IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA
ATLANTA DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA v. DANIEL ERIC JAY (2) Defendant.	CRIMINAL ACTION FILE NO. 1:20-CR-228-MHC-JKL-2

ORDER

Defendant Daniel Eric Jay has filed a motion to continue the pretrial conference scheduled for June 26, 2021. [Doc. 208.] The motion is GRANTED. Defendant Jay shall have until September 7, 2021 to file any necessary pretrial motions. The pretrial conference is hereby rescheduled to Wednesday, September 8, 2020, at 9:30 a.m. via Zoom. The Court will send meeting instructions to all parties via email and/or docket entry in CM/ECF a week prior to the pretrial conference.

The delay between the original and the rescheduled pretrial conference shall be excluded from Speedy Trial Act calculations because the Court finds that the reason for the delay is for good cause, as the government recently provided counsel with additional discovery and counsel requires additional time to review the discovery and effectively prepare pretrial motions. The interests of justice in granting the continuance outweigh the public's and the defendant's rights to a speedy trial. 18 U.S.C. § 3161, et seq. The clerk is DIRECTED to exclude time from computation under the Speedy Trial Act pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B)(i). The parties are advised that the Court is not inclined to grant additional extensions of these deadlines, absent a showing of very good cause.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 22nd day of July, 2021.

JOHN K. LARKINS III
United States Magistrate Judge
