§ 6231 Termination for debtor fraud

31 L.P.R.A. § 6231

Legal transactions executed in fraud of creditors may be rescinded.

A legal transaction is presumed to be executed in fraud of creditors when it:

- (a) Is dated after the credit of the aggrieved creditor, or is done to prevent the consequences of a fraudulent act;
- (b) consists of excluding property from the debtor's assets, or preventing its inclusion, even in the case of rights in expectation or mere powers, or issuing new guarantees for previous credits;
- (c) causes or aggravates the debtor's insolvency; or
- (d) is executed with the intention of impairing the action of creditors, which is presumed in business transactions between relatives within the fourth degree of consanguinity or second degree of affinity, in gratuitous transactions, and in onerous transactions if done after a judgment or a writ of attachment has been issued against the grantor.
