Docket No. 8:21-cr-00370-CEH-TGW

Motion to Amend International Travel Request

I come before the court on this motion to amend my Vancouver Canada travel request. My family initially planned in November of 2025 a reunion cruise to (from Vancouver Alaska) for this upcoming summer (June 2026). Our cruise itineraries were for June 16th-23rd,(including Juneteenth as we had a special celebration planned for my aunt who was to celebrate her 100th birthday, however she passed away in February, four months before she could make that milestone, and the decision to follow through with the cruise was divided.

I initially asked the courts permission to travel to Vancouver Canada June 14th-25th because at the time (early March) everyone was still divided on if we still had the spirit to go on the cruise, and even though money was already paid. I assumed we were not going as the celebration was to honor her, therefore I did not include the cruise in my travel plans.

Now, the plan has changed and the cruise is back on.
I'm asking permission from the courts to allow me to go on this cruise. My travel dates of June 14th to June 25th will not change. Cruise dates are June 16th to June 23rd. Leaving Vancouver cruising to Alaska USA only no other port stops.
