It is hereby ORDERED:

RCUD - USDC - FLMD - TPA

1. That the conditions of release are hereby established as set forth below.
2. That the United States Marshal is hereby directed to release the above-named Defendant upon his agreement, in writing, to comply with the following conditions of release.

DONE and ORDERED at Tampa, Florida, this 15th day of July 2024.

THOMAS G. WILSON
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

1. The Defendant must appear before court in accordance with all notices.
2. The Defendant must not, at any time, for any reason whatsoever, leave the Middle District of Florida without first obtaining the permission of the court.
3. The Defendant must not change his present address without first getting permission from the court.
4. The Defendant shall not commit a federal, state or local crime during the period of his release. The Defendant shall not possess any illegal controlled substances. The Defendant shall inform the Pretrial Services Agency immediately if arrested or otherwise charged with any offense. The Defendant is specifically advised that federal law prohibits conduct relating to intimidation of witnesses, jurors and officers of the Court (18 U.S.C. 1503); conduct relating to obstruction of criminal investigations (18 U.S.C. 1510); conduct involving tampering with witnesses, victims or informants (18 U.S.C. 1512); and conduct involving retaliation against a witness, victim or informant (18 U.S.C. 1513), as well as attempts to commit any of the foregoing acts.
5. SPECIAL CONDITIONS:
 - (a) The Defendant shall report to the United States Pretrial Services Office by telephone (813/225-7648 or 1/800/676-0125) every Monday by 4:00 p.m.
 - (b) Defendant shall not obtain a passport or other international travel documents.
 - (c) Defendant shall submit to mental health evaluation and any treatment deemed necessary, to include psychiatric medication and treatment, with the costs to be borne by Defendant as directed by the United States Pretrial Services.
 - (d) Defendant is restricted to his residence every day from 9:30 p.m. to 6 a.m., or as directed by the United States Pretrial Services or supervising officer. Defendant's compliance shall be monitored as directed by the United States Pretrial Services or supervising officer by radio frequency, voice verification, or GPS.
6. A violation of any of the above conditions may result in the immediate issuance of a warrant for the Defendant's arrest.

Further, upon arrest, the Defendant may be detained in jail without the setting of new conditions of release or, if new conditions of release are established, those conditions will, in all likelihood, be significantly greater than the conditions previously established.

Moreover, a person who violates his conditions of release may be prosecuted for contempt of Court.

7. A Defendant commits a separate offense against the laws of the United States if, after having been released under these conditions of release, she knowingly fails to appear before a Court as required by the conditions of release, or knowingly fails to surrender for service of a sentence pursuant to a court order. If a person fails to appear in connection with --

(a) an offense punishable by death, life imprisonment or imprisonment for a term of 15 years or more, the penalties for failure to appear are a $250,000 fine, or imprisonment for not more than 10 years, or both;

(b) an offense punishable by imprisonment for a term of five or more years, but less than 15 years, the penalties for failure to appear are a fine of not more than $250,000, or imprisonment for not more than five years, or both;

(c) any other felony, the penalties for failure to appear are a $250,000 fine, or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both;

(d) a misdemeanor, the penalties for failure to appear are a $100,000 fine (if the offense occurred after November 1, 1987), or a $25,000 fine (if the offense occurred before November 1, 1987), or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

At the present time, the charge in this case involves penalties which equal or exceed the penalty set forth in subparagraph (a), and therefore, the penalties for failure to appear are those conditions in that subparagraph.

Any term of imprisonment imposed for failure to appear is required by law to be consecutive to the sentence of imprisonment for any other offense.

Furthermore, federal law provides that a person convicted of an offense which is committed while the Defendant is released under these conditions of release shall be sentenced, in addition to the sentence prescribed for the offense, to a term of imprisonment of not more than 10 years if the offense is a felony; or a term of not more than one year, if the offense is a misdemeanor. Any term of imprisonment imposed pursuant to this provision of law is to be consecutive to any other term of imprisonment.

I acknowledge that I have read the above or that the above has been read to me and that I fully understand the conditions of my release and the possible penalties for the violation of any of those conditions.

I further acknowledge that I have been given a copy of this instrument.

Signed at Tampa, Florida, this 15th day of July, 2024.
