Re: United States v. Chanette Lewis et al.,
21 Cr. 729 (LAK)

Dear Judge Kaplan:

At the suggestion of the Court, and for the benefit of the Court's Finance Department, the Government respectfully submits this letter to summarize – in one location – all four defendants' restitution obligations. The Government is not seeking any relief in this letter; rather, we are merely summarizing that which has already been ordered in connection with each defendant's sentence.

As the Court is aware, each defendant's restitution obligation is set forth, in detail, in her respective Order of Restitution and/or Judgment. (See, e.g., Dkts. 106, 107, 110; 120). As noted therein, each defendant's restitution obligation is joint and several in part or in full. For the convenience of the Court's Finance Department, the Government hereby summarizes the bottom-line amount due per defendant, the extent to which it is joint-and-several, and with whom it is joint-and-several:

Defendant	Total Restitution Obligation	Joint-and- Several ("J/S") with Lewis	J/S with Benjamin	J/S with Daniel	J/S with West
Chanette Lewis	$360,330		$294,624	$287,512
Tatiana Benjamin	$294,624	$294,624
Tatiana Daniel	$401,206	$287,512			$59,644
Heaven West	$59,644			$59,644

Hon. Lewis A. Kaplan
United States District Judge
