v. CASE NO. 2:20-cr-114-JES-MRM

CASEY DAVID CROWTHER

STIPULATION REGARDING STATUS OF SANIBEL CAPTIVA COMMUNITY BANK

The United States of America and the defendant, Casey David Crowther, agree that the following matters are proven for all purposes in the trial and all further proceedings in the case of United States v. Casey David Crowther, Case No. 2:20-cr-114-JES-MRM, and that no evidence need be offered or presented by the United States at trial or any further proceedings to prove the following:

Sanibel Captiva Community Bank, referred to as "the Lender" in the Second Superseding Indictment was, at all times material to the charges alleged in that filing, a financial institution with accounts federally insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

So stipulated this 18th day of March, 2021.
