In Removal Proceedings

Initiated by the Department of Homeland Security

Date:

09/10/2025

AMENDED ORDER OF THE IMMIGRATION JUDGE

Based upon evidence filed by the Department of Homeland Security, including I-213 and criminal conviction documents, the immigration court found that Respondent is removable as charged in the Notice to Appear and subsequent I-261, by clear, unequivocal, and convincing evidence.

The Court finds Matter of Dominguez Reyes, 28 I&N Dec. 878 (BIA 2024) to be controlling in this case in sustaining removability that the loss exceeds $10,000.

Further, Respondent has no viable application for relief from removal pending before this Court. Pursuant to the Matter of Hashmi, 24 I&N Dec. 785 (BIA 2009), the Court does not find good cause to continue the matter for the pending I-130 application before USCIS (further findings made orally on September 5, 2025).

Order:

Respondent shall be removed to UNITED KINGDOM or in the alternative to _____ on the charge(s) contained in the Notice to Appear.

Failure to Depart: If Respondent is subject to a final order of removal and willfully fails or refuses (1) to depart from the United States pursuant to the immigration court's order, (2) to make timely application in good faith for travel or other documents necessary to depart the United States, (3) to present themselves at the time and place required for removal by the DHS, or (4) conspires to or takes any action designed to prevent or hamper their departure pursuant to the order of removal, Respondent shall be subject to a civil monetary penalty for each day Respondent is in violation, pursuant to INA § 274D and 8 C.F.R. § 280.53(b)(14). If Respondent is removable pursuant to INA § 237(a), then Respondent shall be further fined and/or imprisoned for up to 10 years. See INA § 243(a)(1). Further, any Respondent that has been denied admission to, removed from, or has departed the United States while an order of exclusion, deportation, or removal is outstanding and thereafter enters, attempts to enter, or is at any time found in the United States shall be fined or imprisoned not more than two years, or both. 8 U.S.C. § 1326(a).
