FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA
DUBLIN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA)

GLADYS HARUN)

ORDER

For the reasons stated in Defendant’s unopposed motion for an extension of time, the Court GRANTS an extension from February 14, 2023 to March 16, 2023, for newly retained counsel to review the discovery, file any necessary additional pretrial motions, and if no additional motions are filed, for counsel to file the required joint status report.¹ (Doc. no. 88.) Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7), this period is excluded in computing the time within which trial must commence because the extension (1) is not for the purpose of delay, but instead to further justice and protect Defendant’s right to a fair trial by allowing reasonable time necessary, assuming due diligence, for effective preparation of counsel; and (2) serves the ends of justice and outweighs all interests in a speedy trial. Defense counsel shall not file “preliminary” motions. All motions must comply with LR Crim. 12.1, including the provisions concerning affidavits, citations to record evidence, and supporting memoranda.

SO ORDERED this 14th day of February, 2023, at Augusta, Georgia.

BRIAN K. EPPS
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA

¹If additional defense pretrial motions are filed, the Court will re-set the deadline for filing the joint status report at that time.
