FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
ORLANDO DIVISION

LUCAS WALL,

Plaintiff,

V.

Defendants.

Case No. 6:21-cv-975-PGB-DCI

District Judge Paul Byron

Magistrate Judge Daniel Irick

PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE OF INTERNATIONAL FLIGHT REBOOKING FROM JAN. 10 TO JAN. 23

COMES NOW plaintiff, pro se, and asks the Court to please TAKE NOTICE that my United Airlines flight from Orlando to Frankfurt, Germany, to visit my brother and his wife has been rebooked from Jan. 10 to Jan. 23 since the Court was unable to rule on my Motion for Preliminary Injunction (Doc. 191) by the requested date of Jan. 8. Given this sixth or so – it is becoming hard to keep track – change to my flight to Germany to see my family (originally scheduled in June 2021), I continue to suffer irreparable harm of being deprived of my freedom of movement.

I now ask the Court to issue a decision on the Motion for Preliminary Injunction no later than Friday, Jan. 21, so I do not have to make yet another change to my ticket and continue to miss important time with my family who reside abroad – relatives I have not seen in more than two years solely due to COVID-19 travel restrictions including the Federal Transportation Mask Mandate and International Traveler Testing Requirement. I hope this additional two weeks will allow the Court sufficient time to decide this critically important matter.

Respectfully submitted this 10th day of January 2022.
