord. He cannot 24 pay his $300 PG&E monthly bill due since January 2021. He also has struggled 25 with depression due to Bank of America's conduct and has had suicidal thoughts.

26           292. Kevin Alvarez is a California resident. In July 2020, he began 27 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. Between July 2020 and 28 November 2020, he experienced fraud on his Account, totaling approximately 1 $10,000. In November 2020, he discovered the fraud on his November 2020 2 account statement and immediately reported it to Bank of America by phone in the 3 month of November 2020. In November 2020 Alvarez filed four claims with Bank 4 of America identifying fraudulent, unauthorized transactions occurring within the 5 prior 60 days. During more than one telephone call in November 2020 Alvarez 6 reported multiple unauthorized electronic fund transfers as well as requested 7 documentation from Bank of America related to each unauthorized fund transfer.

8 During these telephone calls in November 2020 Alvarez requested Bank of America 9 conduct an investigation into the unauthorized transactions and provide all 10 additional documentation Bank of America had in its possession with regard to the 11 unauthorized transactions and/or clarification as to why they were allowed. It is 12 estimated by Alvarez that he has attempted to contact Bank of America by telephone 13 since September 2020 close to 500 times to report notification of unauthorized 14 transactions. On many occasions when Alvarez attempted to call and be connected 15 with a live agent to report the fraud he could not get through. On other occasions 16 Alvarez was simply hung up on. During other connected calls Alvarez was simply 17 referred back to the EDD and informed Bank of American could do nothing for him 18 in response to his claim of fraudulent, unauthorized transactions and requests for an 19 investigation and additional information on his account. Since July 2020, Bank of 20 America has not credited him any of the stolen money. Due to Bank of America 21 withholding his funds, he was forced out of his home after not being able to afford 22 his rent at $950 per month for two months, he was forced to live on the streets (in 23 the back of his car), he has missed every phone payment since November 2020 at 24 $130 per month, and he cannot afford to buy food or gas.

25 293. Courtney Alvarez is a California resident. In January 2020, she began 26 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In February 2020, she 27 experienced fraud on her Account, totaling between $1200-$1300. In March 2020, 28 she discovered the fraudulent transactions on her Account. In March 2020, she 1 reported the fraudulent transactions to Bank of America. In response, Bank of 2 America told her that they were not certain where the money went and that they 3 would open a claim. In March 2020, Bank of America froze her Account. Since 4 March 2020, Bank of America has yet to unfreeze her Account. Since March 2020, 5 Bank of America has yet to credit her any of the stolen funds. Due to Bank of 6 America withholding her funds, she missed her rent payment for the months of 7 March, April, and May at $250 per month and, as a result of missed rent, she was 8 evicted. She missed paying her phone bill for the months of March, April, and May 9 at $60 per month. She missed paying her gas bill for the months of March, April, 10 and May at $45 per month. She also missed paying her electric bill for the months 11 of March, April, and May at $75 per month. She was unable to pay the necessities 12 of life including money to buy food and put fuel in her vehicle. She was pregnant 13 and was unable to purchase the necessary maternity clothes during this period.

14 294. Rosa Alvarez<sup>20</sup> is, and at all times relevant to the allegations below 15 was, a natural person residing in the Los Angeles, California. Beginning in April 16 1996, she worked as a Course Materials Manager at the Follet Bookstore at Cerritos 17 College. As a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, she was laid off just two weeks 18 shy of her 24th anniversary of working there. Unable to get another job, she began 19 receiving unemployment benefits, which were paid directly from the State of 20 California onto her Bank of America EDD Debit Card Account. On or about 21 Saturday, June 13, 2020, she was shopping and intended to pay for her purchase 22 using her Bank of American EDD Debit Card. After she ran her EDD Debit Card, 23 only $8.75 could be charged to her Card. She was not initially alarmed, believing it 24 was a mistake with the vendor. On Monday, June 15, 2020, she called Bank of 25 America to ensure that there were no problems with her Card. When she called, she 27 <sup>20</sup> Rosa Alvarez is the plaintiff in Alvarez v. Bank of America, N.A., No. 3:21-28 cv-01176-LAB-MSB, originally filed in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California (No. 2:21-cv-04643-DOC-PLA) (“Alvarez”).

1 learned that her Account balance was zero. During the call, she was told that $160 2 was withdrawn from her Card from an ATM in Corona, California. She 3 immediately knew that the transaction was unauthorized because she had not been 4 to Corona. When she informed Bank of America that the withdrawal was an 5 unauthorized transaction, Bank of America instructed her to contact the Claims 6 department and provided her with claim #200615300845. She immediately 7 reviewed her Account statements from the Internet and highlighted all the 8 fraudulent transactions, which were all ATM cash withdrawals beginning on May 9 17, 2020. She called Bank of America back, provided claim #200615300845, and 10 notified the Bank about all the additional transactions that were fraudulent. Bank of 11 America told her that she would be notified about the results of the Bank's 12 investigation in 45 days. She called Bank of America on the week of July 6, 2020, 13 to inquire about the status of the investigation. During that call, she spoke with 14 Jester of Bank of America, who stated that the Bank had not done an investigation 15 because she had not returned to the Bank the form that the Bank had sent her. She 16 told Jester that she had not received anything in the mail from Bank of America.
17 Jester told her that she was supposed to return the form to Bank of America within 18 10 days and that Jester was unable to resend the form. On or about July 10, 2020, 19 she drove to the Bank of America branch in the city of Cerritos to see if she could 20 complete the form in the Bank branch to process her identity theft claim. She was 21 informed, however, that issues concerning EDD Debit Car Accounts cannot be 22 handled in the branch, and that she could only resolve her issues by telephone. She 23 asked if she could be provided a copy of the form that needed to be completed to 24 process her identity theft claim, and she was told No, not in the branch. On or about 25 July 11, 2020, she called the Los Angeles Police Department and reported the theft 26 of money from her EDD Debit Card Account. After she received a copy of the 27 police report, she completed an Identity Theft Affidavit and attached all the 28 requested documents (copy of the police report, her state identification card, proof

1 of residency) to the Affidavit. She then mailed the Affidavit to Bank of America by 2 certified mail, return receipt requested, on August 14, 2020. She never received a 3 response to her Identity Theft Affidavit. On or about December 2, 2020, she sent 4 Bank of America a letter by certified mail, return receipt requested, informing the 5 Bank that she had not received a response to her Identity Theft Affidavit. She asked 6 Bank of America to inform her if Bank of America needed any other documents to 7 complete its investigation. In that same letter, she also asked the Bank to send her 8 a copy of its investigation results and the documents used to reach the result, if its 9 investigation was completed. She never received a response to her December 2, 10 2020 letter. As a result of Bank of America's unlawful acts and omissions as stated 11 above, she suffered actual damages as described above.

12 295. David Anderson is a California resident. In April 2020, he began 13 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In July 2020, he started 14 experiencing fraudulent transactions on his Account, totaling approximately 15 $1,500. In July 2020, he reported the fraud to Bank of America via phone call. Since 16 July 2020, Bank of America's response to him was to tell him to talk to EDD about 17 his problem. Bank of America also told him that a bank supervisor would call him 18 but then nobody called. In August 2020, Bank of America credited him $1,500; 19 however, Bank of America then reversed the credit and made his Account balance 20 negative $1,500. Due to Bank of America's actions, he lost his place to live after 21 not being able to pay his $900 rent and was forced to live in his friend's car. He lost 22 all his belongings when they were stolen out of the car. He could not afford to buy 23 food or gas, or clothing. He also cannot afford to pay child support, which means 24 he has not been able to see his children in six months.

25 296. Rebekah Anderson is a California resident. In late July 2020 or early 26 August 2020, she began receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America of about 27 $267 per week. In September 2020, Anderson attempted to use her Bank of America 28 issued debit card to make a cash withdrawal. The ATM "approved" her transaction,

1 but would not allow her to physically take out the money. She tried to obtain her 2 money directly from the merchant during the month of September, but the merchant 3 never provided her with the money. In October (within 60 days of discovering the 4 error of showing a cash withdrawal and not receiving the money) she contacted 5 Bank of America to report the error, filed a claim, and requested additional 6 information from Bank of America as to how they would proceed with the 7 investigation. Bank of America never provided Anderson a provisional or 8 permanent credit for the money not received as a result of the electronic transaction 9 through the ATM machine and completely failed to respond to her claim of error.
10 The only response received from Bank of America was that it completely restricted 11 all access to Anderson's funds starting in December 2020. Immediately in 12 December 2020 Anderson called Bank of America almost on a daily basis to request 13 additional information as to why her account was restricted and electronic access to 14 her funds was denied. Bank of America never responded with any explanation or 15 provided additional information and/or documentation as to why the restrictions 16 were placed on her account. Due to Bank of America's actions, she could not pay 17 her rent at $330 per week, could not pay her phone bill at $135 per month, and could 18 not afford to fix her truck which led to her losing a new part-time job in January 19 2021.

20 297. Amanda Andrade is a California resident. In March 2020, she began 21 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In August 2020, she reviewed 22 her account online and discovered a number of fraudulent transactions. Andrade did 23 not authorize any of these transactions. Immediately, in August of 2020, Andrade 24 contacted Bank of America by telephone to report the fraud and unauthorized 25 transactions, requested Bank of America conduct an investigation and credit her 26 back for those unauthorized charges. Bank of America was able to identify both 27 Andrade and the claimed unauthorized charges on her account. In response Bank of 28 America never provided Andrade a provisional or permanent credit, failed to 1 provide her any additional information regarding the fraudulent charges or the 2 results of any investigation. In September 2020, Andrade was unable to have access 3 to any of her funds through Bank of America, which she verified had approximately 4 $19,000 in it. In response, Andrade contracted Bank of America in September 2020 5 and requested additional information as to why she could not access her funds. At 6 the end of September 2020 Bank of America gave Andrade back access to her funds, 7 but then showed a negative balance of $19,000 instead. She immediately called 8 Bank of America in September 2020 to report the error. Bank of America failed to 9 provisionally credit or permanently credit Andrade the missing $19,000 and 10 attempted to hold her responsible for the alleged overdraft of $19,000. Starting in 11 September 2020, Andrade would contact Bank of America on a daily basis to 12 continue to report the error and ask for an investigation and correction. She would 13 occasionally wait on hold for over two hours without being connected to a 14 representative and unable to continue to report the banking error. Due to Bank of 15 America's actions, she was evicted from her home after not being able to pay her 16 rent from September 2020 to January 2021 at $1,500 per month. She also could not 17 afford to pay her phone bill, car insurance, and gas bill because of Bank of 18 America's actions.

19 298. Samuel De Los Angeles, Sr. is a California resident. In March 2020, 20 he began receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In April 2021, he 21 experienced unauthorized charges on his Bank of America account. In May 2021, 22 he discovered the unauthorized charges (all of which occurred in the prior 60 days).
23 That same day in May 2021, he reported the unauthorized charges to Bank of 24 America. Bank of America had no difficulty verifying his identity or accessing and 25 reviewing the account in question. The first unauthorized charge was for $783 and 26 the second was for $83. Both of these unauthorized transactions occurred in April 27 of 2021. On May 7, 2021 (within 60 days of the occurrence of these two 28 unauthorized transactions) De Los Angeles contacted Bank of America by 1 telephone to report the occurrence of the unauthorized transactions. He was able to 2 connect with a Bank of America representative who was able to identify De Los 3 Angeles and his account. De Los Angeles properly explained to the Bank of 4 America representative that the two transactions identified above were 5 unauthorized and Bank of America needed to conduct an investigation. Bank of 6 America never provided a provisional or permanent credit related to the identified 7 unauthorized transactions. Bank of America failed to provide any additional 8 notification, in writing or otherwise, as to how it reached its conclusion after 9 conducting a reasonable investigation or what documents it relied upon. Due to 10 Bank of America's actions, he was three weeks late on his $1,300 rent payment in 11 June 2021, which carried a $100 penalty. He had to borrow money to pay his $105

12 cell phone bill. He could not afford food and gas.

13 299. Sheila Anistik is a California resident. In March 2020, she began 14 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In March 2020, there was fraud 15 on her Account. The fraud was an unauthorized international transaction totaling 16 $4,000. In March 2020, she discovered the fraud by checking her Account balance.
17 In March 2020, she reported the fraud to Bank of America, both by email and by 18 phone. In response, Bank of America told her she needed to speak to EDD to resolve 19 her issue. In March 2020, Bank of America froze her Account, which had $9,000 20 in it at the time. In March 2020, Bank of America credited her the $4,000; however, 21 Bank of America did not unfreeze her Account for her to access the funds. Due to 22 Bank of America's actions, she missed her $1,200 mortgage payment between April 23 and June of 2020, eventually selling her home instead of losing it to eviction. She 24 was unable to pay her electric bill at $230 per month, her gas bill at $175 per month, 25 her water bill at $215 per month, and her cell phone at $45 per month, all between 26 April and June of 2020. She was unable to buy medical necessities for her elderly 27 mother. She also was unable to buy food and gas.

1           300. Robert Arnoldstarr is a California resident. In July 2020, he began
2 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In December 2020, he 3 discovered five fraudulent transactions on his Bank of America EDD account, 4 totaling $5,000. Upon discovering the unauthorized transactions, he immediately 5 contacted Bank of America the same month (December 2020) and reported the 6 unauthorized debits from his account via phone by identifying himself, his account 7 and the five transactions at issue. Arnoldstarr would often be on hold from one to 8 three hours waiting for a representative to report these unauthorized transactions to.
9 He would often be disconnected once a supervisor answered the line. Bank of 10 America was able to identify him, his account and the unauthorized transactions.
11 He requested Bank of America research and investigate all five unauthorized 12 transactions and report back its findings. Arnoldstarr never received a provisional 13 or permanent credit for the $5,000. Instead of crediting his account or providing 14 Arnoldstarr the results of its investigation, Bank of America only responded to 15 Arnoldstarr by telling him he had to call EDD for any type of relief. Separate and 16 apart from failing to take the proper action regarding the five unauthorized 17 transactions, later in the month of December 2020 Bank of America restricted 18 electronic access to Arnoldstarr's Bank of America Account. The same day in 19 December 2020 this occurred, Arnoldstarr contacted Bank of America by telephone 20 and asked Bank of America to provide all the information it was relying upon in 21 restricting his account. Bank of America failed to provide any information it was 22 relying upon to serve as the basis of why Arnoldstarr's account was restricted, 23 despite the request for additional information from Arnoldstarr. Due to Bank of 24 America's actions, he missed five $2,100 rent payments starting in January 2021 25 and was promptly evicted. He is now homeless. In April 2021, his car was 26 repossessed after missing five car payments totaling $4,000. He could not pay his 27 credit card bills for five months starting in January 2021. He could not pay his $130 28

1 phone bill since January 2021. He cannot afford to pay for food or gas. He also 2 cannot pay for doctor's bills.

3 301. Vanessa Arrey is a California resident. In June 2020, she began 4 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In October 2020 Arrey reviewed 5 her EDD statements and determined that a number of unauthorized transactions 6 occurred on her account (all occurring within the prior 60 days). The same day as 7 discovering the unauthorized transactions she called Bank of America and was able 8 to reach an account representative. Bank of America had no trouble verifying her 9 identity, the account in question, or the unauthorized transactions. Bank of America 10 never provided a provisional or permanent credit related to the identified
11 unauthorized transactions. Bank of America failed to provide any additional 12 notification, in writing or otherwise, as to how it reached its conclusion after 13 conducting a reasonable investigation or what documents it relied upon. Arrey 14 continued to monitor her account and discovered additional unauthorized 15 transactions the next month in November 2020. Those unauthorized transactions 16 occurred in the preceding month. The same day as discovering the unauthorized 17 transactions she called Bank of America and was able to reach an account 18 representative. Bank of America had no trouble verifying her identity, the account 19 in question, or the unauthorized transactions. Bank of America never provided a 20 provisional or permanent credit related to the identified unauthorized transactions.
21 Bank of America failed to provide any additional notification, in writing or 22 otherwise, as to how it reached its conclusion after conducting a reasonable 23 investigation or what documents it relied upon. Unauthorized transactions 24 continued to occur through February 2021. Each time she would contact Bank of 25 America by telephone and timely dispute the unauthorized charges. Bank of 26 America never provided a provisional or permanent credit related to the identified
27 unauthorized transactions. Bank of America failed to provide any additional 28 notification, in writing or otherwise, as to how it reached its conclusion after

1 conducting a reasonable investigation or what documents it relied upon. The total 2 amount of unauthorized charges approximated $6,500. In April 2021 she reported 3 additional unauthorized charges to Bank of America (all of which occurred in the 4 prior 60 days). The same day as discovering the unauthorized transactions she called 5 Bank of America and was able to reach an account representative. Bank of America 6 had no trouble verifying her identity, the account in question, or the unauthorized 7 transactions. Bank of America never provided a provisional or permanent credit 8 related to the identified unauthorized transactions. Bank of America failed to 9 provide any additional notification, in writing or otherwise, as to how it reached its 10 conclusion after conducting a reasonable investigation or what documents it relied 11 upon. Shortly thereafter in April 2021, after reporting the latest rounds of 12 unauthorized transactions, Arrey discovered Bank of America placed a restriction 13 on her account. Immediately after discovering that Bank of America had placed a 14 restriction on the EDD account, which restricted use, she called Bank of America 15 to inquire as to why a restriction was placed on her account and requested additional 16 information regarding the restriction. Bank of America failed to provide any 17 information over the telephone and has never provided any additional information 18 as to why a restriction was placed on the account. It was not until May 2021 that 19 Bank of America, without notice or explanation, granted access to her account.
20 Bank of America never provided any additional documentation or explanation as to 21 why her account was restricted or why the restriction was lifted. Due to Bank of 22 America's actions, she missed five $500 rent payments, leading to eviction and 23 subsequent homelessness. She missed five $200 utility bills. She missed three $75 24 phone bills. She suffers from emotional distress.

25 302. Christal Ayala is a California resident. On February 2, 2020, she 26 applied for and began receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. On March 27 1, 2021, Ayala attempted to use her Bank of America issued EDD debit card, but 28 the transaction was blocked by Bank of America. Ayala knew there was money in 1 her account and immediately attempted to contact Bank of America by telephone 2 to report the error but was unable to reach a representative because Bank of America 3 would not answer the telephone. After reviewing her March 2021 statements, she 4 discovered that two payments totally approximately $2,000 were transferred from 5 her account by Bank of America back to EDD. Those transactions were 6 unauthorized. Ayala contacted Bank of America by telephone in March 2021 to 7 report these unauthorized transactions and bank errors. Ayala has contacted Bank 8 of America over 300 times with regard to these unauthorized transactions reporting 9 the error and asking for additional documentation, clarification and an investigation.

10 She has waited on hold for hours and then hung up one. When she was able to speak 11 to a Bank of America representative in March 2021, she was told Bank of American 12 could not help her, could not correct the unauthorized transactions, would not look 13 into her requests for an investigation and told her she would have to call EDD 14 directly and it was their problem. Despite reporting the unauthorized transfers in 15 March 2021, which occurred in March 2021, Ayala never received a provisional 16 credit, a permanent credit or any supporting documentation from Bank of America 17 as to her report of the unauthorized transactions taking place in March 2021. Since 18 March 2021, Bank of America has yet to credit her any money. Due to Bank of 19 America's actions, she missed her $1,050 rent payment in March 2021, leading to 20 eviction and subsequent homelessness for her and her children. She struggles to pay 21 for motels for her children to have some sort of living condition. She has been 22 unable to afford her car payments since March 2021. She is unable to afford her car 23 registration. She struggles to buy food, gas, and clothing for herself and her 24 children.

25 303. Celina Back is a California resident. In November 2020, she applied 26 to receive EDD benefits through Bank of America; however, Bank of America did 27 not send her a card with access to her funds until March 2021. After receiving her 28 card and being able to use it, in March 2021, Bank of America restricted access to 1 her account after Back received notification from Bank of America that someone 2 had ordered a replacement card. This replacement card request was not from Back.

3 In March 2021 once her access was restricted, Back called Bank of America, almost 4 on a daily basis, and requested additional information as to why her access was 5 restricted. Bank of America would either not answer the telephone or inform her 6 there was no additional information they could provide and that she needed to 7 contact the EDD. Two months later in May 2021, access to her account was granted 8 by Bank of America and Back could access her funds electronically. Upon 9 reviewing her account she discovered that in May of 2021 there were a number of 10 unauthorized electronic transactions that she did not authorize. The total of those 11 transactions was approximately $17,000 (all of which occurred within the prior 60 12 days). She immediately contacted Bank of America by telephone and reported the 13 fraudulent transactions. She was able to identify herself, her account and the precise 14 transactions to Bank of America. Bank of America did not provisionally or 15 permanently credit Back for the identified unauthorized transactions reported. Due 16 to Bank of America's actions, she has missed her $700 rent payment from April 17 2021 to present, her $236 car payments from April 2021 to present, her $100 18 monthly electric bill from April 2021 to present, and her $60 phone bill from April 19 2021 to present. She struggles to obtain food, gas, and clothing.

20 304. Mark Barnette is a California resident. In June 2020, he began 21 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In June 2020, he experienced 22 fraud on his Account. The fraudulent transactions were withdrawals totaling 23 $8,000. In September 2020, he discovered the fraud. In September 2020, he 24 contacted Bank of America to report the fraud. In response, Bank of America did 25 not believe him, even when he physically went into a bank branch to prove his 26 identification. In September 2020, Bank of America froze his Account. In May 27 2021, Bank of America unfroze his Account. In February 2021, Bank of America 28 credited him $6,200. Due to Bank of America's actions, he was evicted from his

1 apartment in July 2020 and was forced to live on the streets in a tent. He missed
2 seeing his daughter for the first time in seven years. He cannot afford food or gas.
3 He has had to make two hospital visits as a result of living on the streets. His fiancé 4 left him. He suffers from extreme emotional distress.

5 305. Douglas Beckham is a California resident. In May 2020, he began 6 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. On February 8, 2021, he began 7 experiencing a number of unauthorized transactions on his account. Those 8 unauthorized transactions totaled $924. The very next day, February 9, 2021, 9 Beckham contacted Bank of America to report the unauthorized transactions.
10 During that call he reported the unauthorized transactions to Bank of America 11 specifically identify himself by name, identifying his account number and 12 identifying the exact unauthorized transactions which totaled $924. Bank of 13 American acknowledged his call and the report of the unauthorized transactions. In 14 response to this timely report of unauthorized transactions Bank of America failed 15 to provide a provisional or permanent credit. Instead, the only report back from 16 Bank of America was its direction to contact EDD directly, as the unauthorized 17 transactions were not its problem. Separate and apart from failing to handle the 18 timely report of unauthorized transactions on his EDD account, Bank of America 19 in February 2021, restricted electronic access to Beckham's account. This occurred 20 on February 9, 2021. On February 13, 2021 Bank of America sent Beckham a letter 21 indicating access to his account was restricted. The same day, February 13, 2021, 22 Beckham called Bank of America on the telephone and spoke to a number of 23 managers at Bank of America and requested additional information from Bank of 24 America that it was relying upon in restricting access to his account. No additional 25 information from Bank of America in response to this request was forthcoming. To 26 date, Beckham does not have access to his account and Bank of America has not 27 provided any additional information, despite Beckham's request. Due to Bank of 28 America's actions, he could not afford his $550 rent payment from February 2021

1 to May 2021, forcing him to be evicted and live with his friend. He could not afford 2 to pay his $200 utility bills from February 2021 to May 2021. He has not been able 3 to pay his $60 monthly phone bill since February 2021. He had seven credit card 4 accounts default because he could not pay his credit card bills. He cannot pay for 5 food or gas.

6 306. Sky Beehler is a California resident and is a single mother of four 7 minor children. In February 2020, she applied to receive EDD benefits through 8 Bank of America. On information and belief, Bank of America opened an account 9 and sent the account information to some unknown third party who began to make 10 unauthorized charges. It was not until June 2020 that she was able to get through to 11 Bank of America over the telephone to get access to her account. Upon logging on 12 she discovered the total of approximately $14,134 in unauthorized charges to her 13 account in the prior 60 days. These transactions were unauthorized, and she reported 14 such to Bank of America. Bank of America acknowledged her telephone call, was 15 able to identify her by name, was able to identify her account number and was able 16 to identify what Beehler identified as the fraudulent transactions made within the 17 prior 60 days. In response Bank of America failed to provide any provisional or 18 permanent credit, but instead told Beehler it was not their responsibility to credit 19 the unauthorized charges back and she needed to call the EDD directly. As a 20 punitive measure for reporting these unauthorized transactions, Bank of America 21 then restricted Beehler's access to her account in June of 2020. Beehler would call 22 Bank of America daily reporting that she did not have access to her account and 23 requesting additional information from Bank of America as to why her account was 24 restricted and what information they were relying upon. Bank of America never 25 provided any additional information to Beehler. Due to Bank of America's actions, 26 she missed paying her $1,300 rent payment from June 2020 to October 2020, and 27 her landlord threatened eviction. She missed her $494 monthly car payment from 28 June 2020 to October 2020, leading her to sell the car. She struggles to pay for her

1 phone payments and her PG&E payments. She struggles to obtain food, gas, and 2 clothing.

3 307. Amber Bennett is a California resident and a single mother of two 4 minor children. In March 2020, she began receiving EDD benefits through Bank of 5 America. In July 2020, she logged on and reviewed her account online. She 6 discovered that in July of 2020 there were a number of unauthorized transactions 7 made in New York totaling $300. The same day in July of 2020 she called Bank of 8 America and reported all the fraudulent transactions that totaled the $300. A number 9 of calls went unanswered and she was hung up on a number of times. After taking 10 hours to get through she was able to reach a representative at Bank of America.
11 Bank of America had no problem identifying Bennett, her account, or the 12 unauthorized transactions which she identified. A provisional credit of $300 was 13 issued by Bank of America while Bank of America conducted its investigation. In 14 late July 2020 or early August 2020 Bank of America sent a letter to Bennett 15 concluding that the claimed unauthorized charges were in fact made by her and 16 were proper and reversed the provisional credit. In response Bennett requested the 17 information Bank of America relied upon in reaching this conclusion (which was 18 patently wrong). Bank of America failed to respond to this request for additional 19 information, in violation of EFTA. Separate and apart from the above, in early 20 August 2020, Bennett could not access her account due to Bank of America placing 21 a restriction on the account. In early August upon being unable to access her 22 account, Bennett contacted Bank of America to request additional information as to 23 why her access was restricted. Bank of America had no difficulty verifying her 24 identity or accessing and reviewing the account in question. Bank of America failed 25 to provide any additional information in response to this request and continued to 26 restrict access to her account. Approximately three to four weeks later the restriction 27 on Bennett's account was lifted by Bank of America without providing any 28

1 additional information why the restriction was placed on her account for close to a 2 month.

3 308. Forrest Berlt is a California resident. In October 2020, he applied for 4 EDD benefits and was approved. Despite being approved for benefits, it was not 5 until late October 2020 that he was able to contact a Bank of America representative 6 to gain access to his account online. Once access was granted, he was informed by 7 Bank of America that all transactions to his account were being restricted. Berlt was 8 not able to make any purchases on his account because Bank of America fully 9 restricted any transaction. Berlt called Bank of America repeatedly in October 2020 10 after becoming aware of the restrictions on his account. Forrest was forced to wait 11 long hours for a Bank of America representative to answer. Once Berlt was finally 12 able to get a Bank of America representative to answer the phone he requested 13 additional information from Bank of America as to why his account was restricted.
14 Bank of America never provided any additional information and instead told Berlt 15 that he had to contact EDD directly. It was not until May 2021 that Berlt finally had 16 unrestricted access to his account, but Bank of America never provided any 17 additional information which was requested as to why his account was restricted.
18 In addition to Berlt's claims under EFTA, Berlt has claims for negligence against 19 Bank of America for failing to provide him EDD payments owed in the amount of 20 approximately $30,000 which were negligently withheld. From October to 21 December 2020, he was late on two car payments for $495/month. His car was 22 impounded in December 2020. He had already made 28 of the 36 payments for the 23 car at the time of the impounding. He struggled to obtain food, gas, and clothing.

24 309. Stone Blacksands is a California resident. In April 2020, he began 25 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In April 2020, Bank of America 26 illegally froze and restricted access to his Account. As a result, Blacksands was not 27 able to conduct any transactions. Immediately, the same month, Blacksands 28 contacted Bank of America at least 50 times to report the problem with his account.

1 During multiple calls Blacksands requested Bank of America send him out all the 2 information needed for him to complete and regain access to his account. In April 3 2020 while on the phone, Blacksands also requested from Bank of America all the 4 information it relied upon which caused the freeze of his account. Bank of America
5 refused this request for additional information and completely ignored Blacksands' 6 multiple requests for additional information. Instead of providing additional 7 information to Blacksands, Bank of America requested documentation from 8 Blacksands to confirm (and reconfirm) his identity with EDD. Since April 2020, 9 Bank of America has yet to allow access to his Account or provide any additional 10 information requested by Blacksands in which Bank of America relied upon in 11 restricting access to his account in the first place. Since April 2020, Bank of 12 America has yet to credit him any money. Due to Bank of America's actions, he 13 could not pay his $600 rent payments from April 2020 to July 2020, forcing him to 14 find other housing options. He cannot afford to fix his recreational vehicle (RV), 15 which he now lives in. He could not afford his $150 monthly phone bill, leading to 16 a phone shut off. He cannot afford $5,000 for a clinical study program in which he 17 is enrolled. He struggles to pay for food, gas, and clothing.

18 310. Dean Bommel is a California resident. In June 2020, he began 19 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In August 2020, he experienced 20 fraud on his Account, totaling approximately $5,000 of overseas transactions. In 21 August 2020, he discovered the fraud after he checked his Account history online.
22 In August 2020, he reported the fraud to Bank of America via phone. In response, 23 the Bank said they would freeze his Account and investigate. In August 2020, the 24 Bank froze his Account. In August 2020, the Bank credited him money to his 25 Account, yet did not credit him the international fees associated with the first 26 fraudulent transactions on his Account. In December 2020, the Bank unfroze his 27 Account. In January 2021, he again experienced fraud on his Account involving the 28 same international companies. In January 2021, he discovered the fraud when he

1 checked his online Account. In January 2021, he reported the fraud to Bank of 2 America via phone. In response, the Bank blamed him for the fraud and refused to 3 credit him for the fraudulently stolen money. In January 2021, the Bank again froze 4 his Account. In April 2021, the Bank unfroze his Account. Bank of America has 5 yet to credit him for the second set of fraudulent transactions. Due to the Bank's 6 actions, he missed his $1,100 rent payments from January 2021 to May 2021. He 7 also missed electric bills totaling $6,000 and gas bills totaling $1,800. He struggles 8 to obtain food and clothing.

9 311. Nicholas Brady is a California resident. In June 2020, he began 10 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In June 2020, he began 11 experiencing fraud on his Account. The fraudulent transactions totaled $2,000 from 12 ATM cash withdrawals. In June 2020, he discovered the fraud. In June 2020, he 13 contacted Bank of America to report the fraud via phone. In response, Bank of 14 America told him to talk to EDD to resolve his issue. In October 2020, Bank of 15 America froze his Account. In October 2020, Bank of America unfroze his Account.
16 In December 2020, Bank of America again froze his Account. In January 2021, 17 Bank of America unfroze his Account, for a second time. In July 2020, Bank of 18 America credited him the $2,000 that was fraudulently taken from his Account; 19 however, the Bank reversed the credit and put his Account into a negative balance.
20 Since July 2020, Bank of America has yet to credit him the stolen money. Due to 21 Bank of America's actions, he was evicted from his home in November 2020. He 22 could not pay his cell phone bill with Verizon at $60 per month since September 23 2020, and as a result, went into default where Verizon turned him into collections.
24 He had his child support licensed suspended because he had no funds to pay. He 25 cannot buy food and had to go to a homeless shelter just to eat dinner. He also 26 suffers from depression and extreme humiliation.

27 312. James Brooks is a California resident. In May 2020, he applied to 28 receive EDD benefits through Bank of America. In June 2020 he began receiving

1 his EDD benefits of approximately $767 per week. Starting in late June 2020 he did 2 not receive his weekly electronic transfer of his benefits to his account. This 3 continued until late July 2020. In late July (within 60 days of the first error 4 discovered in June 2020) he called Bank of America and reported these errors. Bank 5 of America then began sending him renewed EDD benefits, through the use of 6 electronic transactions, beginning in August of 2020 through January 2021. Despite 7 the electronic transfer of his benefits starting again in August of 2020, Bank of 8 America did not provisionally or permanently credit Brooks for the reported error 9 to his account in the June 2020 through July 2020 time period. In late January 2021, 10 he attempted to use his EDD benefits card issued by Bank of America, but the 11 transaction was declined. Brooks reviewed his online statement and believed there 12 were still funds on the account and could not figure out why the error occurred in 13 declining his purchase. That same day in January 2021 Brooks contacted Bank of 14 America by telephone to report the declined transaction and requested additional 15 information upon which Bank of America relied upon to restrict electronic access 16 to his account. In response to this request for additional information Bank of 17 America told Brooks that he had to contact EDD directly and that Bank of America 18 would not provide any additional information. Due to Bank of America's actions, 19 he missed his $800 rent payments from February 2021 to March 2021. He missed 20 his phone bill, electric bill, and water bill from February 2021 to March 2021, 21 totaling approximately $600. He struggles to buy food, gas, and clothing.

22 313. Adam Brotman<sup>21</sup> resides in San Diego County, California. He was out 23 of work during the COVID-19 pandemic. In June 2020 he then applied for and was 24 found eligible by EDD to receive unemployment benefits administered through 25 Bank of America. He received a Bank of America EDD Debit Card with a magnetic 26 stripe (but no EMV chip) to access EDD benefits. On October 22, 2020, he was 27 _____

28 <sup>21</sup> Brotman is the plaintiff in Brotman v. Bank of America, N.A., No. 3:21-cv-00520-LAB-MSB ("Brotman").

1 then the victim of unauthorized transactions on his EDD Debit Card Account (all 2 of which occurred in the prior 60 days). He learned of the fraudulent transactions 3 on October 27, 2020, and he promptly reported the unauthorized transaction(s) to 4 Bank of America. The details of the first unauthorized transaction occurred at an 5 ARCO gas station in San Diego, California and details of the second unauthorized 6 transaction at an ATM in Birmingham, England for $990.50. Brotman, in dire need 7 of his funds to help bridge the gap between employment during the pandemic, was 8 confused why Bank of America approved the ATM transaction in England that 9 occurred on the same day as his transaction in California. The fraudulent transaction 10 of $990.50 in England drained his Account to $170.81 after the Bank's international 11 transaction fees. The fraudster stole $990.50 from him which is a great deal of 12 money to him. The same day as discovering the unauthorized transactions (and 13 within 60 days of their occurrence) Brotman called Bank of America and was able 14 to reach an account representative. Bank of America had no trouble verifying his 15 identity, the account in question, or the unauthorized transactions. Bank of America
16 never provided a provisional or permanent credit related to the identified
17 unauthorized transactions. Bank of America failed to provide any additional 18 notification, in writing or otherwise, as to how it reached its conclusion after 19 conducting a reasonable investigation or what documents it relied upon. Bank of 20 America told him to wait for a few days while it investigated the claim and stated it 21 would get back to him. On October 28, 2020, just one day after his fraud report, the 22 Bank sent him a letter that read in part: "Your claim has been closed because we 23 believe the account, or the claim have been the subject of fraud or suspicious 24 activity. Any temporary credit that was applied to your account related to this claim, 25 including any related reimbursement of fees, has been or will be debited from your 26 account and reflected in your available balance, if any." The Bank's letter dated 27 October 28, 2020, admits that Brotman's Account had been "the subject of fraud" 28 and an error did occur. On information and belief, Bank of America never 1 conducted a reasonable investigation and did not provide any information or the 2 documents it relied upon in reaching its conclusions. It was required to correct the 3 error within one business day under 15 U.S.C. §1693f(b). Not only was the Bank 4 required to recredit the $990.50 resulting from the error, but it should also have 5 refunded the $20.81 of international transaction fees it charged stemming from the 6 error. Brotman called Bank of America almost daily to continually report the 7 unauthorized transactions and he would remain on hold for long periods of time.

8 Sometimes the call would become disconnected after being on hold for hours. Each 9 time he reported the unauthorized transfer to agents at the Bank, he provided his 10 name and other identifying information as required by 15 U.S.C. §1693f(a)(1).
11 While the agents were able to locate his Account, they would not help him. He 12 indicated to the Bank that he believed his Account contained errors in the form of 13 an unauthorized electronic fund transfer under 15 U.S.C. §1693f(f)(1) and provided 14 the amount and date of the transfer per 15 U.S.C. §1693f(a)(2). When he reported 15 the fraud, he explained that the transfer occurred in England while he was in 16 California. He set forth the reasons for his belief that the transfer was unauthorized 17 and requested more information from the investigation into his fraud claim. Around 18 November 2020, Brotman reached another agent by phone and again reported the 19 fraud and asked for help in the form of a recredit or refund. The agent told him that 20 the call needed to go to “claims.” Despite Bank of America's representations of 21 “24/7” customer service, the agent informed him that he needed to call back during 22 business hours and provided him with a number to call. Brotman called that number 23 only to be put on hold for hours, and then hung up on. He was transferred to various 24 departments to no apparent end, sent to voicemail, dealt with unhelpful automated 25 agents, with no meaningful response. On December 17, 2020, Brotman discovered 26 his Bank of America EDD account access was restricted. That same day he 27 contacted Bank of America to report this and request additional information. Bank 28 of America failed to provide any information over the telephone and has never

1 provided any additional information as to why a restriction was placed on the 2 account. Brotman never received a notice even after the Bank had restricted access 3 to his account or hundreds of thousands of other EDD Debit Card Accounts in a 4 desperate and heavy-handed effort to stem the effects of the fraud. In his numerous 5 calls to the Bank going back to October 2020, Brotman repeatedly requested 6 additional information, clarification and documentation concerning the 7 unauthorized transfers, but the Bank refused to provide it as required under 15 8 U.S.C. §1693f(f)(6). Assuming the Bank had a valid reason for the freeze and 9 needed to conduct an investigation, Brotman should have been able to access his 10 funds, including the stolen $990.50, after ten days under the EFTA. But that was 11 not the reality for him. He was held hostage by the Bank with the only option of 12 calling the Bank repeatedly and being placed on hold for hours and hours. In late 13 January 2021, he called Bank of America's Claims Department again. A 14 representative named Chris answered the phone and informed Brotman that on 15 January 19, 2021, his claim shifted from "closed" to "pending maintenance." 16 Brotman received no correspondence about the shift in status of his claim. On 17 February 1, 2021, the Bank mailed Brotman an additional letter informing him that 18 his Account access had been restricted due to suspicious activity. On February 3, 19 2021, the Bank mailed him a letter stating his $990.50 had finally been returned and 20 his Account was no longer restricted. However, Adam never received a provisional 21 credit on the reported unauthorized transactions and only received a permanent 22 credit outside of the time requirements allowed by EFTA in late February 2021.
23 The Bank did not return the $20.81 of international transaction fees it charged him 24 in connection with the fraudulent transaction and did not credit him for interest as 25 required by 15 U.S.C. §1693f(b). Brotman reported the unauthorized transaction to 26 the Bank in October 2020. A good faith investigation by the Bank was required to 27 be completed forty-five days later under 15 U.S.C. §1693f(c). If the Bank 28 determined in a good faith investigation during the forty-five period that an error

1 did not occur, it was required to deliver or mail him an explanation of its findings 2 within three business days after the conclusion of that good faith investigation under 3 15 U.S.C. §1693f(c). Instead, the Bank sent him a form letter the next day after he 4 reported the fraud. This indicates the Bank had not performed any sort of 5 investigation, much less a good faith investigation. The letter seemed to be an 6 attempt to shield the Bank from liability. In its letter dated October 28, 2020, Bank 7 of America failed to enclose any supporting documents to support its position that 8 Brotman had committed the fraud. The Bank did not make a good faith investigation 9 of the error. It did not have a reasonable basis for believing that his Account was 10 not in error per 15 U.S.C. §1693f(e)(1). Initially, and then again well after the forty-11 five-day investigation period allowed, the Bank concluded that his Account was not 14 approximately $15,000 occurring within the prior 60 days. She reported these 15 unauthorized transactions to Bank of America immediately thereafter, in August of

23 unauthorized transactions. Bank of America failed to provide any additional 24 notification, in writing or otherwise, as to how it reached its conclusion after 25 conducting a reasonable investigation or what documents it relied upon. Separate 26 and apart from the unauthorized transactions, Bank of America restricted access to 27 Castillo's account beginning in January 2021. Immediately after discovering that 28 Bank of America had placed a restriction on the EDD account, which restricted use,

2 account and requested additional information regarding the restriction. Bank of 3 America failed to provide any information over the telephone and has never 4 provided any additional information as to why a restriction was placed on the 5 account. No answers were provided, and no additional information was sent by 6 Bank of America in response. Out of the blue in March 2021 Bank of America 7 credited approximately $4,000 of Castillo's unauthorized claimed amount without 8 explanation. Another $900 deposit occurred in May 2021 (seven months after 10 outside the time requirements required by EFTA after a report of unauthorized 11 transactions. Castillo has still not received a provisional or permanent credit of over 12 $10,000 related to timely reported unauthorized transactions from August 2020.

10 he was on hold over an hour. Once he could reach a Bank of America representative, 12 restricted and why he could not access his funds. Bank of America never provided 13 him with any additional information as to why his account was restricted and why 14 he could not access his funds. Bank of America's only response was to tell him to 15 contact EDD because Bank of America had no information. Bank of America has 27 permanent credit related to the identified unauthorized transactions. Bank of 28 America failed to provide any additional notification, in writing or otherwise, as to

2 documents it relied upon. Separate and apart from the unauthorized charges, in 3 December 2020 Bank of America restricted access to Chavez's account. She was 5 from Bank of America that her account access was restricted, she called Bank of 12 2020, she experienced fraud on her Account, totaling approximately $12,000, 13 putting her Account in a balance of negative $6,000. In August 2020, she discovered 14 the fraud when she attempted to use her Card, but it was declined. In August 2020,

16 said they would open a claim and investigate. In August 2020, Bank of America

18 however, Bank of America immediately re-froze her Account. In October 2020, 19 Bank of America credited $6,000 to her Account; however, Bank of America 20 reversed the credit in December 2020, and even took an additional $3,000 from her 21 Account, putting her Account at a balance of negative $9,000. Since December 22 2020, Bank of America has yet to credit her any money. Due to Bank of America's 23 actions, she missed her $1,600 rent payments from November 2020 to May 2021, 24 leading to eviction. She missed her car payments from November 2020 to January 25 2021, leading to car repossession. She has struggled to pay her phone bills since 26 November 2020, totaling $1,000. She has struggled to pay cable and internet bills 27 from November 2020 to present, totaling over $600 owed. She struggles to pay for 28 food and clothing.

3 of America illegally froze his Account. In September 2020, Bank of America
4 unfroze his Account. In October 2020, he experienced fraud on his Account, 5 totaling approximately $120. In October 2020, he discovered the fraud when he 6 logged into his Bank of America app and noticed the charges. In October 2020, he 7 reported the fraud to Bank of America via phone. In response, Bank of America
8 told him he needed to file a claim; however, Bank of America disconnected his call 9 before he could do so. In December 2020, Bank of America again illegally froze his 10 Account. Since December 2020, Bank of America has yet to unfreeze his Account.
11 Since October 2020, Bank of America has yet to credit him any money. Due to 12 Bank of America's actions, he missed a rent payment of $600, leading to eviction.

14 emotional distress.

15           334. Crystal Cortez-Gonzalez is a California resident. In May 2020, she 16 began receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In November 2020, she 17 began experiencing fraud on her Account. In November 2020, she discovered the 18 fraud when she checked her Account after her Card was declined. In November 19 2020, she contacted Bank of America and reported the fraud via phone. In response, 20 Bank of America told her they would open a claim and to file a police report and 21 that she needed to verify her ID. In December 2020, Bank of America froze her 22 Account. Since December 2020, Bank of America has not unfrozen her Account.
23 Since December 2020, Bank of America has not credited her any money. Due to 24 Bank of America's actions, she has had no income since November 2020. She has 25 been unable to pay for her cell phone bills ($100/month) since November 2020. She 26 became homeless in January 2021 after not being able to pay rent on her father's 27 house after her father passed away. She cannot afford money for food or gas. She 28 also experiences emotional distress.

1           335. Teresa D'Agostino Criado is a California resident. In August 2020, she 2 began receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In October 2020 her 3 access to her Bank of America EDD account was restricted. Upon discovering that 4 access to her funds was restricted by Bank of America she immediately contacted 5 Bank of America by telephone in October 2020. During this telephone call she was 6 able to identify herself sufficiently to Bank of America where Bank of America was 7 able to locate and access her account. During this telephone call D'Agostino 8 specifically asked for additional information as to why a restriction on her account 9 was placed and why she could not access her funds. Bank of America never 10 provided any additional information as to why her access was restricted and 11 continued to restrict access to D'Agostino's funds continuing through February 12 2021. D'Agostino would repeatedly call Bank of America on almost a daily basis 13 asking for additional information as to why her account was restricted, what 14 information she could provide, and how Bank of America could fix this problem.
15 Bank of America's only response was to inform her that they had no additional 16 information, could not conduct any research for any additional information, called 17 D'Agostino a liar and would repeatedly hang up on her. As of the date of filing this 18 complaint Bank of America has restricted access to her funds and has not provided 19 any additional information, despite repeated requests. Due to Bank of America's 20 actions, she has had no income since October 2020. She was unable to pay her motel 21 fees from October 2020 to January 2021 at $480 per week, resulting in 22 homelessness. She struggles to buy food and gas.

23           336. Heather Dale is a California resident. At the beginning of 2020, she 24 began receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In December 2020 she 25 attempted to use her Bank of America issued EDD card which had a balance 26 containing funds. During her attempted transaction she discovered that Bank of 27 America had placed a restriction on her account, and she could not access her funds.
28 That same day in December she contacted Bank of America by telephone and was 1 on hold for upwards of six hours. Bank of America had no difficulty verifying her 2 identity or accessing and reviewing the account in question. She finally was able to 3 get through to a Bank of America representative and identify herself. Bank of 4 America had no issue verifying her identity and locating her account. Once 5 connected, Dale then asked for additional information from Bank of America as to 6 why a restriction was placed on her account and she could not access her funds.

7 Bank of America had no answers and refused to provide any additional information.
8 To date Dale has not received any additional information from Bank of America as 9 to why a restriction was placed on her account. The only explanation Dale ever 10 received from Bank of America with regard to the restriction place on her account 11 was that she needed to call and complain directly with EDD. Due to Bank of 12 America's actions, she was unable to pay her phone bill of $80 for two months and 13 eventually had her line cancelled. She experienced overdraft fees on her personal 14 Bank of America account. She had a loan with Bank of the West, and she was unable 15 to pay her loan and it became delinquent and now is terminated. She also struggles 16 to buy food on a day-to-day basis.

17 337. Michelle de Vera is a California resident and a single mother of two 18 minor children. Starting in February of 2020 de Vera applied for and was approved 19 for EDD benefits. She was to receive approximately $1,400 bi-weekly. In February 20 2020 de Vera identified a number of unauthorized transactions on her EDD account, 21 all occurring within the prior 60 days. She discovered the unauthorized transactions 22 when a representative from the EDD contacted her about suspicious activity. She 23 continued to review her online account and identified a number of additional 24 unauthorized transactions, occurring within the prior 60 days. She immediately 25 contacted Bank of America in February of 2020 to report the unauthorized 26 transactions. Bank of America had no problem verifying her identity and identifying 27 the transactions which she claimed were unauthorized. Bank of America did not 28 provisionally or permanently credit her account after de Vera reported the 1 unauthorized transactions. Bank of America additionally never provided de Vera 2 the results of its investigation or supplied any information it relied upon in reaching 3 any conclusion of its investigation. On information and belief, Bank of America did 4 not conduct any investigation, but simply ignored de Vera. Again, in July 2020 de 5 Vera was reviewing her online statements and discovered additional unauthorized 6 charges (occurring within the prior 60 days). She, again, immediately contacted 7 Bank of America by telephone in July 2020 to report the unauthorized charges.

8 Bank of America again was able to identify her, her account and the unauthorized 9 charges. Despite all this, Bank of America never provisionally or permanently 10 credited de Vera for the unauthorized charges or provided her with an explanation 11 of the results of its investigation or the information it relied upon in conducting its 12 investigation and reaching a conclusion. Again, in September 2020 de Vera 13 reviewed her online statements with Bank of America and discovered additional 14 unauthorized charges (occurring within the prior 60 days). She, again, contacted 15 Bank of America by telephone, reached a representative, identified the unauthorized 16 charges and requested an investigation and provisional credit. Bank of America 17 failed to issue a provisional or permanent credit for the unauthorized charges and 18 never provided de Vera with an explanation, written or otherwise, as to the results 19 of any investigation or the information Bank of America relied upon in reaching its 20 conclusions. Due to Bank of America's actions, she missed rent payments from 21 February 2020 to July 2020 and then again from September 2020 to January 2021.
22 She had to beg her landlord not to evict her. She missed car payments from February 23 2020 to July 2020 and then again from September 2020 to January 2021, at $220
24 per month. She missed car insurance payments from February 2020 to July 2020 25 and then again from September 2020 to January 2021, at $120 per month. She 26 missed her cell phone bill from February 2020 to July 2020 and then again from 27 September 2020 to January 2021, at $208 per month. She missed her PG&E bill 28 from February 2020 to July 2020 and then again from September 2020 to January

1 2021, at $125 per month. She missed her furniture bill from February 2020 to July 2 2020 and then again from September 2020 to January 2021, at $112.47 per month.
3 She also ended up in the emergency room due to the stress Bank of America caused 4 her.

5 338. Timothy Deasy is a California resident. In September 2020, he began 6 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In November 2020, he 8 withdrawal totaling $640. In November 2020, he discovered the fraud when he 9 checked his Account after having insufficient funds for a purchase. In November 10 2020, he reported the fraud to Bank of America via phone. In response, Bank of 11 America denied his claim. In December 2020, Bank of America froze his Account.

12 Since December 2020, Bank of America has yet to unfreeze his Account. Since 13 December 2020, Bank of America has yet to credit him any of the stolen money.

15 phone bill at $200, and missed an insurance bill at $130. He also cannot afford food 16 and suffers from extreme emotional distress.

22 he contacted Bank of America to report the fraud via phone. In response, Bank of 23 America told him to resolve his problem with EDD. In November 2020, Bank of 24 America froze his Account when he could not verify himself and reversed the credit 25 they gave him. After reversing the credit, Bank of America reported his Account at 26 negative $6,511. Since November 2020, Bank of America has yet to unfreeze his 27 Account. Since November 2020, Bank of America has yet to credit him any funds.
28 Due to Bank of America's actions, he could not pay his rent of $450 per month and

1 was forced to be homeless in June 2020. He was dropped from his credit card 2 because he was unable to make a payment since September 2020. He cannot even 3 pay for his own food, relying on friends and family to provide. He also is suffering 4 from serious depression.

5 340. Delbert Delgado is a California resident. In March 2020, he began 6 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In March 2020, he experienced 7 fraud on his Account when Bank of America sent his debit Card to the wrong 8 address. The fraudulent transactions totaled a little over $10,000. In April 2020, he 9 discovered the fraud when he called Bank of America trying to seek information 10 regarding his Card. In April 2020, he reported the fraud to Bank of America via 11 phone. In response, Bank of America told him they are unable to help him with his 12 issue. In December 2020, Bank of America froze his Account. In May 2021, Bank 13 of America unfroze his Account. In April 2020, Bank of America credited him back 14 $9,000; however, Bank of America reversed the credit and put his Account into a 15 negative balance of $9,000. Due to Bank of America's actions, he was forced out 16 of his home after not being able to pay his $1,300 rent since December 2020. He is 17 forced to live on the streets, and on the back of his neighbor's porch. He has missed 18 every phone payment to date since December 2020 at $65 per month. He had his 19 car repossessed in December 2020 after not being able to pay his $350 per month 20 payment. He is also the source of income for his mother and brother. His brother 21 has down syndrome and now has no place to live because of Bank of America.

22 341. Selena Delgado is a California resident. In June 2020, she began 23 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In June 2020, she experienced 24 fraud on her Account. The fraudulent transactions were ATM withdrawals totaling 25 $6,543. In June 2020, she discovered the fraud while making purchases that were 26 declined due to insufficient funds. In June 2020, she reported the fraud to Bank of 27 America via phone. In June 2021, she again experienced fraud on her Account. The 28 fraudulent transactions totaled $14,000. In June 2021, she discovered the fraud

1 when she checked her online Account balance. In June 2021, she reported the fraud 2 to Bank of America via phone. In response, Bank of America claimed her issue was 3 with EDD, after transferring her from department to department, claiming the next 4 would solve her issue for her. In August 2020, Bank of America froze her Account, 5 which had approximately $10,584 in it at the time. Since August 2020, Bank of 6 America has yet to unfreeze her Account. In August 2020, Bank of America 7 provisionally credited her Account for the stolen money for four payments of 8 $1,512, for a total of $6,048. On February 28, 2021, Bank of America removed the 9 provisional credit for the stolen money that they originally provided from August 10 2020. Due to Bank of America's actions, from August 2020 to June 2021, she had 11 difficulty paying rent, which was $475 per month, for a total of $5,225. From July 12 2020 to December 2020, she had missed car payments of $500 per month for a total 13 of $3,000. Her car was repossessed in December 2020. From July 2020 to 14 December 2020, she had difficulty paying her Boost cell phone bill of $110 per 16 342. Nickolaus Dirickson is a California resident. In October 2020, he 17 began receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In November of 2020, 18 Dirickson started experiencing fraud on his Account. The fraudulent transactions 19 were withdrawals, totaling approximately $12,000. In January 2021, he discovered 20 the fraud after he checked his online Account. In January 2021, he reported the 21 fraud to Bank of America via phone. In response, Bank of America told him this 22 was an EDD issue, and he needed to verify his identification. In November 2020, 23 Bank of America froze his Account. At the time Bank of America froze his 24 Account, he had $4,200 in the Account. In March 2021, Bank of America unfroze 25 his Account. In February 2021, Bank of America credited $4,600 to his Account 26 due to Bank of America's actions, his credit score dropped 188 points within the 27 last six months to which there are now marks on his credit. He was unable to 28 purchase a car because of the low credit. He missed his rent payment in August

1 2020 through January 2021 at $1,800 per month, and as a result, became homeless.
2 He was unable to pay car payments from November 2020 to January 2021, leading 3 to repossession of his car. He was behind on cell phone payments with Verizon of 4 a total of $1,800 beginning in November 2020.

5 343. Lorina Dones is a California resident and single mother of two minor 6 children. In April 2020, she applied for and began receiving EDD benefits through 7 Bank of America. She had trouble accessing her account for several months. It was 8 not until she received help from her district assembly member that she was able to 9 satisfy Bank of America of her identity. Finally in September 2020 she gained 10 access to her EDD account. She immediately reviewed the historical transactions 11 for the prior 60 days and found numerous unauthorized charges. She then contacted 12 Bank of America by telephone in September 2020 to report these unauthorized 13 transactions. Bank of America at that time was able to identify her, her account, and 14 the unauthorized charges that occurred in the prior 60 days. Bank of America never 15 provided a provisional or permanent credit for those reported unauthorized charges 16 and never provided any explanation, written or otherwise, as to the results of its 17 investigation or documents relied upon in reaching any conclusion of the 18 investigation. Separate and apart from the above, in late September 2020 Dones 19 attempted to use her Bank of America EDD account and discovered that her account 20 was restricted and did not have access to her funds. She contacted Bank of America 21 by telephone in September 2020 to report this restricted access and requested 22 additional information as to why her account was restricted. Bank of America 23 provided no additional information on the telephone and never sent additional 24 information to Dones, despite her request. Dones continued to call almost on a daily 25 basis to Bank of America and continued to request additional information as to why 26 her account was restricted. She would wait on hold for long hours only to have the 27 representatives at Bank of America tell her there was nothing they could do. These 28 calls to Bank of America requesting additional information on the restrictions

1 placed on her account continued on almost a daily basis through April of 2021. Each 2 time Dones would connect with a Bank of America representative she would 3 request additional information as to why the restriction was placed on her account 4 and she had no access to her funds. Finally in May 2021 access to her account was 5 restored, without explanation or providing the additional information requested. In 6 May 2021, after Bank of America restored access to her account, Dones reviewed 7 her account and discovered additional unauthorized transactions totaling 8 approximately $6,000 all occurring within the prior 60 days. She immediately called 9 Bank of America and reported these unauthorized transactions to the Bank of 10 America representative. Bank of America had no problem identifying Dones, her 11 account and the unauthorized transactions. Bank of America never provided a 12 provisional or permanent credit related to the reporting of these unauthorized 13 transactions and never provided any additional documentation explaining the 14 results of its investigation or the documentation relied upon. From April 2020 15 through the date of filing this complaint, Dones estimates she has called Bank of 16 America approximately 500 times dealing with these issues. Due to Bank of 17 America's actions, she missed an entire year of rent, from April 2020 to April 2021, 18 and would have been evicted if not for an eviction ban. She had to borrow money 19 from her family to feed her kids.

20 344. Anthony Douglas is a California resident and has two dependents 21 minor children. In February 2021 Douglas applied for and was approved for EDD 22 benefits administered by Bank of America. In April 2021 Douglas reviewed his 23 online statement and identified a number of missing deposits which he concluded 24 Bank of America had omitted in error (within the prior 60 days). Douglas identified 25 those missing deposits as errors and contacted Bank of America to report the errors 26 on his account. Douglas reached a Bank of America representative in April 2021 to 27 report the deposit errors and requested an investigation. Bank of America never 28 provided a provisional or permanent credit related to the identified deposit errors.

1 Bank of America failed to provide any additional notification, in writing or 2 otherwise, as to how it reached its conclusion after conducting a reasonable
3 investigation or what documents it relied upon. At the end of April 2021 during a 4 follow up call with Bank of America, the representative told Douglas that Bank of 5 America had corrected the missing deposits, which were originally omitted in error 6 and that his account was “fixed”. Douglas then went online to verify the correct 7 deposits and account adjustments were made by Bank of America. Douglas 8 discovered the continued error that Bank of America had failed to properly credit 9 his account. Douglas then called Bank of America back to report these errors. This 10 call took place at the end of April 2021 (well within the 60-day notice period 11 required). Bank of America had no difficulty verifying his identity or accessing and 12 reviewing the account in question. Bank of America never provided a provisional 13 or permanent credit related to the identified deposit errors. Bank of America failed 14 to provide any additional notification, in writing or otherwise, as to how it reached 15 its conclusion after conducting a reasonable investigation or what documents it 16 relied upon. The only instructions Bank of America provided to Douglas during 17 subsequent telephone calls was to contact EDD. Due to Bank of America’s actions, 18 he has missed utility bills since April 2021 totaling $800. He has missed rent since 19 April 2021 at $1,750 per month. He has missed every phone payment to date since 20 April 2020 at $100 per month. He has missed every insurance bill since April 2021 21 at $464 per month.

22 345. Benjamin Douglass is a California resident. In January 2020, he began 23 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In April 2020 he logged onto his 24 Bank of America account and identified a number of unauthorized transactions 25 which had occurred within the prior 60 days. Those unauthorized transactions 26 totaled about 50-70 transactions in the combined amount of approximately $4,000.
27 That same day in April 2020, he contacted Bank of America by telephone to report 28 the unauthorized transactions. He was able to connect with a Bank of America

1 representative by telephone who verified his identity, his account and the 2 unauthorized transactions. Douglas never received a provisional credit on the 3 reported unauthorized transactions and only received a permanent credit outside of 4 the time requirements allowed by EFTA in late June 2020. Later that month of April 5 2020, Douglas attempted to use his Bank of America account electronically and 6 found Bank of America had restricted access. He immediately called Bank of 7 America that same day in April to report the restricted access on his account and 8 requested additional information from Bank of America. Bank of America never 9 provided any additional information as to why his account was restricted. Douglas 10 continued to contact Bank of America by telephone multiple times per week and 11 request additional information regarding his account restriction. No additional 12 information was ever received. In late June 2020, without explanation, Bank of 13 America released any restrictions on his account. Bank of America never provided 14 additional information as to why a restriction was placed or ultimately released.
15 Due to Bank of America's actions, he struggled to pay his $1,000 rent in April and 16 May 2020. He struggled to pay his $100 monthly phone bill in April and May 2020.
17 He struggles to pay for food and clothing.

18 346. Kayli Duey is a California resident and a single mother with two minor 19 dependents. In May 2020 Duey applied for and was approved for EDD benefits 20 administered through Bank of America. Access was not granted to her account until 21 June 2020. In June 2020 when she finally had access to her account, she discovered 22 that a number of unauthorized transactions had occurred within the prior 60 days.
23 The total unauthorized transactions amounted to $5,430. She immediately contacted 24 Bank of America by telephone in June 2020 and reported each one of the 25 unauthorized transactions. Bank of America never provided a provisional or 26 permanent credit and did not respond to Duey as to the results of any investigation 27 or the documents relied upon in reaching a conclusion to its investigation. In 28 addition, in June 2020, after Duey reported the unauthorized transactions, Bank of 1 America restricted access to Duey's account. The same day, in June 2020, Duey 2 contacted Bank of America by telephone to report that she no longer had access to 3 her account and requested additional information. On a weekly basis Duey 4 contacted Bank of America to inform Bank of America that her account was 5 restricted, she had no access and each time requested additional information as to 6 why her account was restricted. The only response Bank of America provided to 7 Duey was that the situation was out of their control, they would not supply any 8 additional information and that Duey should contact EDD. Due to Bank of 1 Flores was able to reach a Bank of America representative who was able to properly 2 identify Flores, his account and identify each of the unauthorized transactions on 3 his account, all which occurred in the prior 60 days. Bank of America failed to 4 provisionally or permanently credit Flores' account. Bank of America never 5 provided the results of its investigation or the documents it relied upon in reaching 6 its conclusion. After Flores reported the unauthorized transactions in November

14 which restricted use, she called Bank of America to inquire as to why a restriction 15 was placed on her account and requested additional information regarding the 16 restriction. Bank of America failed to provide any information over the telephone 17 and has never provided any additional information as to why a restriction was 18 placed on the account. Since August 2020, she contacted Bank of America 19 numerous times notifying Bank of America that her access to her account had been 21 to a Bank of America representative, they refused to provide Flores with any 22 additional information regarding Bank of America restricting her access to her 23 Account, and directed her to contact EDD. Bank of America told her she needed to 24 speak with EDD. Flores called Bank of America at least twice a month since August 25 2020, notifying Bank of America that her access was restricted and requesting 26 additional information why her account access was restricted. Each time, Bank of 27 America had no difficulty verifying her identity or accessing and reviewing the 28 account in question. Since August 2020, Bank of America has refused her access to

1 documents it relied upon. After approximately 60 days (outside the time required 2 for a partial or permanent credit), Bank of America credited Friday's account in the 9 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In late May or early June 2020, 10 he experienced fraud on his Account, totaling $700. In June 2020, he discovered 11 the fraud. In June 2020, he reported the fraud to Bank of America via phone. In 12 December 2020, he again experienced fraud on his Account, totaling $350. In 13 December 2020, he discovered the fraud when he received a text alert, stating a 14 fraudulent person withdrew money from his Account. In December 2020, he 15 reported the fraud to Bank of America via phone. In response, Bank of America 16 told him that it was EDD who in fact withdrew the funds from his Account and he 17 needed to call EDD to fix the problem. In December 2020, Bank of America froze 18 his Account. In February 2021, Bank of America unfroze his Account. In February 19 2021, Bank of America credited $1,450 to his Account. Due to Bank of America's 20 actions, he missed rent payments totaling $1,100, leading to his eviction. He missed 21 phone bills totaling $165, leading to a cancelled phone. He was unable to pay child 22 support payments. He suffers from emotional distress.

23 389. Steven Hart<sup>22</sup> is a natural person residing in Los Angeles County, State

25 maintains supervision and control over per its contractual relationship with the State

27 <sup>22</sup> Hart is the plaintiff in Hart v. Bank of America, N.A., No. 3:21-cv-01175-28 LAB-MSB, originally filed in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California (No. 2:21-cv-04678-GW-JC) ("Hart").

1 of California. Over the course of this relationship, Hart provided Bank of America 2 with various pieces of personal identifiable information related to Hart, such as his 3 personal finances. Such information includes, but is not limited to, Hart's name, 4 address, social security number, date of birth, income level, and banking 5 information (amounts and accounts). Upon receipt of this information, Bank of 6 America stored or otherwise archived said information in some library, digital file, 7 computer-based system, or other storage medium, and thus at all times was 8 entrusted with and maintained control of Hart's highly sensitive information. At 9 some point in 2020, a hacker was able to access Bank of America's technical 10 system—presumably via a misconfiguration of a firewall (presuming Bank of 11 America had a firewall in place). As such, this hacker was able to gain access to 12 banking Account information for tens of thousands of EDD Debit Card Accounts 13 which Bank of America maintains, supervises, and controls per its contract with the 14 State of California. In April of 2021, Hart checked his Account and discovered he 15 had funds missing. Hart reviewed his Account activity and determined he had been 16 a victim of fraud and made all reasonable attempts to notify Bank of America of 17 this fraudulent activity. After Hart submitted his claim for fraud regarding the ATM 18 withdrawal(s) at issue. Bank of America canceled or froze Hart's Card as a result 19 of submitting his fraud claim. To Hart's shock and dismay, some unknown 20 individual had made ATM withdrawal(s) in the amount of $853. Hart did not make 21 these withdrawals himself, did not authorize anyone to make the withdrawal on his 22 behalf, and was still in possession of his Card despite said withdrawals taking place.
23 Hart submitted a fraud claim to Bank of America regarding the missing/stolen funds 24 on April 7, 2021. Bank of America did not provide a temporary credit/refund, so 25 pursuant to EFTA, Bank of America had ten (10) days to properly investigate and 26 remedy the fraud claim. Bank of America did neither. After allegedly performing 27 an investigation into Hart's fraudulent activity, Bank of America sent Hart written 28 correspondence denying Hart's fraud claim. Bank of America's denial letter was

1 dated April 8, 2021—one (1) day after Bank of America allegedly performed a 2 “reasonable” investigation. The basis for Bank of America’s denial of Hart’s claim 3 is scant at best. However, Bank of America does indeed confirm that fraudulent or 4 suspicious activity took place in regard to the fraudulent withdrawal, but 5 nonetheless refused to refund or credit Hart the $853 sum. Despite Hart’s efforts, 6 Bank of America refused to perform any reasonable investigation regarding Hart’s 7 dispute and instead flatly denied Hart’s claim one (1) day after he submitted said 8 claim. Bank of America’s alleged “investigation” into Hart’s dispute was clearly 9 inadequate, not reasonable, not diligent, and failed to properly address Hart’s issues 10 regarding the $853 fraudulent withdrawal. Further evidencing Bank of America’s 11 woefully inadequate investigation is the fact that Bank of America has access to 12 data, film, and other resources given that the fraudulent transaction took place at 13 one of Bank of America’s own financial centers (i.e., not a third-party ATM at a 14 convenience store, for example). Bank of America could have reasonably, easily 15 and swiftly confirmed the $853 transaction as fraudulent and refunded or credited 16 the funds over to Hart’s Account. Instead, Bank of America failed to investigate 17 properly, refused to credit or refund the transaction, while still nonetheless 18 confirming that the withdrawal was subject to fraudulent activity. What is more, 19 Bank of America actually reversed its own decision and credited Hart the stolen 20 funds on or about May 10, 2021. This further evidences that Bank of America did 21 not perform a reasonable investigation within the requisite ten (10) days in violation 22 of EFTA.

23 390. Bahram Hassanshahi is a California resident. In September 2020 he 24 applied and was approved for California EDD benefits administered through Bank 25 of America. On September 4, 2020, Hassanshahi logged onto his EDD account and 26 discovered there was a total of $22,500 in authorized transactions on his account 27 which took place within the prior 60 days. That same day he immediately called 28 Bank of America to report this series of unauthorized transactions and was able to 1 reach a Bank of America representative. The representative had no trouble

2 identifying Hassanshahi, his account or the unauthorized transactions. Hassanshahi 3 requested an investigation be conducted. Bank of America failed to provide a 4 provisional or permanent credit related to these unauthorized transactions. Bank of 5 America also failed to provide any notification, written or otherwise, for the basis 6 of its results of the investigation or identification of any documents upon which it 7 relied. Bank of America's only response to a timely report of the numerous 8 unauthorized transactions was to tell Hassanshahi that he would have to call the 9 EDD directly to receive any type of credit for the unauthorized transactions.
10 Following February 2021 Hassanshahi has regularly called Bank of America to 11 request additional information concerning the results of Bank of America's 12 investigation into the reported unauthorized transactions and has yet to receive a 13 credit for the reported unauthorized transactions. Due to Bank of America's actions, 14 he struggled to pay his $2,200 rent in September and November 2020, leading to 15 his eviction. He struggles to pay for food, gas, and clothing.

16 391. Kaytricia Hayden is a California resident. In August 2020, she began 17 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In October 2020, she 18 experienced fraud on her Account, totaling $500. In October 2020, she discovered 19 the fraud when she checked her transaction history online. In October 2020, she 20 reported the fraud to Bank of America via phone. In response, Bank of America 21 told her to speak to the bank where the money was fraudulently sent. Since October 22 2020, Bank of America has yet to credit her any money.

23 392. Gretchen Heinz is a California resident, a single mother with one 24 minor dependent. In March 2020, she began receiving EDD benefits administered 25 through Bank of America. On September 29, 2020 she attempted to use her EDD 26 benefits card to make a purchase. At that time she found that her account was 27 restricted, and she was unable to complete her purchase. On that same day she 28 attempted to contact Bank of America by telephone, but she could not connect her

1 call as Bank of America would not answer the phone. Heinz continued to attempt 2 to get ahold of a representative at Bank of America over the next four days. She 3 finally was able to get through to Bank of America on the fourth day. During this 4 telephone call with Bank of America, the representative was able to properly 5 identify Heinz, her account and the fact that a restriction had been placed on the 6 account. During this telephone call Heinz requested from Bank of America 7 additional information concerning the restrictions placed on her account. Bank of 8 America indicated that it did not have any additional information to provide, but 9 verified that there was money in the account of Heinz. The restrictions on Heinz 10 account continued until the end of October when Bank of America sent Heinz a 11 Western Union for $1,317.00 and then issued her a new card. Bank of America 12 never provided any additional information with regard to why her account was 13 restricted. Due to Bank of America's actions, she missed a $500 rent payment. She 14 missed a $70 phone bill. She acquired a $2,000 debt owed to friends and family.
15 She suffers from emotional distress.

16 393. Ronnie Hernandez is a California resident. In March 2020, he began 17 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In November 2020, he 18 experienced fraud on his Account, totaling $600. In November 2020, he discovered 19 the fraud when he attempted to withdraw funds from his Account. In November 20 2020, he reported the fraud to Bank of America by going into the bank and speaking 21 with a representative. In response, the Bank of America representative told him he 22 needed to speak with EDD to resolve his issue. In November 2020, Bank of 23 America froze his Account. Since November 2020, Bank of America has yet to 24 unfreeze his Account. Since November 2020, Bank of America has yet to credit him 25 any money. Due to Bank of America's actions, he missed a $500 rent payment. He 26 also suffers from emotional distress.

27 394. Ruben Hernandez is a California resident. In August 2020, he applied 28 and was approved to receive EDD benefits distributed through Bank of America. In

1 November 2020, Ruben contacted Bank of America as to the status of his EDD
2 account, because Ruben had yet to receive any of his benefits ($900.00 every two 3 weeks) which were scheduled to start in August 2020. Bank of America informed 4 Ruben during his November 2020, that they had restricted Hernandez access to his 5 account for some reason undisclosed reason. Hernandez understood that this 6 restriction was placed on his account within the prior 60 days. During this telephone 7 call with Bank of America he requested additional information and documentation 8 concerning the restrictions placed on his account. Despite requesting additional 9 information from Bank of America, Bank of America never provided any. Bank of 10 America told Hernandez to contact EDD to re-verify his identity. Hernandez 11 reverified his ID with EDD but his account was still restricted by Bank of America, 12 without explanation, despite the request for additional information. Hernandez 13 called Bank of America over 200 times requesting the status of the investigation, 14 and for additional information including as to why he was still not given access to 15 his account. In January 2021, Bank of America instructed Hernandez that the 16 investigation was not “complete”, and he still could not be given access to his 17 account. This conclusion was reached without providing Hernandez any additional 18 information, as requested. Bank of America did instruct Ruben that if he dropped 19 his fraud claim, and not request access to the funds in the account from August until 20 November ($900.00 every two weeks) Bank of America would give Ruben access 21 to his account moving forward. Due to Ruben not having any money and desperate 22 for food and necessities Ruben agreed to drop his fraud claim as instructed by Bank 23 of America was the only way Ruben could get access to his desperately needed 24 relief funds. Bank of America removed the restricted access to Ruben’s account in 25 January 2021. Bank of America still has not given Ruben any results from their 26 investigation or additional information concerning his restricted access. Since 27 November 2020, Bank of America has yet to allow him access to his funds. Due to 28 Bank of America’s actions, he missed his $400 rent payment from August to 1 September 2020, leading to eviction and subsequent homelessness. He cannot 2 afford to maintain a phone each month. He struggles to obtain food and clothing.

3 He suffers from emotional distress.

4 395. Vanessa Hernandez is a California resident, and a single mother of four 5 children all under the age of Eighteen. In August 2020, she applied to receive EDD
6 benefits through Bank of America; however, Bank of America never sent her a Card 7 with access to her Account. In November 2020, Vanessa called Bank of America to 8 request information as to why she had not received her much-needed EDD account 9 information. During this phone call with Bank of America, Bank of America finally 10 granted Hernandez access to her account. She was able to then determine there were 11 a number of unauthorized transactions on the account occurring within the prior 60 12 days, totaling approximately $7,000. Bank of America never provided a provisional 13 or permanent credit related to the identified unauthorized transactions. Bank of 14 America failed to provide any additional notification, in writing or otherwise, as to 15 how it reached its conclusion after conducting a reasonable investigation or what 16 documents it relied upon. Bank of America refused to help her and refused to refund 17 the unauthorized transactions. Later in November 2020, Bank of America restricted 18 her access to her Account. Immediately after discovering that Bank of America had 19 placed a restriction on the EDD account, which restricted use, she immediately 20 called Bank of America to inquire as to why a restriction was placed on her account
21 and requested additional information regarding the restriction. Bank of America 22 failed to provide any information over the telephone and has never provided any 23 additional information as to why a restriction was placed on the account. Hernandez 24 called almost daily to Bank of America inquiring about any results from the 25 investigation and continually requested additional information concerning the 26 restrictions placed on her account. Bank of America rarely answered the phone 27 calls. For months Hernandez attempted to get through to Bank of America, but was 28 frustrated waiting on hold for long hours and never having a representative pick up

1 the line. Finally, in March of 2021, Hernandez finally got through to Bank of 2 America and they informed her that no one has worked on her file since November 3 of 2020 and that they could not send her any additional information or 4 documentation regarding the restrictions placed on her account. On June 16, 2021, 5 without explanation, Bank of America removed the restrictions on Hernandez's 6 Account, Hernandez was given access to the remaining funds in her account which 7 were $50.00. One Hernandez was granted access to her account and she reviewed 8 the most recent transactions for the prior 60 days, she identified numerous 9 unauthorized transactions occurring in that time frame. The same day as discovering 10 the unauthorized transactions she called Bank of America and was able to reach an 11 account representative. Bank of America had no trouble verifying her identity, the 12 account in question, or the unauthorized transactions. Bank of America never 13 provided a provisional or permanent credit related to the identified unauthorized 14 transactions. Bank of America failed to provide any additional notification, in 15 writing or otherwise, as to how it reached its conclusion after conducting a 16 reasonable investigation or what documents it relied upon. Due to Bank of 17 America's actions, she was evicted from her home in January of 2021 and owes 18 $9,000 in rent for missing payments from July 2020 to January 2021 of $1,650 per 19 month. She has missed car payments for three months, for a total of $864, and had 20 her car repossessed in February 2021. She is behind on her credit card payments, 21 totaling thousands of dollars. She was forced to sign over full custody of her 22 children to her children's father, as she could no longer provide for them. She has 23 been unable to afford her medication since November 2020. She suffers from 24 emotional distress.

16 requested additional information regarding the restriction. Bank of America failed 17 to provide any information over the telephone and has never provided any 18 additional information as to why a restriction was placed on the account. Due to 19 Bank of America's actions, he missed his $875 rent payments from January 2021

8 representative. Bank of America had no trouble verifying Huynh's identity, the 9 account in question, or the unauthorized transactions. Bank of America never 10 provided a provisional or permanent credit related to the identified unauthorized 11 transactions. Bank of America failed to provide any additional notification, in 12 writing or otherwise, as to how it reached its conclusion after conducting a 13 reasonable investigation or what documents it relied upon. Huynh continued to call

7 EDD benefits through Bank of America. In October 2020 when reviewing her 8 account, she discovered a series of unauthorized transactions totaling approximately 9 $1,700 that occurred within the prior 60 days. That same day in October 2020, she 10 called Bank of America who was able to locate her account, identify her and the 12 which the bank refused to provide. Bank of America never provided a provisional

1 provided any additional information as to why a restriction was placed on the 2 account. She would repeatedly call back at great frequency and continue to request 3 additional information and documents related to the restriction, which the bank 4 never provided. Due to Bank of America's actions, she was unable to pay her $700 5 per month rent, leading to her eviction and subsequent homelessness. She was 6 unable to pay her $80 per month utility bill. She was unable to pay her $270 per 7 month car payment, resulting in her car being repossessed. She could not afford to 8 pay her $130 per month storage fee and as a result she lost approximately $6,000 9 worth of personal items. She was unable to pay her $300 monthly phone bill which 10 caused her cell phone service to be cancelled.

11 424. Mario Madrid is a California resident. In April 2020, he began 12 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In November 2020, he 13 experienced restricted access to his EDD account after his EDD card did not work.
14 He knew there were funds on his account and could not figure out why it was 15 restricted. The same day in November 2020 and after discovering that Bank of 16 America had placed a restriction on the EDD account and restricted his use, he 17 immediately called Bank of America to inquire as to why a restriction was placed 18 on his account and requested additional information regarding the restriction. Bank 19 of America failed to provide any information over the telephone and has never 20 provided any additional information as to why a restriction was placed on his 21 account. Bank of America had no difficulty verifying his identity or accessing and 22 reviewing the account in question. He requested additional information, 23 documentation, and access which the bank refused to provide, and never did 24 provide. Due to Bank of America's actions, he was unable to pay for car repair 25 payments totaling $1,200. He was unable to pay for his wife's medical bills, which 26 were $1,100. He had to borrow money and was continually late on his rent payment, 27 which was $950 per month. He had to live in the backyard of a friend's house. He 28 struggled to pay for food, gas, and clothes.

8 America unfroze his Account. Since December 2020, Bank of America has yet to 15 the fraud when he checked his transaction history on his Account. In July 2020, he 16 reported the fraud to Bank of America via phone. In response, Bank of America

17 would often tell him to talk to EDD to resolve his issue or would just drop his call 18 altogether. In October 2020, Bank of America froze his Account. Since October 19 2020, Bank of America has yet to unfreeze his Account. In October 2020, Bank of 21 credit, sending his balance to negative $5,000. Due to Bank of America's actions, 22 he missed two rent payments in July and August 2020 at $1,200, leading to eviction 23 in September 2020. He missed two car payments at $480 per month in July and 26 payments. He struggles to buy food, gas, and clothing.

27           427. Danela Martinez is a California resident. In March 2020, she began 28 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In January 2021, Bank of

1 America froze her Account. In January 2021, she called Bank of America to 2 understand why, yet Bank of America only told her she needed to speak to EDD 3 and verify her identity with EDD before Bank of America could do anything. In 4 March 2021, Bank of America unfroze her Account. Since January 2021, Bank of 5 America has yet to credit her any money. Due to Bank of America's actions, she 6 missed eight $510 weekly rent payments. She missed two $60 monthly phone bills.

15 America unfroze his Account. Since January 2021, Bank of America has yet to 16 credit him any money. Due to Bank of America's actions, he missed two $2,250 17 rent payments in February and March 2021. He missed two electricity bill payments 18 in February and March 2021 at $100. He missed two cell phone bills at $100, 19 leading to Verizon cancelling his Account. He struggles to buy food, gas, and 20 clothing.

21 429. Vernon Matthews is a California resident. In March 2020, he began 22 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. Between December 2020 and 23 April 2021, he experienced fraud on his Account, totaling approximately $6,600. In 24 March 2021, he discovered the fraud when he checked his online statements while 25 waiting for his next deposit. In March 2021, he reported the fraud to Bank of 26 America via phone. In response, Bank of America said they would take the transfer 27 of Accounts off his charges to prevent further fraud, however, Bank of America 28 failed to do so, as more fraud occurred. In March 2021, Bank of America froze his

1 Account. Since March 2021, Bank of America has yet to credit him any money. In 2 April 2021, Bank of America credited $1,984 to his Account. Due to Bank of 3 America's actions, he had difficulty paying his water bill of about $120-$138 a

6 for his storage unit of $67 a month between March 2021 and June 2021. He had 7 difficulty paying his T-Mobile cell phone bill of $20 per month between March 8 2021 and June 2021. He struggles to pay for food, gas, and clothing.

9 430. Janelle Maurer is a California resident. In February 2020, she began 10 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In April 2021, she experienced 11 fraud on her Account, totaling approximately $1,000. In April 2021, she discovered 12 the fraud when she was unable to access any of the funds in her Account. In April 13 2021, she reported the fraud to Bank of America via phone. In response, Bank of 14 America said she needed to talk to EDD to resolve her issue. In April 2021, Bank 15 of America froze her Account. Since April 2021, Bank of America has yet to 16 unfreeze her Account. Since April 2021, Bank of America has yet to credit her any 17 money. Due to Bank of America's actions, she missed rent payments leading to 18 eviction and subsequent homelessness. She is unable to pay her monthly phone bill.
19 She is unable to pay for an advanced loan she acquired.

20 431. Christina McCafferty is a California resident. In May 2020, she began 21 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In June of 2020, she identified a 22 number of unauthorized transactions, all of which occurred in the prior 60 days, 23 totaling approximately $1,500. She immediately called Bank of American who had 24 no difficulty verifying her identity or accessing and reviewing the account in 25 question along with the unauthorized transactions. She requested information, 26 documentation and credit. Bank of America never provided a provisional or 27 permanent credit related to the identified unauthorized transactions within the 28 statutory time frame required by EFTA. Bank of America failed to provide any

1 additional notification, in writing or otherwise, as to how it reached its conclusion 2 after conducting a reasonable investigation or what documents it relied upon. In 3 August 2020 (approximately 60 days after the report of the unauthorized 4 transactions), Bank of America sent her a letter stating it found fraud on client's 5 account and made issued a credit for the approximate $1,500 in unauthorized 6 charges identified and reported in June 2020. However, approximately four months 7 later in October 2020, Bank of America, without notice or explanation appeared to 8 reverse the $1,500 credit leaving her account balance negative. Upon reviewing her 9 account in October 2020 and identifying this error and/or unauthorized transaction 10 by Bank of America, she called Bank of America. Bank of America had no 11 difficulty verifying her identity or accessing and reviewing the account in question.
12 She never received any notice that Bank of America was going to take the money 13 back. She asked for information, documents and for the $1,500 credit back, which 14 the bank refused to provide. Bank of America never provided a provisional or 15 permanent credit related to the identified unauthorized transactions. Bank of 16 America failed to provide any additional notification, in writing or otherwise, as to 17 how it reached its conclusion after conducting a reasonable investigation or what 18 documents it relied upon. From October 2020 to December 2020, she persistently 19 called Bank of America asking for information, documents and credit to no avail.
20 The bank never returned the money or gave her a reason why the money was taken.
21 Due to Bank of America's actions, she missed her $600 monthly rent payment 22 between October 2020 and December 2020. She missed her $100 monthly phone 23 bill between October 2020 and December 2020. She was unable to pay her credit 24 card bill. She struggled to buy food, gas, and clothing.

25 432. Brenda McCann is a California resident. In October 2020, she began 26 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In October 2020, she 27 experienced fraud on her Account, totaling approximately $25,000. In October 28 2020, she discovered the fraud when she checked her Account transaction history.

1 In October 2020, she reported the fraud to Bank of America via phone. In response, 2 Bank of America told her to contact Nevada EDD, as that was a location she 3 previously applied for benefits. In November 2020, Bank of America froze her 4 Account. Since November 2020, Bank of America has yet to unfreeze her Account.
5 Since October 2020, Bank of America has yet to credit her any money. Due to Bank 6 of America's actions, she could not pay her $975 monthly rent payment from 7 September 2020 to November 2020, leading to her eviction. She was unable to pay 8 her $275 monthly car payment from October 2020 to December 2020, leading to 9 her car being repossessed in January 2021. She has been unable to pay her $75 10 monthly phone bill. She struggles to buy food, gas, and clothing.

11 433. Jennifer Meza<sup>23</sup> resides in Imperial County, California. Meza found 12 herself out of work during the COVID-19 pandemic. Meza then applied for and was 13 found eligible by EDD to receive unemployment benefits. Meza received a Bank of 14 America EDD Debit Card with a magnetic stripe (but no EMV chip) to access EDD 15 benefits. She was then the victim of unauthorized transactions on her EDD Debit 16 Card Account. Meza promptly reported the unauthorized transactions to Bank of 17 America, which failed to comply with its legal obligations as alleged herein, causing 18 Meza to suffer immediate and irreparable injury. In mid-2020, Meza applied for 19 and began receiving unemployment benefits through EDD. Around September 20 2020, Meza was surprised when her Card was declined at an ATM due to 21 insufficient funds. Meza subsequently viewed her Account and discovered that the 22 balance, which should have been approximately $7,000, had been drained to $2.67 23 as a result of numerous unauthorized transactions with ride share companies and 24 luxury stores such as Coach. These transactions were executed in multiple states 25 including New York. Meza, a single mother living in Calexico, was in awe that 26 Bank of America would not flag her Account or notify her of these unusual

27

1 purchases. These fraudulent charges totaling $6,904.83 were approved by Bank of 2 America, prior to Meza learning of her Account's depletion. Inexplicably, Meza did 3 not receive a notification about these highly unusual transactions, indicating that 4 Bank of America failed to detect the instances of fraud. In September 2020, right 5 after Meza discovered the fraudulent charges on her Account, Meza called Bank of 6 America to report the unauthorized transfers. Around that same day, Meza visited 7 the El Centro branch of Bank of America in-person and reported the unauthorized 8 transfers. At the branch, the tellers and bankers refused to assist Meza. Meza was 9 merely directed to call the Bank's EDD phone line while inside the branch. No Bank 10 of America employee in the branch would answer Meza's questions or help her. An 11 employee at the branch instructed Meza to enter an unoccupied office to use their 12 phone to call the Bank's EDD phone line. The employee left Meza in the office 13 alone to fend for herself. Not surprisingly, Meza's call was unproductive, so Meza 14 begged for help from the bank's employees at the branch. The employees stated 15 there was nothing they could do for Meza. Meza believed she would be protected 16 and covered by Bank of America and was utterly disappointed when the Bank did 17 not return or recredit the money to Meza so that she could provide for her child.
18 Meza's initial notices to the Bank occurred well-within the sixty-day time limit 19 imposed by 15 U.S.C. §1693f(a). Meza reported the unauthorized transfers to the 20 Bank many more times within sixty-days as outlined below. In response, all the 21 Bank did was to continue to send Meza periodic statements, as required by 15 22 U.S.C. §1693f(a). The statements confirmed and showed the unauthorized transfers.
23 From September 2020 to October 2020, Meza called Bank of America daily to 24 report the fraud and request a refund. Meza would sit on hold for hours a day.
25 Sometimes the call would become disconnected after being on hold for hours. Each 26 time Meza reported the unauthorized transfers to agents at the Bank, she would 27 provide her name and other identifying information as required by 15 U.S.C.
28 §1693f(a)(1). The agents were able to locate Meza's Account, but they would not

1 help her. Meza indicated to the Bank that she believed her Account contained errors
2 in the form of unauthorized electronic fund transfers under 15 U.S.C. §1693f(f)(1)
3 and provided the amount and dates of the transfers per 15 U.S.C. §1693f(a)(2).
4 When Meza reported the fraud, she set forth the reasons for her belief that the 5 transfers were unauthorized errors on the Bank's part and were fraudulent per 15 6 U.S.C. §1693f(a)(3). Upon information and belief, the Bank did not conduct any 7 investigation when Meza reported the errors. The Bank certainly did not report or 8 mail Meza the results of any such investigation and determination within ten 9 business days of notice as required by 15 U.S.C. §1693f(a)(3). The Bank did not 10 provisionally recredit Meza's Account within ten business days after receiving 11 notice of the unauthorized transfers as required by 15 U.S.C. §1693f(c). Around 12 October 2020, Meza reached another agent and again reported the fraud and asked 13 for help in the form of a recredit or refund. The agent told Meza that her call needed 14 to go to "claims." Despite Bank of America's representations of "24/7" customer 15 service, the agent informed Meza that she would need to call back during business 16 hours and provided Meza with a number to call. Meza called that number only to 17 be put on hold over two hours, and then hung up on. Meza was transferred to various 18 departments to no apparent end, sent to voicemail, dealt with unhelpful automated 19 agents, and sent Bank of America emails notifying the Bank of the fraud with no 20 response. Around October 2020, Meza was able to speak with another Bank of 21 America representative. Meza went through the transactions with the agent and 22 reported a total of $6,904.83 fraudulent charges again. The agent told Meza that 23 these funds would be flagged as fraudulent and the funds would be returned to 24 Meza, but that did not happen. At no point did Meza receive communication via 25 mail, email, text, call or otherwise from Bank of America regarding the fraud on 26 her Account or the ongoing widespread fraud affecting EDD Debit Cards or how 27 defrauded EDD recipients should proceed. There was no warning even after the 28 Bank had frozen hundreds of thousands of EDD Debit Card Accounts in a desperate

1 and heavy-handed effort to stem the effects of the fraud. In her numerous calls to 2 the Bank going back to September 2020, Meza repeatedly requested additional 3 information, clarification and documentation concerning the unauthorized transfers, 4 but the Bank refused to provide it re 15 U.S.C. §1693f(f)(6). Meza asked Bank of 5 America for the written transaction history for her Account during the timeframe 6 when the fraudulent transactions occurred, but the Bank denied Meza access to 7 those records and refused to help Meza. To date, Bank of America still has not 8 returned Meza's stolen funds totaling $6,904.83. Apart from the stolen funds, 9 Meza's was receiving EDD benefits of $167 a week deposited into her Account 10 because that was the only option. Around January 6, 2021, Bank of America 11 completely froze Meza's Account without warning. This denied Meza access to her 12 benefits, even though EDD was still depositing $167 a week (distributed biweekly) 13 into Meza's Account. When Meza inquired about the freeze, Bank of America 14 falsely told Meza that it was EDD who was not authorizing the funds to be 15 withdrawn. Meza called EDD only to find that her Account was 100% compliant 16 with EDD. It was in fact Bank of America that had frozen the Account unilaterally 17 without EDD's knowledge. Even assuming the Bank had a valid reason for the 18 freeze and needed to conduct an investigation, Meza should have been able to 19 access her funds after ten days under the EFTA. But that was not the reality for 20 Meza, who was left without any recourse. Meza was held hostage by Bank of 21 America with the only option of calling the Bank repeatedly and being placed on 22 hold for hours and hours. In early March 2021, the Bank un-froze Meza's Account 23 and she was finally able to access some of her funds. Unfortunately, around March 24 15, 2021, Bank of America froze Meza's entire Account again without notice. There 25 was roughly $900 of EDD benefits in the Account. Bank of America instructed 26 Meza to re-verify her identity in order to un-freeze the Account. Meza had no choice 27 but to comply and is now receiving her benefits by paper checks mailed to her by 28 EDD. Meza is forced to cash the checks at a Bank of America branch because she

1 does not have any other bank accounts. Bank of America charges Meza $8.00 to 2 cash her checks at the branch, in addition to the huge hassle of having to drive to 3 the branch through traffic and wait in line. This is all a result of the Bank's handling 4 of Meza's Account. Around May 19, 2021, Meza received a devastating letter from 5 Bank of America saying the $6,904.86 stolen from her will never be returned. In 6 the letter, Bank of America stated: "we've completed an additional review of your 7 case and concluded that our original decision was correct." This was the only letter 8 or notice Meza ever received from the Bank related to the fraud. Meza reported the 9 unauthorized transactions to the Bank in September 2020. Any investigation by the 10 Bank was required to be completed forty-five days later under 15 U.S.C. §1693f(c).
11 If the Bank determined in its investigation that an error did not occur, it was required 12 to deliver or mail Meza an explanation of its findings within three business days 13 after the conclusion of its investigation under 15 U.S.C. §1693f(c). In its letter, 14 Bank of America failed to enclose any supporting documents to support its findings.
15 In its letter, the Bank stated; "we relied on the enclosed documents to make our 16 decision." But there were no enclosed documents with the letter. In its letter, the 17 Bank stated; "based on this information, we're unable to credit your account and 18 we now consider this dispute closed." But there was no information included or 19 cited in the letter. In its letter, there was nothing to support Bank of America's 20 decision to withhold Meza's $6,904.83. All Meza received was a single piece of 21 paper stating that her Claim number 200918303156 was closed. The Bank did not 22 make a good faith investigation of the errors. It did not have a reasonable basis for 23 believing that Meza's Account was not in error per 15 U.S.C. §1693f(e)(1). Bank 24 of America knowingly and willfully concluded that Meza's Account was not in 25 error when such a conclusion could not reasonably have been drawn from the 26 evidence available to it at the time of its investigation per 15 U.S.C. §1693f(e)(2).
27 Meza has now lost all hope of recovering her stolen funds. Meza has accepted that 28 she and her daughter are homeless and reduced to begging family to take them in.

1 Meza could really use the $6,904.83 Bank of America refuses to return to her.
2 Instead, Meza must attempt to provide for her daughter with the reduced EDD funds 3 she receives after the Bank charges its check cashing fees. Meza upheld her end of 4 the Cardholder Agreement and the requirements of the EFTA and made consistent 5 diligent efforts to report and recover the funds stolen from her Account. She made 6 many telephone calls and sent numerous emails reporting the fraud. In spite of this, 7 Bank of America's customer service department never offered Meza any 8 meaningful response or assistance, but rather stymied her efforts at every turn.

9 434. Michael McCrary is a California resident. In March 2020, he began 10 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In February 2021, he 11 experienced fraud on his Account, totaling approximately $900. In February 2021, 12 he discovered the fraud after he tried to use his Card, but the Card was declined. In 13 February 2021, he reported the fraud to Bank of America via phone. In response, 14 Bank of America repeatedly told him he needed to resolve his issues with EDD. In 15 February 2021, Bank of America froze his Account. In April 2021, Bank of 16 America unfroze his Account. In May 2021, Bank of America credited $900 to his 17 Account. Due to Bank of America's actions, he missed his $1,000 rent payment 18 twice in March 2021 and April 2021. He could not pay his phone bill in March and 19 April 2021 at $90. He could not pay his light bill in March and April 2021 at $110.
20 He could not pay his water bill in March and April 2021 at $111. He could not pay 21 his cable bill in March and April 2021 at $69.99. He could not pay his credit card 22 bill in March and April 2021 between $40 to $110. He could not pay his trash bill 23 in March and April 2021 at $88. He struggles to buy food, gas, and clothing.

24 435. Travis Middleton is a California resident. In April 2020, he began 25 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In December 2020, he identified 26 a number of unauthorized transactions, all of which occurred in the prior 60 days.
27 The same day as discovering the unauthorized transactions he called Bank of 28 America and was able to reach an account representative. Bank of America had no

1 trouble verifying his identity, the account in question, or the unauthorized 2 transactions. The total of the unauthorized transactions occurring in the prior 60
3 days was approximately $12,000. He asked the bank for information, 4 documentation and credit which the bank refused to provide. Bank of America
5 never provided a provisional or permanent credit related to the identified
6 unauthorized transactions. Bank of America failed to provide any additional 7 notification, in writing or otherwise, as to how it reached its conclusion after 8 conducting a reasonable investigation or what documents it relied upon. In January 9 2021, he experienced restricted access to his account after a transaction failed. He 10 knew there was a positive balance on his account and was perplexed. He promptly 11 called the bank. Bank of America had no difficulty verifying his identity or 12 accessing and reviewing the account in question. During this call he asked why 13 Bank of America had placed a restriction on the EDD account and requested 14 additional information and documentation. Bank of America failed to provide any 15 information over the telephone and has never provided any additional information 16 as to why a restriction was placed on the account. Bank of America has yet to send 17 the information or documents to him, much less credit any money to his account.
18 Due to Bank of America's actions, he could not afford to pay for an apartment. He 18 440. Sharise Morgan is a California resident. In late June or early July 2020, 19 she began receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In December 2020, 20 she identified a number of unauthorized transactions, all of which occurred in the 21 prior 60 days. That same day in December 2020, she called Bank of America. Bank 22 of America had no difficulty verifying her identity or accessing and reviewing the 23 account in question. During this call she asked Bank of America why they had 24 placed a restriction on her EDD account and restricted her use along with a request 25 for additional information and documentation. Bank of America failed to provide 26 any information over the telephone and has never provided any additional 27 information as to why a restriction was placed on the account. Bank of America 28 told her there was nothing they could do and that she needed to resolve her issue

1 with EDD. For a few days in early January she had momentary access to her 2 account. This short window of access was never explained by Bank of America and 3 no supporting documentation or additional information was ever provided by Bank 4 of America. Again in January 2021, she again experienced restricted access to her 5 account and contacted Bank of America again by telephone. Bank of America had 6 no difficulty verifying her identity or accessing and reviewing the account in 7 question. She asked why Bank of America had placed a restriction on the EDD 8 account, which restricted use, to her account and requested additional information 9 regarding the restriction. Bank of America failed to provide any information over 10 the telephone and has never provided any additional information as to why a 11 restriction was placed on the account. The restrictions were so severe that she was 12 unable to pay for the necessities of life. Due to Bank of America's actions, she 13 missed her $1,400 monthly rent payment from December 2020 to April 2021, her 14 $80 monthly PG&E bill from December 2020 to April 2021, and her $100 monthly 15 water and trash bill from December 2020 to April 2021.

16 441. Tiffiany Morrell is a person residing in San Diego County.<sup>24</sup> Morrell 17 became out of work and was unable to secure employment because of the COVID-18 19 pandemic. Morrell applied for and received EDD unemployment benefits in 19 October 2020. Soon thereafter, Morrell received a Bank of America EDD Debit 20 Card with a magnetic stripe (no EMV chip) to access Morrell's benefits; shortly 21 thereafter Morrell was the victim of numerous unauthorized transactions on 22 Morrell's Card; and despite its "Zero Liability" policy, and Morrell's repeated 23 requests for help, Bank of America has been either unwilling or unable to return the 24 funds fraudulently taken from Morrell's Account, nor remove the "Administrative 25 Hold" on Morrell's Account. Morrell began collecting EDD benefits in March of 26 2020 when she was in need of funds to bridge the gap between employment during

1 the pandemic. On or around October 17, 2020, Morrell went to a Bank of America
2 ATM with the intention to take out funds in order to pay her credit card bill. Morrell 3 was shocked to discover that her Account, which should have had $507, had been 4 drained to $4.00. Morrell immediately called Bank of America's Customer Service 5 number in attempt find out what happened to her Account. However, the Bank of 6 America employee told Morrell to call that the claims department was closed and 7 call back Monday, during business hours, 8:00 A.M. to 8:00 P.M. EST. Morrell 8 called the Bank of America's claims department at 5:00 A.M. PST the following 9 Monday to be first in line when Bank of America opened. Morrell was able to speak 10 with a Bank of America representative that day who informed her that a fraudster 11 had stolen funds out of her Account at a Citibank ATM in Grand Rapids, Illinois.
12 The Bank of America employee told Morrell that a provisional credit for the stolen 13 $503 would be disbursed to Morrell within a week along with a new Bank of 14 America EDD Debit Card. After the conversation, Morrell was under the 15 impression that the situation had been resolved and she would receive a new Card 16 with replacement funds shortly. On or around October 26, 2020, Morrell received 17 two envelopes in the mail from Bank of America. The first was the Card she was 18 expecting—a new EDD Debit Card to replace the Card that had been compromised.
19 The second was a letter dated October 20, 2020, one day after Morrell spoke on the 20 phone with Bank of America's claim department. The letter informed Morrell that 21 she was responsible for the stolen $503 taken out of her Account in Illinois and 22 Bank of America would not reimburse her for the stolen money. Morrell 23 immediately went to the Bank of America ATM because she was confused as to 24 whether the stolen funds had been replaced. To her disappointment they had not.
25 Faced with extreme stress, fear, anxiety and frustration, Morrell again called Bank 26 of America's claims department to figure out the reason Bank of America 27 determined the stolen funds were Morrell's responsibility. On or around October 28 26, 2020, Morrell spoke with another Bank of America's claims department

1 employee who told Morrell a glitch in the system triggered the letter to be sent to 2 her. Therefore, the stolen funds were not deposited on her new Card and in order
3 for Bank of America to reimburse the stolen funds, Morrell would have to restart 4 the claims process. Morrell filed another fraud claim for the stolen $503 and was 5 instructed to wait for her claim to be investigated. On or around November 2, 2020, 6 approximately a week since Morrell had submitted her second claim to have the 7 stolen funds reimbursed, Morrell began to grow anxious that Bank of America 8 would force Morrell to restart the claims process again, or that Bank of America 9 would not distribute the funds she needed in a timely manner or worse not at all.
10 Therefore, Morrell decided to call Bank of America again in an attempt to get 11 answers regarding the status of her fraud claim and when she could expect to receive 12 her reimbursement for the stolen $503. That day Morrell waited on hold for six 13 hours. While on hold Bank of America hung up on her multiple times, forcing 14 Morrell to call back and be placed at the back of the line. That day, Morrell did not 15 get through to any Bank of America representative. Little did Morrell know, this 16 experience would summarize her life for the next month. Morrell was aware that 17 Bank of America's claims department was open only Monday through Friday from 18 8:00 A.M to 8:00 P.M. EST. Morrell would wake up at 5:00 A.M. PST in attempt 19 to be the first in line. Despite Morrell's efforts, Morrell would spend nearly the 20 entire day on hold with Bank of America. Eventually, Morrell did get through to a 21 Bank of America employee. Morrell inquired into the status of her claim and was 22 advised that it was being processed and to wait two business days, so Morrell did 23 exactly that. By this time, Morrell was not surprised when two business days later 24 the funds had not been distributed to her Account. Morrell was faced with the reality 25 that she would again have to spend days on hold in order to get more information 26 regarding her claim. Eventually, Morrell made contact with Bank of America again, 27 and was advised that her claim would be processed in three to five business days.
28 Morrell waited again and at the end of the 5th business day, her reimbursement was

1 nowhere to be found. Morrell continued to wake up at 5:00 A.M. PST determined 2 to track down the status of her claim and the stolen $503 out of her Account.
3 Morrell, again after days of waiting on hold, reached a Bank of America employee 4 who this time advised her that the funds would be disbursed to her in seven to ten 5 business days. By this time, Morrell had little hope that the funds would be in her 6 Account within the time frame, but Morrell did the only thing she could do and 7 waited the 10 business days. Morrell was disappointed again when on the tenth day 8 she had not been reimbursed for the money stolen out of her Account. The next day, 9 Morrell started calling Bank of America again. On December 17, 2020, after days 10 on hold, she reached a Bank of America employee who rudely told Morrell that 11 Bank of America had no estimate as to when the funds would be distributed because 12 Morrell needed to allow Bank of America time to thoroughly investigate her claim.
13 Morrell submitted her first claim on October 19, 2020, for funds stolen out of her 14 Account in Illinois while Morrell was in San Diego County. Bank of America had 15 not reimbursed those funds by December 17, 2020, nearly two months later and 16 after Morrell had called more than 80 times. After the December 17, 2020 call, 17 Morrell was extremely stressed, frustrated, and anxious. She had spent the past two 18 months on the phone. Morrell has an ill 10-year-old daughter who requires 19 Morrell's attention and regular medical treatment. Morrell decided to give up on 20 her claim because she could no longer waste her days attempting to track down her 21 stolen $503. On or around January 4, 2021, Morrell received two letters in the mail 22 from Bank of America, both dated December 30, 2020. The first letter informed 23 Morrell that Bank of America would be disbursing a temporary credit of $503 24 within two days while it conducts its investigation. The second letter informed 25 Morrell that Bank of America had concluded its investigation and the $503 26 disbursement would be permanent. Morrell did in fact receive the stolen $503 on or 27 around January 1, 2020. However, it was too little too late. This horrendous 28 experience occurred after leaving funds in the Account for the first time. Now

1 Morrell receives notifications when EDD her funds are deposited into her Account 2 and no matter the time of the disbursement, Morrell immediately drives to a Bank
3 of America ATM and pulls out as much as she can then goes to the Bank as soon 4 as it opens to extract whatever is left to avoid going through a similar experience in 5 the future. Bank of America's misconduct resulted in Morrell's inability to give her 6 10-year-old daughter the Christmas she deserved, and the attention she requires due 7 to her condition. Morrell was late on rent and has only recently caught up with 8 payments. Morrell, six months later, is still behind on her car note due to Bank of 9 America's misconduct. Morrell followed the instructions on Morrell's Account 10 agreement, and made consistent, diligent efforts to recover the funds stolen from 11 Morrell's Account by making multiple telephone calls. Despite this, Bank of 12 America's customer service department offered Morrell no meaningful response or 13 assistance, and indeed has stymied Morrell's efforts at nearly every turn. At no point 14 did Morrell received communication via mail, email, text, or otherwise from Bank 15 of America regarding the ongoing widespread fraud affecting EDD Debit Cards or 16 how defrauded EDD recipients should proceed, even after Bank of America had 17 frozen hundreds of thousands of EDD Debit Card Accounts in a desperate and 18 heavy-handed effort to stem the effects of the fraud. The only option presented to 19 individuals like Morrell has been to follow Bank of America's instructions to call 20 the number on the debit Card in reliance on its representations of a "Zero Liability" 21 policy and "24/7" customer service. Unfortunately, as Morrell has learned, Bank of 22 America's representations are false. Proceeding in accordance with Bank of 23 America's policies and recommendations offers scant hope of recovering lost funds 24 timely. Per Bank of America's "Zero Liability" policy Morrell should have been 25 able to access Morrell's funds after ten (10) days, even if there was an investigation 26 that Bank of America deemed necessary. But that was not the reality for Morrell, 27 who was left without recourse or other options. Morrell was held hostage by Bank 28 of America with the only option of calling and being placed on hold repeatedly.

1 Morrell was the victim of fraud resulting from Bank of America's lax security 2 measures implemented to save money. Morrell followed all of Bank of America's 3 designated procedures while attempting to recover stolen funds. Morrell cooperated 4 with Bank of America by adhering to all its requests, which it said would allow 5 Morrell to recover the money. Did it take ten days as promised? No, it took over 6 four months.

13 dropped call. In December 2020, Bank of America froze his Account. In early 2021, 14 Bank of America unfroze his Account. In early 2021, Bank of America credited 17 his phone bills, leading to a shut off on his phone. He struggles to buy food, gas, 18 and clothing.

19 445. Sarah Murphy is a California resident. In March 2020, she began 20 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In April 2020, she identified a 21 number of unauthorized transactions, all of which occurred in the prior 60 days, 22 totaling approximately $5,000. Within a day of discovering these unauthorized 23 transactions in April 2020, she called Bank of America. Bank of America had no 24 difficulty verifying her identity or accessing and reviewing the account in question.
25 She requested information, documentation and credit which the bank refused to 26 provide. Bank of America never provided a provisional or permanent credit related 27 to the identified unauthorized transactions. Bank of America failed to provide any 28 additional notification, in writing or otherwise, as to how it reached its conclusion

1 after conducting a reasonable investigation or what documents it relied upon. Bank
2 of America told her she needed to resolve her issue with EDD and could not help 3 further. Later in April 2020, she experienced restricted access to her account. She 4 immediately called the bank. Bank of America had no difficulty verifying her 5 identity or accessing and reviewing the account in question. She asked Bank of 6 America when it had placed a restriction on her EDD account, which restricted use,
7 and requested additional information regarding the restriction. Bank of America 8 failed to provide any information over the telephone and has never provided any 9 additional information as to why a restriction was placed on the account. Bank of 10 America informed her that this was an issue for EDD and to call them. She 11 continually asked for additional information and documentation regarding the 12 restriction placed on her account, but Bank of America never provided any. The 13 restricted access lasted for many months without explanation, completely locking 14 Murphy out of her account and restricting access to her funds. Bank of America has 15 yet to send her information or documentation as to why her account was restricted 16 despite her repeated and timely requests. Due to Bank of America's actions, she 17 missed her $2,069 monthly rent payment in November 2020. She could not pay her 18 $60 phone bill in November 2020. She could not pay her $100 car payment in 23 identification, which she had done numerous times, yet Bank of America never 24 discharged her the funds. In December 2020, she experienced fraud on her Account, 25 totaling approximately $2,000. In December 2020, she discovered the fraud when 26 she looked at her transaction history online. In December 2020, she reported the 27 fraud to Bank of America via phone. In response, Bank of America told her she did

24 restriction. Bank of America failed to provide any information over the telephone 25 and has never provided any additional information as to why a restriction was

13 actions, she was evicted from her home in February 2021 after not being able to pay 14 the $650 rent. She had her car repossessed in February 2021 when she could not 15 pay the $252 monthly bill. She has missed every phone payment to date since 16 February 2021 after not being able to pay $40 per month. She must rely on friends

25 unfreeze his Account. In May 2021, Bank of America credited him $1,600. Due to 26 Bank of America's actions, he missed two rent payments at $1,500 each. He missed 27 his cell phone bill at $300 per month. He has $700 in late credit card fees. He missed 28

1 his cable bill at $140 per month. He struggles to buy food, gas, and clothing for his 2 family.

3 451. Flouzel Paningbatan is a California resident. In February 2020, she 4 began receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. Between May 2020 to 5 October 2020, she experienced fraud on her Account, totaling approximately $600.
6 In December 2020, she discovered the fraud when she checked her Account 7 transaction history. In December 2020, she reported the fraud to Bank of America 8 via phone. In response, Bank of America told her to open claims, and they would 9 investigate. In December 2020, Bank of America illegally froze her Account. In 10 April 2021, Bank of America unfroze her Account. In April 2021, Bank of America
11 credited $441 to her Account; however, in May 2021, Bank of America reversed 12 the credit, sending her Account into a negative balance. In May 2021, Bank of 13 America credited $500 to her Account. Due to Bank of America's actions, she 14 missed her $500 rent payments from December 2020 to February 2021, leading to 15 eviction. She missed her car payment in December 2020, leading to repossession.

16 452. Laura Payton<sup>25</sup> is a person residing in San Diego County, California.
17 Payton found herself out of work during, and unable to secure employment because 18 of, the COVID-19 pandemic. Payton applied for and received EDD unemployment 19 benefits in March 2020; soon thereafter, she received a Bank of America EDD Debit 20 Card with a magnetic stripe (no EMV chip) to access Payton's benefits. Shortly 21 thereafter Payton was the victim of unauthorized transactions on her Card; and 22 despite its "Zero Liability" policy, and Payton's repeated requests for help, Bank of 23 America has been either unwilling or unable to return the funds fraudulently taken 24 from Payton's Account, nor remove the "Administrative Hold" on Payton's 25 Account. In March of 2020, Payton began receiving EDD benefits when she needed 26 funds to bridge the gap between employment during the pandemic. On November

27
28 <sup>25</sup> Payton is the plaintiff in Payton v. Bank of America, N.A., No. 3:21-cv-00644-LAB-MSB ("Payton").

1 16, 2020, Payton received a payment of unemployment funds. Payton transferred 2 $200 to Payton's Wells Fargo account, leaving $683 in Payton's Bank of America
3 EDD Debit Card Account. On the same day, when Payton attempted to withdraw 4 the remaining balance of Payton's Bank of America Account from an ATM, the 5 ATM showed that the Account had zero funds. Immediately after noticing 6 fraudulent activity on her Account, Payton began her tireless quest to recover her 7 money from Bank of America. Payton promptly called Bank of America and 8 notified them about the fraudulent activity. Payton was transferred to the claims 9 department and was put on hold for hours and never connected with a person. The 10 next day, November 17, 2020, Payton continued to attempt to file a fraud claim with 11 Bank of America over the phone. Payton was met with seemingly endless wait 12 times, spanning anywhere from two to five hours, only to have Bank of America 13 unceremoniously hang up on Payton several times. After spending hours on the 14 phone, Payton was able to open a claim with Bank of America. Bank of America 15 informed Payton that a balance inquiry was made on her Account and her funds 16 were withdrawn from the ATM in Chula Vista. Payton informed Bank of America 17 that these activities did not correspond to Payton's normal activities, because 18 Payton never made this type of inquiry and Payton does not live in Chula Vista.
19 Payton persistently contacted Bank of America along with EDD and spent many 20 hours on the phone attempting to have her benefits restored. However, Bank of 21 America did not issue any sort of refund or credit for the funds it allowed to be 22 stolen from Payton. Payton faced further difficulties from Bank of America in her 23 attempt to recover her money. Bank of America repeatedly told Payton that it would 24 not proceed with her claim until her ID had been verified with EDD. However, 25 when contacting EDD, Payton was told that Payton's ID had already been verified.
26 Bank of America continued to deny that Payton's ID had been verified, delaying 27 Payton's ability to regain her benefits. Prior to November 30, 2020, Payton was able 28 to obtain a new Card from Bank of America to receive her EDD benefits. On 1 November 30, 2020, Payton received an EDD payment on the new Card. In 2 December 2020, Payton received another EDD payment on the new Card.

3 Following the December payment, Bank of America froze her Account without 4 notice. Bank of America froze the funds in the Account and Payton's future EDD 5 deposits and prevented Payton from accessing her desperately needed money for 6 almost three months. Bank of America has no reasonable method to identify and 7 prevent fraud. The Bank froze Payton's Account and provided no notice, reason, or 8 justification to Payton. Bank of America's draconian method of dealing with this 9 alleged "fraud" was to totally freeze Payton's Account without giving any sort of 10 credit Payton could use to buy food. Payton was again forced to repeatedly contact 11 Bank of America to recover her benefits. When Payton contacted the Bank, the 12 Bank explained that Payton's Account was frozen due to fraudulent activity. Payton 13 informed Bank of America that the fraud occurred on Payton's previous Card in 14 November and asked Bank of America to unfreeze the Card. Bank of America 15 refused to unfreeze Payton's Account and instead, put the fault and responsibility 16 of the freeze on EDD, who do not have control over Bank of America's debit cards.
17 Payton had to re-start her exhausting pursuit of recovering her money from Bank of 18 America, contacting Bank of American and EDD, back and forth, in order to have 19 her ID verified and her Account unfrozen spending hours and hours on the phone.
20 On February 1, 2021, Bank of American mailed Payton a letter informing Payton 21 that a freeze was placed on Payton's Account. Due to this, Payton was unaware 22 when she would be able to receive her seriously needed EDD benefits and was 23 forced to cover her expenses in alternative ways (borrowing money from family, 24 selling her car, etc.). Later, Payton was transitioned from electronic deposits to 25 paper checks for EDD benefits. This further complicated Payton's situation as she 26 now receives her benefits weeks later than expected, harming her ability to cover 27 her expenses even more—all because Bank of America could not perform its 28 obligations. On March 18, 2021, Bank of America mailed Payton another letter, this

1 time informing her that it had changed its process affecting Accounts that it had 2 frozen and that it could work with Payton through a phone call to see if it could 3 release the hold on her Card. Payton once again was forced to repeatedly contact 4 Bank of America to unfreeze her Account and recover her benefits. Again, Payton 5 had to spend hours of her day trying to contact Bank of America. To Bank of 6 America, $683 might seem insignificant; however, for Payton that money was 7 helping her pay rent, put food on the table, and stay afloat through the pandemic.
8 Payton followed the instructions on Bank of America's Account agreement, and 9 made consistent, diligent efforts to recover the funds stolen from Payton's Account 10 by making multiple telephone calls. Despite this, Bank of America's customer 11 service department offered Payton no meaningful response or assistance for almost 12 four months, and indeed has stymied Payton's efforts at nearly every turn. In 13 addition, at no point did Payton receive communication via mail, email, text, or 14 otherwise from Bank of America regarding the ongoing widespread fraud affecting 15 EDD Debit Cards or how defrauded EDD recipients should proceed, even after 16 Bank of America had frozen hundreds of thousands of EDD Debit Card Accounts 17 in a desperate and heavy-handed effort to stem the effects of the fraud. The only 18 option presented to individuals like Payton has been to follow Bank of America's 19 instructions to call the number on the Card in reliance on its representations of a 20 "Zero Liability" policy and "24/7" customer service. Unfortunately, as Payton has 21 learned, Bank of America's representations are false. Proceeding in accordance with 22 Bank of America's policies and recommendations offers scant hope of recovering 23 lost funds timely. Per Bank of America's "Zero Liability" policy Payton should 24 have been able to access Payton's funds after ten (10) days, even if there was an 25 investigation that Bank of America deemed necessary. But that was not the reality 26 for Payton, who was left without recourse or other options. Payton was held hostage 27 by Bank of America with the only option of calling and being placed on hold 28 repeatedly. Payton was the victim of fraud resulting from Bank of America's lax

1 security measures implemented to save money. Payton followed all of Bank of 2 America's designated procedures while attempting to recover stolen funds. Payton 3 cooperated with Bank of America by adhering to all its requests it said would allow 4 Payton to recover the money. Did it take ten days as promised? No, it took over four 5 months.

16 called Bank of America. Bank of America had no difficulty verifying her identity 17 or accessing and reviewing the account in question. She requested information, 18 documentation and credit which the bank refused to provide. Bank of America

23 she called the bank, Bank of America would either tell her to talk to EDD or would

7 Bank of America and ask for additional information and any type of documentation

24 his Account, so he cancelled his Account with Bank of America and started 25 receiving paper checks from EDD. Since October 2020, Bank of America has yet 26 to credit him any money. Due to Bank of America's actions, he could not afford his 11 account in question. He requested additional information and documentation 12 concerning these unauthorized transactions, but Bank of America never provided 13 any. Bank of America never provided a provisional or permanent credit related to 14 the identified unauthorized transactions. Bank of America failed to provide any 15 additional notification, in writing or otherwise, as to how it reached its conclusion 16 after conducting a reasonable investigation or what documents it relied upon. and 17 credit which the bank refused to provide. By September 2020, Bank of America 18 still had not sent him any information, documentation or credit. He called Bank of 19 America again in an attempt to have a credit issued for the unauthorized 20 transactions. Bank of America had no difficulty verifying his identity or accessing 21 and reviewing the account in question. He again notified the bank of the 22 unauthorized transactions and requested information, documentation and credit.

23 The bank told him that his account would be credited within ten days, which did 24 not happen. Bank of America never provided a provisional or permanent credit 25 related to the identified unauthorized transactions. Bank of America failed to 26 provide any additional notification, in writing or otherwise, as to how it reached its 27 conclusion after conducting a reasonable investigation or what documents it relied 28 upon. Between September 2020 and December 2020, he called Bank of America

1 approximately 192 times. He was often kept on hold for hours and disconnected
2 before he could speak to anyone. Each time he finally reached a Bank of America
3 representative, he would dispute the same unauthorized transactions. Each time, 4 Bank of America never provided a provisional or permanent credit related to the 5 identified unauthorized transactions. Each time Bank of America failed to provide 6 any additional notification, in writing or otherwise, as to how it reached its 7 conclusion after conducting a reasonable investigation or what documents it relied 8 upon. He was once on hold for twelve hours trying without success, desperately, to 9 get his money. Bank of America has yet to credit him any money. Because of Bank 10 of America, he missed two $300 rent payments. He missed two $100 phone bills 11 and struggled to buy food.

7 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In December 2020, she 8 experienced restricted access to her EDD account. Immediately after discovering 9 that Bank of America had placed a restriction on the EDD account, which restricted 10 use, she called Bank of America to inquire as to why a restriction was placed on her 11 account and requested additional information regarding the restriction. Bank of 12 America failed to provide any information over the telephone and has never 13 provided any additional information as to why a restriction was placed on the 14 account. From December 2020 to February 2021, Raiff called Bank of America 15 persistently and explained that her access to her EDD account had been completely 16 restricted. Each time, she asked for additional information, documents and access 17 to her account. Each time, Bank of America located her account but denied her 18 requests and never provided any additional information or documentation as to why 19 the restriction was placed on her account. It was not until late February 2021, that 20 Bank of America finally credited approximately $3,000 to her account. In February 21 2021 Raiff reviewed the $3,000 deposit, but this amount was incorrect. She 22 immediately contacted Bank of America in February 2021 and notified Bank of 23 America that she was missing at least an additional $3,000. Bank of America was 24 non-responsive. Bank of America never provided a provisional or permanent credit 25 related to the identified missing funds. Bank of America failed to provide any 26 additional notification, in writing or otherwise, as to how it reached its conclusion
27 after conducting a reasonable investigation or what documents it relied upon. Due 28 to Bank of America's actions, she missed four $800 rent payments, resulting in 1 eviction. She missed four $60 phone bills and she struggled to buy food, gas, and 2 clothing.

9 often would disconnect his call. In October 2020, Bank of America froze his 10 Account. Since October 2020, Bank of America has yet to unfreeze his Account.
11 Since October 2020, Bank of America has yet to credit him any money. Due to 14 469. Kawana Reed is a California resident. In February 2020, she began 15 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In January 2021, she identified 16 a number of unauthorized transactions, all of which occurred in the prior 60 days, 17 totaling approximately $6,500. The same day in January 2021, she called Bank of 18 America who was able to locate her account. Bank of America had no difficulty 19 verifying her identity or accessing and reviewing the account in question. She asked 20 for additional information, documentation and credit which the bank refused to 21 provide. Bank of America never provided a timely provisional or timely permanent 22 credit related to the identified unauthorized transactions, required under the 23 Electronic Funds Transfer Act (EFTA). Bank of America failed to provide any 24 additional notification, in writing or otherwise, as to how it reached its conclusion

25 after conducting a reasonable investigation or what documents it relied upon. Later 26 in January 2021, she experienced restricted access to her EDD account.
27 Immediately after discovering that Bank of America had placed a restriction on the 28 EDD account, which restricted use, she called Bank of America to inquire as to why

1 a restriction was placed on her account and requested additional information
2 regarding the restriction. Bank of America failed to provide any information over 3 the telephone and has never provided any additional information as to why a 4 restriction was placed on the account. These restrictions on her account lasted 5 approximately six (6) months, with no information or documentation provided to 6 Reed by Bank of America. Finally in June 2021, the bank finally credited her 7 account the $6,500 that was taken, but this was far outside the time period 8 prescribed under EFTA. Bank of America never provided an explanation, written 9 or otherwise, why the restrictions were placed on her account, why they did not 10 issue a timely provisional credit, why they did not timely issue a permanent credit 11 or why after six months they credited her account $6,500. Due to Bank of America's 12 actions, she missed her home phone bills at $60 per month, to the point the phone 13 was shut off. She missed her wireless bills at $70 per month. She missed her utility 14 bills at $143 a month. She struggled to buy food and could not afford to wash her 15 clothes.

16 470. Nehemiah Rima-Fleurima is a California resident. In April 2020, he 17 began receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In May 2021 he 18 experienced restricted access to his EDD account. Immediately, in May 2021 he 19 called Bank of America. Bank of America had no difficulty verifying his identity 20 or accessing and reviewing the account in question. He requested additional 21 information, documentation and access to his funds, which the bank refused to 22 provide. Beginning in May 2021, he called Bank of America about 40-50 times and 23 sent the bank letters requesting additional information. Each time he requested 24 information, documentation Bank of America failed to respond. Due to Bank of 25 America's actions, he was unable to pay his $70 monthly cell phone bill, his $150 26 monthly storage bill or his $70 parking ticket and he struggled to buy food, gas, and 27 clothing.

1           471. Rhonda Ritchey is a California resident. In December 2020, she began
2 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In January 2021, she experienced
3 fraud on her Account, totaling approximately $8,000. In January 2021, she 4 discovered the fraud when she logged into her Bank of America application on her 5 phone. In January 2021, she reported the fraud to Bank of America via phone. In 6 response, Bank of America said Bank of America would send her a new Card and 7 paperwork to fill out that would fix her issue. Bank of America never sent the Card
8 or the papers. In January 2021, Bank of America froze her Account. In February 9 2021, Bank of America deactivated her Account. Since January 2021, Bank of 10 America has yet to unfreeze her Account. Since January 2021, Bank of America 11 has yet to credit her any money. Due to Bank of America's actions, she missed four 12 $700 rent payments, leading to eviction and subsequent homelessness. She missed 13 phone bills totaling $100. She missed her vehicle registration payment and car 14 insurance payments. She lost her life insurance. Her credit score decreased as she 15 was unable to pay her credit card payment. She struggles to keep up with personal 16 hygiene and pay for food.

17           472. Israel Rivera is a California resident. He began receiving EDD benefits 18 through Bank of America. In August 2020, he experienced fraud on his Account, 19 totaling approximately $4,000. In August 2020, he discovered the fraud when he 20 checked his Account transaction history. In August 2020, he attempted to report the 21 fraud to Bank of America via phone. Bank of America has yet to respond to a single 22 phone call. In August 2020, Bank of America froze his Account. In June 2021, Bank 23 of America unfroze his Account. In June 2021, Bank of America credited $5,000 to 24 his Account. Due to Bank of America's actions, he was evicted from his home, 25 forcing him to live in motels. His car was repossessed in August 2020 after missing 26 four car payments. He cannot afford his $140 phone bill, leading to a shut-off. He 27 could not afford his medication for his high blood pressure.

1           473. Miguel Roa is a California resident. In May 2020, he began receiving 2 EDD benefits through Bank of America. In January 2021, he experienced restricted 3 access to his account. Immediately after discovering that Bank of America had 4 placed a restriction on the EDD account, which restricted use, he immediately called 5 Bank of America to inquire as to why a restriction was placed on his account and 6 requested additional information regarding the restriction. Bank of America had no 7 difficulty verifying his identity or accessing and reviewing the account in question.
8 Bank of America failed to provide any information over the telephone and has never 9 provided any additional information as to why a restriction was placed on the 10 account. He immediately called Bank of America and asked for information, 11 documentation and a credit which he did not receive, even though the bank was able 12 to locate his account. He called Bank of America almost every day starting in 13 January of 2021 and continued to April of 2021, continually requesting additional 14 information concerning the restrictions placed on his account. Each time, Bank of 15 America would locate his account, he would request information, documentation, 16 but the bank would refuse to provide it. Due to Bank of America's actions, he 17 missed two rental payments and was unable to pay his phone bill, cable bill, or 18 electric bill.

19           474. Carmen Robinson is a California resident. In March 2020, she began 20 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In March 2020, she noticed 21 unauthorized transactions that she did not recognize totaling about $18,000, all of 22 which occurred within the prior 60 days. The same day as discovering the 23 unauthorized transactions Robinson called Bank of America and was able to reach 24 an account representative. Bank of America had no trouble verifying her identity, 25 the account in question, or the unauthorized transactions. She requested 26 information, documentation and credit, which the bank refused to provide. Bank of 27 America never provided a provisional or permanent credit related to the identified
28 unauthorized transactions. Bank of America failed to provide any additional

1 notification, in writing or otherwise, as to how it reached its conclusion after 2 conducting a reasonable investigation or what documents it relied upon. Bank of 3 America has yet to credit her any money. Due to Bank of America's actions, she 4 has missed all phone payments. She was forced to sell her vehicle and other personal 5 items to afford food and clothing for herself and her children.

6 475. Stanley Robinson<sup>26</sup> is a person residing in San Diego County. He 7 applied for and received EDD unemployment Benefits in October 2020. Soon 8 thereafter, he received a Bank of America EDD Debit Card with a magnetic stripe 9 (no EMV chip) to access his benefits; shortly thereafter he was the victim of 10 numerous unauthorized transactions on his Card; and despite its "Zero Liability" 11 policy, and Robinson's repeated requests for help, Bank of America has been either 12 unwilling or unable to return the funds fraudulently taken from his Account, nor 13 remove the "Administrative Hold" on his Account. In the worst unemployment 14 crisis in California's history, during an unprecedented pandemic, Bank of America 15 left Robinson and hundreds of thousands of EDD benefit recipients stranded. On 16 January 26, 2021, for example two transactions were fraudulently made by 17 unknown individuals: (1) $900 was taken out of an ATM; and (2) a $60 point-of-18 sale transaction was made, both in Los Angeles, California. Neither of these 19 transactions were authorized by Robinson. These fraudulent transactions totaling 20 $960 left Robinson with only $98 in his Account. To make matters worse, Bank of 21 America froze his Account and locked him out from accessing his desperately 22 needed funds. In total, Bank of America actions cost him $1,058 of his $1,146 EDD 23 benefits within a matter of hours. On January 2, 2021, he began his tireless quest to 24 recover his money from Bank of America. He religiously called Bank of America 25 every morning, afternoon, and evening for weeks. He spent hours daily on the phone 26 attempting to have his benefits restored. Daily, he was met with hostility from Bank

1 of America employees, accusations from Bank of America employees alluding that 2 he had made these fraudulent transactions, or lackluster responses from Bank of 3 America employees to his desperate pleas of help. Countless times Bank of America 4 employees told him that there was nothing they could do for him. Robinson was 5 met with seemingly endless wait times, only to be punctuated by automated 6 recordings telling him that Bank of America was too busy for him, and he should 7 call back later, then Bank of America unceremoniously would hang up on him. He 8 followed this routine for a month. He has all but given up trying to recoup his $1,058 9 from Bank of America. He can log into his Account, see that it is still frozen, see 10 his $98 that is rightfully his, but cannot access it. As of February 17, 2021, EDD
11 gave up on Bank of America too, Robinson now receives his $1,146 benefit checks 12 from EDD in the mail. As of March 25, 2021, Bank of America still has not returned 13 the $960 which was fraudulently taken from his Account, nor have they unfrozen 14 his Account. In total Bank of America has kept $1,058 from Robinson. To Bank of 15 America, $1,058 might seem insignificant; however, for Robinson that money was 16 helping him put food on the table, gas in his car, to stay afloat through the pandemic.
17 Robinson followed the instructions on his Account agreement, and made consistent, 18 diligent efforts to recover the funds stolen from his Account by making multiple 19 telephone calls. Despite this, Bank of America's customer service department 20 offered Robinson no meaningful response or assistance, and indeed has stymied his 21 efforts at nearly every turn. At no point did Robinson receive communication via 22 mail, email, text, or otherwise from Bank of America regarding the ongoing 23 widespread fraud affecting EDD Debit Cards or how defrauded EDD recipients 24 should proceed, even after Bank of America had frozen hundreds of thousands of 25 EDD Debit Card Accounts in a desperate and heavy-handed effort to stem the 26 effects of the fraud. The only option presented to individuals like Robinson has been 27 to follow Bank of America's instructions to call the number on the debit Card in 28 reliance on its representations of a "Zero Liability" policy and "24/7" customer

1 service. Unfortunately, as Robinson has learned, Bank of America's representations 2 are false. Proceeding in accordance with Bank of America's policies and 3 recommendations offers scant hope of recovering lost funds timely. Per Bank of 4 America's "Zero Liability" policy Robinson should have been able to access 5 Robinson's funds after ten (10) days, even if there was an investigation that Bank 6 of America deemed necessary. But that was not the reality for Robinson, who was 7 left without recourse or other options. Robinson was held hostage by Bank of 8 America with the only option of calling and being placed on hold repeatedly.
9 Robinson was the victim of fraud resulting from Bank of America's lax security 10 measures implemented to save money. Robinson followed all of Bank of America's 11 designated procedures while attempting to recover stolen funds. Robinson 12 cooperated with Bank of America by adhering to all its requests it said would allow 13 Robinson to recover the money. Did it take ten days as promised? No, it took over 14 four months.

15 476. Joe Robles is a California resident. In September 2020, he began 16 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In December 2020, he noticed 17 several unauthorized transactions on his EDD account that he did not recognize 18 totaling approximately $1,609. In December 2020 (within 60 days of the reporting 19 of the unauthorized transactions), he called the bank and asked for information and 20 documentation which the bank refused to provide regarding the unauthorized 21 transactions totaling approximately $1,609. Bank of America never provided a 22 provisional or permanent credit related to the identified unauthorized transactions.
23 Bank of America failed to provide any additional notification, in writing or 24 otherwise, as to how it reached its conclusion after conducting a reasonable 25 investigation or what documents it relied upon. In January 2021, he experienced 26 restricted access to his EDD account. Immediately after discovering that Bank of 27 America had placed a restriction on the EDD account, which restricted use, he 28 called Bank of America to inquire as to why a restriction was placed on his account

1 and requested additional information regarding the restriction. Bank of America had 2 no difficulty verifying his identity or accessing and reviewing the account in 3 question. Bank of America failed to provide any information over the telephone and 4 has never provided any additional information as to why a restriction was placed on 5 the account. Due to Bank of America's actions, he missed three $450 rent payments, 6 leading to eviction and forcing him to live in the back on his car for three months.
7 He missed three child support payments, totaling $1,104 and struggled to buy food, 8 gas, and clothing.

9 477. Catrina Rodriguez is a California resident. In May 2020, she began
10 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In January 2021, she experienced 11 fraud on her Account, totaling approximately $6,000. In January 2021, she 12 discovered the fraud when she logged onto her Account after failing to receive a 13 Card from Bank of America. In January 2021, she reported the fraud to Bank of 14 America via phone. In response, Bank of America told her she needed to call EDD 15 because Bank of America told her Bank of America was not in charge of freezing
16 and unfreezing EDD Debit Card Accounts. In January 2021, Bank of America 17 illegally froze her Account. In April 2021, Bank of America unfroze her Account.
18 In April 2021, Bank of America credited $800 to her Account; however, Bank of 19 America reversed the charge, putting her Account into a balance of negative 20 $797.13. In June 2021, Bank of America credited $2.85 to her Account. Due to 21 Bank of America's actions, she missed three $1,600 rent payments, leading to 22 eviction and subsequent homelessness. She could not afford her $1,700 settlement 23 fees. She had to borrow $3,000 from friends and family. She cannot afford her $250 24 storage fee, leading to her losing the storage and all personal items. She lost her 25 children to the State. She cannot afford daily necessities. She suffers from emotional 26 distress.

478. Elana Martina Rojas de Charolet<sup>27</sup> is and at all times herein mentioned was a natural person residing in the City of Chula Vista, in the County of San Diego, in the United States of America. Rojas de Charolet is married to her husband, Marco, who suffers from Parkinson's Disease. Prior to the pandemic, Rojas de Charolet was a chef working at the Hyatt Hotel in Downtown San Diego. Rojas de Charolet's duties included cooking thousands of meals a day for the various conventions held at the Hyatt. Before his Parkinson's Disease became advanced, Marco Charolet was a structural engineer that worked on numerous projects in the San Diego County area. After, Marco's income was reduced to government disability only. As a result of Marco's illness, Rojas de Charolet became the only breadwinner of the family, supplemented only by Marco's disability income. In addition to being the sole earner of the family, Rojas de Charolet was also Marco's only caregiver. As a result of COVID-19, Mrs. Rojas de Charolet was laid off from her job as a chef at the Hyatt Hotel in Downtown San Diego. Rojas de Charolet was instructed by her employer to apply for unemployment through the State of California, and that she would be called back to work when operations at the Hotel resumed. Rojas de Charolet applied for and began receiving unemployment from the State of California. She received a Bank of America branded EDD Debit Card with instructions to activate the Card to receive her EDD benefits, which were to be loaded onto a Bank of America EDD Debit Card. Rojas de Charolet activated the Account but did not take any money from the Account. Instead, she intended to first utilize her savings before she accessed the income provided through unemployment insurance. As a result, Rojas de Charolet stored her Bank of America EDD Debit Card in her home, and did not initially use it—instead letting her the amount in the Account increase. Finally, on May 21, 2020, Rojas de Charolet withdrew $700 from her Card for the first time. On May 30, 2020, some unknown person withdrew $983

1 from Rojas de Charolet's Card using a Wells Fargo ATM. At the time of the May 2 30, 2020 withdrawal, Rojas de Charolet had her Card in her possession and had not 3 given anyone the PIN number. On May 31, 2020, some unknown person then 4 withdrew another $1,000 from a Bank of America ATM. At the time of the May 5 31, 2020 withdrawal, Rojas de Charolet had her Card in her possession and had not 6 given anyone the PIN number. On June 1, 2020, some unknown person withdrew 7 another $1,000 from a Bank of America ATM. At the time of the June 1, 2020 8 withdrawal, Rojas de Charolet had her Card in her possession and had not given 9 anyone the PIN number. On June 2, 2020, some unknown person withdrew another 10 $483 from a Citibank ATM. At the time of the June 2, 2020 withdrawal, Rojas de 11 Charolet had her Card in her possession and had not given anyone the PIN number.
12 Then, on June 2, 2020, Rojas de Charolet withdrew $500 from her EDD Debit Card 13 from a Bank of America ATM. When Rojas de Charolet withdrew her money, she 14 realized that her Account balance was $3,466 lower than it should be. This was the 15 first time she learned of the fraud. Rojas de Charolet immediately called and 16 notified Bank of America of the identity theft on the same day she learned of the 17 theft. Bank of America acknowledged that high numbers of theft were being 18 reported, but that Rojas de Charolet needed to call another number to process her 19 ID theft claim. Rojas de Charolet called the number Bank of America told her to 20 and spent more than six hours waiting on hold for someone to answer. Finally, the 21 call was disconnected without anyone answering the call. The following day, and 22 less than 24 hours after learning of the fraud, Rojas de Charolet called Bank of 23 America's fraud department again, and waited four hours on hold, but no one 24 answered the phone. Rojas de Charolet called the Bank of America customer service 25 number for EDD Debit Card Accounts again and, again, reported the theft. Rojas 26 de Charolet reported to Bank of America that she had waited on hold two days in a 27 row, for six and four hours respectively, and the customer service agent told Rojas 28 de Charolet that she had been getting reports of long hold times. She then told Rojas

1 de Charolet she needed to keep trying. Rojas de Charolet asked the customer service 2 representative to freeze the Card due to the theft, and the representative locked the 27 <sup>29</sup> Verdun is the plaintiff in Verdun v. Bank of America, N.A., No. 3:21-cv-

28 01196-LAB-MSB, originally filed in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California (No. 2:21-cv-04494-AS) ("Verdun").

1 stated that Verdun would have to call the claims department Monday to make a 2 claim. On or about June 8, 2020, Verdun called Bank of America in order to make 3 a claim in order to have his money returned to his Account. After waiting on hold 4 for 8 hours, he was able to provide Bank of America with information relating to 5 the fraud. However, all Bank of America would do was close his Account and open 6 a new one. In order to have his EDD Debit Card reissued, Bank of America required 7 that Verdun call a different number. Verdun called this number, and after waiting 8 hours on hold, he was able to request the replacement Card. And then, in order to 9 actually lodge a fraud claim with Bank of America that it would investigate, he had 10 to call a third number. Verdun called this number, and despite being on hold for 11 more than 8 hours, Bank of America never accepted his call. On June 8, 2020, 12 Verdun called back and waited on hold the entire day, but no one answered the 13 phone. On June 9, 2020, Verdun called and again waited on hold for hours, but no 14 one answered the phone. While waiting on hold, Verdun also called the Ventura 15 Police Department and filed an identity theft police report. On August 24, 2020, 16 Verdun was able to get a copy of the police report (which was delayed due to 17 COVID-19) and sent the report along with a completed FTC fraud affidavit to Bank 18 of America. On September 22, 2020, after receiving no response from Bank of 19 America, Verdun mailed the documents to Bank of America a second time, via 20 certified mail, and further wrote that he had not heard any results from Bank of 21 America regarding his request for an investigation to his claim of identity theft.
22 Bank of America has not responded to either of the two letters seeking information 23 about the status of his fraud investigation, and has not otherwise contacted Verdun 24 about the fraud or requested any additional information. And Bank of America has 25 not returned the disputed amount to Verdun. As a result of Bank of America's 26 unlawful acts and omissions as stated above, Verdun suffered actual damages as 27 described above.

27 in December 2020 and January 2021. She could not pay her $62 cable bill in 28 December 2020 and January 2021. She could not pay her $100 phone bill in

1 December 2020 and January 2021. She struggled to pay for food, gas, and clothing
2 for her and her children. She suffers from emotional distress.

3 521. Leanna Willis is a California resident. In June 2020, she began 4 receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In August 2020, she experienced 5 fraud on her Account, totaling approximately $15,000. In August 2020, she 6 discovered the fraud when her Card was declined, and she checked her Account 7 after. In August 2020, she reported the fraud to Bank of America via phone. In 8 response, Bank of America would either tell her to resolve her issue with EDD or 9 would transfer her between departments. In August 2020, Bank of America froze 10 her Account. In October 2020, Bank of America unfroze her Account. In August 11 2020, Bank of America credited $15,000 to her Account; however, Bank of 12 America reversed the credit, putting her Account into a balance of negative $15,000.
13 Due to Bank of America's actions, she is homeless because she was in the middle 14 of moving into a new apartment, for which she could not pay. She could not afford 15 her car insurance at $300, leading to car repossession in August 2020. She fell 16 behind on credit card payments. She struggles to buy food, gas, and clothing for 17 herself and her child.

18 522. Lacey Wise is a California resident. In April 2020, she began receiving 19 EDD benefits through Bank of America. In June 2020, she experienced fraud on 20 her Account, totaling approximately $15,000. In June 2020, she discovered the 21 fraud when she attempted to use the Card but was declined. In June 2020, she 22 reported the fraud to Bank of America via phone. In response, Bank of America
23 told her to resolve her issue with EDD. In August 2020, Bank of America froze her 24 Account. In April 2021, Bank of America unfroze her Account. Since June 2020, 25 Bank of America has yet to credit her any money. Due to Bank of America's 26 actions, she missed her $1,950 rent payments from October 2020 to March 2021, 27 leading to her eviction in March 2021. She was unable to pay her $384 car payment 28 from August 2020 to September 2020, leading to car repossession in September 2020. She cannot afford her $320 car registration. From August 2020 to the present, she has not been able to afford her $300 car payments, her $67 monthly phone bill, her $120 monthly WIFI bill, or her $146 monthly electricity bill. She lost her son to foster care after failing to pay for his schooling. She struggles to buy food, gas, and clothing.

523. Colton Wood is a California resident. In April 2020, he began receiving EDD benefits through Bank of America. In December 2020 he discovered that his account was restricted after an attempted transaction was declined. In December 2020, within 60 days, after discovering that Bank of America had placed a restriction on the EDD account, which restricted use, he called Bank of America to inquire as to why a restriction was placed on his account and requested additional information regarding the restriction. Bank of America had no difficulty verifying his identity or accessing and reviewing the account in question. Bank of America failed to provide any information over the telephone and has never provided any additional information as to why a restriction was placed on the account. Due to Bank of America's actions, he missed his $680 rent payment, leading to eviction and subsequent homelessness. He could not afford his $92 monthly phone bill. He struggled to buy food, gas, and clothing.

524. Matthew Yeats is a California resident living in Pasadena, California. In March 2020, he applied for, and started receiving, California EDD unemployment benefits at $1,060 bi-weekly because Yeats lost his job due to the Covid-19 pandemic. In December 2020, he saw transactions on his EDD account that he did not recognize. There were three such unauthorized transactions, all cash withdrawals totaling $2,780 in Orange County, California. These transactions occurred within the prior 60 days of his discovery. In December 2020, he contacted Bank of America by phone to report the unauthorized transactions and ask for more information and documentation, which Bank of America did not send to him. Bank of America had no difficulty verifying his identity or accessing and reviewing the

1 account in question. Bank of America refused to credit any money that was taken 2 from his account. Bank of America never provided a provisional or permanent 3 credit related to the identified unauthorized transactions. Bank of America failed to 4 provide any additional notification, in writing or otherwise, as to how it reached its 5 conclusion after conducting a reasonable investigation or what documents it relied 6 upon. Due to Bank of America's actions, he missed rent twice, totaling $1,600 in 7 December 2020 and January 2021. He was late on two cell phone payments at $90 8 per month. He missed three child support payments at $300 per month between 9 December 2020 and February 2021.

10 525. Glen O. Young is a California resident. In June 2020, he began 11 receiving CA EDD unemployment benefits through Bank of America. In June 2020, 12 there were unauthorized withdrawals and unauthorized purchases on his EDD 13 account totaling $7,500 (all which occurred within the preceding 60 days). In June 14 2020, he called Bank of America and Bank of America was able to locate his 15 account and verify his identity. He informed Bank of America of the unauthorized 16 transactions and asked for more information and documentation which he never 17 received. Bank of America refused to send Young documentation regarding his 18 account disputes. Bank of America never provided a provisional or permanent 19 credit related to the identified unauthorized transactions. Bank of America failed to 20 provide any additional notification, in writing or otherwise, as to how it reached its 21 conclusion after conducting a reasonable investigation or what documents it relied 22 upon. Due to Bank of America's actions, Young had his car repossessed. Young 23 could not pay his rent at $500 per month and was forced to be homeless and live 24 out of his car with his wife and dogs. Young could not pay his car insurance and 25 registration. He could not buy food or gas or other necessary items.

26 526. Christopher Zettlemoyer is a California resident with no dependents.
27 Zettlemoyer applied for and was approved to receive EDD Benefits, specifically 28 unemployment insurance benefits starting on May 10, 2020. On July 3, 2020 he

1 attempted to access his funds through an ATM where he discovered that Bank of 2 America had restricted access. He immediately, the same day, contacted Bank of 3 America by telephone to inquire as to why his funds were restricted. During this 4 telephone call he was able to reach a Bank of America representative and identify 5 himself. Bank of America had no problem verifying Zettlemoyer or his account.
6 During this telephone call Zettlemoyer requested additional information as to why 7 access to his account was restricted. Bank of America had no answers on the 8 telephone and never provided the additional information requested. Zettlemoyer 9 continued to call Bank of America regarding the restrictions placed on his account 10 through October 2020. He contacted Bank of America by telephone approximately 11 50-60 times during that time, always asking for additional information as to why 12 his account was restricted and he could not access his funds. During many of these 13 telephone calls he would wait on hold for up to 45 mins. Other times he could not 14 get through or was hung up on. Bank of America never provisionally credited his 15 account, or removed the restricted access while they were doing an investigation. It 16 was not until the end of October 2020 that any restrictions on his account were 17 removed. No additional information, as requested, was ever supplied by Bank of 18 America why Zettlemoyer's account was restricted for four (4) months. Due to 19 Bank of America's actions, he missed two rent payments. He missed his car 20 insurance payment. He was unable to afford medication for his diabetic aunt. He 21 missed two car payments. He was late on phone bills and credit card bills. He 22 struggled to buy food, gas, and clothing. Because of Bank of America's actions 23 Zettlemoyer suffered damages.

V. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

527. Class Representative Plaintiffs bring this lawsuit individually and as a class action pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, seeking declaratory and injunctive relief and damages on behalf of a class defined as follows (the “Class”):

All persons who were Bank of America EDD Debit Cardholders at any time between January 1, 2020 and the present (“Class Period”), and whose eligibility for benefits EDD has not revoked for failure to establish valid identity.

528. Plaintiffs further seek declaratory and injunctive relief, restitution, disgorgement, and statutory and actual damages on behalf of the following Subclasses:

Claim Denial Subclass: All Class Members who, during the Class Period, gave the Bank notice of a claim that an unauthorized transaction had occurred on their Account (“Claim”) and whose Claim the Bank closed or denied based on application of the Claim Fraud Filter.

Credit Rescission Subclass: All Class Members who, during the Class Period, received provisional or permanent credit from the Bank in connection with their Claim, which the Bank rescinded more than 45 days after the Class Member gave notice of the Claim.

Account Freeze Subclass: All Class Members whose EDD Debit Card Account the Bank froze during the Class Period based on application of the Claim Fraud Filter and later unfroze or later converted from frozen to blocked status and then unblocked.

Account Block Subclass: All Class Members whose EDD Debit Card Account the Bank blocked during the Class Period based on application of the Claim Fraud Filter and later unblocked.

Failure to Unfreeze Subclass: All Class Members whose EDD Debit Card Account the Bank froze or blocked during the Class Period and did not unfreeze or unblock after EDD instructed the Bank to unfreeze the Class Member’s Account or informed the Bank that EDD had verified the Class Member’s identity.

1        Security Breach Subclass: All Class Members whose Card, Account, or 2        other personal information in the possession of the Bank or its agents was, 3        during the Class Period, accessed or taken by a third party without the Class 4        Member's consent.

5        EMV Chip Subclass: All Class Members whose EDD Debit Card, during 6        the Class Period, did not include an EMV chip, and whose Card, Account, or 7        other personal information was accessed or taken from the Card by a third 8        party without the Class Member's consent.

9        529. Plaintiffs reserve the right under Rule 23 to amend or modify the Class 10       and Subclass descriptions and/or add one or more subclasses based on information 11       obtained in the course of this litigation.

12       530. All Class Members have suffered or are threatened with imminent 13       injury during the Class Period, caused by Defendants' wrongful acts and omissions, 14       as alleged herein.

15       531. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class 16       action against Defendants pursuant to the following provisions of Rule 23.

17       a.     Numerosity (Rule 23(a)(1)): The members of the Class and 18       each Subclass are so numerous that their individual joinder is impracticable. Bank 19       of America provided millions of EDD benefits recipients with EDD Debit Cards 20       that used only outdated magnetic stripe technology (no EMV chip) and subjected 21       these individuals to an undue risk of experiencing fraudulent transactions on their 22       EDD Debit Cards and Accounts. The identities of, and contact information for, 23       those individuals may readily be obtained through the Bank's business records or 24       the business records of its affiliated entities. Tens of thousands of EDD Debit 25       Cardholders reported unauthorized transactions to the Bank and had their 26       unauthorized transaction claims summarily closed or denied by the Bank without 27       explanation and without issuance of provisional or permanent credit. Of those 28       unauthorized transaction claims, at least 29,000 claims have since been reconsidered and paid, including under the Preliminary Injunction procedures. In 1 addition, tens of thousands of EDD Debit Cardholders have had their Cards and 2 Accounts frozen or blocked by the Bank.

3           b. Commonality and Predominance (Rule 23(a)(2) and 4 23(b)(3)): Many questions of law and fact are common to the Class and Subclasses.
5 These questions predominate over any questions affecting only individual Class 6 Members. These common legal and factual issues include, but are not limited to:

7           i. Whether the Bank had or has a policy and/or practice of denying 8 EDD Debit Cardholders' unauthorized transaction claims
9 without having conducted a good-faith investigation that results 10 in the Bank having a reasonable basis for believing that the 11 Cardholder authorized or benefitted from the transaction, 12 including denying claims based solely on the results of the 13 Claim Fraud Filter.

14           ii. Whether the Bank had or has a policy and/or practice of denying 15 EDD Debit Cardholders' unauthorized transaction claims 16 without providing the Cardholder with a report of the results of 17 the Bank's investigation of the claim that includes a written 18 explanation of the Bank's findings.

19           iii. Whether the Bank had or has a policy and/or practice of not 20 provisionally or permanently crediting the Accounts of EDD 21 Debit Cardholders in the amount of an unauthorized transaction 22 claim within 10 business days of the Bank receiving notice of 23 the claim, and without having conducted a good-faith 24 investigation that results in the Bank having a reasonable basis 25 for believing that the Cardholder authorized or benefitted from 26 the transaction.

27           iv. Whether the Bank had or has a policy and/or practice of 28 knowingly and willfully denying EDD Debit Cardholders'

1 unauthorized transaction claims.

2 v. Whether the Bank had or has a policy and/or practice of 3 automatically freezing the EDD Debit Card Accounts of 4 Cardholders who report unauthorized transactions, including 5 based solely on the results of the Claim Fraud Filter.

6 vi. Whether the Bank had or has a policy and/or practice of failing 7 to provide its customer service representatives with the training, 8 tools, or authority necessary to reasonably assist EDD Debit 9 Cardholders who call about resolving their unauthorized 10 transaction claims or unfreezing their Accounts.

11 vii. Whether the Bank violated or is violating EFTA and Regulation
12 E by having a policy and/or practice of denying EDD Debit 13 Cardholders' unauthorized transaction claims without having 14 conducted a good-faith investigation that results in the Bank 15 having a reasonable basis for believing that the Cardholder 16 authorized or benefitted from the transaction, including denying 17 claims based solely on the results of the Claim Fraud Filter.

18 viii. Whether the Bank violated or is violating EFTA and Regulation
19 E by having a policy and/or practice of denying EDD Debit 20 Cardholders' unauthorized transaction claims without providing 21 the Cardholder with a report of the results of the Bank's 22 investigation of the claim that includes a written explanation of 23 the Bank's findings.

24 ix. Whether the Bank is violating or violated EFTA and Regulation 25 E by having a policy and/or practice of not provisionally or 26 permanently crediting the Accounts of EDD Debit Cardholders 27 in the amount of an unauthorized transaction claim within 10 28 business days of the Bank receiving notice of the claim, and

1 without having conducted a good-faith investigation that results
2 in the Bank having a reasonable basis for believing that the 3 Cardholder authorized or benefitted from the transaction.

- 4 x. Whether the Bank is a state actor under the “public function” 5 test, the “joint action” test, or any other test for state action 6 status.
- 7 xi. Whether the Bank violated Plaintiffs’ and Class Members’ 8 federal or state due process rights by having a policy and/or 9 practice of automatically and indefinitely freezing and/or 10 blocking their EDD Debit Card Accounts, without providing 11 them with adequate notice or an opportunity to be heard, when 12 they report unauthorized transactions on their Accounts.
- 13 xii. Whether the Bank owed a duty of care to Plaintiffs and Class 14 Members, including because of the fiduciary relationship 15 between the Bank and its EDD Debit Cardholders, under the 16 EDD–Bank Contract, under the Cardholder Agreement, or 17 under any other contract between the Bank and Cardholders.
- 18 xiii. Whether Plaintiffs and Class Members are third-party 19 beneficiaries of the EDD–Bank Contract.
- 20 xiv. Whether the Bank breached its duties to Plaintiffs and Class 21 Members, including by using outdated fraud-prevention 22 technology in its EDD Debit Cards and Accounts, by not 23 adequately monitoring EDD Debit Cards and Accounts for 24 suspicious activity, by not conducting appropriate follow-up or 25 investigation when unauthorized transaction claims were made, 26 by failing to comply with EFTA and its own “Zero Liability” 27 policy, and by otherwise failing to make Plaintiffs and Class 28 Members whole for unauthorized transactions on their Accounts.

xv. Whether the Bank acted negligently in its hiring, supervision, and retention of TTEC and other subcontractors and agents who have access to Plaintiffs' and Class Members' sensitive Cardholder Information.

xvi. Whether TTEC was the Bank's actual, apparent, or ostensible agent in its negligent hiring, supervision, and retention of employees who mishandled or misappropriated Plaintiffs' and Class Members' sensitive Cardholder Information.

xvii. Whether the Bank should be enjoined from freezing EDD Debit Card Accounts or from failing to take the reasonable steps necessary to avoid causing additional future harm to Plaintiffs and Class Members as the result of the Bank's acts and omissions alleged herein.

xviii. Whether the Bank should pay damages and interest or provide restitution, reimbursement, and/or other relief to Plaintiffs and Class Members.

c. Typicality (Rule 23(a)(3)): Class Representative Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the claims of the members of the putative Class. Class Representative Plaintiffs, like all other members of the putative Class, sustained economic and other damages as a result of the Bank's wrongful acts and omissions as alleged herein. Class Representative Plaintiffs and members of the putative Class were and are similarly or identically harmed by the Bank's same unlawful, deceptive, unfair, systematic, and pervasive pattern of misconduct as alleged herein.

d. Adequacy of Representation (Rule 23(a)(4)): Class Representative Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the putative Class Members and have retained competent and qualified counsel with extensive experience in complex litigation and class action litigation.

1 There are no material conflicts between the claims of the Class Representative 2 Plaintiffs and the members of the putative Class that would make class certification 3 inappropriate. Counsel for the putative Class will vigorously prosecute the claims 4 of all putative Class Members.

5 532. This action is properly maintained as a class action pursuant to Rule 6 23(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for the following reasons:

7 a. Class Action Status (Rule 23(b)(1)): Class action status is 8 appropriate under Rule 23(b)(1)(A) because prosecution of separate actions by each 9 of the thousands of putative Class Members would create a risk of establishing 10 incompatible standards of conduct for the Bank and inconsistent results for Class 11 Members. Class action status is also appropriate under Rule 23(b)(1)(B) because 12 prosecution of separate actions by putative Class Members would create a risk of 13 adjudication with respect to individual members of the Class that, as a practical 14 matter, would be dispositive of the interests of other members not parties to this 15 action or would substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests.

16 b. Declaratory and Injunctive Relief (Rule 23(b)(2)):
17 Certification under Rule 23(b)(2) is appropriate because the Bank acted or refused 18 to act on grounds generally applicable to the putative Class, thereby making 19 appropriate final injunctive, declaratory, or other appropriate equitable relief with 20 respect to the putative Class as a whole.

21 c. Predominance and Superiority (Rule 23(b)(3)): Certification 22 of the Subclasses under Rule 23(b)(3) is appropriate because questions of law or 23 fact common to putative Subclass Members predominate over any questions 24 affecting only individual members, and because class action treatment is superior 25 to the other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this 26 controversy.

27 d. Issue Certification (Rule 23(c)(4)): Certification of issues of 28 liability and statutory and treble damages under Rule 23(c)(4) is appropriate

1 because these issues are common to putative Class Members and resolution of these 2 common issues on a classwide basis will materially advance the disposition of the 3 litigation as a whole.

4 e. The Class and each Subclass is ascertainable from the Bank's 5 own records, and there is a well-defined community of interest in the questions of 6 law or fact alleged herein since the rights of each Class Member and each Subclass 7 Member were infringed or violated in the same or similar fashion.

8 VI. CLAIMS FOR RELIEF<sup>30</sup>

9 FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF<sup>31</sup>

10 VIOLATIONS OF THE ELECTRONIC FUND TRANSFERS ACT

11 15 U.S.C. §§1693 et seq.; 12 C.F.R. §§1005.1 et seq.

12 (Brought by All Plaintiffs)

13 533. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each and every allegation 14 set forth above, as though fully set forth here.

15 534. Plaintiffs bring this cause of action pursuant to the Electronic Fund
16 Transfers Act ("EFTA"), 15 U.S.C. §§1693 et seq., and Regulation E of EFTA, 12

28 this claim as pleaded by one Individual Plaintiff for lack of standing. Order at 24; cf. supra ¶461.

1 C.F.R. §§1005.1–1005.20.

2 535. Plaintiffs and Class Members provided notice to Bank of America 3 within 60 days after Bank of America sent a period statement reflecting an 4 unauthorized transaction (which is an “error” under Regulation E) consistent with 5 15 U.S.C. §1693f and 12 C.F.R. §1005.11. As reflected (or should be reflected in 6 Bank of America’s own records, absent the customer service failures alleged 7 herein), Plaintiffs and Class Members provided sufficient information to identify 8 the unauthorized transaction and reasons for their belief that the transaction was 9 unauthorized.

10 536. Bank of America violated 15 U.S.C. §1693f and 12 C.F.R. §1005.11, 11 including but not limited to through its implementation of each of the following 12 policies and/or practices:

13 a. Adopting and implementing policies and practices designed to 14 circumvent the Bank’s statutory and regulatory obligations under 15 U.S.C. §1693f 15 and Regulation E, including by frustrating and obstructing Plaintiffs’ and Class 16 Members’ efforts to submit unauthorized transaction claims and by denying their 17 claims without having conducted a reasonable investigation or having a reasonable 18 basis for believing that the Cardholder had authorized or benefitted from the 19 transaction in question;

20 b. Failing to provide provisional credit to Plaintiffs and Class 21 Members relating to error investigations that could not be resolved within 10 22 business days;

23 c. Not issuing provisional credit to Plaintiffs and Class Members 24 within 10 business days of the Bank receiving notice the Plaintiff’s or Class 25 Member’s unauthorized transaction claim, despite the Bank having no intention of 26 conducting a good-faith investigation of the claim within 10 business days, and 27 despite not completing a good-faith investigation of the claim within 10 business 28 days;

1 d. Failing to conduct good-faith investigations into alleged errors 2 or unauthorized transactions that Plaintiffs and Class Members timely reported to 3 the Bank;

4 e. Failing to conduct good-faith investigations into the alleged 5 errors or unauthorized transactions within 45 days of the date that the Plaintiff or 6 Class Member timely reported the alleged error or unauthorized transaction;

7 f. Denying Plaintiffs' and Class Members' claims of error without 8 having conducted a good-faith investigation, including by denying claims based 9 solely on the results of the Bank's automated and highly unreliable and inaccurate
10 Claim Fraud Filter;

11 g. Denying Plaintiffs' and Class Members' claims of error without 12 having a reasonable basis for concluding that their Accounts were not in error, and 13 where the Bank could not reasonably have drawn its conclusion that no error 14 occurred based on the evidence available to the Bank at the time;

15 h. Denying Plaintiffs' and Class Members' claims of error without 16 providing a report of the results of the Bank's investigation of the claim that 17 includes a written explanation of the Bank's findings.

18 i. Failing to credit Plaintiffs' and Class Members' EDD Debit 19 Card Accounts with interest on the amounts of unauthorized transactions that Bank 20 wrongly denied, for the period during which Plaintiffs and Class Members were 21 without access to those funds;

22 j. Freezing Plaintiffs' and Class Members' EDD Debit Card 23 Accounts in order to avoid the Bank's legal obligations and to prevent Plaintiffs and 24 Class Members from accessing their funds; and 25 k. Unilaterally reopening claims of error long after they had 26 already been resolved in the EDD Debit Cardholders' favor and debiting the 27 amounts previously credited to the Cardholder's Account, without basis to do so.

28

1           537. In situations where Bank of America has violated Regulation E by 2 failing to provisionally credit Plaintiffs' and Class Members' EDD Debit Card
3 Accounts within 10 business days of the reported error, the Bank has neither 4 conducted a good faith investigation nor had a reasonable basis for believing that 5 the Account was not in error. Plaintiffs and Class Members are therefore entitled to 6 treble damages under 15 U.S.C. §1693f(e).

7           538. Bank of America knowingly and willfully concluded that Plaintiffs' 8 and Class Members' EDD Debit Card Accounts were not in error when such 9 conclusion could not reasonably have been drawn from the evidence available to 10 the Bank at the time of its investigation. Plaintiffs and Class Members are therefore 11 entitled to treble damages under 15 U.S.C. §1693f(e).

12           539. Bank of America violated EFTA and Regulation E by failing to limit 13 Plaintiffs' and Class Members' liability as required by 15 U.S.C. §1693m and 12 14 C.F.R. §1005.6(b).

15           540. Plaintiffs provided notice to Bank of America less than two business 16 days after learning of the fraudulent transactions that occurred in their EDD Debit 17 Card Accounts. Under 12 C.F.R. §1005.6(b)(1), Plaintiffs' and Class Members' 18 liability is capped at $50 in these circumstances. Bank of America has subjected 19 Plaintiffs and Class Members to far greater than $50 in liability through its wrongful 20 conduct as alleged herein.

21           541. Under 12 C.F.R. §1005.6(b)(2), $500 is the maximum liability that 22 may be imposed on an accountholder who does not provide notice to the financial 23 institution within two business days after learning of a suspected unauthorized 24 transaction. Bank of America has subjected Plaintiffs and Class Members to far 25 greater than $500 in liability through its wrongful conduct as alleged herein.

26           542. Regarding any Class Members who did not provide Bank of America 27 with actual notice within two business days of learning of a suspected unauthorized 28 transaction, the Bank was on constructive notice, under 12 C.F.R.

1 §1005.6(b)(5)(iii), of widespread unauthorized electronic fund transfers from EDD 2 Debit Card Accounts since the beginning of the COVID-19 pandemic. Since that 3 time, countless unauthorized fund transfers have occurred and continue to occur 4 from those Accounts. The volume of calls from EDD Debit Cardholders to the 5 Bank's customer service to report unauthorized transactions has been, and 6 continues to be, so great, and the Bank's customer service department is so 7 understaffed, that the Bank routinely causes EDD Debit Cardholders to wait on hold 8 for multiple hours. The widespread fraud specifically targeting EDD Debit 9 Cardholders has been widely reported in the media and has been the subject of 10 significant attention from California legislators.

11 543. In no event should any Class Member be liable for over $500 of 12 damages under 12 C.F.R. §1005.6. Bank of America has violated 12 C.F.R. §1005.6 13 by imposing hundreds and thousands of dollars of liability on unemployed 14 Californians.

15 544. As a direct and proximate result of Bank of America violations of 16 Regulation E, Plaintiffs and Class Members have lost money.

17 545. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Class, seek an injunction 18 barring Bank of America from denying provisional credit and denying fraud claims 19 without having timely conducted a good faith investigation of the alleged fraud and 20 without a reasonable basis for believing that the transaction was authorized, and 21 barring Bank of America from otherwise violating EFTA and Regulation E.
22 Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the applicable Subclasses, further seek the 23 following relief: (a) actual damages with interest; (b) restitution of all EDD benefits 24 funds improperly debited by Bank of America; (c) statutory damages pursuant to 25 15 U.S.C. §1693m; (d) treble damages pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1693f(e); and 26 (e) incidental and consequential damages suffered due to their inability to pay bills 27 or otherwise use their unemployment funds.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF<sup>32</sup>

VIOLATIONS OF THE CALIFORNIA CONSUMER PRIVACY ACT

Cal. Civ. Code §§1798.100 et seq.

(Brought by Class Representative Plaintiffs and Individual Plaintiffs in the
Abarr, Alvarez, Brotman, Meza, Morrell, Payton, Robinson, Rojas de Charolet,
Talia, and Verdun Actions)

546. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each and every allegation set forth above, as though fully set forth here.

547. The California Consumer Privacy Act (“CCPA”), Cal. Civ. Code §§1798.100 et seq., imposes a duty on businesses to take reasonable steps to protect consumers’ nonencrypted and nonredacted personal information, and provides a private right of action to consumers whose nonencrypted and nonredacted personal information has been subjected to unauthorized access and exfiltration, theft, or disclosure as a result of a defendant business’s breach of its duty to take reasonable steps to protect that information.

548. Plaintiffs and Class Members are “consumers” as defined in the CCPA.

549. Bank of America is a “business” as defined in the CCPA.

550. Bank of America directly or indirectly collected Plaintiffs’ and Class Members’ personal information as defined in Cal. Civ. Code §1798.81.5(d)(1)(A), including but not limited to Plaintiffs’ and Class Member’s first names or first initials, last names, and account numbers or credit or debit card numbers (including but not limited to Plaintiffs’ and Class Members’ EDD Debit Card and Account numbers), in combination with any required security codes, access codes, or

<sup>32</sup> The Court dismissed this claim with leave to amend only to the extent it is based on the Bank collecting, transmitting, and storing Plaintiffs’ personal information in an inadequately secure manner. Order at 27–29 (citing MCC ¶553(b)–(d)). Plaintiffs are unable to amend this claim at this time.

1 passwords that would permit access to Plaintiffs' and Class Members' financial 2 accounts.

3 551. On information and belief, Bank of America collected, stored, and/or 4 transmitted Plaintiffs' and Class Members' personal information in a nonencrypted 5 and nonredacted form or in some other form that permitted unauthorized third 6 parties to access that information in violation of the CCPA.

7 552. Bank of America had a duty under the CCPA to implement and 8 maintain reasonable security procedures and practices appropriate to the nature of 9 Plaintiffs' and Class Members' personal information.

10 553. Bank of America breached its duty to implement and maintain 11 reasonable security procedures and practices appropriate to the nature of Plaintiffs' 12 and Class Members' personal information by, among other things: (a) issuing EDD 13 Debit Cards to Plaintiffs and Class Members with magnetic stripes but without 14 EMV chip technology; (b) collecting Plaintiffs' and Class Members' personal 15 information in an unsecure manner; (c) transmitting Plaintiffs' and Class Members' 16 personal information in unencrypted or otherwise inadequately secured form or 17 channels; (d) storing Plaintiffs' and Class Members' personal information, or 18 permitting said information to be stored on unsecured or inadequately secured data 19 storage devices, including at EDD; and (e) failing to take reasonable steps to ensure 20 that its subcontractors and their employees and agents, including CSRs and other 21 Call Center agents, maintained the confidentiality of Cardholders' personal 22 information, including by failing to ensure that all such agents were subject to 23 background checks before or after being hired and failing to provide such agents 24 proper training and supervision regarding their handling and maintaining the 25 confidentiality of Cardholders' personal information, and by failing to secure 26 Cardholders' personal information from unnecessary and unauthorized access by 27 subcontractors' employees and others.

1           554. Bank of America further failed to implement and maintain reasonable 2 security measures by transmitting information regarding Plaintiffs' and Class 3 Members' EDD Debit Cards to, and storing it on, unsecured or inadequately secured 4 data storage devices, including at EDD.

5           555. As a direct and proximate result of Bank of America's failure to 6 implement and maintain reasonable security procedures and practices appropriate 7 to the nature of Plaintiffs' and Class Members' personal information, Plaintiffs and 8 Class Members suffered unauthorized access and exfiltration, theft, or disclosure of 9 their nonencrypted and nonredacted personal information. Plaintiffs and Class 10 Members never authorized such disclosure of their personal information.

11           556. Bank of America knew or should have known that issuing EDD Debit 12 Cards with magnetic stripes but without EMV chip technology was not a reasonable 13 security procedure or practice appropriate to the nature of Plaintiffs' and Class 14 Members' personal information and that a data breach resulting in the unauthorized 15 access and exfiltration, theft, or disclosure of Plaintiffs' and Class Members' 16 personal information was clearly foreseeable.

17           557. As a direct and proximate result of the unauthorized access and 18 exfiltration, theft, or disclosure of Plaintiffs' and Class Members' nonencrypted and 19 nonredacted personal information, Plaintiffs and Class Members were injured and 20 lost and continue to lose money or property, including but not limited to the 21 monetary value of unauthorized transactions on the EDD Debit Cards issued by the 22 Bank, the loss of Plaintiffs' and Class Members' protected privacy interests in the 23 confidentiality and privacy of their personal information, nominal damages, and 24 additional losses as described above.

25           558. Plaintiffs and Class Members seek relief under Cal. Civ. Code 26 §1798.150(a), including but not limited to recovery of actual damages, injunctive 27 relief, declaratory relief, its costs of suit, attorney's fees pursuant to Cal. Code Civ.
28 Proc. §1021.5 or other applicable law, and any other relief the Court deems proper.

1           559. On January 25, 2021, Class Representative Plaintiffs Smith and 2 Karam, through their undersigned counsel, on behalf of themselves and all others 3 similarly situated, sent a letter to Bank of America's registered agent for service of 4 process via FedEx, notifying Bank of America of its violations of Cal. Civ. Code 5 §1798.150(a) and demanding that the Bank cure them. That letter was delivered by 6 FedEx the following morning, on January 26, 2021. Bank of America did not 7 respond to the letter, and did not cure the noticed violations or provide Plaintiffs 8 with an express written statement that the violations had been cured and that no 9 further violations would occur, within 30 days after receiving the letter. Thereafter, 10 on March 1, 2021, Smith and Karam filed their Class Action Complaint in an action 11 that has now been consolidated into this matter. As a result, class-wide statutory 12 damages may be initiated against the Bank pursuant to Civ. Code §1798.150(b).

13           560. On or about January 26, 2021, Plaintiffs Oosthuizen and Mathews, 14 through their undersigned counsel, each submitted a notice to Bank of America 15 pursuant to Cal. Civ. Code §1798.150(b) on behalf of themselves and all others 16 similarly situated, informing the Bank of its violations of the CCPA. The Bank did 17 not cure those violations or provide Plaintiffs with an express written statement that 18 the violations had been cured and that no further violations shall occur, as required 19 by the CCPA within 30 days after such notice. As a result, class-wide statutory 20 damages may be initiated against the Bank pursuant to Cal. Civ. Code 21 §1798.150(b).

22           561. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Class and applicable
23 Subclasses, seek relief under Cal. Civ. Code §1798.150(a), including but not limited 24 to recovery of actual damages, statutory damages, injunctive relief, declaratory 25 relief, its costs of suit, attorney's fees pursuant to Cal. Code Civ. Proc. §1021.5 or 26 other applicable law, and any other relief the Court deems proper.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF<sup>33</sup>

VIOLATIONS OF THE CALIFORNIA CUSTOMER RECORDS ACT

Cal. Civ. Code §§1798.80 et seq.

(Brought by Class Representative Plaintiffs and Individual Plaintiffs in the Abarr, Brotman, Meza, Morrell, Payton, and Robinson Actions)

562. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each and every allegation set forth above, as though fully set forth here.

563. To ensure that personal information about California residents is protected, the California Legislature enacted the California Customer Records Act, which requires businesses suffering a data breach to promptly notify all persons whose “unencrypted personal information was, or is reasonably believed to have been, acquired by an unauthorized person.” Cal. Civ. Code §1798.82.

564. Bank of America is a “business” within the meaning of Cal. Civ. Code §1798.80(a).

565. Plaintiffs and Class Members are “individual[s]” within the meaning of Cal. Civ. Code §1798.80(d). Pursuant to Civ. Code §§1798.80(e) and 1798.82(h), “personal information” includes an individual’s name, social security number, driver’s license or state identification card number, and debit card and credit card information. “Personal information” under Civ. Code §1798.80(e) also includes address, telephone number, employment, and employment history.

566. Bank of America maintains computerized data that includes personal information of Plaintiffs and Class Members. The security of that data was breached, resulting in unauthorized third parties fraudulently accessing Plaintiffs’ and Class Members’ EDD Debit Card Accounts.

<sup>33</sup> The Court dismissed this claim with leave to amend for failure to allege when the data breach or breaches occurred. Order at 31. Plaintiffs are unable to amend this claim at this time.

1           567. The notification of such a breach required by Cal. Civ. Code §1798.82 2 must be made “immediately following discovery.”

3           568. By failing to promptly notify all affected Plaintiffs and Class Members 4 that their unencrypted personal information had been acquired (or was reasonably 5 believed to have been acquired) by unauthorized persons, Bank of America violated 6 Cal. Civ. Code §1798.82.

7           569. The notification required by Cal. Civ. Code §1798.82 must be made in 8 plain language, list the information that was or is reasonably believed to have been 9 compromised, identify the date and time of the breach, state whether law 10 enforcement delayed the notice, provide a “general description of the breach 11 incident,” and provide the “toll-free telephone numbers and addresses of the major 12 credit reporting agencies if the breach exposed a social security number or a driver’s 13 license or California identification card number.”

14           570. Bank of America was required to provide the notification required by 15 Cal. Civ. Code §1798.82 to over 500 persons and was required to provide a sample 16 copy of its notification to the California Attorney General.

17           571. Bank of America did not provide such notice, and thus did not provide 18 notice “in the most expedient time possible and without unreasonable delay,” as 19 required by Cal. Civ. Code §1798.82.

20           572. Bank of America’s conduct as alleged herein was reckless and/or 21 deliberate.

22           573. Plaintiffs and Class Members were injured by Bank of America’s 23 violations of Cal. Civ. Code §1798.82. Bank of America’s exposure of Plaintiffs’ 24 and Class Members’ personal information to unauthorized third parties resulted in 25 Plaintiffs and Class Members losing access to EDD benefits to which they are 26 entitled; exposed Plaintiffs and Class Members to increased risk of identity theft; 27 and reduced the value of Plaintiffs’ and Class Members’ personal information. Bank 28 of America’s failure promptly to notify Plaintiffs and Class Members of the 1 exposure of their personal information to unauthorized third parties as required by 2 §1798.82 prevented Plaintiffs and Class Members from taking measures to prevent 3 or mitigate these harms, including but not limited to by withdrawing or transferring 4 funds from their Accounts before those funds were fraudulently removed or before 5 those Accounts were frozen by Bank of America, and by closing Accounts and 6 placing credit alerts on their Accounts to reduce the risk of identity theft.

7 574. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Class and applicable
8 Subclasses, seek all remedies available under Cal. Civ. Code §1798.84, including, 9 but not limited to, actual damages and injunctive relief.

10 FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF<sup>34</sup>

11 VIOLATIONS OF THE CALIFORNIA UNFAIR COMPETITION LAW

12 Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§17200 et seq.

13 (Brought by Class Representative Plaintiffs and Individual Plaintiffs in the 14 Abarr, Alvarez, Brotman, Meza, Morrell, Payton, Robinson, Rojas de Charolet,
15 Talia, and Verdun Actions)

16 575. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each and every allegation 17 set forth above, as though fully set forth here.

18 576. California's Unfair Competition Law ("UCL") prohibits any 19 "unlawful, unfair, or fraudulent business act or practice." Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code 20 §§17200 et seq.

21 577. Bank of America's "unfair" acts and business practices include, among 22 other things, the Bank's actions or inactions in: (a) failing to maintain, store, share, 23 transmit, or otherwise use Plaintiffs' and Class Members' personal information (as 24 defined under the CCPA) and Cardholder Information in a secure manner; (b) 25 failing to issue EDD Debit Cards with EMV chips, despite having for years been 26

27 <sup>34</sup> The Court dismissed this claim with prejudice for failure to allege inadequate 28 legal remedies. Order at 33. Plaintiffs intend to seek leave to file a motion to reconsider that ruling.

1 aware of the risks associated with magnetic stripe technology and despite knowing 2 the heightened vulnerability of EDD Debit Cardholders and their Accounts and 3 those Cardholders' heightened interest in securely, reliably, and timely accessing 4 their EDD benefits; (c) failing to respond to the rise in demand for EDD benefits 5 caused by or related to the COVID-19 pandemic by issuing chip cards; (d) falsely 6 representing to Plaintiffs, Class Members, and EDD that it would provide "best-in-7 class" fraud monitoring and that it would remain "at the forefront of fraud and data 8 security strategies benefiting the EDD and [EDD's] claimants"; (e) failing to protect 9 Plaintiffs and Class Members from unauthorized transactions, including by failing 10 to use readily available EMV chip technology in its EDD Debit Cards rather than 11 outdated magnetic stripe technology that the Bank knew was susceptible to fraud; 12 (f) failing to employ reasonable practices and procedures to monitor for, detect, 13 stop, and promptly notify Plaintiffs and Class Members about suspicious 14 transactions involving their Cards and Accounts, including but not limited to 15 transactions that were highly suspicious because they were made during the 16 pandemic at a significant distance from where the Plaintiff or Class Member 17 resided, were made close in time but geographically far apart, or were significantly
18 inconsistent with the Plaintiff or Class Member's Card and Account transaction 19 history and past Account access behaviors; (g) failing to provide reasonable or 20 adequate customer service assistance to Plaintiffs and other Class Members who 21 complained of fraud, despite representing to them that such assistance would be 22 available "24/7," and despite the Bank's awareness of rampant third-party fraud on 23 EDD Debit Cards and Accounts; (h) establishing "customer service" procedures 24 designed to frustrate and obstruct efforts by Plaintiffs and Class Members to file 25 their fraud claims; (i) failing to adequately investigate and resolve Plaintiffs' and 26 Class Members' claims of unauthorized transactions in a timely manner despite the 27 Bank's promised "Zero Liability" policy for unauthorized transactions; (j) failing 28 to extend provisional credit to Plaintiffs and Class Members in cases where the 1 Bank was unable to timely investigate and resolve fraud claims; (k) automatically 2 denying Plaintiffs' and Class Members' claims of unauthorized transactions 3 without investigation, explanation, or reasonable basis, including based solely on 4 the results of a highly unreliable "fraud filter"; (l) rescinding, without explanation 5 or legitimate basis, "permanent" credits the Bank had previously paid to EDD Debit 6 Cardholders upon determining fraud had occurred in their Account; (m) freezing 7 and/or blocking EDD Debit Card Accounts without a reasonable basis for believing 8 that the Cardholders themselves had committed fraud, including based solely on the 9 results of a highly unreliable "fraud filter," and for longer than it would reasonably 10 take to investigate any such belief, all while failing to provide Cardholders any 11 advance notice, prompt post-freeze notice, or any reasonable means of contesting 12 the purported basis for the Account freeze; (n) freezing and/or blocking EDD Debit 13 Card Accounts not to protect the Cardholders but to protect the Bank's own 14 interests; and (o) failing to provide reasonable or adequate customer service to 15 Plaintiffs and other Class Members seeking assistance in obtaining reimbursement 16 for third-party fraud on their Accounts or in accessing their frozen Accounts, despite 17 the Bank's representation in its 2015 RFP Response that "[u]nemployment and 18 disability payments are critical, often times providing claimants the ability to secure 19 housing or purchase necessary medical prescriptions."

20 578. Bank of America's acts, omissions, and conduct as alleged herein are 21 "unfair" under the UCL because those acts, omissions, and conduct offend public 22 policy and constitute immoral, unethical, oppressive, and unscrupulous activities 23 that caused substantial injury, including to Plaintiffs and Class Members. The harm 24 caused by Bank of America's conduct outweighs any potential benefits attributable 25 to such conduct. There were reasonably available alternatives to further the Bank's 26 legitimate business interests, including issuing EDD Debit Cards with EMV chips 27 and creating and implementing procedures and resources adequate to timely 28 conduct good-faith investigations into reported unauthorized transactions and to 1 otherwise timely resolve reports of fraudulent activity on EDD Debit Card

2 Accounts.

3 579. Bank of America has engaged in “unlawful” acts and business
4 practices by, as set forth herein, violating the Electronic Fund Transfers Act, 15 5 U.S.C. §1693, and Regulation E; the California Consumer Privacy Act, Cal. Civ.
6 Code §§1798.100 et seq.; the California Consumer Records Act, Cal. Civ. Code 7 §§1798.80 et seq.; the Due Process Clauses of the U.S. and California Constitutions; 8 and its common law obligations. Bank of America has further engaged in 9 “unlawful” acts and business practices by violating the (a) the Gramm-Leach-Bliley 10 Act (“GLBA”), 15 U.S.C. §§6801 et seq., and regulations promulgated thereunder 11 (see, e.g., 16 C.F.R. Parts 313, 314), which prohibit the Bank from disclosing its 12 customers’ nonpublic personal information to a nonaffiliated third party and require 13 the Bank to take reasonable steps to protect the security and confidentiality of its 14 customers’ nonpublic personal information against anticipated security threats or 15 hazards and unauthorized access or use (see infra ¶¶580–581), and (b) the 16 California Financial Information Privacy Act (“CFIPA”), Cal. Fin. Code §§4050 et 17 seq., which prohibits the Bank from negligently disclosing or sharing a consumer’s 18 nonpublic personal information with nonaffiliated third parties without the 19 consumer’s explicit prior consent (see infra ¶582).

20 580. The Bank is subject to the GLBA because it is a financial institution 21 as defined under 15 U.S.C. §6809(3)(A), and is subject to the GLBA Safeguards 22 Rule, 16 C.F.R. Part 314, because it is a financial institution that handles and 23 maintains nonpublic personal information, as defined by 16 C.F.R. §313.3(n), 24 including Plaintiffs’ and Class Members’ nonpublic personal information. The 25 Safeguards Rule, which implements Section 501(b) of the GLBA, 15 U.S.C.
26 §6801(b), requires financial institutions such as the Bank to protect the security, 27 confidentiality, and integrity of customer information by developing, 28 implementing, and maintaining a written comprehensive information security

1 program that contains administrative, technical, and physical safeguards that are 2 appropriate to the financial institution's size and complexity, the nature and scope 3 of its activities, and the sensitivity of the customer information at issue, including 4 by (a) identifying reasonably foreseeable internal and external risks to the security, 5 confidentiality, and integrity of customer information, and assessing the sufficiency 6 of any safeguards in place to control those risks; (b) designing and implementing 7 information safeguards to control the risks identified through risk assessment, and 8 regularly testing or otherwise monitoring the effectiveness of the safeguards' key 9 controls, systems, and procedures; (c) overseeing service providers by taking 10 reasonable steps to select and retain service providers that are capable of 11 maintaining appropriate safeguards for customer information, and requiring service 12 providers by contract to implement such safeguards; and (d) evaluating and 13 adjusting the information security program in light of the results of testing and 14 monitoring, changes to the business operation, and other relevant circumstances. 16
15 C.F.R. §§314.3, 314.4.

16 581. Throughout the Class Period, the Bank has violated each of the above 17 requirements of the Safeguard Rule by failing to adequately secure Plaintiffs' and 18 Class Members' nonpublic personal information, including when the Bank 19 transferred that information to EDD and to the Bank's service providers, including 20 but not limited to TTEC, and by failing to oversee its service providers' compliance 21 with Safeguards Rule in connection with Plaintiffs' and Class Members' nonpublic 22 personal information. Specifically, the Bank failed to take adequate steps to 23 evaluate whether its service providers, including but not limited to TTEC, were 24 capable of and actually were reasonably protecting Cardholders' nonpublic 25 personal information. This failure violated the Safeguards Rule. On information and 26 belief, the Bank also failed to identify reasonably foreseeable internal and external 27 risks to the security, confidentiality, and integrity of customer information, and 28 failed to assess the sufficiency of any its own and its service providers' safeguards

1 in place to control those risks. These failures also violated the Safeguards Rule.

2 582. The Bank is subject to the CFIPA because it is a financial institution 3 as defined under Cal. Fin. Code §4052(c). The CFIPA prohibits from Bank from 4 selling, sharing, transferring, or otherwise disclosing a consumer's nonpublic 5 personal information to third parties without the consumer's explicit prior consent.
6 Id. §§4052–4052.5, 4057. Nonpublic personal information under CFIPA is defined 7 broadly to include any nonpublic personal financial information about the consumer 8 that the Bank obtains from any source, including from the consumer, from 9 transacting with the consumer, or from performing a service for the consumer. Id.
10 §4052(a). Throughout the Class Period, the Bank violated the CFIPA because it 11 disclosed Plaintiffs' and Class Members' nonpublic personal information to third 12 parties without Plaintiffs' and Class Members' prior consent. As a result of the 13 Bank's violations, their nonpublic personal information fell into criminal hands, 14 depriving Plaintiffs and Class Members of the EDD benefits to which they were 15 lawfully entitled.

16 583. As a result of Bank of America's violations of the UCL, Plaintiffs and 17 Class Members have suffered injury in fact and lost money or property, including 18 but not limited to the funds lost to fraud that have not been reimbursed, the lost time 19 value of money not timely reimbursed by Bank of America, fees paid to Bank of 20 America, and lost interest that would have accrued on funds during the period of 21 time when the funds were unavailable due to Bank of America's failure to timely 22 and adequately investigate claims of unauthorized transactions and other violations 23 of the UCL.

24 584. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Class and applicable
25 Subclasses, seek restitution, disgorgement, and other equitable relief, including 26 injunctive relief (a) prohibiting the Bank from continuing its unfair and unlawful 27 business practices, and (b) requiring the Bank to take reasonable measures to 28 prevent future unauthorized use of EDD Debit Cards and Accounts, and

NEGLIGENCE AND NEGLIGENCE PER SE

(Brought by Class Representative Plaintiffs and Individual Plaintiffs in the Abarr, Alvarez, Brotman, Meza, Morrell, Payton, Robinson, Rojas de Charolet, Talia, and Verdun Actions)

585. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each and every allegation set forth above, as though fully set forth here.

586. Plaintiffs and Bank of America have a special relationship that gives rise to the Bank's duties to Plaintiffs and Class Members to act reasonably to: (a) safeguard their UI and other EDD benefits; (b) protect their Cards and Accounts from fraudulent access by unauthorized third parties, including by employing reasonable practices and procedures to protect the confidentiality and security of their Cardholder Information and by employing reasonable practices and procedures to monitor for, detect, stop, and promptly notify Cardholders about suspicious transactions involving their Cards and Accounts; (c) provide them reasonable and adequate notice that their EDD Debit Cards and Accounts were at risk of being subject to unauthorized use or had been subjected to unauthorized use; (d) protect them from unreasonable interference with their right and ability to continue to collect, receive, and access the EDD benefits to which they were entitled; (e) ensure that the Bank's customer service staffing levels, technology, and <sup>35</sup> The Court dismissed with leave to amend Plaintiffs' Negligence Per Se claim only to the extent it rests upon allegations that the Bank violated the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act ("GLBA"), the California Financial Information Privacy Act ("CFIPA"), and the California Customer Records Act ("CCRA"). Order at 43. Plaintiffs have amended the Negligence Per Se allegations that rest upon the Bank's violations of the GLBA. See infra ¶589. Plaintiffs are unable at this time to amend based on violations of the CFIPA or the CCRA.

1 operations were capable of providing Plaintiffs and Class Members reasonably 2 timely and effective customer service, including to address those customers' 3 concerns about fraudulent or unauthorized transactions related to their EDD Debit 4 Cards or Accounts; (f) timely and adequately investigate and resolve Plaintiffs' and 5 Class Members' claims regarding unauthorized or fraudulent transactions; and 6 (g) extend to Plaintiffs and Class Members provisional credit in cases where the 7 Bank failed to timely resolve their fraud-related claims.

8         587. Bank of America breached its duty to Plaintiffs and Class Members 9 by, among other things: (a) failing to maintain, store, share, transmit, or otherwise 10 use their personal information (as defined under the CCPA) and Cardholder 11 Information in a secure manner; (b) failing to issue them EDD Debit Cards with 12 EMV chips, despite having been well aware for years of the risks associated with 13 magnetic stripe technology; (c) failing to protect their Accounts from fraudulent 14 access by unauthorized third parties; (d) failing to employ reasonable practices and 15 procedures to monitor for, detect, stop, and promptly notify them about suspicious 16 transactions involving their Cards and Accounts, including but not limited to 17 transactions that were highly suspicious because they were made during the 18 pandemic at a significant distance from where the Plaintiff or Class Member 19 resided, were made close in time but geographically far apart, or were significantly
20 inconsistent with the Plaintiff or Class Member's Card and Account transaction 21 history and past Account access behaviors; (e) failing to give them reasonable and 22 adequate notice that their EDD benefits were and remain at risk of being vulnerable 23 to fraudulent and unauthorized transactions; (f) failing to respond to the dramatic 24 increase in EDD benefits and EDD benefits recipients caused by or related to the 25 COVID-19 pandemic by issuing EDD Debit Cards with EMV chips to all new and 26 existing EDD Debit Cardholders and by taking other reasonably prudent security 27 measures to prevent fraudulent and unauthorized transactions; (g) failing to ensure 28 its customer service operation was capable of providing reasonably timely and 1 effective assistance to Plaintiffs and Class Members, including when they were 2 victims of fraudulent or unauthorized transactions; (h) failing to process Plaintiffs'

3 and Class Members' claims regarding fraudulent or unauthorized transactions in a 4 reasonably timely and adequate manner, including by unreasonably automatically 5 freezing EDD Debit Card Accounts without prior notice, reasonable investigation, 6 or an opportunity to be heard; and (i) failing to extend provisional credit to Plaintiffs 7 and Class Members when Bank of America failed to resolve their claims regarding 8 fraudulent or unauthorized transactions in a reasonably timely and adequate 9 manner. Bank of America's misconduct was intended to adversely affect Plaintiffs 10 and Class Members, who rely on Bank of America to access their UI and other EDD 11 benefits through their EDD Debit Cardholder Accounts managed exclusively by 12 Bank of America.

13 588. Bank of America's misconduct concerning its failure to safeguard 14 EDD Debit Cardholders' funds is contrary to industry standards, which include 15 prescribing use of EMV chip technology in debit cards, as well as its own policies 16 and procedures for its non-EDD debit and credit cards and accounts, each of which 17 are secured through EMV chip technology.

18 589. Bank of America's misconduct concerning its failure to adequately 19 protect Plaintiffs' and Class Members' data also violates, as set forth in more detail, 20 its obligations under the California Consumer Privacy Act, Cal. Civ. Code 21 §§1798.100 et seq.; the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, 15 U.S.C. §§6801 et seq.; the 22 California Financial Information Privacy Act, Cal. Fin. Code §§4050 et seq.; and 23 the California Consumer Records Act, Cal. Civ. Code §§1798.80 et seq. Plaintiffs 24 and Class Members are within the classes of persons that each of these statutes are 25 designed to protect, and Bank of America's conduct caused the precise harm to 26 Plaintiffs and Class Members that each of these statutes was designed to prevent.
27 As to the GLBA in particular:
28

1           a.     Section 501 of the GLBA imposes on every covered financial 2 institution, including the Bank, “an affirmative and continuing obligation to respect 3 the privacy of its customers and to protect the security and confidentiality of those 4 customers’ nonpublic personal information,” and requires that various federal 5 agencies and authorities establish appropriate standards that covered financial 6 institutions must follow to fulfill their statutory obligation. 15 U.S.C. §6801. To 7 implement section 501’s mandate, the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) 8 promulgated the Safeguards Rule. 16 C.F.R. §§314.3, 314.4. The Bank is subject to 9 the GLBA because it is a financial institution as defined under 15 U.S.C.
10 §6809(3)(A), and it is subject to the Safeguards Rule because it is a financial 11 institution that handles and maintains nonpublic personal information as defined 12 under 16 C.F.R. §313.3(n), including Plaintiffs’ and Class Members’ nonpublic 13 personal information.

14           b.     The Safeguards Rule requires that the Bank and other covered 15 financial institutions protect the security, confidentiality, and integrity of customer 16 information by developing, implementing, and maintaining a written, 17 comprehensive information security program that establishes administrative, 18 technical, and physical safeguards that are appropriate to the financial institution’s 19 size and complexity, the nature and scope of its activities, and the sensitivity of the 20 customer information at issue, including by: (i) identifying reasonably foreseeable 21 internal and external risks to the security, confidentiality, and integrity of customer 22 information; (ii) assessing the sufficiency of any safeguards in place to control those 23 risks; (iii) designing and implementing information safeguards to control and 24 minimize the risks identified through risk assessment; (iv) regularly testing or 25 otherwise monitoring the effectiveness of the safeguards’ key controls, systems, 26 and procedures; (v) overseeing the financial institution’s service providers by taking 27 reasonable steps to select and retain service providers that will maintain appropriate 28 safeguards for customer information, and by requiring those service providers, by 1 contract, to maintain and implement such safeguards; and (vi) evaluating and 2 adjusting the financial institution's information security program to incorporate the 3 results of the institution's testing and monitoring activities, any changes to the 4 financial institution's business operation, and other relevant circumstances. 16

5 C.F.R. §§314.3, 314.4.

6 c. Throughout the class period, the Bank has repeatedly and 7 consistently violated the Safeguards Rule with respect to Plaintiffs' and Class 8 Members' nonpublic personal information by, among other things: (i) failing to 9 issue industry standard EMV-chipped credit cards to EDD Debit Cardholders, 10 including Plaintiffs and Class Members (see supra ¶¶59–69); and (ii) selecting and 11 retaining subcontractors to carry out its customer service obligations without taking 12 reasonable steps to ensure that those subcontractors performed background checks 13 on their employees, and were adequately maintaining the security of customers' 14 nonpublic personal information (see supra ¶55; see also infra ¶¶596–598).

15 d. The Bank's actions and inactions alleged herein have violated 16 the provisions of the Safeguards Rule that require the Bank and other covered 17 financial institutions to “[b]ase [their] information security programs on a risk 18 assessment that identifies reasonably foreseeable internal and external risks”—in 19 particular, the reasonably foreseeable and anticipated risks associated with issuing 20 debit cards without industry standard security protection and with entrusting 21 customers' nonpublic personal information to companies that did not perform 22 background checks or utilize appropriate security practices and technologies. 16
23 C.F.R. §314.4(b).

24 e. The Bank's actions and inactions as alleged herein, including its 25 failure to ensure that its contractors, subcontractors, and all others acting under its 26 direction and control adequately protect its customers' nonpublic personal 27 information, further violated the provisions of the Safeguards Rule requiring the 28 Bank to (i) “[o]versee service providers, by . . . [t]aking reasonable steps to select

1 and retain service providers that are capable of maintaining appropriate safeguards 2 for the customer information at issue,” 16 C.F.R. §314.4(f)(1); and 3 (ii) “[i]mplement policies and procedures to ensure that personnel are able to enact 4 your information security program by: (1) Providing your personnel with security 5 awareness training that is updated as necessary to reflect risks identified by the risk 6 assessment; (2) Utilizing qualified information security personnel employed by you 7 or an affiliate or service provider sufficient to manage your information security 8 risks and to perform or oversee the information security program; (3) Providing 9 information security personnel with security updates and training sufficient to 10 address relevant security risks; and (4) Verifying that key information security 11 personnel take steps to maintain current knowledge of changing information 12 security threats and countermeasures,” id. §314.4(e).

13           f. The Bank’s actions and inactions alleged herein further violated 14 its “continuing obligation” under the GLBA to protect the privacy of its customers 15 by failing to monitor and to update the efficacy of its information security programs 16 in the wake of the significant and rampant security breaches of which it was aware 17 and should have been aware. The Safeguards Rule specifically requires the Bank to 18 (i) “periodically perform additional risk assessments that reexamine the reasonably 19 foreseeable internal and external risks to the security, confidentiality, and integrity 20 of customer information that could result in the authorized disclosure . . . or other 21 compromise of such information, and reassess the sufficiency of any safeguards in 22 place,” 16 C.F.R. §314.4(b)(2); (ii) “[i]mplement policies and procedures and 23 controls designed to monitor and log the activity of authorized users and detect 24 unauthorized access or use of, or tampering with, customer information by such 25 users,” id. §314.4(c)(8); (iii) “[r]egularly test or otherwise monitor the effectiveness 26 of the safeguards’ key controls, systems, and procedures,” id. §314.4(d)(1); and 27 (iv) “[o]versee service providers by . . . [p]eriodically assessing your service 28 providers based on the risk they present and the continued adequacy of their

1 safeguards, id. §314.4(f)(3). For the reasons alleged herein, the Bank failed to 2 comply with those regulatory requirements as well.

3 g. The Bank has been on notice since at least October 2020, and 4 likely before October 2020, that its existing information security programs were 5 inadequate to protect against the wave of security breaches that affected and caused 6 economic and other harms to EDD recipients. See supra ¶¶52–69, 77–105. Despite 7 the Bank’s statutory and regulatory obligations under the GLBA and Safeguards 8 Rule to monitor and to update its security policies based on new information, the 9 Bank failed to adequately and materially modify its practices as necessary to 10 comply with those obligations.

11 590. Bank of America’s failure to comply with the California Consumer 12 Privacy Act, the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the California Financial Information 13 Privacy Act, and the California Consumer Records Act constitutes negligence 14 per se.

15 591. The harms inflicted upon Plaintiffs and other Class Members were 16 reasonably foreseeable because the Bank was and is well aware of the security risks 17 associated with magnetic stripe technology, and knew or should have known that 18 its customer service resources and/or procedures were insufficient to consider, 19 evaluate, and appropriately resolve issues stemming from the significant increase 20 in EDD benefits and EDD benefits recipients due to the sharp rise in unemployment 21 in the State of California caused by or related to the COVID-19 pandemic, as well 22 as the sharp, well-publicized rise in financial fraud during the COVID-19 pandemic, 23 both of which would foreseeably lead to an increased demand for customer service 24 by Plaintiffs and Class Members for all purposes, including for the purposes of 25 reporting and attempting to resolve claims of fraudulent or unauthorized 26 transactions. It was a near certainty, which the Bank knew or should have known, 27 that Plaintiffs and Class Members would suffer significant and irreparable harm as 28 a result of the Bank’s morally blameworthy actions that caused tens of thousands

1 of unemployed Californians to lose access to past, present, and future EDD benefits 2 for which they had been found eligible and on which they relied for their survival 3 during the pandemic.

4 592. As a direct and proximate result of Bank of America's misconduct, 5 Plaintiffs and Class Members have been deprived of their EDD benefits and have 6 failed to receive accrued interest thereon.

7 593. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Class and applicable
8 Subclasses, seek declaratory and injunctive relief and damages and interest thereon.

9 SIXTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

10 NEGLIGENT HIRING, SUPERVISION, AND RETENTION

11 (Brought by Class Representative Plaintiffs and Individual Plaintiffs in the 12 Alvarez, Rojas de Charolet, and Verdun Actions)

13 594. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each and every allegation 14 set forth above, as though fully set forth here.

15 595. Bank of America hired various subcontractors, including but not 16 limited to TTEC Holdings, Inc. ("TTEC"), to provide customer service, call center 17 operations, and other services for the Bank and to perform various functions and 18 services under the terms of the EDD-Bank Contract. These subcontractors and their 19 employees and agents, including Customer Service Representatives, have access to 20 highly sensitive and confidential EDD Debit Cardholder Information, including 21 Plaintiffs' and Class Members' personally identifiable information, Card and 22 Account data, and other financial data and information.

23 596. Acting as the Bank's agent, TTEC negligently hired hundreds if not 24 thousands of employees en masse to perform services for the Bank without ever 25 conducting a background check on these individuals. Bank of America granted 26 these unvetted agents access to EDD Debit Cardholders' highly sensitive and 27 confidential Cardholder Information, and further failed to take reasonable steps to 28 secure Cardholder Information from unnecessary or unauthorized access,

1 disclosure, and exfiltration, including by its subcontractors' agents and employees.
2 Neither Bank of America itself nor TTEC provided proper training or supervision 3 to these agents regarding handling and maintaining the confidentiality of 4 Cardholder Information.

5 597. Given the Bank's and TTEC's failure to conduct background checks 6 or to take other reasonable security measures in hiring employees en masse to serve 7 as Bank of America Customer Service Representatives and other Bank agents, it 8 was reasonably foreseeable that such unvetted agents would compromise the 9 security of Plaintiffs' and Class Members' confidential Cardholder Information.

10 598. Bank of America's and its subcontractors' negligent hiring, training, 11 supervision, and retention of Customer Service Representatives and other agents 12 who have access to highly confidential Cardholder Information harmed and 13 continues to harm Plaintiffs and Class Members by subjecting them to unreasonable 14 risk of fraud and exfiltration of their Cardholder Information and enabled a series 15 of internal data breaches committed by TTEC employees within the scope of their 16 employment, which harmed the Class Members whose information was 17 compromised.

18 599. Under the terms of the EDD-Bank Contract, Bank of America is 19 required to track and report all incidents or security breach exposures of confidential 20 information that may have compromised an EDD Debit Cardholder's confidential 21 Cardholder Information or the integrity and secure delivery of EDD benefits to the 22 Cardholder. Bank of America thus knew or should have known that TTEC was or 23 became unfit or incompetent to perform the work for which it was hired, including 24 as a result of its negligent hiring, training, supervision, and retention of agents with 25 access to confidential Cardholder Information, yet Bank of America continued to 26 retain TTEC as a subcontractor to perform services under the EDD-Bank Contract.

27 600. TTEC at all relevant times has been the actual, apparent, and ostensible 28 agent of Bank of America, who has ratified TTEC's actions.

601. As a direct and proximate result of Bank of America's and its agents' misconduct, Plaintiffs and Class Members have been deprived of their EDD benefits and have failed to receive accrued interest thereon.

602. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Class and applicable Subclasses, seek declaratory and injunctive relief and damages and interest thereon.

SEVENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF<sup>36</sup>

BREACH OF CONTRACT

(Brought by Class Representative Plaintiffs and Individual Plaintiffs in the Abarr, Brotman, Meza, Morrell, Payton, Robinson, and Talia Actions)

603. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each and every allegation set forth above, as though fully set forth here.

604. Each Plaintiff and Class Member entered into a Cardholder Agreement with the Bank that requires the Bank to administer EDD benefits to them through prepaid debit cards.

605. The Cardholder Agreement provides, among other things: "Under the Bank of America 'zero liability' policy, you may incur no liability for unauthorized use of your Card up to the amount of the transaction, provided you notify us within a reasonable time of the loss or theft of your Card, Card number or PIN or its unauthorized use, subject to the following terms and conditions." The Cardholder Agreement further provides: "We will determine whether an error occurred within 10 business days after we hear from you — and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 days to investigate your

The Court dismissed with leave to amend the claims for breach of Sections 9 and 11 brought by all other Plaintiffs (except Class Plaintiff Stephanie Smith and Individual Plaintiffs Beth Burns and Crystal Horath), and dismissed with leave to amend all Plaintiffs' claims for breach of Section 2 of the Cardholder Agreement. See Order at 52, 53–54 (citing MCC ¶608(e), (g)–(h)). Plaintiffs are unable to amend those claims at this time.

1 complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will credit your Account within 2 10 business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the 3 money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.”

4 606. The Cardholder Agreement also provides that the Bank “will add funds 5 to your Account . . . in accordance with instructions from the EDD” and that 6 “[f]unds are available for your use on the day we have been instructed by the EDD 7 to fund your Account.” Those also limit the circumstances under which the Bank 8 may deprive EDD Debit Cardholders of access to their funds by freezing their EDD 9 Debit Card Accounts. As relevant here, the Cardholder Agreement provides that if 10 the Bank “suspect[s] irregular, unauthorized, or unlawful activities may be 11 involved” with the Account, it may freeze the Account, but only “pending an 12 investigation of such suspected activities.”

13 607. Plaintiffs and Class Members performed all or substantially all of the 14 material requirements that their Cardholder Agreement with Bank of America 15 imposed on them, and they fulfilled all conditions precedent to Bank of America’s 16 performance, including, among other things, by contacting or attempting to contact 17 Bank of America to reimburse them for fraudulently appropriated funds within the 18 time specified in the Cardholder Agreement.

19 608. Bank of America breached its promises to Plaintiffs and Class 20 Members in its Cardholder Agreement by, among other things: (a) failing to timely 21 and reasonably investigate and resolve their fraud claims; (b) failing to reimburse 22 them for unauthorized transactions; (c) failing to provide them with provisional 23 credit when the Bank’s investigation into their fraud claims exceeds 10 business 24 days; (d) failing to limit their liability for unauthorized transactions; (e) freezing or 25 blocking their EDD Debit Card Accounts without a reasonable basis for suspecting 26 irregular, unauthorized, or unlawful activities in the Account, and beyond the length 27 of time necessary for a reasonable investigation; (f) freezing or blocking their EDD 28 Debit Card Accounts for reasons other than those specified in the Cardholder

1 Agreement; (g) failing to make funds available to them for their use on the day the 2 Bank has been instructed by the EDD to fund their Accounts; and (h) otherwise 3 failing to make funds available to them in accordance with EDD's instructions.

4 609. Plaintiffs and Class Members were harmed by Bank of America's 5 conduct and have suffered actual damages in an amount equal to the difference in 6 the value of the banking services for which they provided valuable consideration 7 and the banking services they received.

8 610. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Class and applicable
9 Subclasses, seek declaratory and injunctive relief and damages and interest thereon.

11 BREACH OF IMPLIED CONTRACT

12 (Brought by Class Representative Plaintiffs and Individual Plaintiffs in the 13 Abarr, Brotman, Meza, Morrell, Payton, Robinson, and Talia Actions)

14 611. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each and every allegation 15 set forth above, as though fully set forth here.

16 612. Bank of America agreed to and was obligated to take reasonable steps 17 to ensure that Bank's EDD Debit Card Accounts were secure against unauthorized 18 transactions and that any claims regarding unauthorized transactions were 19 adequately investigated and resolved.

20 613. All parties understood that such protections and customer service 21 obligations were integral and essential to Bank of America's business.

22 614. Bank of America was obligated to provide Plaintiffs and Class 23 Members with EDD Debit Card services that were suitable for their intended 24 purpose of preserving and accessing EDD benefits as needed, rather than providing 25 debit card services that failed to take reasonable steps to safeguard their money, 26 failed to warn or notify them in the event that their EDD Debit Cards or Accounts

28 <sup>37</sup> The Court dismissed this claim with prejudice. Order at 55.

1 were at risk of unauthorized use, or failed to adequately investigate or resolve 2 claims regarding unauthorized transactions.

3 615. Bank of America did not take reasonable steps to protect Plaintiffs' 4 and Class Members' deposited funds from unauthorized transactions or to 5 adequately investigate or resolve claims regarding unauthorized transactions. In 6 fact, Bank of America willfully violated those interests by choosing to issue EDD 7 Debit Cards with cheaper, outdated magnetic stripe technology, which it knew to 8 be uniquely vulnerable to fraud, rather than using the same EMV chip technology 9 that the Bank has included in all of its consumer credit cards and debit cards for 10 more than six years, for the express purpose of protecting against fraud.

11 616. Because Bank of America failed to take reasonable steps to protect 12 EDD Debit Cardholders' funds from being appropriated through unauthorized 13 transactions and failed to take reasonable steps to timely or adequately respond to 14 claims regarding unauthorized transactions, Bank of America breached its implied 15 contracts with Plaintiffs and Class Members.

16 617. Bank of America's failure to fulfill its obligations to take reasonable 17 steps to protect its EDD Debit Cardholders' funds from being appropriated through 18 unauthorized transactions, and its failure to take reasonable steps to timely or 19 adequately respond to claims regarding unauthorized transactions resulted in 20 Plaintiffs and Class Members receiving banking services that were of less value 21 than they provided consideration for.

BREACH OF IMPLIED COVENANT OF GOOD FAITH AND FAIR DEALING

(Brought by Class Representative Plaintiffs and Individual Plaintiffs in the Abarr, Brotman, Meza, Morrell, Payton, Robinson, and Talia Actions)

619. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each and every allegation set forth above, as though fully set forth here.

620. There is a covenant of good faith and fair dealing implied in every contract and every implied contract. This implied covenant requires each contracting party to refrain from doing anything to injure the right of the other to receive the benefits of the agreement. To fulfill its covenant, a party must give at least as much consideration to the interests of the other party as it gives to its own interests.

621. The covenant of good faith and fair dealing implied in the Bank's Cardholder Agreement with Plaintiffs and Class Members obligated the Bank, at a minimum:

a. to take reasonable and necessary steps to safeguard Plaintiffs' and Class Members' EDD benefits, including in light of the foreseeable and actual rise in the number of EDD Debit Cardholders and the amount of financial fraud caused by or related to the COVID-19 pandemic;

b. to ensure that its customer service operation was capable of providing reasonably adequate and effective assistance to EDD Debit Cardholders who experienced or claimed to have experienced fraud on their EDD Debit Cards or Accounts, particularly given that the Cardholder Agreement (i) provides, among other things, that "Regulation E . . . covers accounts that involve the use of a Card"

<sup>38</sup> The Court dismissed this claim with leave to amend only to the extent it rests on the security of debit cards or the adequacy of the customer service. Order at 57–58. 4 transactions," EDD Debit Cardholders should telephone the Bank at the telephone

20 f. to freeze or block EDD Debit Card Accounts only to protect 21 them from third-party fraud and only for the period necessary to conduct a 22 reasonable investigation into whether third-party fraud occurred;

23 g. to make EDD benefits deposited into EDD Debit Card Accounts 24 immediately available to Cardholders and not to freeze or block Accounts without 25 a reasonable basis for believing that the Cardholders themselves have committed 26 fraud; and

27 h. to not freeze or block Accounts out of concern for the Bank's 28 own potential liability for third-party fraud.

622. Bank of America breached the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing by, among other things:

a. failing to take reasonable and necessary steps to safeguard Plaintiffs' and Class Members' EDD benefits, including but not limited to (i) failing to issue EDD Debit Cards with EMV chip technology, (ii) failing to employ reasonable practices and procedures to secure Plaintiffs' and Class Members' Cardholder Information and other sensitive personal information that could be used by third parties to effect unauthorized transactions, (iii) failing to employ reasonable practices and procedures to monitor for, detect, stop, and promptly notify Plaintiffs and Class Members about suspicious transactions involving their Cards and Accounts (including but not limited to transactions that were highly suspicious because they were made during the pandemic at a significant distance from where the Plaintiff or Class Member resided, were made close in time but geographically far apart, or were significantly inconsistent with the Plaintiff or Class Member's Card and Account transaction history and past Account access behaviors), and (iv) failing to promptly issue EDD Debit Cards with EMV chips and to increase its efforts with respect to securing personal information, fraud monitoring, and otherwise safeguarding benefits in light of the foreseeable and actual rise in the number of EDD Debit Cardholders and the amount of financial fraud caused by or related to the COVID-19 pandemic;

b. failing to ensure, including during the COVID-19 pandemic, that EDD Debit Cardholders could reach the Bank's customer service operations in a timely and effective manner at the telephone number(s) the Bank had provided in its Cardholder Agreements and had instructed Cardholders to call in order to report unauthorized transactions and other wrongful conduct and to otherwise seek to enforce their contractual rights and regain access to their stolen benefit funds, which the Bank owed Plaintiffs and Class Members a fiduciary duty to protect (see infra ¶¶625–636), thereby depriving EDD Debit Cardholders of the benefit of their contractual bargain (see, e.g., supra ¶¶87–88, 90, 97–105, 116–120, 128–133, 144–151, 207–213, 217–222, 231–234);

c. failing to warn or notify EDD Debit Cardholders that their EDD benefits were and remain subject to, or at risk of being subject to, actual or suspected unauthorized use;

d. failing to timely or adequately process and investigate EDD Debit Cardholders' claims regarding unauthorized transactions;

e. failing to extend provisional credit in cases where EDD Debit Cardholders' fraud claims are not timely resolved;

f. freezing or blocking EDD Debit Card Accounts without a reasonable basis for believing that the Cardholders themselves had committed fraud, and for longer than it would reasonably take to investigate any such belief;

g. failing to provide EDD Debit Cardholders any reasonable means of contesting the Bank's purported basis for freezing their EDD Debit Card Accounts or for otherwise getting their Accounts unfrozen; and

h. freezing or blocking EDD Debit Card Accounts not to protect the Cardholders, but rather to protect the Bank itself, from liability for third-party fraud.

623. As a direct and proximate result of Bank of America's breaches of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, Plaintiffs and Class Members have suffered actual losses and damages.

624. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Class and applicable Subclasses, seek declaratory and injunctive relief and damages and interest thereon.

TENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

(Brought by Class Representative Plaintiffs and Individual Plaintiffs in the Abarr, Brotman, Meza, Morrell, Payton, and Robinson Actions)

625. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each and every allegation set forth above, as though fully set forth here.

626. Bank of America knows and at all relevant times has known that Plaintiffs and Class Members, as public benefits recipients, are members of a uniquely vulnerable segment of the population, who depend on the prompt and accurate payment of the unemployment benefits and other EDD benefits to obtain their basic necessities of life, including food and shelter.

627. When Plaintiffs and Class Members submitted their claims for unemployment and other EDD benefits to EDD and were found eligible to receive those benefits, they were not given the choice of receiving those benefits through debit cards issued by any financial institution other than Bank of America. Bank of America holds the exclusive contract to implement and administer EDD's public benefits programs and is the only financial institution authorized to pay EDD benefits to program beneficiaries through the use of prepaid debit cards.

628. In order to obtain the Bank-issued EDD Debit Cards needed to access their EDD Debit Card Accounts, which is the default way of receiving EDD benefits, Plaintiffs and Class Members were required to provide the Bank with private and confidential personal and financial information, including information pertaining to their income, public benefits, employment status, finances, social security numbers, addresses, emails, telephone numbers, and all debit card account information.

629. The Bank, in turn, was provided access to all such personal, confidential, and financial information from Plaintiffs and Class Members, which the Bank stored and maintained, purportedly in confidence, and which the Bank

1 was required to strictly maintain in confidence without public access or other 2 disclosure absent the EDD Debit Cardholders' written consent. The Bank was also 3 delegated the responsibility and authority to determine when, why, and how to deny 4 Plaintiffs and Class Members access to EDD benefits to which they are entitled by 5 freezing EDD Debit Card Accounts.

6 630. Plaintiffs and Class Members, as EDD benefits recipients who did not 7 opt out of the default option of receiving their EDD benefits payments through EDD 8 Debit Cards, were repeatedly assured that a EDD Debit Card was a "[f]aster, easier 9 and more secure" way to receive their benefit payments and that the EDD Debit 10 Cards and Accounts were secure from fraud. They reposed their trust and 11 confidence in the Bank at all material times, including with respect to all of their 12 personal, confidential, and financial information and with respect to the Bank's 13 ongoing maintenance of that information in confidence, without secretion or 14 divulgence absent Plaintiffs' and Class Members' express written consent.
15 Plaintiffs and Class Members entered into a contractual relationship with Bank of 16 America solely to secure their peace of mind in accessing the subsistence EDD 17 benefits to which they had been found eligible and on which they relied to pay for 18 housing, food, and other daily necessities.

19 631. Bank of America owes and continues to owe a fiduciary duty to 20 Plaintiffs and Class Members. By virtue of its unequal bargaining power and its 21 position as the financial institution charged with implementing EDD benefits 22 programs, which gave the Bank delegated authority to determine when, why, and 23 how to deny Plaintiffs and Class Members access to EDD benefits to which they 24 are entitled by freezing EDD Debit Card Accounts, as well as unbridled access to 25 Plaintiffs' and Class Members' personal, confidential, and financial information, 26 and because of the Bank's superior knowledge, business responsibilities and 27 duties—including those provided by law or statute—and its absolute ability to 28 control or otherwise manipulate Plaintiffs' and Class Members' EDD Debit Card

1 Account data in its system, the Bank assumed a fiduciary duty to Plaintiffs and 2 Class Members not to deny them access to their Account funds without reasonable 3 basis, and to secure and maintain the personal, confidential, and financial 4 information that it received from Plaintiffs and Class Members, free from 5 unauthorized intrusion, theft, or other disclosure.

6 632. As a result of this relationship of trust and confidence, the unique 7 nature of the EDD Debit Card Accounts that contain only EDD benefits, and the 8 highly confidential nature of the records and data pertaining to Plaintiffs' and Class 9 Members' EDD Debit Cards Accounts, and the Bank's duties to maintain the 10 privacy of such information, the Bank owed Plaintiffs and Class Members the 11 highest degree of loyalty, honesty, fidelity, trust, and due care in its fiduciary 12 obligations with respect to ensuring legitimate benefits recipients are not denied 13 access to their Account funds, and with respect to securing and maintaining the 14 privacy of their personal, confidential, and financial data in the Bank's possession.
15 In order to comply with such duty, the Bank was required to use its utmost ability 16 to ensure that legitimate benefits recipients are not denied access to their Account 17 funds, and to protect, preserve, and secure Plaintiffs' and Class Members' private 18 data and confidential information from unauthorized access, fraud, or theft and to 19 take all necessary steps in order to do so, including encrypting such information and 20 deploying sufficient data access security controls, EMV chips, and other measures, 21 to frustrate and disable hackers, skimmers, cloners, or others from accessing such 22 information for their personal profit or unlawful goals.

23 633. Based on the acts or omissions alleged above, Bank of America 24 breached its fiduciary duties to Plaintiffs and Class Members by failing to take all 25 adequate and necessary steps to ensure legitimate benefits recipients are not denied 26 access to their Account funds without reasonable basis, and to preserve, secure, and 27 maintain the confidentiality and privacy of their EDD Debit Cards and Accounts 28 and their personal, confidential, and financial information. The Bank independently

1 breached its fiduciary duties to Plaintiffs and Class Members by failing to timely, 2 fully, and adequately disclose that it had not taken the necessary steps to protect 3 such information from unauthorized or fraudulent access and theft and that such 4 information was at a heightened risk of breach by virtue of the Bank's data security 5 failings and policies. The Bank also independently breached its fiduciary duties to 6 Plaintiffs and Class Members by failing to timely, fully, and adequately disclose 7 that it had not taken the necessary steps to monitor for, detect, stop, and promptly 8 notify Plaintiffs and Class Members about suspicious transactions involving their 9 Cards and Accounts.

10 634. Bank of America recklessly or knowingly breached its fiduciary duty 11 and consciously denied legitimate EDD benefits recipients' access to their EDD 12 Debit Card Account funds without reasonable basis, and it created an environment 13 that made its data systems and Plaintiffs' and Class Members' EDD Debit Card 14 Accounts and their access to EDD benefits prey to criminal hackers and thieves.
15 Alternatively, and without prejudice to the foregoing, the Bank also breached its 16 fiduciary duty by placing its own desire to achieve greater profits ahead of the 17 financial security, privacy, and data security interests of Plaintiffs and Class 18 Members.

19 635. As a direct and proximate result of the Bank's violations of its 20 fiduciary duty, Plaintiffs and Class Members have been injured and have suffered 21 and will continue to suffer economic and non-economic losses in an amount to be 22 determined according to proof at trial, and a constructive trust has been formed in 23 which the Bank is an involuntary trustee for the benefit of Plaintiffs and Class 24 Members concerning the Account funds that Plaintiffs and Class Members have lost 25 or been unable to access.

26 636. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Class and applicable
27 Subclasses, seek declaratory and injunctive relief and damages and interest thereon.

ELEVENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF<sup>39</sup>

BREACH OF CONTRACT (THIRD-PARTY BENEFICIARIES)

(Brought by Class Representative Plaintiffs and Individual Plaintiffs in the Abarr, Brotman, Meza, Morrell, Payton, Robinson, and Talia Actions)

637. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each and every allegation set forth above, as though fully set forth here.

638. Bank of America and the State of California EDD entered into the EDD–Bank Contract, which is a valid and legally enforceable contract that requires Bank of America to administer EDD benefits to Plaintiffs and Class Members through EDD Debit Cards and Accounts.

639. In seeking to obtain the EDD–Bank Contract and as a material term of that contract, the Bank represented to EDD that the Bank would protect the EDD benefits deposited into EDD Debit Card Accounts by implementing strict and secure anti-fraud measures, and that it would provide reasonable and adequate customer service to EDD Debit Cardholders sufficient to ensure that any claims of fraud would be promptly considered, fully and fairly investigated, and timely resolved without hardship or cost to blameless Cardholders, including Plaintiffs and Class Members.

640. As EDD benefits recipients and EDD Debit Cardholders, Plaintiffs and Class Members are intended third-party beneficiaries of the EDD–Bank Contract. Plaintiffs and Class Members would benefit from performance of the contract, providing that benefit was a motivating purpose of the contracting parties entering into the contract, and permitting Plaintiffs and Class Members to pursue a claim for breach of the contract seeking specific performance is consistent with the contract’s objectives and the reasonable expectations of the contracting parties at the time of contracting.

1           641. Plaintiff, Class Members, and the EDD performed all or substantially 2 all of the material conditions imposed on them by the EDD–Bank Contract and 3 fulfilled any and all conditions precedent to Bank of America’s performance.

4           642. Bank of America failed to perform as promised in the EDD– Bank 5 Contract by, among other things: (a) failing to take adequate steps to prevent fraud 6 on EDD Debit Cards and Accounts, including but not limited to failing to issue 7 EDD Debit Cards that incorporate EMV chip technology and failing to employ 8 reasonable practices and procedures to monitor for, detect, stop, and promptly 9 notify Cardholders about suspicious transactions involving their Cards and 10 Accounts (including but not limited to transactions that were highly suspicious 11 because they were made during the pandemic at a significant distance from where 12 the Cardholder resided, were made close in time but geographically far apart, or 13 were significantly inconsistent with the Cardholder’s Card and Account transaction 14 history and past Account access behaviors); (b) failing to timely perform good-faith 15 investigations of unauthorized transactions involving EDD Debit Cards and 16 Accounts; (c) failing to timely resolve claims of unauthorized transactions 17 involving EDD Debit Cards and Accounts, including failing to have a reasonable 18 basis for its determinations that challenged transactions were in fact authorized by 19 the relevant EDD Debit Cardholder; (d) failing to timely reimburse Plaintiffs and 20 Class Members for unauthorized transactions on their EDD Debit Cards and 21 Accounts; (e) failing to timely provide provisional credit to Plaintiffs and Class 22 Members when the Bank’s investigation of fraud claims exceeds 10 business days; 23 (f) failing to provide EDD Debit Cardholders with the kinds, levels, amount, and 24 quality of customer service specified in the EDD–Bank Contract; and (g) failing to 25 make commercially reasonable efforts in the context of the COVID-19 pandemic to 26 provide the kinds, levels, amount, and quality of customer service to EDD Debit 27 Cardholders that reasonably should have been provided to them in the context of 28 the COVID-19 pandemic.

643. Plaintiffs and Class Members were harmed by Bank of America's conduct in breaching the EDD-Bank Contract and have suffered actual damages in an amount equal to the difference in the value of the banking services that EDD Debit Cardholders were contractually entitled to receive and the value of banking services that EDD Debit Cardholders actually received.

644. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Class and applicable Subclasses, seek declaratory and injunctive relief and damages and interest thereon.

TWELFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF<sup>40</sup>

(THIRD-PARTY BENEFICIARIES)

(Brought by Class Representative Plaintiffs and Individual Plaintiffs in the Abarr, Brotman, Meza, Morrell, Payton, and Robinson Actions)

645. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each and every allegation set forth above, as though fully set forth here.

646. There is a covenant of good faith and fair dealing implied in every contract and every implied contract. This implied covenant requires each contracting party to refrain from doing anything to injure the right of the other party or intended third-party beneficiaries to receive the benefits of the agreement. To fulfill its covenant, a party must give at least as much consideration to the interests of the other party as it gives to its own interests.

647. The covenant of good faith and fair dealing implied in the EDD-Bank Contract obligated the Bank, at a minimum: (a) to take reasonable and necessary steps to safeguard Plaintiffs' and Class Members' EDD benefits, including in light of the foreseeable and actual rise in the number of EDD Debit Cardholders and the amount of financial fraud caused by or related to the COVID-19 pandemic; (b) to ensure that its customer service operation was capable of providing reasonably adequate and effective assistance to EDD Debit Cardholders who experienced or claimed to have experienced fraud on their EDD Debit Cards or Accounts; (c) to warn or notify Plaintiffs and Class Members if their EDD benefit funds were subject to, or at risk of being subject to, actual or suspected unauthorized use; (d) to timely and adequately investigate and resolve claims of unauthorized transactions involving Plaintiffs' and Class Members' EDD Debit Cards or Accounts; (e) to extend provisional credit to Plaintiffs and Class Members in cases where their fraud claims are not timely resolved; (f) to freeze or block EDD Debit Card Accounts only to protect them from third-party fraud and only for the period necessary to conduct a reasonable investigation into whether third-party fraud occurred; (g) to make EDD benefits deposited into EDD Debit Card Accounts immediately available to Cardholders and not to freeze Accounts without a reasonable basis for believing that the Cardholders themselves have committed fraud; and (h) to not freeze or block Accounts out of concern for the Bank's own potential liability for third-party fraud.

648. Bank of America breached the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing by, among other things: (a) failing to take reasonable and necessary steps to safeguard Plaintiffs' and Class Members' EDD benefits, including but not limited to (i) failing to issue EDD Debit Cards with EMV chip technology, (ii) failing to employ reasonable practices and procedures to secure Plaintiffs' and Class Members' Cardholder Information and other sensitive personal information that could be used by third parties to effect unauthorized transactions, (iii) failing to employ reasonable practices and procedures to monitor for, detect, stop, and promptly notify Plaintiffs and Class Members about suspicious transactions involving their Cards and Accounts (including but not limited to transactions that were highly suspicious because they were made during the pandemic at a significant distance from where the Plaintiff or Class Member resided, were made close in time but geographically far apart, or were significantly inconsistent with the Plaintiff or

1 Class Member's Card and Account transaction history and past Account access
2 behaviors), and (iv) failing to promptly issue EDD Debit Cards with EMV chips 3 and to increase its efforts with respect to securing personal information, fraud 4 monitoring, and otherwise safeguarding benefits in light of the foreseeable and 5 actual rise in the number of EDD Debit Cardholders and the amount of financial 6 fraud caused by or related to the COVID-19 pandemic; (b) failing to ensure its 7 customer service operation was capable of providing effective assistance to EDD 8 Debit Cardholders who experience fraud on their EDD Debit Card or Account, 9 including during the COVID-19 pandemic; (c) failing to warn or notify EDD Debit 10 Cardholders that their EDD benefits were and remain subject to, or at risk of being 11 subject to, actual or suspected unauthorized use; (d) failing to timely or adequately 12 process and investigate EDD Debit Cardholders' claims regarding unauthorized 13 transactions; (e) failing to extend provisional credit in cases where EDD Debit 14 Cardholders' fraud claims are not timely resolved; (f) freezing or blocking EDD 15 Debit Card Accounts without a reasonable basis for believing that the Cardholders 16 themselves had committed fraud, and for longer than it would reasonably take to 17 investigate any such belief, (g) failing to provide EDD Debit Cardholders any 18 reasonable means of contesting the Bank's purported basis for freezing their EDD 19 Debit Card Accounts or for otherwise getting their Accounts unfrozen; and (h) 20 freezing or blocking EDD Debit Card Accounts not to protect the Cardholders, but 21 rather to protect the Bank itself, from liability for third-party fraud.

22 649. As a direct and proximate result of Bank of America's breaches of the 23 implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, Plaintiffs and other Class Members 24 have suffered actual losses and damages.

25 650. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Class and applicable
26 Subclasses, seek declaratory and injunctive relief and damages and interest thereon.

THIRTEENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

VIOLATIONS OF FEDERAL DUE PROCESS UNDER THE 14TH AMENDMENT

42 U.S.C. §1983

(Brought by Class Representative Plaintiffs and Individual Plaintiffs in the Abarr, Brotman, Meza, Morrell, Payton, and Robinson Actions)

651. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each and every allegation set forth above, as though fully set forth here.

652. The Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendments prohibits any state actor from “depriv[ing] any person of . . . property, without due process of law.” U.S. Const. amend. XIV.

653. “Every person who, under color of [law], subjects, or causes to be subjected, any . . . person . . . to the deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and laws,” is “liable to the party injured in an action as law [or] suit in equity.” 42 U.S.C. §1983.

654. For purposes of the actions alleged herein, Bank of America is a state actor and acted “under color” of law because it is engaged in a joint undertaking with the State to provide and administer UI and other EDD benefits under a mutually beneficial relationship and because it performs a function that is both traditionally and exclusively governmental.

655. Plaintiffs’ and Class Members’ unemployment benefits and other EDD benefits are constitutionally protected property interests.

656. By freezing Plaintiffs’ and Class Members’ EDD Debit Card Accounts, Bank of America (a) cuts off their access to EDD benefits already deposited to their Accounts and (b) suspends their receipt of any future EDD benefits to which they may be entitled.

657. By blocking Plaintiffs’ and Class Members’ EDD Debit Card Accounts, Bank of America cuts off their access to EDD benefits already deposited

1 to their Accounts as well as their access to any continuing EDD benefits EDD 2 subsequently deposits into their Account.

3 658. The Bank claims to have a policy and practice of notifying EDD when 4 the Bank independently freezes a Cardholder's Account without having received 5 authorization or direction from EDD to do so, and a policy and practice of 6 requesting EDD to review to review and to verify the eligibility for EDD benefits 7 of Cardholders whose Accounts the Bank has independently frozen.

8 659. The Bank performs a traditional and exclusively governmental 9 function in administering the EDD benefits payments programs as alleged herein 10 pursuant to contractual authority generally delegated to it by EDD, including when 11 it blocks or freezes Cardholder Accounts without specific authorization from EDD 12 to do so and in violation of Cardholders' rights.

13 660. Bank of America's policy and/or practice of automatically freezing or 14 blocking the Plaintiffs' and Class Members' EDD Debit Card Accounts when they 15 report unauthorized transactions without affording them any prior notice or pre-16 deprivation hearing, or any prompt and meaningful post-deprivation opportunity to 17 be heard, violates Plaintiffs' and Class Members' due process rights under the 18 Fourteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

19 661. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Class, seek an injunction
20 barring Bank of America from freezing or blocking EDD Debit Card Accounts 21 without prior notice and a pre-deprivation hearing. Plaintiffs, on behalf of 22 themselves and the applicable Subclasses, further seek the following relief:
23 (a) actual damages; (b) nominal damages; (c) restitution of all EDD benefits funds 24 improperly frozen or blocked by Bank of America; and (d) incidental and 25 consequential damages suffered due to their inability to pay bills or otherwise use 26 their unemployment funds.

FOURTEENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

VIOLATIONS OF THE CALIFORNIA DUE PROCESS CLAUSE

Cal. Const. art. I, §7(a)

(Brought by Class Representative Plaintiffs and Individual Plaintiffs in the Abarr, Brotman, Meza, Morrell, Payton, and Robinson Actions)

662. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each and every allegation set forth above, as though fully set forth here.

663. The California Constitution's due process clause provides: "A person may not be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law or denied equal protection of the laws." Cal. Const. art. I, §7(a).

664. Plaintiffs' and Class Members' EDD benefits are constitutionally protected property interests.

665. Bank of America's policy and/or practice of automatically and indefinitely freezing or blocking Plaintiffs' and Class Members' EDD Debit Card Accounts when they report unauthorized transactions without affording them any prior notice or pre-deprivation hearing, or any prompt and meaningful post-deprivation opportunity to be heard, violates Plaintiffs' and Class Members' due process rights under the California Constitution.

666. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Class, seek an injunction barring Bank of America from freezing or blocking EDD Debit Card Accounts
without prior notice and a pre-deprivation hearing. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the applicable Subclasses, further seek the following relief:
(a) actual damages; (b) nominal damages; (c) restitution of all EDD benefits funds improperly frozen or blocked by Bank of America; and (d) incidental and consequential damages suffered due to their inability to pay bills or otherwise use their unemployment funds.

VII. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs, on their own behalf and on behalf of the Class, pray for the following relief:

(1) For an order certifying the Class and Subclasses as defined above and such additional subclasses as may be appropriate, appointing Plaintiffs as representative for the Class, and appointing Plaintiffs' counsel as counsel for the Class;

(2) For declaratory and preliminary and permanent injunctive relief prohibiting Bank of America from engaging in the wrongful conduct alleged herein, including but not limited to an order making the existing Preliminary Injunction permanent and such other preliminary and permanent injunctive relief as necessary to remedy the violations alleged herein;

(3) For an award of all recoverable compensatory, statutory, and other damages sustained by Plaintiffs and the Class Members, including treble damages where authorized by law, disgorgement, unjust enrichment, restitution, a declaration that the Bank holds the Account funds in constructive trust for the benefit of Plaintiffs and the Class Members, and all other available relief under applicable law, including but not limited to accrued interest for the periods during which Plaintiffs and Class Members were deprived of funds in their EDD Debit Card Accounts due to unauthorized transactions;

(4) For an award of punitive damages pursuant to applicable law;

(5) For reasonable attorney's fees and expenses as permitted by California Code of Civil Procedure §1021.5, 42 U.S.C. §1988, and any other applicable statute or law;

(6) For taxable costs;

(7) For pre- and post-judgment interest as allowed by law; and

(8) For any other relief the Court deems just.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

JENNIFER YICK, et al.,
Plaintiffs,

v.

BANK OF AMERICA, N.A.,
Defendant.

Case No. 21-cv-00376-VC

ORDER RE PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Re: Dkt. No. 64

Because of the time-sensitivity involved, this ruling assumes that the reader is familiar with the applicable legal standards, the parties' arguments, the evidence in the record, and the discussion that took place at the preliminary injunction hearing on May 13, 2021.

1. The plaintiffs have demonstrated a strong likelihood of success on their claims that Bank of America (BoFA) has violated, and continues to violate, the Electronic Fund Transfers Act by failing to conduct an adequate, good faith investigation when cardholders report unauthorized charges, and often simply freezing cardholder accounts based on a faulty screening process. 15 U.S.C. § 1693f. This has resulted (and will likely continue to result) in the improper denial of cardholders' reimbursement claims for unauthorized charges, the unlawful deprivation of provisional credits for such charges, and the inability to access benefits to which cardholders are entitled. For similar reasons, the plaintiffs have demonstrated a strong likelihood of success on their claims that BoFA is systematically breaching its contracts with cardholders and violating California's Unfair Competition Law.

2. Provisional certification of a class of all cardholders who call to report unauthorized charges to their accounts is warranted for purposes of a preliminary injunction. See, e.g., Zepeda

Rivas v. Jennings, 445 F. Supp. 3d 36, 39 (N.D. Cal. 2020); Saravia v. Sessions, 280 F. Supp. 3d 1168, 1201-05 (N.D. Cal. 2017), affirmed as Saravia for A.H. v. Sessions, 905 F.3d 1137 (9th Cir. 2018).

3. BofA is wrong to argue that the named plaintiffs or the class are categorically barred from obtaining interim relief. There is Article III standing because many of the named plaintiffs were being injured by the conduct described in Section 1 at the time they filed their lawsuits, and some of the named plaintiffs continue to suffer injury today. Buckeye Tree Lodge v. Expedia, Inc., 2020 WL 5372246, at *2 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 9, 2020); see Friends of the Earth, Inc. v. Laidlaw Environmental Services (TOC), Inc., 528 U.S. 167, 184 (2000). And the evidence presented by BofA in response to this preliminary injunction motion does not refute the plaintiffs' strong showing that class members are likely to suffer similar violations in the future.

4. The harm being suffered by the class members is irreparable. The class is comprised of people who depend on unemployment benefits to get through the pandemic. As the plaintiffs' evidence shows, continued denial of these benefits will seriously hinder the ability of many class members to feed their families and keep a roof over their heads. Thus, although the general rule is that financial harm is not "irreparable" (because plaintiffs can generally recoup the money if they ultimately prevail), this is precisely the type of case where the exception to the general rule applies. Just as companies can establish irreparable harm by showing that losing money will likely cause them to shut down, human beings can establish irreparable harm by showing that losing wages or benefits will likely cause them to be evicted, go hungry, or be denied necessary medical care. Cf. Carrillo v. Schneider Logistics, Inc., 823 F. Supp. 2d 1040, 1045 (C.D. Cal. 2011) ("Because plaintiffs are low-wage workers, and lost wages or delays in compensation threaten or impair their ability to meet basic needs, such harms are irreparable."); see also United Steelworkers of America, AFL-CIO v. Fort Pitt Steel Casting, Division of Conval-Penn, Division of Conval Corp., 598 F.2d 1273, 1280 (3d Cir. 1979).<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> In some cases involving wages or benefits, courts have intoned the general rule about financial injury without acknowledging the exception, perhaps because the exception did not apply on

5. The balance of hardships and the public interest almost certainly support some form of preliminary injunctive relief. See, e.g., Golden Gate Restaurant Association v. City & County of San Francisco, 512 F.3d 1112, 1126 (9th Cir. 2008) (“Faced with . . . a conflict between financial concerns and preventable human suffering, we have little difficulty concluding that the balance of hardships tips decidedly’ in favor of the latter.” (quoting Lopez v. Heckler, 713 F.2d 1432, 1437 (9th Cir. 1983))). But it ultimately depends on the nature of the relief sought. At the hearing, the Court suggested that the parties participate in a settlement conference with a Magistrate Judge to carefully review and discuss the plaintiffs’ proposed preliminary injunction to ensure that it does not interfere with BofA’s operations more than is necessary to sufficiently minimize the risk of innocent cardholders being improperly deprived of their benefits, and also to carefully review and discuss the proposed injunction to ensure that it does not unduly hinder BofA from freezing the accounts of people who are likely to have obtained their cards through fraud. Both sides accepted this invitation. Accordingly, the case is referred to Judge Sallie Kim for a settlement conference to take place on May 26 and May 27, 2021. The parties are ordered to work as much as possible before the conference, including with one another, to maximize the chances of coming out of the conference with a joint proposal. A joint proposal or competing proposals should be filed with the Court no later than May 28. As stated at the hearing, BofA’s participation in this conference, which is designed primarily to ensure that any relief ordered is not overbroad, does not constitute a waiver of its right to challenge the validity any preliminary injunction that is ultimately issued.

those facts. See, e.g., Hale v. Wood, 89 F.3d 840 (8th Cir. 1996) (“Hale failed to establish a threat of irreparable harm because the injuries he alleged as the basis for his claim for relief—wrongfully withheld wages, statutorily inadequate wages, and termination of his work assignment—were compensable through his section 1983 claim for money damages.”); Johnson v. City of San Francisco, 2010 WL 3078635, at *3 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 5, 2010) (“Lost wages alone do not constitute a claim for irreparable harm as money damages would be sufficient to remedy the wrong should one ultimately be found to have been committed.”); see also Ahuruonye v. U.S. Department of Interior, 312 F. Supp. 3d 1, 23-24 (D.D.C. 2018). But those cases should not be read to suggest that the loss of wages or benefits can never constitute irreparable harm. When a case involves the deprivation of wages or benefits to low-income people living hand to mouth, a preliminary injunction may well be warranted (depending, of course, upon the strength of the plaintiffs’ claims on the merits and other factors).

JENNIFER YICK, et al.,
Plaintiffs,

v.

BANK OF AMERICA, N.A.,
Defendant.

Case No. 21-cv-00376-VC

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Re: Dkt. Nos. 64, 100

With the assistance of Magistrate Judge Kim, the plaintiffs and defendants worked together to craft preliminary injunction language that is designed to protect the class members from future harm while minimizing disruption to the defendant's operations. This language is an improvement over what was presented by the plaintiffs in support of their motion. The hardship to the defendant from this injunction is outweighed by its benefits to the class members. The injunction is also in the public interest. Accordingly, in accordance with the language submitted by the parties, and for the reasons discussed in the order issued on May 17, 2021:

Bank of America, N.A. (the "Bank"), and the Bank's officers, directors, agents, employees, representatives, and all persons acting under, in concert or participation with, or for them ("Defendant") are preliminarily enjoined in the administration of prepaid debit cards for Employment Development Department ("EDD") unemployment or disability benefits issued by Defendant to members of the certified class as follows:

(1) Defendant shall be prohibited from considering the results of the Bank's initial automated claims fraud filter (Claim Fraud Filter) in investigating or resolving unauthorized transaction error claims (see 12 C.F.R. 1005.11) (Claims).

(2) a. Defendant shall be prohibited from denying or closing Claims or denying provisional or permanent credit to claimants' accounts without conducting and concluding an investigation into the alleged unauthorized transaction, pursuant to EFTA and Regulation E.

b. Defendant shall be prohibited from denying or closing claims without providing the claimant a written explanation of the findings of its investigation, pursuant to EFTA and Regulation E.

(3) Defendant shall not consider the results of the Bank's Claim Fraud Filter as a basis for freezing card accounts of any Class Member.

(4) a. Beginning ten (10) days after the entry of this Order, Defendant shall reopen any Claim that it closed or denied based solely upon the results of its Claim Fraud Filter and that it has not previously paid or previously reopened and investigated (Previously Closed Claim). Defendant may stagger the reopening of such Claims in roughly equal amounts over thirty (30) additional days.

b. For Previously Closed Claims filed by a class member who has not yet authenticated their identity through either EDD (in the knowledge of the Bank) or the Bank, Defendant shall, within ten (10) days of reopening, and thereafter at least weekly for five weeks, send the class member a written notice (by mail and email, if available) explaining the basis for the original denial; that the claim has been reopened; what steps they need to take to authenticate their identity (which may include presenting identification at a Bank branch or by calling the dedicated toll free number for the Fraud Call Center referred to in paragraph 9); that if they do not authenticate their identity within 45 calendar days of the original notice, the claim will be denied; and that if they authenticate their identity, the Bank will commence and complete the investigation and resolve the claim within 45 calendar days of the authentication and, if such claim has not been resolved within 10 business days of the authentication, provide provisional credit in the amount of the alleged error(s) to the account. Persons subject to this Paragraph 4(b) are subject to Paragraph 5(a) if they authenticate.

(5) a. For Previously Closed Claims that were filed by a class member who has authenticated their identity through either EDD (in the knowledge of the Bank) or the Bank, Defendant shall complete the investigation and resolve the claim within 45 calendar days of the entry of this Order (or of the date the class member authenticates their identity, if later) and, if the claim has not been resolved within 10 business days of the entry of this Order (or of the date the class member authenticates their identity, if later), provide provisional credit in the amount of the alleged error(s).

b. For any Previously Closed Claims that were filed by a class member who has authenticated their identity through either EDD (in the knowledge of the Bank) or the Bank, but the Claim has never been reopened, Defendant shall reopen such Claim within ten (10) days of the entry of this Order and Defendant shall complete the investigation and resolve the claim within 45 calendar days of reopening and, if the claim has not been resolved within 10 business days of reopening, provide provisional credit in the amount of the alleged error(s).

(6) In addition to Claims that Defendant reopens pursuant to paragraphs 4 and 5(b), Defendant shall, upon request from the affected cardholder, reopen any Claim that it closed or denied on or after January 1, 2020.

(7) Within 10 days of the entry of this Order (by mail and email, if available) or after the date of the blocking (by mail, within three (3) business days, and email, if available, within one (1) business day), whichever is later, Defendant shall give written notice to class members whose accounts are blocked solely based upon its Claims Fraud Filter that explains that the Bank will promptly unblock their account if the class member authenticates their identity. The written notice shall explain: the basis for the previous block; what steps the class member needs to take to authenticate their identity (which may include presenting identification at a Bank branch or by calling the dedicated toll free number at the Fraud Call Center referred to in paragraph 9); that if they do not authenticate their identity, their account will remain blocked or will be closed; and that they have the right to ask EDD to issue future benefits payments by paper check instead of by the Bank Debit Card.

(8) Defendant shall:

a. As soon as practicable, and in no event later than twenty (20) days of the entry of this Order, establish a dedicated toll-free number to enable class members to directly reach the Claims Initiation Call Center, which shall be staffed by customer service representatives (CSRs) who are trained to handle Claims intake;

b. Within thirty (30) days of the entry of this Order, the Claims Initiation Call Center hours to receive calls shall consist of at least fourteen (14) hours on weekdays and ten (10) hours on Saturdays, which shall be expanded within forty-five days of the entry of this Order to include ten (10) hours on Sundays, and expanded within sixty days of the entry of this Order to include 24 hours per day, 7 days per week coverage; and

c. As soon as practicable after the establishment and successful testing of the dedicated toll-free number for the Claims Initiation Call Center, but in no event later than ten (10) days thereafter, and at least monthly thereafter, provide written notices (by mail and email, if available) to all class members regarding the available toll free number and providing the information in paragraphs 6, and (8)(a) and (b).

(9) Defendant shall:

a. As soon as practicable, and in no event later than twenty (20) days after the entry of this Order, establish a dedicated toll-free number to enable class members to directly reach the Fraud Call Center, which shall be available 24 hours per day, 7 days per week, and which shall be staffed by CSRs who are trained to authenticate identity and resolve challenges to blocked accounts.

b. As soon as practicable after the establishment and successful testing of the dedicated toll-free number for the Fraud Call Center, but in no event later than ten (10) days thereafter, and thereafter at least weekly, provide written notice (by mail and email, if available) to all class members whose accounts are blocked of the availability of this dedicated toll-free number.

(10) Defendant shall, within 20 days of the entry of this Order:

a. Staff the Claims Initiation Call Center and Fraud Call Centers, such that the average speed to answer calls from Class Members for these centers is no more than five minutes, 90% of the time, separately measured for the Claims Initiation and Fraud Call Centers and based on all callers to such centers (rather than just calls by Class Members).

b. Train and require CSRs in the Claims Initiation Call Center to request email contact information from a claimant at the time a claim is filed (if email is not already available for that claimant), so that the Bank may use that information to contact the claimant regarding authentication, if and to the extent this is consented to by EDD.

c. Train and require CSRs in the Fraud Call Center to immediately inform cardholders who are unable to authenticate their identity by phone that they have the option of authenticating their identity at a Bank branch.

(11) Within 10 business days of the entry of this Order, Defendants shall provide email and mail notice to all Class Members of their rights under paragraphs (1) through (7) of this Order.

(12) Paragraphs 2 and 4 of this Order shall not apply to,

a. Claims made with respect to accounts that EDD has found to be disqualified or not entitled to benefits, or has requested an account freeze; or

b. Claims made with respect to accounts that Defendant has frozen or blocked based on (i) receipt of legal process or (ii) information provided or made available by law enforcement, or (iii) the outcome of an investigation of suspicious facts and circumstances related to an individual cardholder developed independent of the Claim (if such cardholder has been sent a notice that the action has occurred and a statement of what the cardholder can do in response).

Defendant shall implement the requirement of paragraph 1 as soon as practicable but in no event more than seven (7) days from the entry of this Order.

There shall be no bond required.
