Rule 4-1.7(b) Disclosure and Waiver

A lawyer may represent multiple codefendants having a potential conflict of interests only if he reasonably believes the representation of any one of them will not be adversely affected by the lawyer's responsibilities to the others, and if each consent after consultation. Multiple representation is impermissible if an actual conflict exists.

A lawyer shall not represent a client if the lawyer's exercise of independent professional judgment in the representation of that client may be materially limited by the lawyer's responsibilities to another client or to a third person or by the lawyer's own interest, unless: (1) the lawyer reasonably believes the representation will not be adversely affected; and (2) the client consents after consultation.

After consultation involving the risks and advantages associated with The Law Offices of Robert A. Morris, LLC undertaking representation of both Wilbert Stanley and Felicia Stanley, I/We do hereby consent to multiple representation and waive any potential conflict of interest.

Wilbert Stanley
