<<< EXTERNAL EMAIL >>>

Dear Manju Gupta,

We are writing today regarding your FOIA request, received in this office on May 8, 2023, and assigned case number SBA-2023-003385. The estimated costs of processing your FOIA request exceed your current willingness to pay $50.00. We estimate processing fees to total $100.00. Please note this fee estimate is subject to change depending on the volume of responsive records.

Please reply to this correspondence by providing written assurance of your willingness to pay $100.00 no later than September 18, 2023. Alternatively, you may do one of the following: 1) ask us to process your request up to the amount you have previously agreed to pay ($50.00); 2) reduce the scope of your request to limit the amount of time and/or duplication that would be required to process your request, such that processing fees do not exceed the amount you have agreed to pay; or 3) withdraw your request. According to our regulations, if we do not receive your written response within 20 business days from the date of this letter, we will consider you to no longer be interested in pursuing your request, and we will close the case file in this office. See Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) 40 03 3, "Disclosure of Information" (August 4, 2004)..

If you are not satisfied with this action, you may appeal this decision to the Chief, Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts Office, U.S. Small Business Administration, 409 Third St., SW, Washington, DC 20416. You must submit an appeal within 90 calendar days of the date of the notice of denial. The appeal should contain a description of the information requested and denied, the name and title of the SBA official or employee who denied the request, the reason for the denial, and any other facts you deem appropriate.

Please be advised that the 2007 FOIA amendments created the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) to offer mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. Using OGIS services does not affect your right to pursue litigation.
