Case No. 6:21-cv-975-PGB-DCI

District Judge Paul Byron

Magistrate Judge Daniel Irick

PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE OF INTERNATIONAL FLIGHT REBOOKING FROM DEC. 1 TO DEC. 10

COMES NOW plaintiff, pro se, and asks the Court to please TAKE NOTICE that my United Airlines flight from Orlando to Frankfurt, Germany, to visit my brother and his wife has been rebooked from Dec. 1 to Dec. 10 since the Court has not yet ruled on my Motion for Summary Judgment (Doc. 83).

I informed the Court on Oct. 21 that I had a ticket booked from Orlando to Frankfurt on Dec. 1. Doc. 162-1. However, the Court still has not ruled on my Motion for Summary Judgment, preventing me from flying yesterday. Therefore, I had to change that reservation to Dec. 10 – and I will continue to change it every 10 days until this Court strikes down the ultra vires Federal Transportation Mask Mandate (“FTMM”) and International Traveler Testing Requirement (“ITTR”). The Court is well aware I have been trying to visit my family in Germany since July, yet have been consistently blocked by the Federal Defendants because of the FTMM and ITTR. And sadly the Court has taken no action to vacate the challenged mandates so that I may see my brother and sister-in-law who reside overseas.

I file this Notice because the magistrate judge and the Federal Defendants improperly allege I lack standing to challenge the ITTR because I don't have an international flight booked. As I argued in my objections to the pending Report & Recommendation (Doc. 155), I already suffered concrete injuries giving me Article III standing to challenge the ITTR when I was unable to take prior booked flights to Germany because of the unlawful ITTR (as well as FTMM). Doc. 171 at 29-30. Even so, I maintain that standing because of my future booked ticket to visit Germany, despite the Federal Defendants' argument in the response to my objections they filed yesterday. Doc. 172 at 17-19.

I will continue filing a Notice every 10 days or so as I rebook my ticket to Germany until the Court decides my Motion for Summary Judgment or informs me that I have Article III standing to challenge the ITTR based on my past flight denials and therefore submitting a Notice every time I rebook my ticket is unnecessary.

Respectfully submitted this 2nd day of December 2021.
