v.	)	CASE NO: 3:22-CR-009
	)
GLADYS HARUN	)

PROTECTIVE ORDER

Upon consideration of the Government's unopposed Motion for a Protective Order Governing Discovery, and for good cause shown therein, the Court GRANTS the motion. (Doc. no. 12.) Accordingly, for any discovery provided in this case, such materials must: (1) be used by counsel of record only for purposes of representing the Defendant in this action; (2) be maintained in a safe and secure manner by each counsel of record; (3) not be possessed by Defendant, except in the presence of the Defendant's counsel; and (4) not be disclosed by Defendant or Defendant's counsel in any format outside of this action.

Such discovery material may be disclosed by counsel only to the following designated persons: (1) investigative, secretarial, clerical, and paralegal personnel; (2) independent expert witnesses, investigators, or advisors retained by counsel of record in connection with this action; (3) other witnesses testifying to the contents of the document or material; and such other persons as hereafter may be authorized by the Court upon motion of other party. Counsel of record shall provide a copy of this Protective Order to any designated person to whom discovery material is disclosed.

Prior to disclosure of discovery material to any designated person, such designated person shall agree to be subject to the terms of the protective order.

SO ORDERED this 22nd day of July, 2022, at Augusta, Georgia.
