GLADYS HARUN

MOTION REQUESTING COURT TO RELEASE DOCUMENTS TO PETITIONER
SO SHE CAN USE THEM IN WRITING A 28 USC 2255 MOTION

COMES NOW petitioner Gladys Harun in pro se and hereby moves this court to release various documents that she dire need as she prepare her motion 2255. Petitioner asserts that she previously wrote the clerk of court for these documents but they were declined. Petitioner was directed to pay and download various documents on pacer but these particular documents are not available online; she was informed they are not for public use too.

Petitioner request the court to release to her the following documents:

- 1) Motion of discovery
- 2.) Warrants for seizing her bank accounts
- 3.) warrants for seizing her internet IPP address and downloading items from her online activity.

Petitioner acknowledges that the court allowed her to file a motion to vacate, set aside or correct sentence pursuant to 28 usc 2255 ineffective assistance of counsel. The records THAT THE Petitioner seeks are necessary for preparation of such motion.

In support , ~~She~~ shows the court the following:

- 1.) Petitioner has made attempts to email/ call and has written requests to defense counsel who represented her in the case in hopes that he would give her the documents but the attorney has failed to surrender these documents to her.

Petitioner therefore asks the court to give her a copy of mentioned documents.
