

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

IN RE: BANK OF AMERICA CALIFORNIA
UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS LITIGATION

Case No.: 21md2992-GPC (MSB)

ORDER GRANTING JOINT MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE REPLY
PAPERS [ECF NO. 282]

On February 14, 2024, Plaintiff Lindsay McClure (“Plaintiff”) filed an Ex Parte Motion seeking an order compelling non-party TTEC Government Solutions, LLC (“TTEC”) to comply with a subpoena. (ECF No. 220.) The following day, the Court issued a briefing schedule for the motion. (ECF No. 221.) TTEC timely filed its Response on February 23, 2024. (ECF No. 222.) Now pending before the Court is the parties’ third Joint Motion for Extension of Time to File Reply Papers (hereinafter, “Joint Motion”). (See ECF No. 282.) The Court granted extensions of time for this discovery dispute on March 1, 2024, March 12, 2024, and April 8, 2024. (See ECF Nos. 228, 239, 260.)

In the instant Joint Motion, Plaintiff explains that Plaintiff’s Ex Parte Motion and TTEC’s Opposition “continue to lead to productive meet and confer discussions . . . [and] the production of substantial materials.” (ECF No. 282 at 2.) During each of the extended time periods to date, Plaintiff says the parties “have made significant progress, including TTEC's production of a significant volume of highly relevant data surrounding calls made by EDD beneficiaries to TTEC call centers." (Id.) The parties believe additional discussions regarding the production of documents are "likely to lead to a near complete resolution of the present discovery dispute." (Id.) They ask the Court to extend the deadline to file reply papers from May 10, 2024, to June 7, 2024. (Id. at 3.) Finding good cause, the Court GRANTS the Joint Motion. Because briefing on this discovery dispute was originally set to close on March 1, 2024, and the Court has now granted four extensions, the Court will not permit any further extensions of time absent extraordinary circumstances. Plaintiff is ORDERED to serve TTEC with a copy of this Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: May 13, 2024

Honorable Michael S. Berg
United States Magistrate Judge
