PETITIONING THE COURT

☒ To extend probation by 3 years, for a total term of 5 years:

CAUSE

Violation Number

Nature of Noncompliance

1.

Violation of special condition: The defendant must not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer:

During a recent review of Mr. Pratt's credit report, the probation officer discovered a new line of credit was opened through Credit One Bank on January 21, 2024. The account has an outstanding balance of $1,183. On September 11, 2024, the probation officer questioned the offender regarding the line of credit, and he admitted opening the account without prior approval of the probation officer.

Violation of special condition: The defendant shall pay restitution in the amount of $7,833.88, to the fullest extent feasible. The defendant shall pay in monthly installments of no less than $100 during a term of probation with the first installment to be paid within 30 days of the entry of this order, until the amount has been paid:

Since beginning probation on September 8, 2023, Mr. Pratt has paid $540 towards the restitution and has a remaining balance of $7,293.99. Mr. Pratt has failed to make regular restitution payments as ordered.

RE: Tamir Pratt
Docket No. 2:23CR00038

Request for Extending the Term of Supervision with Consent of the Offender

CAUSE

Mr. Pratt, through counsel, has agreed to consent to the extension of the term of probation. This officer believes such an extension will serve as a punitive sanction for the offender's conduct and help reiterate the importance of maintaining consistent monthly payments towards the restitution obligation. The United States Attorney's Office has also entered Mr. Pratt's case into the Treasury Offset Program.

It is noted Mr. Pratt's current term of probation is scheduled to expire on September 27, 2025. The probation officer respectfully recommends that Mr. Pratt's term of probation be extended as noted above.

Respectfully submitted,

Justin L. Gibson
Senior United States Probation Officer
April 9, 2025

THE COURT ORDERS:

- ☒ The extension of the term probation as noted above
- ☐ No action
- ☐ The issuance of a summons
- ☐ A hearing be scheduled in this matter

Waiver of Hearing to Extend the Term of Probation

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT for the
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF WEST VIRGINIA
TAMIR PRATT, DOCKET NO. 2:23CR00038

I, TAMIR PRATT, have been advised and understand that I am entitled by law to a hearing and assistance of counsel before any unfavorable change may be made in my conditions of probation or supervised release or before my term of supervision is extended. By "assistance of counsel," I understand that I have the right to be represented at the hearing by counsel of my own choosing if I am able to retain counsel. I also understand that I have the right to request the Court to appoint counsel to represent me at such a hearing at no cost to myself if I am not able to retain counsel of my own choosing. I further understand that I may waive my right to a hearing after conferring with counsel or by making such waiver before a United States Magistrate Judge.

TP I acknowledge that I have conferred with counsel prior to executing this waiver and I hereby willingly, knowingly, and voluntarily waive my statutory right to a hearing and agree to the following modification(s) of my conditions of probation or supervised release, or to the proposed extension of my term of supervision:

To extend probation by 3 years, for a total term of 5 years.
