AUSA Russell Phillips
United States Attorney's Office
75 Ted Turner Drive S.W., Suite 600
Atlanta, Georgia 30303

Dear AUSA Phillips:

By email dated May 18, 2020, it was requested that you be provided proof of the insured status of United Community Bank, Blairsville, Georgia, for the time period April 15, 2020, through May 1, 2020.

In response to that request, we are enclosing Certificate of Authenticity of Domestic Records of a Regularly Conducted Activity Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 803(6) and 902(11) certifying that this institution was an insured depository institution on the dates in question.

Please review the enclosed documents upon receipt to make sure that they satisfy your requirements. If I can be of further assistance in this matter, please let me know.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Nicholas Kazmerski", with a stylized, overlapping loop structure.

Enclosures

CERTIFICATE OF AUTHENTICITY OF DOMESTIC RECORDS OF A REGULARLY CONDUCTED ACTIVITY PURSUANT TO FEDERAL RULE OF EVIDENCE 803(6) AND 902(11)

1. I, Nicholas Kazmerski, hereby certify and attest that I am a Counsel at the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”), and that I am qualified and authorized to make certifications regarding the records of the FDIC.
2. I further certify that the attached records marked “Exhibit A” and pertaining to the admission and history of United Community Bank, Blairsville, Georgia, as a federally insured depository institution are official records of the FDIC and that (A) the records were made at or near the time of the matters described in them by—or from information transmitted by—someone with knowledge; (B) the records were kept in the course of a regularly conducted activity of the FDIC; and (C) making the records was a regular practice of the FDIC.
3. I further certify that insurance applicable to the main office of United Community Bank is applicable to any domestic (U.S.) branch office of United Community Bank.
4. I further certify that, after diligent search, no record or entry in the official records of the FDIC has been found to exist which terminated the status of United Community Bank, as an insured depository institution under the provisions of section 8 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, 12 U.S.C. 1818, and that United Community Bank, retained its status as an insured depository institution of the FDIC from March 1, 1950, through and including May 1, 2020.

5. I further certify that the records accompanying this certificate are copies of photographs, microphotographs, photographic film or reproductions of records preserved in an electronic medium or format capable of being read or scanned by computer and reproduced from such electronic medium or format by printing or other form of reproduction of electronically stored data.
6. The FDIC is a Federal banking agency as defined under the provisions of section 3 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, 12 U.S.C. 1813(z). Under the provisions of section 10 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, 12 U.S.C. 1820(f), a record described in the preceding paragraph "shall be deemed to be an original record for all purposes, including introduction in evidence in all State and Federal courts or administrative agencies, and shall be admissible to prove any act, transaction, occurrence, or event therein recorded."
