CR 323-003

O R D E R

Before the Court is Defendant Gladys Harun's motion to travel to Kenya for two weeks, which was filed on Wednesday, June 17, 2026.¹ Defendant began her three-year term of supervised release on January 21, 2026, and she is supervised by the United States Probation Office in the Middle District of Georgia.

When Defendant asked her supervising probation officer about her international travel plan, the request was denied on two separate occasions because of Defendant's non-compliance with her terms of supervised release - namely, Defendant had failed to make the required $400 restitution payments since her release. The probation officer also reports that Defendant opened a line of credit in March 2026 without requisite approval. Finally, and to be clear, the Court will not permit international travel absent extraordinary circumstances in the first year of supervised release.

Upon the foregoing, the motions to travel (doc. no. 82 & 83) are DENIED.

ORDER ENTERED at Augusta, Georgia, this 25th day of June, 2026.
