

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
WEST PALM BEACH DIVISION

CASE NO. 24-80103-CR-CANNON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

DUSTIN SEAN McCABE,

Defendant.

PROTECTIVE ORDER GOVERNING PII AND SENSITIVE VICTIM INFORMATION

THIS CAUSE came before the Court on the United States of America's Unopposed Motion for a Protective Order Authorizing the Disclosure of Personal Identification Information ("PII") and Sensitive Victim Information. Being fully advised, it is:

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the Motion is GRANTED.

The United States is authorized to disclose PII and sensitive victim information in its possession that the United States believes necessary to comply with its discovery obligations.

Defense counsel shall hold the discovery materials in strict confidence, disclosing such materials to counsel's client, staff, investigators, and witnesses only to the extent counsel believes is necessary to assist in the defense of this matter. Defense counsel is not restricted from sharing this information with Defendant, consistent with the remaining terms in this Order.

Defense counsel shall advise any person to whom the discovery materials are disclosed that, pursuant to this Protective Order, the information must be held in strict confidence and the recipient may not further disclose or disseminate the information without defense counsel's express consent.

Defense counsel shall obtain a written certification from each person to whom the discovery is disclosed, in which the recipient (1) must acknowledge these restrictions as set forth in this Protective Order, and (2) must agree not to disclose or disseminate the information without counsel's express written consent. Counsel shall keep a copy of each certification to identify the individuals who received the discovery and the date on which such information was first disclosed.

Upon conclusion of the above captioned case, copies of the discovery disclosed to defense counsel pursuant to the terms of this Protective Order shall be destroyed or returned to the United States.

Nothing in this Protective Order shall preclude the parties from presenting redacted versions of the documents to witnesses and/or offering such documents as exhibits at trial. And nothing in this Order binds the Court in future determinations whether to redact and/or seal information appended and/or used in the prosecution or defense of this criminal action.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers in Fort Pierce, Florida, this 3rd day of October 2024.
