1 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Calling on Page 6 of Page 7,
2 Case No. 26-MJ-2277 and 2278-Elfenbein, United States of 3 America versus Sniders Jean-Jacques.

4 Counsel, please state your name for the record,
5 beginning with the Government.

6 MS. GUZMAN: Yes, your Honor. Good morning. Maria
7 Guzman on behalf of the United States.

8 THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Guzman.

9 MR. BEATON: And good morning, your Honor. Marcos
10 Beaton on behalf of Mr. Jean-Jacques, who is present with me
11 and standing next to me.

12 THE COURT: All right. Good morning, Mr. Beaton.

13 And good morning, Mr. Jean-Jacques.

14 Before we go forward, I just want to -- I see that we 15 still have our interpreter here. And I'm noticing, I don't 16 think we need her services for the morning calendar.

17 My recollection is that Mr. Jean-Jacques is fluent in 18 English. Am I correct, Mr. Beaton?

19 MR. BEATON: We don't need an interpreter.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Great.

21 In that case, Madam Interpreter, you are excused. I'm 22 sorry you were here for the last hearing. I just looked over
23 and I saw that you were there, and I figured that you probably 24 have other places that you probably could be.

25 All right. Folks, good morning. We are here on a

1 removal hearing as well as a pretrial detention hearing. I
2 recall that when Mr. Jean-Jacques was before me earlier in the 3 week, he was still contemplating the possibility about whether 4 or not he wanted to have the proceedings here or in the 5 District of Massachusetts, where the charges are pending.

6 So, Mr. Beaton, are we going forward with the hearing
7 here or what would your client like to do?

8 MR. BEATON: So this morning Mr. Jean-Jacques informed
9 me that he would like to proceed with the detention hearing
10 here.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MR. BEATON: The removal he's going to waive, but the 13 bail detention hearing we will have here.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Well, in that case, let's take up
15 the one matter that's not contested. Let's take that one up
16 first and then we'll do the detention hearing.

17 So let me ask him some questions. Has he already 18 filled out the waiver for the identity hearing?

19 MR. BEATON: Not as to just identity.

20 THE COURT: Okay. There's a form.

21 [Inaudible], is it up there already?

22 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Yes.

23 THE COURT: If you look over there, my courtroom deputy
24 has probably already pre-filled out just in case you needed it
25 a document. Oh, yes. You need -- it's one for each case.

1 MR. BEATON: That's right.

2 (Confers with the Defendant privately.)

3 Mr. Jean-Jacques has signed both of them. May I hand
4 them to the Court?

5 THE COURT: Yes, please.

6 THE DEFENDANT: Good morning, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Good morning, sir. I'm going to ask you
8 some questions about your decision to waive the identity
9 hearing.

10 So, [inaudible], put him under oath, please.

11 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Please raise your right hand to 12 be sworn.

13 (Whereupon, the Defendant was duly sworn.)

14 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: You can put your hand down.

15 THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Jean-Jacques. I'm going to tell
16 you what I tell everyone when I put them under oath: You are 17 now under oath, so if you intentionally answer any of my 18 questions falsely, that is a separate crime which is a crime of 19 perjury that is punishable by up to five years in prison.

20 Do you understand that?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Why don't you tell me -- start off
23 by telling me how old you are, sir.

24 THE DEFENDANT: I'm 38.

25 THE COURT: And how far did you go in school?

1 THE DEFENDANT: I went to college, [inaudible]
2 associate and all of my [inaudible]. I went through. I got,
3 like, 26 certificates from college. Your Honor, it's an 4 A-track.

5 THE COURT: Okay. And you're able to speak and 6 understand English. Am I right?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. I speak seven languages.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Perfect.

9 Have you been diagnosed with any mental illness or any 10 addiction to narcotics?

11 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor, but I do take seizure
12 medication.

13 THE COURT: Okay. That's actually the next question
14 I'm going to ask you.

15 THE DEFENDANT: And also I take -- I take the seizure
16 medication. One of the side effects was, like, making me
17 anxiety. So they gave me another medication for that.

18 THE COURT: Okay. So you take something for seizures
19 and for anxiety?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Have you taken any of those medications in 22 the last 24 hours?

23 THE DEFENDANT: I took them last night and this morning
24 for my seizure.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Do either one of those -- do you

1 know the name of the medications?

2 THE DEFENDANT: One of them is -- not off the top of my
3 hand. I couldn't remember. One of them is Keppra, Keppra for 4 seizure.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 THE DEFENDANT: The other one is -- I don't know,
7 ma'am.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Do either one of those medications
9 impact your ability to understand what's happening here in 10 court?

11 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Do you feel like you're thinking clearly
13 this morning?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Okay. I want to make sure you understand
16 that you have the right to force the Government to prove by a
17 preponderance of the evidence -- that means more likely than 18 not -- that you are the same Sniders Jean-Jacques that the 19 grand jury indicted in the District of Massachusetts.

20 Do you understand that you have that right?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Okay. And have you had sufficient time to 23 discuss with your lawyer whether you'd like to waive your right
24 to an identity hearing?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

1 THE COURT: And would you like to waive that right?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay. And your lawyer has passed up two
4 documents. That's a waiver of Rule 5 and 5.1, removal/identity
5 hearing, where it indicates you'd like to waive that hearing.
6 These are -- there's one in Criminal Case 26-2277-MJ-Elfenbein
7 and the other one is in 26-2278-MJ-Elfenbein. Did you sign
8 both of these forms here in court?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well, having had the 11 benefit of counsel and having colloquied you, I'm going to find
12 that you have made a knowing and voluntary waiver of your right
13 to an identity hearing done with the advice of counsel, and I
14 will accept the waiver.

15 Okay. So, folks, my courtroom deputy has just reminded 16 me that I neglected on the last case to go over the probable
17 cause waiver with our last defendant. So I'm so sorry, but 18 before -- that way, Mr. Fleischman doesn't have to wait this 19 whole detention hearing for that.

20 I'm going to re-call that case briefly and then we're
21 going to have your detention hearing. Okay, Mr. Jean-Jacques?

22 (Pause in the audio recording.)

23 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Re-calling Page 6 of 7, Case No.
24 26-MJ-2277-Judge Elfenbein and -- sorry -- 278 -- Sniders
25 Jean-Jacques.

1 Counsels, state your name for the record, beginning
2 with the Government.

3 MS. GUZMAN: Yes, your Honor. Maria Guzman on behalf
4 of the United States on both matters.

5 THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Guzman.

6 And I see Mr. Beaton is back along with
7 Mr. Jean-Jacques.

8 So now we've handled the identity hearing. The only
9 matter that remains is the detention hearing.

10 Are the parties ready to proceed?

11 MS. GUZMAN: The United States is ready, your Honor.

12 MR. BEATON: Yes, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Okay. I'll be taking judicial notice of 14 the Pretrial Services report as well as I've taken judicial 15 notice of the indictments in both matters in the District of 16 Massachusetts -- the indictments in -- let's see -- 20-MJ-2217
17 and the indictment in 26-2278-MJ.

18 Okay. Does the Government have an agent available for 19 cross-examination?

20 MS. GUZMAN: We do, your Honor. We would like to 21 proceed on testimonial evidence before the Court and also, if 22 the Court will permit us, argument with regards to that 23 testimony and then the Bail Reform Act.

24 THE COURT: Oh, are you going to call him as a witness,
25 not a proffer?

1 MS. GUZMAN: No. I'm going to call him as a witness.

2 THE COURT: I guess in the Middle District of Florida,
3 is that how it was done?

4 MS. GUZMAN: Sometimes.

5 THE COURT: Okay. All right. I'm not used to any
6 AUSAs proceeding by testimonial evidence. Well, you're welcome
7 to do so. You don't have to proceed by proffer. But go ahead.
8 However you wish to proceed.

9 MS. GUZMAN: Just for purposes of the record, I know
10 this is probably established, but we're pursuing detention in 11 this case pursuant to Title 18, 3142, indicating to the Court
12 that we believe the Defendant is both a flight risk and a 13 danger to the community with regards to both matters before the 14 Court.

15 Also, also, before I put on a witness, I would like the 16 Court to know that I have inquired of any potential Jencks
17 evidence that we would be turning over to the Defendant and 18 defense counsel prior to this hearing. There is none. So with 19 regards to our responsibilities under the Federal Rule of 20 Criminal Procedure 26.2 and Title 18, 3500, I would advise the 21 Court that there are no such materials in existence to provide 22 to counsel.

23 THE COURT: Okay. And tell me -- a couple of things
24 that I ask on a preliminary basis before the AUSAs dive into 25 their proffer.

1 If you could tell me whether there's a mandatory
2 minimum, which I don't think would be on these charges; what
3 the stat max is; and if there's any calculation as to what the 4 guidelines would be.

5 MS. GUZMAN: Yes, your Honor.

6 MR. BEATON: Your Honor, can we sit down? We got the 7 permission from the marshals.

8 THE COURT: Yes. Certainly. Yes. I know that
9 Mr. Jean-Jacques has an issue with standing on his feet. So 10 certainly.

11 MS. GUZMAN: So, your Honor, with regards to the first 12 question, the indictment charges the Defendant pursuant to 13 Title 18, Section 1349, which is a conspiracy to commit wire
14 fraud, the wire fraud would have a 20-year statutory maximum.

15 In the indictment, it appears that they also include
16 bank fraud. As the Court is aware, under that statute, there
17 is a provision that if there is a financial institution that is 18 involved, the statutory maximum can be increased to 30 years.

19 So I believe that the way that the District of 20 Massachusetts pled it, it's a 30-year statutory maximum.

21 THE COURT: Okay. And do you have any preliminary 22 estimate of what his guidelines would be?

23 MS. GUZMAN: Yes. The preliminary estimate provided to 24 me by the District of Massachusetts based on his total offense
25 level, which of course would be based on the total loss and his

1 criminal history, would be somewhere around the range of 121 to 2 151 months.

3 THE COURT: Is that before acceptance?

4 MS. GUZMAN: Before acceptance. That's correct.

5 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well, at this point, if 6 you're ready to call your agent, you may do so.

7 MS. GUZMAN: Thank you, your Honor.

8 The United States would call Agent Nelson Muñiz.

9 THE COURT: Nelson Muñiz? That's his name?

10 MS. GUZMAN: Yes.

11 THE COURT: All right. Come on up, Agent Muñiz.

12 MR. BEATON: Your Honor, while Agent Muñiz is doing
13 that, the only thing that I will note for the record is that I
14 would have an objection to testimony or argument on danger to 15 the community. I believe this Court granted the hearing simply 16 based on risk of flight, which was the Government's 17 representation when we were before you initially.

18 THE COURT: I'll look at the docket.

19 The Government sought -- requested a hearing based on 20 serious risk of flight, is what my notes are -- what the minute
21 order reflects from his initial appearance two days ago.

22 So, Ms. Guzman, is the Government proceeding only in 23 that case on -- based on risk of flight?

24 MS. GUZMAN: If that was the representation that was 25 made to the Court at a prior hearing, and obviously the defense

1 relied on that representation to prepare for today's hearing, I
2 would proceed only, then, on the issue of flight risk.

3 THE COURT: Okay. And that is consistent with my
4 recollection. I remember that I heard Mr. Ustynoski give me a
5 preliminary proffer on serious risk of flight, and there was no
6 discussion of danger. So that is consistent with my 7 recollection, too. But I just wanted to double-check the 8 minute order, and the minute order reflects that as well.

9 MS. GUZMAN: Yes, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Okay. So in that case, we'll be proceeding
11 under risk of flight today.

12 Go ahead.

13 MS. GUZMAN: Thank you, your Honor.

14 May I approach the podium or --

15 THE COURT: Wherever you feel most comfortable. You
16 can use the lectern; you can stay there.

17 MS. GUZMAN: Okay.

18 THE COURT: It's up to you.

19 MS. GUZMAN: All right. Thank you, your Honor.

20 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Sir, please raise your right
21 hand to be sworn.

22 NELSON MUNIZ, GOVERNMENT WITNESS, SWORN.

23 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Can you state your name for the 24 record and spell your first and last name?

25 THE WITNESS: Nelson Muñiz. First name is N-E-L-S-O-N.

1 Last name is M-U-N-I-Z.

2 MS. GUZMAN: May I proceed, your Honor?

3 THE COURT: Yes. Go ahead.

4 MS. GUZMAN: Thank you.

5 DIRECT EXAMINATION

6 BY MS. GUZMAN:

7 Q. Agent Muñiz, thank you. Good morning.

8 A. Good morning.

9 Q. Are you familiar with the facts involving an indictment out
10 of the District of Massachusetts involving an individual by the 11 name of Sniders Jean-Jacques?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. First of all, how are you currently employed?

14 A. I'm a special agent with the Federal Housing Finance Agency
15 Office of Inspector General.

16 Q. And are you based out of South Florida or are you based out
17 of Massachusetts?

18 A. I'm based out of South Florida.

19 Q. You are, however -- let me ask you this: Are you aware of 20 the indictment that was returned by the District of 21 Massachusetts against this Defendant?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And are you aware of the facts underlying that particular
24 indictment in the District of Massachusetts?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. With regards to just the facts briefly in that
2 matter, what is essentially the role of the Defendant in the 3 indictment -- as illustrated in the indictment?

4 A. The Defendant coordinated a conspiracy to defraud banks by 5 arranging fraudulent employment, income and documentation
6 created to induce banks to issue loans and also for the purpose
7 of leasing apartments.

8 Q. And with regards to -- I think you used the word
9 "coordinated." Is that correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. There are other individuals listed in the indictment; is 12 that correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. When you refer to others, are you referring to the 15 individuals noted in the indictment?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Is it your understanding that Mr. Jean-Jacques held 18 somewhat of a management or supervisor role with regards to 19 these other Defendants?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Now, with regards to the amount of this potential loss, do
22 you have a figure that is estimated?

23 A. There are two indictments. There was a PPP loan indictment
24 and a mortgage and apartment indictment. The one with the 25 mortgages, I believe the original intended amounts were about

1 6 million, and maybe three-point-something million was actually
2 obtained. The PPP one I am not familiar with.

3 Q. Now, with regards to this case in the District of 4 Massachusetts, was the Defendant in control or a proprietor of 5 a business or establishment that was conducting or assisting in 6 the fraud?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And what type of business was that?

9 A. The name of the business was Black Market Luxury. And it
10 was his company.

11 Q. Is that company still open?

12 A. It's currently inactive, according to the Division of 13 Corporations.

14 Q. Are you aware of whether or not Mr. Jean-Jacques had a 15 prior criminal history?

16 A. Yes, he did.

17 Q. And what type of criminal history are you aware of that he
18 had in Massachusetts -- or that he had?

19 A. It was another financial fraud. I believe it was around
20 2013 or 2014.

21 Q. Now, with regards to that particular matter and the current
22 matter, do you know if there was any overlap between the period
23 of the prior offense and the period during which, as you
24 suggest, this fraudulent activity occurred?

25 A. I believe the -- for the prior offense, the supervised

1 release ended at the end of 2018, December 2018, I believe.

2 And for this indictment, the conspiracy started in May of 2018.

3 Q. Now, are you familiar with Mr. Jean-Jacques's personal
4 history?

5 A. (No audible response.)

6 Q. Is he a United States citizen? Do you know? If you know.

7 A. I believe he is. I'm not sure. I believe he is.

8 Q. All right. Were you involved or do you have knowledge of 9 the events surrounding his detention to be brought over to 10 federal court?

11 A. I'm sorry. Can you ask that again?

12 Q. Now, he was detained a few days ago -- is that correct? --
13 to be brought to federal court?

14 A. Yes. Sure.

15 Q. Were you involved in that arrest or detention?

16 A. I was involved in one of the other Defendants on the 17 indictment.

18 Q. With regards to Mr. Jean-Jacques, had you become aware of 19 the facts or instances involving his arrest?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Is it your understanding based on your review of other --
22 and speaking, I assume, to other agents -- whether this
23 Defendant was cooperative at the time of his arrest?

24 A. No, not initially.

25 Q. Could you please explain that to the Court?

1 A. The arrest team originally went to the address shown on his
2 driver's license, and he was not present. They discovered
3 where he may actually have been. They went to that residence.
4 And that is where he was. But he initially refused to come
5 out.

6 Q. Now, when you indicate to the Court that he initially
7 refused to come out, what happened when he refused to come out?

8 A. It took about 15 minutes before finally he presented
9 himself, whatever, to the agents. That's a long time when 10 you're trying to arrest somebody.

11 Q. Okay. So you've indicated that you did not believe he was 12 cooperative, at least at that point?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. With regards to this particular case in the District of 15 Massachusetts, have these other individuals that are noted in 16 the indictment also been arrested?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Were they all arrested the same day?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And are they all pending transfer to the District of 21 Massachusetts at this time?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. I'm not going to go through the specifics of the 24 indictment. The Court has that. However, you indicated that 25 at least during the course of the conspiracy -- which took

1 place from, I believe, 2018, May of 2018, and then on or about
2 June of 2025. Is that correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. So that was somewhat of a long period of time; is that 5 correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Now, during that time period, is it your understanding
8 based on your knowledge of this case that Mr. Jean-Jacques
9 continued to -- with regards to the other Defendants, what was 10 it that Mr. Jean-Jacques was doing or suggesting to the other 11 Defendants?

12 A. There was -- one of the other Defendants would take 13 individuals recruited by Jean-Jacques and connect their 14 identities to people with good credit to help bolster their 15 credit. One of the other Defendants, Mr. Jean-Jacques would 16 coordinate with him on the creation of -- for altering actual
17 bank statements to make fraudulent bank statements showing
18 higher assets than they actually had, to make them appear more
19 creditworthy, and then with a mortgage broker who would 20 actually do the rest of the work of getting the loan issued by 21 the bank.

22 Q. And I think you had stated this was all fraudulent
23 activity; is that correct?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. And when you suggest to the Court that Mr. Jean-Jacques

1 recruited the other Co-Defendants, what exactly do you mean by 2 that?

3 A. I mean that they worked together. He communicated with 4 them, provided them with actual documentation, received
5 fraudulent documentation in return, which was used for the bank
6 fraud.

7 Q. And are you aware what happened with the funds that were
8 obtained as a result of this fraudulent activity?

9 A. No. I don't have that knowledge.

10 Q. With regards to this investigation, were you the main case
11 agent or were you an assistant to the case agents in the 12 District of Massachusetts?

13 A. No. I was helping the case agent in Massachusetts.

14 MS. GUZMAN: Your Honor, I have no further questions of 15 this witness with regards to the issue of flight risk.

16 THE COURT: Are you going to have other questions for 17 this witness on another issue?

18 MS. GUZMAN: No, your Honor. With regards to flight
19 risk, I am relying on the bail report to the Court and base my 20 argument on that, since we have limited it to only the issue of 21 flight risk.

22 THE COURT: Okay. So in that case, you tender the 23 witness?

24 MS. GUZMAN: I do.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Great.

1 Mr. Beaton, cross-examination.

2 MR. BEATON: Thank you, your Honor.

3 CROSS-EXAMINATION

4 BY MR. BEATON:

5 Q. Good morning, Agent Muñiz. How are you?

6 A. Good morning.

7 Q. You and I have never met before?

8 A. No.

9 Q. We said hello to each other at the beginning of today's 10 court session. This is the first time that we've met?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Agent Muñiz, did you do any substantive work in either one
13 of these cases? And here's what I mean, just to get -- cut to 14 the point. Did you interview witnesses, pull documents,
15 execute subpoenas as part of the investigation in this case?

16 A. As to Jean-Jacques, no.

17 Q. And because this is a case that originates in Boston,
18 you're standing in for [inaudible]?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. So a lot of what underpins the indictment in terms of 21 documents, records and interviews, you do not have personal 22 knowledge of?

23 A. Other than reviewing the documentation, no.

24 Q. And when you have reviewed documentation, have you reviewed
25 reports?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Have you reviewed anything else?

3 A. I've reviewed text message conversations between 4 Jean-Jacques and other Defendants.

5 Q. And by whom were those provided to you?

6 A. By the agents in Massachusetts.

7 Q. So your colleagues sent you reports and some text messages
8 to get you caught up to speed?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Other than what was sent to you, you have no personal
11 knowledge of what happened in this case. Is that fair?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. And you're saying that I think your investigative agency is 14 not involved in the PPP fraud case? That's a different agency?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. You definitely don't have any personal knowledge on the PPP
17 fraud case?

18 A. No.

19 Q. So let's talk about 26-Criminal-10030, which is the case
20 that you testified about.

21 So Ms. Guzman made the point that in the indictment,
22 Paragraph 19, it lists the conspiracy dates as May 2018 through 23 June of 2025.

24 Do you remember that?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Do you have a copy of the indictment with you?

2 A. No.

3 MR. BEATON: Can I borrow yours?

4 MS. GUZMAN: Sure.

5 Your Honor, for purposes of the hearing, I would be 6 happy to provide the witness with a copy of the indictment.

7 May I approach the witness?

8 THE COURT: Sure.

9 BY MR. BEATON:

10 Q. So if you need to refer to it, I want you to have it there
11 and I want to move things along.

12 Would you agree with me that all of the acts in furtherance 13 of the conspiracy identify dates in 2018, 2020, 2021 and two in 14 2023, but nothing else?

15 A. So 2024 and 2025 are nowhere to be found in the acts in 16 furtherance of the conspiracy. Right. Correct.

17 Q. So that May '18 through June of 2025 indication is 18 internally inconsistent with what's in the document.

19 A. What's in the document, yes.

20 Q. With regards to this case, you used the word "coordinated"
21 as to Mr. Jean-Jacques. And I'm going to point you to, for 22 example, Page 4, Paragraph 19-B. And you'll see where it says:
23 On or about December 5th, 2020, Jean-Jacques instructed Pierre
24 in substance to provide an apartment complex with a phone
25 number for a fraudulent applicant.

1 Do you see that? At the bottom of the page.

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. We're going to do this. Do you have -- can you tell us
4 what that substance is, what words were used?

5 A. No. I can't tell you what words were used.

6 Q. So let's move quickly. If you'll go with me to Page 6. Do
7 you see Paragraph 5 at the top of the page, "in substance"?
8 You see the same phrase, right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Paragraph L, you'll see "in substance." Right?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Paragraph N, "in substance"?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. And those are talking about messages attributed to 15 Mr. Jean-Jacques.

16 You don't have any information about what the substance of 17 that is, right?

18 A. The specific wording used, no.

19 Q. And I want you to look at Paragraph K. So the paragraph
20 says: On or about June 13th, 2018, Kelly Michelle messaged
21 Jean-Jacques at, quote, "All trade lines have closed in Boston, 22 period," end quote.

23 You see that, right?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. So you'll agree with me that when the language is quoted in

1 there, those are the actual words that were used. Right?

2 A. Probably. Most likely. Yes.

3 Q. And so the indictment does state what certain messages are 4 word for word. Right?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. But in most all other instances, it qualifies it with the 7 "in substance" language. Right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And you'll agree with me that "in substance" means, In 10 summary, my summary of what this message said is XYZ. Right?

11 A. Correct. You take it into context with other 12 communication.

13 Q. And the indictment in this case alleges that certain folks
14 who are characterized as Borrowers 1 and 2 and Employees 1 and 15 2 submitted applications either for rents or for mortgages.
16 That's one of the acts in furtherance. Correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. There's no instance where Mr. Jean-Jacques submitted a
19 mortgage application. You'll agree with me. Right?

20 A. Where he personally submitted? I don't know.

21 Q. And you'll agree with me that there's no instance where 22 Mr. Jean-Jacques submitted a rental application. Right?

23 A. Submitted? No.

24 Q. The allegation is that essentially, in substance, to use
25 the word that you guys used in the indictment, he assisted, you

1 guys are claiming, folks with these applications. Right?

2 A. Correct. He caused them to be submitted.

3 Q. And I see that word a lot. You took the next word. "He 4 caused them to be submitted." And so we just talked about the 5 fact that he didn't press any buttons to submit them. Right?

6 A. Not that I know of.

7 Q. He didn't walk over to any agency to turn them in. Right?

8 A. Not that I'm aware of.

9 Q. Okay. He didn't force anybody either by threat, coercion,
10 depriving anything for them to submit these applications.
11 Right?

12 A. Not that I know of.

13 Q. So your allegation is that Mr. Jean-Jacques helped or 14 someone -- guided someone in the participation of these 15 applications. That's the substance of the allegation. Right?

16 A. Yes. That he coordinated it and he provided the use of his 17 business in order to further the conspiracy.

18 Q. And there's allegations in here as to another Co-Defendant
19 about falsifying documents. Right? About actually taking, for 20 example, bank statements and then switching them up. Right?

21 A. Yes. Yes.

22 Q. That's not Mr. Jean-Jacques. Right?

23 A. No. He provided the actual bank statements to that
24 Defendant and then received the fraudulent ones in return.

25 Q. Well --

1 A. And he asked the Defendant that the bank statement had to
2 show a certain minimum balance, which is what was returned to 3 him.

4 Q. And that kind of conversation is another "in substance."
5 What words did Mr. Jean-Jacques use to say, "Here's the 6 original one. Give me back a fake one"?

7 A. I don't remember the exact amount. But it was a text
8 message. And he said, "The balance has to show at least around 9 somewhere around $69,000." I remember he said that.

10 Q. So you're aware that Mr. Jean-Jacques -- one of the things
11 that he does is he's a tax preparer. He has a tax preparation
12 business. Right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And so he assists some of those clients in some financial 15 advice, as you understand it. Right?

16 A. Yes. He was a tax preparer. He does not have an active
17 [inaudible], so he cannot prepare taxes anymore.

18 Q. Got it.

19 So you understand that certain mortgage companies have 20 underwriting standards. Right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And there are people that get hired to understand those
23 underwriting standards. Right?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And one of those underwriting standards that the mortgage

1 companies have is an approximation of how much cash on hand you
2 have. Correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. So telling someone that, "Hey, bank XYZ is going to need
5 you to have, you know, at least 70 grand if you want to 6 qualify," that's kind of accurate advice. And I'm not saying
7 that that may be clear, because I don't know what the number
8 is. I have no idea what the numbers are. But that type of 9 advice is things that mortgage brokers tell their clients all 10 day.

11 A. Yes. But not when you provide somebody's actual bank
12 statements that show a significantly lower balance and then 13 receive altered bank statements in return reflecting the 14 balance that was requested.

15 Q. I -- you're connecting dots that sort of just in 16 isolation -- so giving someone advice based on an inadequacy
17 that you see, there's nothing wrong with that statement.
18 "You're never going to qualify." There's nothing wrong with 19 that. Right?

20 A. That's right.

21 Q. And if somebody finds mom, dad, uncle, aunt to give them,
22 you know, 50 grand or whatever -- I haven't bought a house for 23 a million years, so I don't remember how this works. But they 24 can submit the application when they think they're going to 25 qualify. Right?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And there's no evidence that you have that Mr. Jean-Jacques
3 went to a program, a computer, that he switched the numbers.
4 Right? There's no evidence of that?

5 A. Somebody else did that for him.

6 Q. So the answer to my question -- and my question is:
7 There's no evidence that he went to a program and that he
8 changed those things himself. Right?

9 A. Not that I know of.

10 Q. So this -- this intended loss of 6 million and loss of 3.7
11 million, so I see that the indictment that you're responsible 12 for -- I'm not going to ask you about the PPP fraud, because 13 that's not yours.

14 That -- I see that we're talking about literally two 15 borrowers and that we're talking about timeframes that span
16 from -- as to Borrower 1, which is how the indictment is broken
17 down, you're talking January 2021 through May, June; there's 18 some dates in July; and then in September of 2021 as to 19 Borrower 1. And then Borrower 2 is October 2021 through kind
20 of August of 2021. It goes to August of 2022. And those are 21 the only two borrowers that I see. So I have a hard time
22 understanding where the $3.7 million number comes from. Can 23 you explain?

24 A. I believe the $6 million would be the original intended
25 amounts, all applications submitted. And the 3.7 is what was

1 actually issued.

2 Q. So, I mean, as to Employee 1, for example, we're talking
3 about submitting an application for renting an apartment in 4 Wynwood. As to Employee 2, we're talking about something that
5 is sort of related to Social Security and proof of employment
6 and has to do with another rental.

7 And then it's Borrowers 1 and 2 that we're talking about.

8 So, I mean, these are the only two applications that are 9 mentioned in acts in furtherance. Are you saying that 10 collectively those two applications add up to $3.7 million --

11 A. No.

12 Q. -- in fraudulent proceeds?

13 A. No.

14 Q. So there's others that are not listed in the indictment?

15 A. That are part of the overall conspiracy, yes.

16 Q. So who are they? What evidence? Tell us what -- because 17 the judge has to find by a preponderance of the evidence. It's 18 a low standard, but it's not a no standard. Right?

19 So we don't have any evidence. We have Borrower 1. You
20 have Borrower 2. The numbers we're talking about are 21 balances -- I mean, you know, you're looking at probably, you
22 know, $70,000 to $90,000 in a bank account. They're not buying
23 $2 or $3 million homes. So putting those two aside, what 24 others and what amounts are you talking about?

25 A. I don't have that information.

1 Q. So the only information that we have right now is what's in 2 the indictment?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. The last thing I want to ask you about is the circumstances
5 of Mr. Jean-Jacques's arrest.

6 You said an arrest team went to execute the arrest to the 7 original location and the second location. Were you a part of 8 that arrest team?

9 A. No.

10 Q. You said based on what you've been told it took him about 11 15 minutes to come out?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Just so the Court's clear and we have it on the record, an 14 arrest team is somebody who, at least generally speaking, they 15 go knock on the door, say, Hey -- you know, they identify 16 themselves as law enforcement, say who they're looking for,
17 come out. Right?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. And you weren't able to testify certainly to your personal
20 knowledge, but you don't know what Mr. Jean-Jacques heard or 21 saw inside the home. Right?

22 A. No.

23 Q. And the best estimate that you've been given is 15 minutes.
24 Right?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And when law enforcement comes knocking on your door, would
2 you agree with me that it's not an unreasonable thing to do to
3 call, let's say, an attorney and ask for advice?

4 MS. GUZMAN: Objection to speculation on that question.

5 THE COURT: Overruled. He can answer.

6 THE WITNESS: I think you should open the door when the 7 [inaudible].

8 BY MR. BEATON:

9 Q. I appreciate it. I'm sure you guys would prefer that. But 10 you'll agree with me it's not an unreasonable thing to do for 11 someone that has law enforcement at the door so they can't come
12 out to call their attorney. It's not unreasonable?

13 A. You can call them afterwards.

14 Q. But my question is, it's not unreasonable? That's the only
15 thing I'm asking.

16 A. I think it's unreasonable.

17 Q. You think it's unreasonable?

18 A. Yes.

19 MR. BEATON: Give me one second, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Go ahead.

21 BY MR. BEATON:

22 Q. I appreciate you stepping in. I know you were put on the 23 spot.

24 MR. BEATON: I have nothing further, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. Any redirect?

1 MS. GUZMAN: No, your Honor. Just argument.

2 THE COURT: All right. So, Agent Muñiz, you may step
3 down. Thank you, sir.

4 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

5 (Witness excused.)

6 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Guzman, does the Government
7 have any other evidence it wishes to either proffer or any
8 other witnesses it wishes to call?

9 MS. GUZMAN: No, your Honor. Just argument.
10 Essentially --

11 THE COURT: Hold on. Before I get to that, let me turn
12 to defense counsel to see if he wants to proffer anything or if 13 he has any witnesses he wants to call.

14 MR. BEATON: No, your Honor. I'll proceed by argument.

15 It's half proffer, half argument. But there's just 16 some facts, most of which are contained in the Pretrial
17 Services report.

18 THE COURT: All right. Are you going to offer anything
19 that's not in the Pretrial Services report? Only because I
20 want to make sure that Ms. Guzman has an opportunity to respond
21 to anything that's, like, outside the record that she might not 22 know.

23 MR. BEATON: No. She has everything.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Great. So let's proceed to 25 argument.

1 Go ahead, Ms. Guzman.

2 MS. GUZMAN: Thank you, your Honor.

3 Obviously, the one issue before the Court is the issue
4 of the Defendant's potential flight risk. Under Title 18,
5 3142, we're not proceeding on danger to the community. So I'll
6 narrow my arguments to that particular issue.

7 In this particular case, the Court -- the Defendant was 8 charged by an indictment. These are indicted cases that were 9 presented to a federal grand jury.

10 The Defendant is facing a potential maximum of 20 years
11 on a conspiracy to commit wire fraud, potentially up to 30
12 years on the issue of whether a financial institution was used
13 during the commission of the conspiracy to commit wire fraud.

14 So the statutory maximums are significant for this
15 Defendant. I believe that the fine amounts for Title 18, 1349,
16 are somewhere in the range of a million dollars. So they are 17 significant penalties that the Defendant is facing.

18 The Defendant is a recidivist. So with regards to his
19 potential to flee, not only is he facing significant penalties
20 if convicted, but he's also a recidivist, as the Court note --
21 heard, not only in the testimony of the agent, that the 22 Defendant had supervision on a prior case that was discharged
23 in December of 2018, which would have been during the timeframe
24 of the conspiracy.

25 But moreover, the charge itself, which is on Page 4 of

1 the Pretrial Services report, was a charge out of Boston where
2 the Defendant was convicted of theft of public money.

3 The Defendant received a sentence on those two counts
4 of 24 months' imprisonment and three years of supervised
5 release and a $200 special assessment. Again, as noted, his
6 supervision was discharged in 2018 after the time period
7 commenced in the indictment.

8 It is safe to suggest that that prior criminal history
9 is also going to affect his potential guidelines and obviously 10 an additional incentive for him to flee.

11 As is noted in the Pretrial Services report --

12 THE COURT: You're saying because he's not a Criminal
13 History Category I, but he's going to have three points, and so 14 he'll be Criminal History Category II?

15 MS. GUZMAN: Correct.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MS. GUZMAN: He's going to have an enhanced penalty
18 range than just a Criminal History Category I, which means that 19 that will obviously elevate his guidelines potentially even 20 more.

21 THE COURT: But the estimate that you gave me, the 121
22 to 151 months, that accounts for Criminal History Category II,
23 does it not?

24 MS. GUZMAN: I believe it does.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MS. GUZMAN: I do believe it does. I think that that
2 was taken into account by the District of Massachusetts when
3 they came up with their guidelines.

4 I would also note with regards to the flight risk
5 issue, which is the only issue before the Court, in the 6 Pretrial Services report, the person that was contacted to 7 corroborate the Defendant's personal history was his brother,
8 Christopher Johnson. He indicated that he was not willing to 9 cosign a bond. Although he was contacted by Pretrial Services,
10 he indicated he was not willing to cosign a bond. There are 11 several instances during the course of the report where he 12 indicates that he couldn't corroborate information. He just 13 didn't know the information.

14 So it appears that there's just a lot of gaps and a lot
15 of unverified, uncorroborated information in the Pretrial
16 Services report, which is worrisome.

17 The Defendant also --

18 THE COURT: Like what?

19 MS. GUZMAN: Well, foreign travel. The Defendant
20 indicated that he had a valid United States passport and that 21 the Defendant himself declined to provide any of his foreign 22 travel history.

23 THE COURT: So does he have foreign travel that you
24 want to proffer to me?

25 MS. GUZMAN: I do not know whether he does or does not.

1 THE COURT: Wouldn't that burden be on the Government
2 to come here and show me that he has ties outside of the 3 district in foreign travel?

4 MS. GUZMAN: I can only say that he declined to provide
5 that information. I cannot say whether he traveled. I can 6 only say that in the Pretrial Services report he declined to 7 provide that information.

8 I note that also, which is worrisome, the Defendant
9 indicated that he has had mental health issues as reflected on 10 Page 3, that he had admitted himself to a local Miami hospital
11 sometime in August of 2025, that he was diagnosed with anxiety
12 and he is being prescribed medication.

13 There are other issues here, I think, that relate more
14 to the Defendant's danger to the community, but I'm not going 15 to address those, because those are not, obviously, before the 16 Court.

17 The Defendant, as is reported here in the Pretrial
18 Services report, apparently has -- by his own account has 19 family in Haiti, has contacts to Haiti, which -- he is an
20 American citizen. He was born in Haiti, became a United States
21 citizen. However, he indicates that, you know, obviously,
22 there is information in the Pretrial Services report that he
23 still has ties to the country of Haiti.

24 And as the Pretrial Services report indicated itself, I
25 think, when assessing their concern with regards to the flight

1 risk issue, there was the offense charged, which is why I
2 briefly put the agent on. I think it was important for the
3 Court to hear from the agent and the circumstances of his
4 arrest. Whether the Court deems that cooperative or not
5 cooperative, that's for the Court to determine. However, I
6 thought it was important that the Court hear that in fact the 7 Defendant didn't simply just surrender when approached by law
8 enforcement.

9 Obviously, as the Court knows, he does have possession
10 of travel documents. He has the family in Haiti; he has the 11 ties to Haiti, the mental health history.

12 And then the two most important ones for purposes of 13 the Court determining whether or not he's a flight risk, again,
14 his criminal history and then he has a prior failure to appear.
15 It appears that in -- with regard at least to one case in 2006,
16 as reflected on Page 4, he had a failure to appear --

17 THE COURT: Well, but the disposition in that case is 18 unknown.

19 MS. GUZMAN: Correct.

20 THE COURT: So we don't know. He could have been
21 acquitted of that. It's an accusation; it's not a conviction
22 for failure to appear.

23 MS. GUZMAN: Correct. And I'm not -- I am not asking
24 the Court, quite frankly, to look at the first three, because 25 the first three all appear to be unknown. So with regards to

1 his prior criminal history, the one concern -- and whether I
2 deem or term him as a recidivist, it is only based on the 2014
3 offense.

4 THE COURT: Well, but let me ask you, the 2014 case,
5 did he have a bond? Did he violate the bond? Or was he 6 detained pretrial?

7 MS. GUZMAN: I do not have that information, your 8 Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 MS. GUZMAN: I do not have that information.

11 So with regards to this case, again, being limited only
12 to the flight risk issue, I think those are the pertinent
13 issues that I would suggest to the Court, that the nature of 14 the offense, his ties to other countries, his possession of 15 travel documents would be something that the Court should look
16 at, address and deny him conditions of release on that issue, 17 since I'm not in a position to argue the danger to the 18 community.

19 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Mr. Beaton?

20 MR. BEATON: Thank you, your Honor.

21 First of all, obviously, Mr. Jean-Jacques is a United 22 States citizen. He has resided in Miami since 2006. He has 23 significant family ties, including his father, his mother,
24 several siblings and four children.

25 As the Court is --

1 THE COURT: All residing in Miami. Correct?

2 MR. BEATON: They do reside in Miami.

3 As the Court is aware, the burden that the Government
4 must carry under 3142 --

5 THE COURT: Is preponderance.

6 MR. BEATON: -- is preponderance. But it's a
7 preponderance that there are no conditions or combination of 8 conditions that will reasonably secure his appearance.

9 THE COURT: Correct.

10 MR. BEATON: So they must exclude all conditions or 11 combination of conditions.

12 And notably, Pretrial Services did recommend a bond in 13 this case with conditions that your Honor and other courts in 14 our district commonly impose, report to Pretrial Services to 15 surrender -- as directed, surrender passports, continue with 16 current mental health provider, avoid contact with 17 Co-Defendants. And you'll see the list there. I'm not going
18 to read it out for the Court.

19 And the Court, I think, had its finger on the right
20 questions. I'm asking the Court not to consider any of those
21 priors identified in the Pretrial Services report. There is no
22 evidence of what they are. There's not even case numbers with 23 which to verify them.

24 And I will also note, as the Court noted, that there
25 were no violations in the 2014 case. Also, the --

1 THE COURT: Do you know if your client was out on bond
2 during that 2014 case prior to trial?

3 MR. BEATON: I don't know.

4 (Confers with the Defendant privately.)

5 What I'm understanding from Mr. Jean-Jacques is that he
6 waived the pretrial detention hearing in that case and the case
7 was resolved relatively [inaudible].

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MR. BEATON: But yeah. So --

10 THE COURT: When you say no violations, there was no
11 petition to revoke his supervised release while he was on 12 supervised release in the 2014 case. Is that what you mean?

13 MR. BEATON: That's correct. And I apologize.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. BEATON: So -- and, your Honor, as to the weight of 16 the evidence -- and I think the weight of the evidence is one
17 of those factors that is not at the top of the list -- the 18 evidence on this record is that -- there's almost no proof of 19 the loss amount. There's no proof as to Mr. Jean-Jacques, of 20 things that he said or did. There's characterizations, and I
21 think that's what the record establishes.

22 With regards to coming to the door, 15 minutes is --
23 and I respect law enforcement's perspective. I have law
24 enforcement in my family. They prefer everybody come to the 25 door. But I know what I tell my clients, is if that happens,

1 call me. And so the fact that there's a 15-minute delay while
2 someone does that internally is not unreasonable, and I don't
3 think it suggests risk of flight.

4 I think there is a bond that the Court can impose with
5 other conditions, maybe electronic monitoring, that would help
6 assure the Defendant's appearance as required.

7 And that's it, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Rebuttal?

9 MS. GUZMAN: Your Honor, I have no additional rebuttal.
10 I obviously have made my argument to the Court with regards to 11 our position as to, again, only flight risk. And I don't have 12 anything else to add.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Beaton, I neglected to ask 14 before when you were discussing proposed bond conditions, is 15 there a cosigner who is willing to cosign on a bond for him?

16 MR. BEATON: So I have -- I have been in some 17 communication with the family. I've spoken with one brother.
18 They weren't here this morning because we had anticipated not
19 proceeding this morning on it. I cannot confirm for the Court
20 that I have spoken with someone that is willing to cosign.

21 Mr. Jean-Jacques has indicated to me, however, that he 22 spoke with his mother last night, who did tell him that she 23 would agree to cosign the bond.

24 THE COURT: Okay. But you anticipated that you were 25 not going to have this detention hearing this morning, that it

1 was going to be held in the District of Massachusetts, and you
2 didn't make the phone calls to find out before today's hearing?
3 Is that what I understand?

4 MR. BEATON: That is -- yes, Judge.

5 THE COURT: Okay. And if he were released on bond,
6 Mr. Beaton, where would he live?

7 MR. BEATON: He would live with his mother, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Okay. All right. The Court must determine
9 whether the Government has met its burden of proving that no
10 condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure 11 the Defendant's appearance as required. As to appearance in 12 court, the Government's burden is by a preponderance of the 13 evidence, meaning that it is more likely than not.

14 The Court first assesses the extent of any risk and 15 then turns to whether any condition or combination of 16 conditions would reasonably mitigate that risk.

17 Looking to the nature and circumstances of the offenses
18 here, other than what is alleged in the indictment involving 19 the PPP loan, we know other information has been proffered to 20 me as to the -- or provided through testimony or evidence as to 21 the circumstances involving that criminal conduct. And as it
22 relates to the -- what I'll call the mortgage fraud indictment,
23 there was certainly more information that was proffered. And 24 certainly both offenses are serious offenses.

25 But I will note that a mortgage fraud -- the overt acts

1 seem to be older conduct, although the conspiracy does range
2 through 2025.

3 And looking at the weight of the evidence against the 4 Defendant, there was really very little outside of what's in 5 the indictment that was actually proffered here in court.

6 It's very difficult for the Court to assess based on 7 the current record established here in court whether or not the 8 weight of the evidence against this particular Defendant is 9 strong.

10 Certainly I think on cross-examination, there were some 11 points that were brought out as to indicate that perhaps this 12 is a case where it is a defensible case. And there wasn't 13 anything outside of, really, the four corners of the indictment
14 that was presented here to me to indicate whether or not this 15 is a -- it's uncharacteristic for a detention hearing to 16 proceed in this manner. I'm used to this proceeding by proffer
17 where the Government provides a ton of details about the 18 investigation. But this is not a case where we see a ton of 19 details about the investigation to really understand how strong
20 the Government's case is or not.

21 So on that particular -- in that regard, I find that 22 the evidence is not particularly strong and that factor does
23 not particularly weigh in favor of finding that he will not
24 abide by the terms of any bond that I could impose.

25 Turning to his history and characteristics, I actually

1 find the Defendant has mitigating factors as well as factors
2 that weigh against him in his personal history and
3 characteristics. Certainly he has a prior conviction for theft
4 of public funds that is 12 years old for which he was convicted
5 and he served 24 months' imprisonment. And that is a
6 significant factor to consider.

7 He was on three years of supervised release, that he 8 was not -- Probation did not seek to violate him for that 9 period -- during his period of supervised release.

10 Nonetheless, I do recognize that there are allegations
11 here from the Government that at least in the last seven months
12 or so of his supervised release he was already engaging in this 13 conspiracy.

14 And so those factors do weigh against the Defendant.

15 Looking to his family ties to the community, though, I
16 do find that there are many mitigating factors here. You know,
17 he's a United States citizen. He's been a naturalized citizen
18 since 2016. Although he was born in Haiti, his roots here in 19 this country date back to, according to the Pretrial Services
20 report, 1996. So he's actually lived in the United States for 21 30 of his 38 years.

22 And he's been rooted here in Miami since 2006. That's 23 20 years that he's been rooted here in Miami. And he has a lot
24 of family ties here in Miami. His mother lives here and owns a
25 residence here; his father lives here; he has multiple siblings

1 who live here; and he's got his children who live here as well
2 in Miami.

3 So I recognize that he has significant family ties here
4 in this jurisdiction, even though he does have some family
5 located in Haiti.

6 I have considered the Government's proffer and
7 testimony related to his 15-minute delay in coming to the door.
8 And while that is a delay, he didn't immediately present
9 himself to law enforcement is an indication that perhaps he was 10 not immediately cooperative. This is not a situation as far as 11 the evidence I was presented where he barricaded himself in or 12 law enforcement had to go in and get him, where he took off
13 from the residence and tried to flee from law enforcement.

14 So I don't think that a 15-minute delay in coming to 15 the door is particularly concerning as to whether or not he's 16 going to appear here in court.

17 With regard to his foreign travel, although the 18 Government pointed out that he declined to provide information
19 about his foreign travel, the burden here is not on the 20 Defendant. The burden here is on the Government to provide me
21 evidence. And the Government had the opportunity and could 22 have pulled his travel records and told me anything about his 23 foreign travel.

24 Based on the current record, I don't have any 25 information that he's traveled in the last ten years out of the

1 United States. And the burden's on the Government to do so.

2 Now, on balance here, based on the current record, I
3 think there are bond conditions that I can impose in this case
4 that can reasonably assure his appearance in court and that he
5 will appear in the District of Massachusetts.

6 But I recognize that his brother for whatever reason
7 indicated that he was not willing to be a cosigner, but 8 Mr. Beaton has indicated to me that his mother is willing to 9 serve as a cosigner. And the Pretrial Services report reflects
10 that the brother did report that the mother would possibly be 11 willing to be a cosigner, and that is consistent with what 12 Mr. Beaton has proffered here in court.

13 I would like, however, Mr. Beaton, to get the mother on 14 the phone so that I can colloquy her and make sure that she 15 understands what she'd be agreeing to by being a cosigner.

16 So, Mr. Beaton, can you please get her on the phone?

17 MR. BEATON: I can try.

18 (Pause in the audio recording.)

19 MR. BEATON: As the Court heard, it went to voicemail.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Well, here's what we're going to do:
21 I'm going to require that the mother be a cosigner or another
22 person who is acceptable to the Government, where he will not
23 be able to bond out until he has the cosigner who has signed.

24 Typically, I have the cosigner here in court. I
25 understand that there was a belief that you were not going to

1 have this hearing here this morning, and that's why family
2 members were not here in court, according to Mr. Beaton.

3 But I'm going to require that the mother, Nirva
4 Jean-Jacques, be a cosigner; or alternatively, if for whatever
5 reason she's not willing to be a cosigner, that another family
6 member cosign on the loan. But the Government must agree to 7 the alternative cosigner.

8 Okay. So let's talk about bond conditions in this 9 case. And, Ms. Guzman, let me hear from you as far as what are 10 bond conditions that the Government would like me to consider.
11 Would you like me to -- are you asking me to consider the 12 possibility of a percentage bond versus a personal surety bond?
13 Let me hear from you on that.

14 MS. GUZMAN: I am not --

15 THE COURT: And then we'll talk about special 16 conditions, too. Right now, I'm just talking about the actual 17 bond itself.

18 MS. GUZMAN: I'm not asking for a surety bond. I don't
19 know that the Defendant has the resources for an actual surety
20 bond. It looks like --

21 THE COURT: No. A personal surety bond. So in our
22 district -- I know the Middle District does it differently -- a
23 personal surety bond is, I think, maybe what you all call an 24 unsecured bond.

25 MS. GUZMAN: Oh, okay.

1 THE COURT: A [inaudible] bond.

2 MS. GUZMAN: Yes. I'm sorry.

3 THE COURT: This is a percentage bond.

4 MS. GUZMAN: Correct.

5 I think probably something along the lines, because of 6 the loss amount, if the Court would consider at least a $25,000
7 surety bond.

8 THE COURT: Personal surety?

9 MS. GUZMAN: Personal surety. Correct.

10 THE COURT: Oh, it's going to make -- it's going to be 11 more than 25,000.

12 MS. GUZMAN: Okay. At least 25,000, based on the loss.

13 We would also suggest to the Court that perhaps some 14 kind of -- I don't know if it's termed "electronic monitoring"
15 here in the Southern District of Florida, but some type of 16 electronic monitoring perhaps would be appropriate in this 17 case.

18 He apparently is currently seeing a mental health
19 provider. Probation -- Pretrial recommends that he continue
20 seeing his mental health provider. I think that that would be 21 an appropriate condition for the Court to consider.

22 Obviously, surrender all passports, if he has a U.S.
23 passport, to surrender his passport during the pendency of this
24 matter. And obviously, not obtain any additional travel
25 documents during the pendency of this matter.

1 One of the conditions suggested by Pretrial that I
2 would certainly urge the Court to consider is that he not be
3 employed where there's access to credit cards or where the 4 Defendant has any type of PII, or any type of personal
5 identifying information, available.

6 Obviously, there are Co-Defendants in this case. So
7 any -- to avoid any contact with additional Co-Defendants
8 during the course of this case, except through counsel.
9 Obviously, there may be meetings with counsel for other
10 matters.

11 They've also indicated here to refrain from possessing 12 a firearm, destructive device or other dangerous weapon. He's 13 not charged with a violent offense in this case. However, that 14 would not be a bad condition.

15 There is a restraining order, as the Court noted -- as 16 I note in the Pretrial Services report. We didn't argue it,
17 because we weren't arguing danger. But there is apparently an 18 existing restraining order that was filed by a girlfriend and 19 that applies to the girlfriend and his child that I think is 20 still applicable.

21 So I think a condition that he refrain from any 22 firearms or destructive devices or dangerous weapons would be 23 an appropriate condition.

24 And then of course travel. If the Court would restrict 25 his travel from the Southern District of Florida to the

1 District of Massachusetts. I don't know exactly how the Court
2 would do that in the Southern District of Florida. I mean,
3 obviously, he's going to have to appear for court appearances
4 in Boston in the District of Massachusetts, so he's going to 5 have to travel there either by vehicle or plane.

6 THE COURT: What it typically is is that you restrict 7 their travel, but -- to go to court up in Massachusetts. But
8 obviously, the plane has to fly from here to Massachusetts.

9 MS. GUZMAN: Right.

10 THE COURT: Well, he's allowed to --

11 MS. GUZMAN: Right.

12 THE COURT: -- to cover all those jurisdictions by 13 plane or by rail or by car, however he gets there. But it's 14 only going to be for driving from here to Massachusetts to go
15 to court and then back.

16 MS. GUZMAN: Yes, your Honor. Thank you.

17 And that would be another condition that we would think 18 would be appropriate in this case.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MS. GUZMAN: Other than that, and as the Court has 21 noted, a co-signature with either his mother or another
22 individual that would be appropriate, I think is also an 23 appropriate condition.

24 THE COURT: All right. And the electronic monitoring
25 request, is that -- are you asking for him to have a curfew or

1 any restrictions that are tied to the electronic monitoring?

2 MS. GUZMAN: I mean, I think that a curfew would be
3 appropriate. I don't know, again -- please excuse, your Honor,
4 because in the Middle District of Florida usually Pretrial
5 Services is at the hearings and they advise the Court.

6 THE COURT: They are here.

7 MS. GUZMAN: Oh, they are here.

8 THE COURT: Officer García is here.

9 MS. GUZMAN: I did not know. Thank you. I'm sorry.

10 Whether any type of electronic monitoring would be 11 feasible or appropriate in this case. I mean, it would add an 12 additional layer to the Defendant remaining within the 13 jurisdiction and not traveling, unless it's obviously to go to 14 court. We would urge the Court to consider that, if feasible,
15 and something that is feasible with U.S. Pretrial.

16 If not, then certainly at least a curfew would be 17 something that we would urge the Court to include in his 18 conditions.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MS. GUZMAN: Other than that, I think I have covered
21 pretty much the conditions we think that would be appropriate
22 and also mirror what U.S. Pretrial has suggested in the 23 Pretrial Services report.

24 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Beaton, let me hear from 25 you on any proposed bond conditions.

1 MR. BEATON: It is interesting how just a district away
2 that things are so different.

3 THE COURT: Yes.

4 MR. BEATON: And I do get a chance to practice in other
5 places, and it's almost a different language.

6 So what we would propose is a $100,000 personal surety
7 bond, cosigned by the mother or by some other person that is
8 acceptable to the Government.

9 When I heard the Government say travel restrictions
10 between the Southern District and the District of 11 Massachusetts, fair. Surrender travel documents, fair.
12 Continue mental health treatment, appropriate.

13 But I think the Court wanted to address now the meat of 14 the monetary amount. And if you have any other questions, I'm 15 happy to answer them.

16 THE COURT: Sure. Was there anything else you wanted
17 to address with regard to the bond?

18 MR. BEATON: In terms of bond amount, I think that's 19 it. If the Court is inclined to impose electronic monitoring,
20 I'm happy to address that.

21 THE COURT: Yes. You actually proposed electronic 22 monitoring when you were --

23 MR. BEATON: I did.

24 THE COURT: -- in your argument.

25 MR. BEATON: So if you're going to accept our proposal,

1 then what has worked with Pretrial Services -- and Officer
2 Garcia is the best person to speak to this -- but there is a
3 monitoring that leaves it to their discretion on the technology
4 to be used. And to the extent the Court is going to impose
5 electronic monitoring, that's what I would propose.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Officer García, let me hear from you
7 on the electronic monitoring issue. Obviously, I know that's 8 not something that Pretrial Services recommended in their
9 report. But it is something that I'm inclined to order in this 10 case in light of the fact that, you know, the brother seemed 11 hesitant about cosigning on a bond, and so that gives me a
12 little bit of pause. And I would like a little bit more 13 assurances and -- in light of the fact that he does have the 14 prior federal conviction.

15 So -- but I do want to hear from Pretrial Services in 16 terms of what they would recommend for electronic monitoring
17 for him.

18 THE PRETRIAL SERVICES OFFICER: Judge, we're not 19 recommending any type of electronic monitoring. But we would 20 like a cosigner to execute the bond prior to release.

21 Now, that's our position. And it is -- to answer the 22 Government's question, it is feasible. We handle location
23 monitoring, we call it, or electronic monitoring in cases all
24 the time. So we can do that if the Court does order it.

25 But that's not our recommendation. But we would like a

1 cosigner.

2 THE COURT: Yes. No. There's definitely going to be a
3 cosigner.

4 THE PRETRIAL SERVICES OFFICER: Absolutely.

5 THE COURT: But my question about electronic
6 monitoring -- I'm going to impose it. So my question is: I
7 know typically you don't do standalone electronic monitoring,
8 because usually it's tethered to a curfew or some other
9 conditions.

10 THE PRETRIAL SERVICES OFFICER: Right.

11 THE COURT: So what would your recommendation,
12 practical recommendation, be in that regard?

13 THE PRETRIAL SERVICES OFFICER: Your Honor, actually,
14 the bond papers in the Southern District were recently changed
15 in the past couple of years. And it does include now
16 standalone monitoring. So basically, standalone monitoring is 17 no restrictions other than the fact that we could track if he 18 were to flee the district. That's really the only 19 restrictions. No real restriction.

20 So in that case, if you were -- if the Court were
21 asking what type of monitoring, I would say standalone
22 monitoring with the technology to be determined by us. And 23 that recommendation is coming from the fact that we frankly
24 didn't recommend the monitoring, but I was glad to answer the 25 Court's question.

1 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well, thank you. I
2 appreciate that. And I understand that that wasn't one of the 3 recommendations. That is something that I am recommending to 4 myself.

5 So here's what the bond is going to be: It's going to 6 be a $100,000 personal surety bond. I do think that that is an
7 appropriate amount for a personal surety bond in this case.
8 Given the potential exposure in this case with the guideline
9 range, I think it's important that there be a more substantive
10 bond in the amount of $100,000 in this case.

11 Also, for further assurances that he will appear in 12 court as required, I'm going to require that his mother be the 13 cosigner unless for whatever reason she cannot cosign. Then 14 there's going to be another family member that will be
15 acceptable to the Government.

16 So, Mr. Beaton, obviously, you'll have to talk to the 17 mom first. And if for whatever reason, you can talk to one of 18 the other siblings or family members and check with the AUSA
19 and make sure that that is acceptable.

20 He will not be able to bond out, though, until the bond
21 paperwork is returned with the signatures of the cosigners.

22 So, Mr. Jean-Jacques, I want you to listen closely to 23 what your standard conditions of your bond and your special
24 conditions are to make sure you don't violate any of them.

25 All right. So first of all, standard conditions of

1 your bond: You are not to violate any state, local or federal
2 laws while you are out on bond.

3 If DNA collection is required by law, you are to 4 participate in DNA collection.

5 You must -- you will be living at -- let me ask you
6 this. The address is on the Pretrial report, 801 Northeast
7 156th Terrace. Is that your mom's house or is that a different
8 location?

9 THE DEFENDANT: That's my mama. That's my location.
10 Yes.

11 THE COURT: That's your mother's house?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Okay. So then you will continue residing 14 at that address that is on the Pretrial report while you are 15 out on bond.

16 Also, I need to advise you that if you fail to appear
17 at any required court appearances, that is a separate federal 18 offense for failure to appear and it is punishable by up to 19 five years in prison and a fine of up to $250,000.

20 Now let's go over the special conditions of your bond.
21 You are to report to Pretrial Services as often as the officer
22 directs you to report. You are to surrender your passport. So
23 that U.S. passport that you have, you need to turn it over to 24 the Pretrial Services officer. And while you are out on bond,
25 you cannot apply for any other travel documents. Do not apply

1 for any passports, visas or anything while you are out on this
2 bond.

3 You are also to participate in a mental health
4 assessment and treatment, if necessary, or continue
5 participating in that treatment.

6 With regard to employment, I'm going to give you an
7 employment restriction. You may continue working. However,
8 you cannot have any jobs where you have access to credit cards
9 or the personal identification information of other
10 individuals.

11 You are to avoid having contact with the Co-Defendants
12 for both cases. Right? Because I think you have different
13 Co-Defendants in each case. So in one case, let me see -- yes.
14 You have different Co-Defendants in your cases. So you cannot 15 have any contact with any of the Co-Defendants either in 16 Criminal Case 26-MJ-2277 or in 26-MJ-2278.

17 You are to refrain from possessing a firearm or any 18 other dangerous device. So to the extent that you have any 19 kind of device like that, you need to make sure that you --
20 make sure it is not in the home where you reside.

21 Also, none of -- whoever the cosigner is on the bond
22 cannot encumber, mortgage or hypothecate in any way any real
23 property that they own. So if your mom is the cosigner and 24 your mom owns her house, which according to the Pretrial
25 Services report she does, your mom cannot get a second mortgage

1 on the home; she cannot sell the home or cannot do anything to
2 encumber the title on that home, as would be true for any other
3 cosigner who may be -- cosign your bond in lieu of your mother.

4 Your travel also is going to be restricted from the 5 Southern District of Florida to the District of Massachusetts.
6 And you can only travel to the District of Massachusetts for 7 the purpose of appearing in court. And you'll have to notify
8 your Pretrial Services officer anytime you're going to leave
9 the district to go to Massachusetts for court. If you have any 10 questions about what the geographic boundaries are of the 11 Southern District of Florida, ask your Pretrial Services
12 officer to make sure you don't go outside the boundaries of the 13 Southern District of Florida.

14 And then the last requirement that I'm going to impose
15 is that you have standalone electronic monitoring. And the 16 standalone electronic monitoring is going to be determined,
17 the -- the technology will be determined by the Pretrial
18 Services officer, which means you're going to have some kind of 19 GPS or ankle monitor that's going to monitor your whereabouts
20 at all times.

21 But you will not have a curfew or other restriction as 22 to what time you need to be back at your mother's residence.

23 All right. Ms. Guzman, did I leave out any other
24 conditions?

25 MS. GUZMAN: No, your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Beaton, anything further on the
2 subject of bond?

3 MR. BEATON: No, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MR. BEATON: And did I hear you say to report to 6 Pretrial Services as directed?

7 THE COURT: As directed. Correct.

8 MR. BEATON: Okay.

9 THE COURT: And, Officer García, did I leave anything
10 out?

11 THE PRETRIAL SERVICES OFFICER: Did the Court order him
12 to appear in the District of Massachusetts?

13 THE COURT: Oh, yes. He would have to appear -- but 14 let me ask Ms. Guzman, do we have any information about when he 15 has an initial appearance?

16 MS. GUZMAN: Your Honor, I do not. I did not get that 17 from the assistant United States attorney in Boston. I did
18 ask. She did not have it.

19 And perhaps this is not the appropriate time, but she
20 also asked that if the Court did consider conditions of release
21 in this case, whether the Court would consider a one-week stay
22 for her to appeal to the district court in Boston. That was 23 her request.

24 THE COURT: So is she -- well, is she intending to 25 appeal?

1 MS. GUZMAN: She indicated to me that if the Defendant
2 were to receive conditions of release, which she understood
3 could happen if he had a hearing, that she was requesting that 4 the Court consider a one-week stay because she intended to 5 appeal it to the Court in the District of Massachusetts.

6 THE COURT: Well, I'm not -- we don't give a one-week
7 in this district.

8 MS. GUZMAN: Okay.

9 THE COURT: She can have until close of business on 10 Tuesday to file that notice of appeal. And if she doesn't file
11 it by close of business on Tuesday, then we'll assume that the 12 District of Massachusetts has chosen not to appeal the ruling
13 and the decision to grant the Defendant a bond.

14 So at that point in time -- and in either event, we're
15 going to be waiting for the cosigner to sign the paperwork.

16 But -- well, hold on. Today's Friday. Monday's a
17 holiday. She has until close of business on Wednesday. I'm 18 sorry. I usually give -- I give two business days for it. So
19 it will be stayed until close of business on Wednesday, which 20 is February 18th.

21 MS. GUZMAN: Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Okay. February 18th. Yes.

23 All right. So, Mr. Jean-Jacques, what that means for 24 you is that the Government is considering appealing my ruling,
25 which they'll have to do in the District of Massachusetts. My

1 ruling is going to be stayed from now until Wednesday at 5:00
2 p.m. If the Government appeals me, then the District of
3 Massachusetts will have to take up the decision. If the 4 Government chooses not to appeal me, then your bond will go
5 into effect; and as long as you satisfy all the bond conditions
6 and you have the cosigners, under those circumstances you would
7 be able to bond out. Okay?

8 You will be required, if you are able -- if -- assuming 9 they don't appeal me and my order stands, you're going to be 10 required to appear in court in Massachusetts. Right now, we 11 don't have a date for that. So the United States is going to 12 have to be in contact with your attorney and Pretrial Services
13 to notify them of when you need to appear in court in 14 Massachusetts for your initial appearance. Okay?

15 All right. Mr. Beaton, make sure -- we're going to 16 need one bond for each case. So make sure you have two bond
17 forms prepared.

18 MR. BEATON: I'm doing that now.

19 And this may not be the appropriate venue in which to 20 ask, but it raises an issue for me that if the Government does 21 appeal, I am appointed under a magistrate number by you for 22 purposes of this removal hearing. I continue on that 23 representation on that appeal or do I -- or does someone in 24 Massachusetts take over that representation? And by -- I don't 25 know the answer either.

1 THE COURT: I don't know the answer to that, because
2 you're here as CJA.

3 Officer García, you're nodding your head. Do you know
4 the answer?

5 THE PRETRIAL SERVICES OFFICER: No, Judge. I was
6 saying, good point. I've never seen this before.

7 THE COURT: You know what? We're going to have to find
8 out. I don't know if your appointment here would include the 9 appeal to the District of Massachusetts, because you're also -- 10 I don't know if -- are you barred up there? Can you even 11 appeal up there?

12 MR. BEATON: I'm not, but I mean, I'm pro hac vice in 13 other places. So it creates -- it creates a little bit of a 14 conundrum.

15 THE COURT: Here's what I suggest. It does happen.
16 I've never had -- I haven't had it happen before me. My 17 suggestion is perhaps inquire over at the Federal Public
18 Defender who's in charge of the CJA panel, and I'm sure they 19 have seen this come up. I just don't know what the answer
20 is --

21 MR. BEATON: I don't either.

22 THE COURT: -- to tell you right now.

23 MR. BEATON: I know that is an issue, and I wanted to 24 make sure that Mr. Jean-Jacques had somebody to help him in the 25 event that --

1 THE COURT: Yes. Yes. Certainly. That is important.
2 He needs to have counsel. But I'm sure that the folks who
3 oversee the CJA have seen this come up and can immediately give 4 you the answer to that. But we will need to make sure that he
5 has representation should an appeal be filed. Yes.

6 MR. BEATON: Yes, ma'am.

7 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Is there anything
8 further before we recess?

9 MS. GUZMAN: No, your Honor. Thank you.

10 THE COURT: All right. So can I enter the order of 11 removal now or do I need to wait until after with regard to if 12 they're going to file the appeal? I should probably wait.

13 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: [Inaudible] hold off.

14 THE COURT: Okay. So I'm not going to enter the 15 removal order just yet. I'm going to wait until close of 16 business on Wednesday to enter the removal order, because after 17 that we lose jurisdiction over the case and I'm staying my 18 order. So I'm going to hold on to entering the order of 19 removal until that happens and until I get the bond paperwork
20 so that I can continue to have jurisdiction over this case.
21 Okay, folks?

22 MS. GUZMAN: Yes, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: And as soon as I see whether or not the 24 Government is appealing my ruling, then I'll make sure that I
25 sign the removal order, and that way they can -- the whole case

1 can be transferred up to Massachusetts, and that way the judge
2 in Massachusetts can do whatever he or she is going to do with 3 regard to the ruling.

4 Okay, folks. Well, thank you so much. Have a lovely
5 weekend. We'll be in recess.

6 MS. GUZMAN: Thank you.

7 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: All rise. Court is adjourned.
