We have supplemental identifying information for approximately 71 of the individuals named in the operative complaint. Please let me know the best, secure way to transmit this information. We would then like each client's complete file, consistent with the discovery served through class counsel.

Thank you.

Josh,

I hope you're having a great holiday. As reflected in the Notice sent last week, BANA has requested the deposition of three of your clients:

1. Elizabeth Giddens – in Los Angeles, January 22-26
2. Vanessa Hernandez – in Los Angeles, January 22-26
3. Joseph Calzado – in San Francisco, January 31 – February 2

I believe we are in receipt of Ms. Giddens' discovery responses, but are still missing Ms. Hernandez and Mr. Calzado. We would appreciate receipt of same by next Friday, in addition to their respective document productions and confirmation of dates when they will be available for their deposition.

As always, if I can be of any assistance, please call me.

Re: In re Bank of America EDD Claims Litigation
Missing Client Files

Dear Laura:

We have had the opportunity to sort through the approximate 4,000 documents served on us randomly without client designations and have attempted to sort them by our clients name. After review, there are a number of our clients that exist in the operative complaint which documents have not been produced (or at least they cannot be identified). This letter is meant to outline those issues and request a meet and confer so we can resolve the missing files as soon as possible.

Total number of individual Plaintiffs

There are 236 individual plaintiffs, separate from the class plaintiffs. As discussed, Bank of America served discovery requests on all our clients. There are a number of our clients that have not responded. That number of non-responsive clients total 105. That leaves 131¹ clients that are named as individuals in the operative complaint, which have responded to discovery. While the 106 non-responsive clients have the right to have their documents produced by Bank of America, we find it unreasonable to push for their files when they have failed to participate in this litigation to date. For the responsive 130 clients we require production of their files.

Missing Files for Participating Individuals

Of the 130 responsive clients, Bank of America has failed to produce documents for twenty-two (22). Below is the list of individuals which we cannot locate any documents and request a meet and confer as to when we will be receiving documents related to each of the missing 22 clients:

1. Gretchen Heinz,
2. Sarah Murphy,

¹ There are a total of 130 responsive clients that have served discovery requests, but one additional client has not provided responses, which we will be serving formal discovery responses, which will bring the total up to 131.

3. Lizet Gonzalez,
4. Carmen Robinson,
5. Jenna Silva,
6. Nehemiah Rima-Fleurima,
7. Angela Gonzalez,
8. Ismael Pena Jr,
9. Sharonna Hutchins,
10. Sean Grimes,
11. Miguel Roa,
12. Noah Guirguis,
13. Colton Wood,
14. Kimberly Carpenter,
15. Ruben Hernandez,
16. Jacob Flores,
17. Christopher Allison,
18. Randy Chase,
19. Timothy Schmitz,
20. Lainie Graham,
21. Mykela Raiff, and
22. Ivan Harris.

It is possible that their documents are mixed in with the hundreds of thousands of documents produced by Bank of America, but we cannot locate them. We are asking that the complete files be produced for the above listed individuals in the next week. The documents which need to be produced (if they exist) include:

1. An Excel file containing the notes history, freeze report and other relevant data;
2. A PDF of all transactions listed by date for the account;
3. All written correspondence sent from Bank of America to that individual Plaintiff
4. Internal investigation records and/or reports; and
5. Recordings of all telephone calls which took place.

I hope the production of these documents for each missing individual Plaintiff will occur within the next seven days. I am always happy to have a follow up telephone call to go over any of these items, if that helps.

Sincerely,

Joshua Swigart

Re: In re Bank of America EDD Claims Litigation

Dear Laura:

I am writing to you in response to your email of March 15, 2024, with regard to the individual plaintiffs' depositions.

- Deposition to be scheduled on March 26, 2024

Tina Pomeroy will not be available on March 26, 2024. She will be available to appear for a deposition from April 2, 2024, to April 15, 2024.

In the meantime, Adam Brotman is available to sit for a deposition on March 26, 2024, in San Diego.

We have had the opportunity to review the documents produced by Bank of America with regard to Adam Brotman's file [BANA_EDD_MDL-000131536; BANA_EDD_MDL-00132196; BANA_EDD_MDL-00699829]. Please find below the specific deficiencies with regard to his file. We require the production of the additional listed documents prior to the taking of Adam Brotman's deposition:

1. Missing Note History (Excel)

This client clearly has an account with Bank of America, but no Excel document showing the notes history, transaction history, card history, free history or block history has been produced. Please produce this excel right away. As we know, this document exists.

2. Recordings

We are missing all recordings for this file evidencing all the telephone calls that BANA took with regard to any claims and disputes by this client. Please produce all recordings for this file please, including, but not limited to, each recording surrounding each claim.

3. Claim Ending in No.: 00337

The only correspondence produced for this claim are two letters. The first letter dated October 28, 2020, memorializes to the customer that the dispute has been closed based on fraud or suspicious activity. However, Bank of America fails to produce any documentation prior to the date of this letter, acknowledging that a dispute was received by the customer and addressing the timing of a provisional credit. No documentation has been produced to show that Bank of America timely complied with the statutory requirements to provisionally credit the account within 10 days, during the course of its investigation. The next letter, produced by Bank of America, is dated February 3, 2021. It shows that Bank of America made the determination to permanently credit the amount in dispute, $990.50. Please provide all supporting documentation upon which Bank of America relied upon in reaching its conclusion and conducting its initial investigation and reinvestigation.

Again, we cannot properly prepare our client for the deposition if all requested documents are not produced at least five days before the deposition. Additionally, we need confirmation we have all documents in Bank of America's possession regarding Adam Brotman's file and no other documents exist. Please confirm this at the same time you produce the missing and requested documents.

- FRCP Rule (30)(b)(6)

I would also like to notify you that we intend to depose Bank of America, N.A.'s Person Most Knowledgeable under FRCP Rule (30)(b)(6) for each of our clients you would like to depose and we reserve the right to do so from June 25, 2024, deadline for the Opposition to Motion for Class Certification to be filed to August 13, 2024, date at which fact discovery will have to be completed.

I look forward to meeting and conferring with you regarding these issues.

Sincerely,

Joshua B. Swigart

Additional information regarding attempted service, etc.:

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
 - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
 - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.
