Criminal Case No. 1:23-cr-00074-NYW-1
Civil Action No. 1:23-cv-03027-SBP
Civil Action No. 1:2023cv03024

Dejane Reaniece Lattany,

Plaintiff,

v.

People of the State of Colorado, The,
Attorney General of the State of Colorado, The,

_____,
Defendant(s).

NOTICE TO THE COURT

Criminal Case No. 1:23-cr-00074-NYW-1
Civil Action No. 1:23-cv-03027-SBP
Civil Action No. 1:2023cv03024

The Honorable Judge Prose and
The Honorable Judge Wang

Dated February 9, 2024

Significant developments in my circumstances have emerged, necessitating a "Notice" to be served to courts. I, Ms. Dejane Reaniece Lattany, have been transferred from Victorville Federal Women's Camp to Federal Metropolitan Detention Center Los Angeles due to a detainer stemming from my state case. This transfer occurred without proper explanation or opportunity for me to review the details.

Specifically, I was informed by my Victorville Case Manager, Ms. Aragon, and asked to sign the state detainer document without being given the opportunity to read it thoroughly. Upon my arrival at the Federal Metropolitan Detention Center Los Angeles, I was informed that the relocation was necessitated by this state detainer. This situation is puzzling given that Judge Nina Y. Wang imposed my two-year state sentence to run concurrently with my federal case. (See my Judgment and Commitment attached)

Additionally, I have not received any further information or documentation regarding the specifics of the detainer or the state case from any Officer or Administration at the Federal Bureau of Prisons. This lack of transparency and communication has left me in a state of uncertainty regarding my legal status and obligations.

Moreover, an email was sent yesterday, 2/8/24, on my behalf to my former Counsel, Mr. Jason Flores-Williams, who represented me in both my State case pleading and sentencing as well as my Federal criminal case. However, he has refused to answer or provide assistance in this matter. (See email dated by Ms. Holli Coulman to Mr. Jason Flores-Williams)

I have also made attempts to file Pro Se in all of my cases but given the discovery of why my state case is not running concurrently, I am informing the court that I may in the future request a Public Defender to assist me.

For your reference, I am attaching my Federal Judgment and Commitment paperwork showing that my 2-year state sentence is to run concurrently, signed by the Honorable Nina Y. Wang, along with a copy of the email that was sent to Mr. Jason Flores-Williams.

Given these circumstances, I kindly request your assistance in helping to clarify this matter, if possible, with the Denver County Courts and my federal case. My Denver District Court Case number is 2022CR6134.

Furthermore, I regret to inform you that I continue to face challenges in obtaining the necessary forms, including the Application to Proceed in District Court Without Prepaying Fees or Costs (Long Form). I never received the documents at Victorville Federal Prison Camp. The recent transfer and subsequent detainer issues regarding my state case have added further complexities to my situation, impeding my ability to comply with the court's directives within the originally stipulated time frame.

Therefore, in addition to requesting an extension to allow sufficient time for the documents to reach me, I also want the courts to know that I am pregnant. I found out about my pregnancy when I self-surrendered at Victorville Federal Prison Camp, and I have experienced significant health issues. I only bring this information to the court's attention so that you understand that I had started the process to exhaust my administrative remedy at Victorville but have had to start over at MDC Los Angeles.

Thank you for your time.

Respectfully submitted,

Dejane Reaniece Lattany

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of: three (3) years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and a maximum of 20 tests per year of supervision thereafter.
 - ☒ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: DEJANE REANIECE LATTANY
CASE NUMBER: 1:23-cr-00074-NYW-1

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may, after obtaining Court approval, notify the person about the risk or require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

DEFENDANT: DEJANE REANIECE LATTANY

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You must participate in a program of mental health treatment approved by the probation officer and follow the rules and regulations of such program. The probation officer, in consultation with the treatment provider, will supervise your participation in the program as to modality, duration, and intensity. You must pay for the cost of treatment based on your ability to pay.
2. If the judgment imposes a financial penalty/restitution, you must pay the financial penalty/restitution in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment. You must also notify the court of any changes in economic circumstances that might affect your ability to pay the financial penalty/restitution.
3. You must not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer, unless you are in compliance with the periodic payment obligations imposed pursuant to the Court's judgment and sentence.
4. You must apply any monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritances, judgments, and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation in this case.
5. You must provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information.
6. If you have an outstanding financial obligation, the probation office may share any financial or employment documentation relevant to you with the Asset Recovery Division of the United States Attorney's Office to assist in the collection of the obligation.
7. You must document all income and compensation generated or received from any source and must provide that information to the probation officer as requested.
8. Any business you operate during the term of supervision must be approved by the probation officer. You must operate under a formal, registered entity, and you must provide the probation officer with the name of the business entity and its registered agents. You must maintain business records and provide all business documentation and records as requested by the probation officer.
9. You must not cause or induce others to register a business entity on your behalf.
10. You must document all income and compensation generated or received from any source and must provide that information to the probation officer as requested.
11. You must not cause or induce anyone to conduct any financial transaction on your behalf or maintain funds on your behalf.
12. You must maintain separate personal and business finances and must not co-mingle personal and business funds or income in any financial accounts, including but not limited to bank accounts and lines of credit.

Subject: Urgent: Client DeJane Reaniece Lattany Moved to Federal Detention Center Los Angeles

To: <jfw@jfwlaw.net>

Dear Mr. Jason Flores-Williams,

I am writing to inform you of an urgent matter regarding your client, DeJane Reaniece Lattany.

Ms. Lattany has recently been transferred from Victorville Federal Women's Camp to Federal Detention Center Los Angeles. This relocation was necessitated by a detainer stemming from her state case. I want to bring to your attention that the Judge in her Federal case has ordered the federal case to run concurrently with her state case, a negotiation which you facilitated. For some reason the detainer was issued about her state case.

Given that you were the attorney on record for Ms. Lattany's plea and sentencing, I kindly request your assistance in clarifying this matter with both the Denver County Courts and her federal case. Her Denver District Court Case number is 2022CR6134.

The family is understandably distressed and seeking guidance on how to proceed. Your expertise and intervention in this situation would be immensely valuable in providing them with clarity and direction.

Please let me know if you require any further information or assistance from my end. Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Warm regards,

Holli Coulman
