Josh,

I know you love it, but I am not going to litigate the case via email. We will submit the stipulation that notes that the parties have agreed that no response is due until at least the 23rd of July. We will further note if Benworth believes further clarification of its position is needed, we will inform the court and seek that clarification. Have a good day.

Best,
Dwayne

Dwayne,

We do not agree to the more than 6-week delay that you are requesting. As I am sure you know, proceedings to confirm an arbitration award are summary in nature, and Womply has been litigating against Benworth for more than three years. There is no reason to further delay these proceedings. Benworth has had ample time to draft papers seeking to vacate the award. Indeed, it has had the interim award for more than seven months. Nevertheless, as a courtesy, we will agree to an extension to Tuesday, July 23, for you to put in a response to our petition, but we cannot agree to further delay.

Regards,

Josh

Dwayne,

To ensure there's no confusion, our Petition is a motion so, as the Court noted, the "due date for any opposition or reply papers not yet filed shall be calculated in accordance with Civil Local Rule 7-3," which provides 14 days to file any opposition. Because Benworth accepted service effective July 5, your opposition is due tomorrow.

Hi Dwayne,

Thank you for reaching out. On Tuesday, the case was reassigned to a different judge and all hearing dates "are vacated" and "must be renoticed for hearing" before the new judge, so no need to worry about the hearing date. (ECF Nos. 21–22.) The Court noted that the "due date for any opposition or reply papers not yet filed shall be calculated in accordance with Civil Local Rule 7-3.” (Id.) I’ve re-attached the Court’s Order and Notice for your convenience, which we sent you on Tuesday.

Regards,
Josh

Vincent, Alexander, & Stuart,

We hope you all are doing well. We noticed that you all filed a notice of hearing for August 8th on Womply’s petition to confirm. We are requesting that this hearing is postponed. As you know, the time to submit our answer to the petition is not due until after the hearing: on September 3rd. Plus, we still have time remaining to file our petition to vacate. This hearing seems premature.

Please let us know of your position.

Dwayne
