SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

FIVE (5) YEARS as to Count One and THREE (3) YEARS as to Count Two, to run concurrently.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: KISHA SUTTON
CASE NUMBER: 2:24-cr-000192-1STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

While on supervised release, the defendant must not commit another federal, state, or local crime, must not possess a firearm or other dangerous device, and must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance. The defendant must also comply with the standard terms and conditions of supervised release as recommended by the United States Sentencing Commission and as adopted by the United States District Court for the Southern District of West Virginia, including the condition that the defendant shall participate in a program of testing, counseling, and treatment for drug and alcohol abuse as directed by the probation officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer. In addition, the defendant shall comply with the following Standard Conditions of Supervision adopted by the Southern District of West Virginia in Local Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.3:

- 1) If the defendant is unemployed, the probation officer may direct the defendant to register and remain active with Workforce West Virginia;
- 2) The defendant shall submit to random urinalysis or any drug screening method whenever the same is deemed appropriate by the probation officer and shall participate in a substance abuse program as directed by the probation officer. The defendant shall not use any method or device to evade a drug screen;
- 3) As directed by the probation officer, the defendant will make co-payments for drug testing and drug treatment services at rates determined by the probation officer in accordance with a court-approved schedule based on ability to pay and availability of third-party payments;
- 4) A term of community service is imposed on every defendant on supervised release or probation. Fifty hours of community service is imposed on every defendant for each year the defendant is on supervised release or probation. The obligation for community service is waived if the defendant remains fully employed or actively seeks such employment throughout the year;
- 5) The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers), and shall reside in a residence free from such items; and
- 6) The defendant shall not purchase, possess, or consume any organic or synthetic intoxicants, including bath salts, synthetic cannabinoids, or other designer stimulants.

DEFENDANT: KISHA SUTTON
CASE NUMBER: 2:24-cr-000192-1

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

In addition, the defendant shall comply with the following Special Conditions of Supervision:

- 1) The defendant must participate in a mental health treatment program and follow the rules and regulations of the program. The probation officer, in consultation with the treatment provider, will supervise the defendant's participation in the program.
- 2) The defendant is not a resident of this district; therefore, the period of supervised release is to be administered by the district where the defendant is a legal resident and/or the district where a suitable release plan is developed.
- 3) The defendant must provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The probation office may share financial information with the U.S. Attorney's Office.
- 4) The defendant must not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer.
- 5) The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and any other anticipated or unanticipated financial gains to any outstanding Court imposed monetary obligations.
- 6) The defendant shall cooperate with the IRS with regard to any civil audit of her personal and business taxes and shall file all tax returns and amended tax returns as required.
- 7) The defendant must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution.
- 8) The defendant shall pay restitution in the amount of $184,014.04, with interest as allowed by law, to the fullest extent financially feasible. The defendant shall pay the restitution jointly and severally with the following individuals and in the following amounts: Shamiese Wright in the amount of $18,736.73; William Powell in the amount of $15,625.00; Damisha Brown in the amount of $15,625.00; Jasmine Spencer in the amount of $15,625.00; and Lydia Spencer in the amount of $36,814.13. The defendant shall pay restitution during her term of supervised release through monthly installments of no less than $200 with the first installment to be paid within 60 days of release from incarceration, until paid in full. Payments shall be paid to the Clerk of the Court at the following address: United States District Clerk's Office, Robert C. Byrd Federal Building, United States Courthouse, 300 Virginia Street East, Charleston, West Virginia, 25301.
- 9) The defendant shall make third party risk notification to her current or any future employer while on supervised release.
