

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO

Criminal Action No. 1:21-cr-00165-RM-2

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

CHANDLER SIMBECK,

Defendant.

ORDER OF DETENTION

The Defendant appeared before this Court on September 21, 2022, for a revocation and detention hearing on a petition to revoke his pretrial release [Dkt. 34]. At the hearing, Defendant generally admitted the three alleged violations set out in the petition. The Court, therefore, found clear convincing evidence Defendant violated conditions of his release. The Court also considered the factors under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) and found there is no condition or combination of conditions of release that will assure Defendant will not flee or pose a danger to the safety of any other person or the community, and he is unlikely to abide by any condition or combination of conditions of release. 18 U.S.C. § 3148(B)(2). The Court granted the Petition for these reasons, revoked Defendant's pretrial release, and ordered Defendant detained pretrial.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(h)(i), the Court directs the Defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal; directs the Defendant be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; and, on order of a court of the United States or on a request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the Defendant is confined deliver the Defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

The Defendant is remanded into the custody of the United States Marshal.
