

United States District Court
District of Rhode Island

United States of America
v.
David Staveley

Case No. 20-CR-00074-MSM

RECEIVED

Motion
to Preserve All Communication by the Court

SEP 13 2022

U.S. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF R.I.

The Following Motion is presented to the honorable court, by the Defendant Pro Se. The Defendant is not an attorney and is submitting this motion while incarcerated, with limited resources and during Covid-19 protocols, drastically reducing the Defendants ability to research and communicate.

The Defendant respectfully requests that all communications between Judge Mary McElroy (The Court) and Prosecutors, The U.S. Attorney (Cukua) and/or representatives, Chief Judge O'Connell, any and all U.S. Marshalls or Federal Law Enforcement, Employees of the FBI, Any and all Media Representatives, AVSA Lee Volker, AVSA Lauren S. Zavier, Clerk Sandra Rae Hebert or representative, Attorney Jason Knight, and any Representative of the United States Court of Appeals for the 1st Circuit be Preserved, During the Pendency of Case No. 20-CR-00074-MSM, Excluding the existing Court Minutes.

Respectfully Submitted

David Staveley
Pro Se