IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA
ATLANTA DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

vs

DANIEL ERIC JAY

Case No. 1:20-CR-228-MHC-JKL-2

WAIVER OF PRELIMINARY HEARING BY PROBATIONER/SUPERVISED RELEASEE

I, DANIEL ERIC JAY, being under arrest for alleged violation of probation/supervised release, acknowledge the following to be true and correct:

That the United States Magistrate Judge has advised me that I am charged with a probation/supervised release violation or violations as set forth in the attached Application for Warrant which has been read to me and a copy of which has been given to me.

That I have been fully advised by the Magistrate Judge that I have a right to remain silent and have a right to have an attorney retained or appointed to represent me at this proceeding.

The Magistrate Judge has also fully explained to me that I am entitled to a preliminary hearing before the Magistrate Judge and said hearing is for the purpose of determining whether or not there is probable cause to believe that the conditions of my probation/supervised release have been violated. At this hearing, the Magistrate Judge would allow me and/or my attorney the opportunity to present any evidence and/or witnesses to disprove conditions of my probation/supervised release. The Magistrate Judge would also give me and/or my attorney the right to confront any adverse witnesses who might appear on behalf of the government; and, in addition, he would consider any factors which I and/or my attorney wish to present in the consideration of setting a bond or lowering the bond if it has been previously set by the United States District Court.

Pursuant to the above, I hereby knowingly and willfully waive my right to a preliminary hearing before the United States Magistrate Judge and request that I be afforded a probation/supervised release revocation hearing in the United States District Court as soon as possible.

It is my understanding that the foregoing does not preclude me and/or my attorney from presenting witnesses or any other available evidence on my behalf at my probation/supervised release revocation hearing in the United States District Court.

Dated: February 13, 2023

Witnessed by:

United States Magistrate Judge

Defendant