Re: CASE NO 23-CR-60173-Graham
Request for Early Termination of Probation

Dear Judge Graham,

I respectfully submit this letter requesting early termination of my probation.

I fully acknowledge the seriousness of my offense and accept complete responsibility for my actions. Since the day I was placed on probation, I have made it my priority to comply with every condition ordered by this Court. I have paid all court costs, fines, and financial obligations in full. I have remained in strict compliance with all terms of supervision and have demonstrated consistent accountability and cooperation with my probation officer.

More importantly, this period of probation has been a time of genuine personal growth and transformation. I have used this opportunity to reflect, correct my course, and rebuild my life with integrity. I am actively involved in multiple church ministries, where I serve faithfully and contribute positively to my community. My faith and service have strengthened my character, accountability, and commitment to living responsibly.

I am currently pursuing employment opportunities that would allow me to better support myself and my family and continue rebuilding my life. However, my probationary status has limited certain opportunities. Early termination would remove those barriers and allow me to fully move forward as a productive, law-abiding citizen. Granting this request would not only recognize my compliance but also support my continued rehabilitation and stability.

I respectfully ask the Court to consider my full compliance, satisfied financial obligations, community involvement, and sincere efforts toward rehabilitation when reviewing this request.

Thank you for your time, fairness, and consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

Carolyn Wade
