

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND

DAVID STAVELEY,	)
Defendant/Petitioner,	)
	)
v.	)
	)	Criminal No. 20-CR-0074-MSM-LDA
	)
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,	)	[Related Civil Action No. 22-CV-00315-MSM]
Respondent.	)

ORDER

1. Petitioner has filed a § 2255 motion collaterally attacking the sentence he received in Criminal Case No. 20-CR-0074-JJM-LDA. As grounds therefore, Petitioner asserts that counsel assigned to represent in him the District Court, George West, Esq., Mark Josephs and Jeffrey K. Techentin, Esqs., and Jason Knight, Esq., were ineffective in their representation of him. In support of his Motion, Petitioner sets forth Four Grounds, and facts relating thereto describing the alleged ineffective assistance of counsel by the various attorneys.
2. In his Motion, in connection with these allegations, Petitioner has disclosed details, conversations, and documents relating to counsels' representation of him, and has thereby waived his attorney-client privilege as to those Four Grounds and the facts supporting each Ground.
3. WHEREFORE, Petitioner's attorney-client privilege with the attorneys listed in Paragraph 1 of this Order is hereby deemed waived and those attorneys are hereby directed to discuss with and/or otherwise disclose facts, conversations, and documents to the Government relating to his representation of Petitioner in relation to each of the Grounds alleged by Petitioner in his § 2255 Motion and the facts supporting each Ground.
4. The time by which the Government must respond to the § 2255 Petition [ECF No. 70] and defendant's Motion to Strike Malicious Prosecution [ECF No. 81] and Motion Identifying Prejudice Egregious Performance - Ineffective Council [ECF No. 83] is extended from September 12, 2022 to November 12, 2022.

SO ORDERED:

JUDGE MARY S. MCELROY
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND

DATE: