Dear Caitlyn Wade,

This affidavit / contract as Formal Notice that you are hereby released from any and all obligation and or contract to REPRESENT any of the aforementioned ens legis's on my behalf effective immediately.

I have become aware of the fact that it is a conflict of interest for you to protect my liberty, in my defense, and any further administration by you on private Trust property ‘ Fayne, Maurice, Johnson© ”, corp.sole Db.a.: “ Maurice Johnson Fayne© ”, “ FAYNE, MAURICE JOHNSON© ”, corp.sole Db.a.: “ MAURICE JOHNSON FAYNE© ”, is hereby declared an act of chicanery, barratry, and fraud.

Failure to respond to this affidavit is acquiescence, and shall result in a default judgement instantaner, and create estoppel against any and all claims to the contrary. Treble damages of said amount, if also unreturned, shall become due immediately due and paid to Affiant instantaner.

I will no longer be requiring your services for the following reasons :

1. Inside the latest Corpus Juris Secundum (C.J.S.) legal encyclopedia, volume 7, section 4 :

§ 4 ATTORNEY & CLIENT 7 C.J.S.

“His first duty is to the courts and the public, not to the clients, and wherever the duties to his client conflict with those he owes as an officer of the court in the administration of justice, the former must yield to the latter.

The office of attorney is indispensable to the administration of justice and is intimate and peculiar in its relation to, and vital to the wellbeing of, the court. An attorney has a duty to aid the court in seeing that actions and proceedings in which he is engaged as counsel are conducted in a dignified and orderly manner, free from passion and personal animosities, and that all causes brought to an issue are tried and decided on their merits only; to aid the court..."

2. §§ 23 ATTORNEY & CLIENT 7 C.J.S.

"...and the term is synonymous with "attorney". Therefore, anyone advertising himself as a lawyer holds himself out to be an attorney, an attorney at law, or counselor at law.

If one appears before any court in the interest of another and moves the court to action with respect to any matter before it of a legal nature, such person appears as an "advocate", as that term is generally understood. The phrase "as an advocate in a representative capacity," as used in the statute regulating the practice of law, implies a representation distinct from officer or other regular administrative corporate employee representation.

In England and her colonies a "barrister" is a person entitled to practice as an advocate or counsel in the superior courts. A "solicitor" is a person whose business it is to be employed in the care and management of suits depending in courts of chancery. In the great majority of the states of the Union, where law and equity are both administered by the same court, it has naturally come about that the two offices of attorney at law and solicitor in chancery have practically been consolidated, although in the federal equity practice the term "solicitor" is in general use; but in some states the office of solicitor in chancery is a distinct and separate office from that of attorney at law.

A client is one who applies to a lawyer or counselor for advice and direction in a question of law, or commits his cause to his management in prosecuting a claim or defending against a suit in a court of justice; one who retains the attorney, is responsible to him for his fees, and to whom the attorney is responsible for the management of the suit; one who communicates facts to an attorney expecting professional advice. Clients are also called "wards of the court" in regard to their relationship with their attorneys.

§ 3. Nature of Right to Practice

While it has been broadly stated that the right to practice law is not a natural or constitutional right, but is in the nature of a privilege or franchise, the practice of law is not a matter of grace but of right for one who is qualified by his learning and moral character."

"The right to practice law is not a natural or constitutional right. Nor is the right to practice..."

3. Definition of Ward of the court :

“Wards of court. Infants and persons of unsound mind placed by the court under the care of a guardian. Davis Committee v. Loney, 290 Ky. 644, 162 S.W. 2d. 189, 190. Their rights must e guarded jealously. Montgomery v. Erie R. Co., C.C.A.N.J., 97 F, 2d 289, 292. See Guardianship”

I am not an infant. I am of sound mind. I am not under the care of a guardian. I am an aniyunwiya moorish american moslem, and not a citizen of the United States.

4. I do not intend to wave any of my rights / liberties / defenses, pertaining to this matter and it would be a conflict of interest for you to REPRESENT Private Trust property as I, in full life intend to appear forevermore, specially, in propria persona, sui juris, jus cogens, without prejudice, all rights reserved.

5. I hereby further revoke, rescind and make void ab initio all Power of Attorney, Powers of Attorneys, alleged Powers of any Attorney administering my estate AND any decisions and or pleas that she or the court has entered into the record without my voluntary consent. Any pleas, request for trials or any decisions that Caitlyn Wade will attempt to make or has previously made in open court, in chambers or in camera is without my voluntary consent. Any decisions or pleas made with regards to the above referenced cases would be knowingly, intentionally, willfully forced, coerced, done to intimidate, retaliate and is hereby declared as “Unconstitutional” and repugnant to “We the People” of the united states of America.

“Waivers of Constitutional Rights, not only must they be voluntary, they must be knowingly intelligent acts done with sufficient awareness.”
