- ☐ (22) submit your person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers or office, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer(s). Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. You must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer(s) may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that you have violated a condition of your supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.

DEFENDANT: FRANCESCO DISTEFANO

CASE NUMBER: 1:24-CR-00424(1)

- ☐ (23) Cybercrime Management: [[if imposed, the Court must select one or more options for types of monitoring, use, and payment]]

☐ (a) General Condition for Cybercrime Management: You must participate in cybercrime management and will inform your officer of all computer devices possessed or accessible to you. This includes (a) desktop or laptop computers; (b) smartphones, smart watches, and tablets; (c) smart appliances/Internet of Things (IoT) devices, including hub or personal assistant devices; and (d) all network accessing devices, including internet-connectable gaming systems. You will not acquire or access any new or additional computer devices unless approved by your officer. You will also inform your officer of all your computer device, internet service provider (ISP), and social media user accounts (local and on-line services), both upon entering supervision and in the event that you create or receive additional user accounts.

☐ (a)(i) Monitored Computer Devices with Internet Access: You are allowed use of standard computer device(s) (desktop/laptop computers, smartphones/tablets) with internet access and will allow the U.S. Probation Office (USPO) to configure, manage, and install monitoring software on all of your approved standard computer devices. Your standard computer device(s) are limited to those that can be configured, managed, and monitored by the USPO. The configuration, management, and monitoring of your standard computer devices shall be specific to your court-ordered conditions, risk and needs, and cybercrime management requirements.

☐ (a)(ii) Monitored Computer without Internet Access: You are allowed use of standard computer devices (desktop/laptop computer, smartphones/tablets) without internet access and will permit the U.S. Probation Office (USPO) to configure and install monitoring software on all of your approved standard computer devices. Your standard computer device(s) are limited to those that can be configured, managed, and monitored by the USPO. The configuration, management, and monitoring of your standard computer devices shall be specific to your court-ordered conditions, risk and needs, and Cybercrime Management Program requirements.

☐ (a)(iii) Unmonitored Computer with Internet Access: You are allowed use of standard computer devices (desktop/laptop computers, smartphones/tablets) with internet access and will permit the U.S. Probation Office (USPO) to configure and manage all of your approved standard computer devices. The approval of your standard computer devices is limited to devices that can be configured and managed by the USPO. The configuration and management of your standard computer devices shall be specific to your court-ordered conditions, risk and needs, and Cybercrime Management Program requirements.

☐ (a)(iv) Unmonitored Computer without Internet Access: You are allowed use of standard computer device(s) (desktop/laptop computer, smartphones/tablets) without internet access and will permit the U.S. Probation Office (USPO) to configure and manage all of your approved standard computer devices. Your standard computer device(s) are limited to those that can be configured and managed by the USPO. The configuration and management of your standard computer devices shall be specific to your court-ordered conditions, risk and needs, and Cybercrime Management Program requirements.

☐ (a)(v) No Computer Use: You are restricted from any personal use of standard computer devices (desktop/laptop computer, smartphones/tablets).

☐ (b) Non-Standard Computer Devices/Internet of Things (IoT): Non-standard computer devices possessed or accessible to you (such as smart TVs, refrigerators, game systems, and personal assistants) shall be assessed by the U.S. Probation Office (USPO) for risk and need of use. You must allow the United States Probation Office (USPO) to configure and/or manage approved non-standard devices for compliance with your court-ordered conditions and cybercrime management requirements. Non-standard computer devices that are not able to be configured and/or managed, or which are assessed as being of substantial risk to the successful completion of supervision, may be prohibited.

☐ (c) Publicly Accessible/Limited Purpose Computer Devices: You may access publicly accessible computer devices for legitimate transactional purposes (such as ATMs, kiosks, and point of sale terminals). With the approval of your officer, you may also use specialized computer devices outside your residence (i.e., employment agency, work search, and employers' computer devices) but only for their intended use.

☐ (d) Restrictions on Specific and/or General Use (Legitimate and Necessary): Your use of standard computer device(s) (desktop/laptop computers, smartphones/tablets) is restricted to legitimate and necessary purposes. Examples of legitimate and necessary use are employment, education, religious activities, treatment services, medical services, communication with friends/family and attorney, personal finance, and legal obligations.

☐ (e) Restricted Use: You must not access [[insert specific “blacklisted” sites, applications, categories, or activities here based on identified individual risk]].

☐ (f) Computer Device Limitations: You may be limited to two standard computer devices (desktop/laptop computer, smartphones/tablets) unless otherwise approved by your officer.

☐ (g) Payment Responsibility for Computer Monitoring:

☐ (g)(i) Full responsibility: You are responsible for all computer monitoring and/or management costs for your approved computer devices.

☐ (g)(ii) Partial responsibility: You are responsible for computer monitoring and/or management costs for your approved computer devices based on your ability to pay, as determined by the Probation Office.

☐ (h) Computer Search for Monitoring and/or Management Purposes: You must allow the U.S. Probation Office to conduct initial and periodic unannounced searches of any computer devices or networked systems used or possessed by you. Initial searches of computer devices and networked systems will be conducted to determine if they contain or allow access to any materials or capabilities which would violate the court-ordered conditions; or programs/applications, settings, configurations that would be problematic for monitoring software (if ordered) and Cybercrime Management Program requirements. Periodic unannounced searches of these devices and systems will be conducted to verify that the monitoring software is functional (if ordered), that required configurations are unaltered, and that no circumvention efforts have been made to alter the device’s operation(s) or functionality.

☐ (i) General Reasonable Suspicion Search Condition: You must submit your person, property, house, residence, office, vehicle, papers, computer devices, or other electronic communications, network or cloud storage, data storage devices or media to a search conducted by a United States probation officer. The probation officer may conduct a search under this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that you have violated a condition of supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. You must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISED RELEASE PURSUANT TO 18 U.S.C. § 3563(b)(22) and 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d)

You must, during the term of supervision:

- ☐ (1) participate in a General Educational Development (GED) preparation course and seek to obtain a GED at the direction of the probation officer, if you have not obtained a high school diploma or equivalent.
- ☐ (2) participate in an approved job skill-training program at the direction of a probation officer.
- ☒ (3) if unemployed after the first 60 days of supervision, or if unemployed for 60 days after termination or lay-off from employment, perform at least 20 hours of community service per week at the direction of the probation office until gainfully employed. The total amount of community service required over your term of service shall not exceed 300 hours.
- ☐ (4) not maintain employment where you have access to other individuals’ personal information, including, but not limited to, Social Security numbers and credit card numbers (or money) unless approved by a probation officer.
- ☒ (5) not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of a probation officer unless you are in compliance with the financial obligations imposed by this judgment.
- ☒ (6) provide a probation officer with access to any requested financial information to monitor compliance with conditions of supervised release.
- ☒ (7) within 72 hours of any significant change in your economic circumstances that might affect your ability to pay restitution, fines, or special assessments, you must notify the probation officer of the change.
- ☒ (8) file accurate income tax returns and pay all taxes, interest, and penalties as required by law.
- ☐ (9) ☐ (a) participate in a sex offender treatment program. The specific program and provider will be determined by a probation officer. You must comply with all recommended treatment which may include psychological and physiological testing.
☐ (b) not possess any device that could be used for covert photography without the prior approval of a probation officer.

DEFENDANT: FRANCESCO DISTEFANO

☐ (c) not view or possess child pornography. If the treatment provider determines that exposure to other sexually stimulating material may be detrimental to the treatment process, or that additional conditions are likely to assist the treatment process, such proposed conditions shall be promptly presented to the court, for a determination, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e)(2), regarding whether to enlarge or otherwise modify the conditions of supervision to include conditions consistent with the recommendations of the treatment provider.

☐ (d) not, without the approval of a probation officer and treatment provider, engage in activities that will put you in unsupervised private contact with any person under the age of 18, and you must not knowingly visit locations where persons under the age of 18 regularly congregate, including parks, schools, school bus stops, playgrounds, and childcare facilities. This condition does not apply to contact in the course of normal commercial business or unintentional incidental contact. This condition does not apply to family members: [Names].

☐ (e) Your employment must be restricted to the judicial district and division where you reside or are supervised, unless approval is granted by a probation officer. Prior to accepting any form of employment, you must seek the approval of a probation officer, in order to allow the probation officer the opportunity to assess the level of risk to the community you will pose if employed in a particular capacity. You must not participate in any volunteer activity that may cause you to come into direct contact with persons under the age of 18 except under circumstances approved in advance by a probation officer and treatment provider.

☐ (f) provide the probation officer with copies of your telephone bills, all credit card statements/receipts, and any other financial information requested.

☐ (g) comply with all state and local laws pertaining to convicted sex offenders, including such laws that impose restrictions beyond those set forth in this order.

- ☒ (10) pay to the Clerk of the Court any financial obligation ordered herein that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release, at a rate of not less than 10% of the total of your gross earnings minus federal and state income tax withholdings.
- ☒ (11) not enter into any agreement to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the Court.
- ☐ (12) pay to the Clerk of the Court $ [redacted] as repayment to the United States of government funds you received during the investigation of this offense. The Clerk of the Court shall remit the funds to [redacted] (list both Agency and Address.)
- ☐ (13) observe one Reentry Court session, as instructed by your probation officer.
- ☐ (15) Other: your current and future employment is to be approved by the Court to mitigate and third party risks.
