SCHEDULE OF PAYMENTS

Having assessed Defendant's ability to pay, payment of the total criminal monetary penalties is due as follows:

Special Assessment shall be paid in full and is due immediately.

Restitution obligation shall be payable to the Clerk, U.S. District Court, for distribution to the victims. You shall pay $100 immediately and shall pay the balance in monthly payments of $100. While in Bureau of Prisons custody, you shall either (1) pay at least $25 quarterly if you have a non-Unicor job or (2) pay at least 50% of your monthly earnings if you have a Unicor job. Upon release from custody, your financial circumstances will be evaluated, and the Court may establish a new payment schedule accordingly. At any time during the course of post-release supervision, the victim, the government, or the defendant, may notify the Court of a material change in the defendant's ability to pay and the Court may adjust the payment schedule accordingly. The Court finds that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest, and the Court waives the interest requirement for the restitution.

Unless the Court has expressly ordered otherwise in the special instructions above, if this judgment imposes a period of imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties shall be due during the period of imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the Clerk of the Court, unless otherwise directed by the Court, the Probation Officer, or the United States attorney.

Defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.

Payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment, (2) restitution principal, (3) restitution interest, (4) AVAA assessment, (5) fine principal, (6) fine interest, (7) community restitution, (8) JVTA assessment, and (9) penalties, and (10) costs, including cost of prosecution and court costs.

FORFEITURE

Defendant shall forfeit to the United States those assets that are subject to forfeiture as previously identified in the Order of Forfeiture and any subsequent orders.
