Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 1:23-cr-20036-KMM

DANIELA RENDON, Defendant.

_____ /

AMENDED UNOPPOSED MOTION TO PERMIT TRAVEL

COMES NOW the Defendant, Daniela Rendon, by and through the undersigned Counsel, and submits her unopposed motion to permit travel for a limited purpose and timeframe, and as grounds therefore alleges as follows:

1. The Defendant requests to be permitted to travel to see her Attorney, Robert I. Mandell, Esq., for an in-office legal visit.
2. The Defendant requests to be permitted to travel from her home district in Miami-Dade County, Florida to Orlando, Florida, on March 8, 2023.
3. The Defendant will travel from Orlando, Florida and return back to Miami-Dade, Florida, on March 9, 2023, she anticipates a possible overnight visit in Orlando depending on traffic conditions.
4. On March 6, 2023, the undersigned conferred with Assistant United States Attorney, Jonathan Bailyn, who advised that he has no objection to permitting the Defendant to travel on these dates for said purposes.

5. On March 6, 2023, the undersigned's office spoke with Senior United State's Probation Officer, Juan F. Lora, who is the Defendant's Probation Officer, who stated he has no Objections to Ms. Rendon traveling to the United States Middle District of Florida, specifically Orlando, for legal visits with her attorney, Robert I. Mandell.

For the foregoing reasons, the Defendant respectfully requests that the Court grant this Motion to permit travel on the specific dates listed.

DATED this 6th day of March, 2023.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Robert Mandell
