Petitioner,

v.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Respondent.

Criminal Case Number: 1:23-cr-00344-RDB-1

Honorable Judge Richard D. Bennett

PRO SE MOTION TO COMPEL RULING ON PENDING COMPASSIONATE RELEASE MOTION [98]

NOW COMES the Defendant, AHMED M. SARY, appearing pro se, and respectfully moves this Honorable Court to issue a ruling on his pending motion for compassionate release pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A). In support, Defendant states the following:

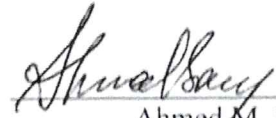

1. On or about November 13, 2024, Defendant submitted a sealed motion for compassionate release, which was docketed as ECF No. 98.

2. The Court acknowledged receipt via letter dated November 14, 2024 (ECF No. 99), and the Federal Public Defender declined appointment on December 10, 2024 (ECF No. 100).
3. Since that time, Defendant has submitted several follow-up filings and status updates to the Court, including sealed submissions on March 6, 2025 (ECF No. 108), April 2, 2025 (ECF No. 109), and June 9, 2025 (ECF No. 110).
4. These filings informed the Court of ongoing family hardship, particularly that Defendant's wife has had multiple surgeries scheduled and then cancelled due to lack of available support, causing medical and emotional strain on the family.
5. Despite these urgent developments, the Court has not ruled on the compassionate release motion—now pending for over eight months.
6. Compassionate release under § 3582(c)(1)(A) was designed by Congress to offer a timely remedy when “extraordinary and compelling reasons” exist. Delay risks rendering any relief moot.

WHEREFORE, Defendant respectfully requests that this Honorable Court:

- a) Issue a ruling on his pending compassionate release motion (ECF No. 98); or
- b) In the alternative, set a schedule for resolution or require the government to respond;
and
- c) Grant such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully Submitted,

Ahmed M. Sary
